

The news was received here shortly before noon, and created some little excitement. The college bell was rung and the people upon the streets gathered in groups to talk the situation over. The partisan character of the measure was still in evidence, as was shown by the fact that few asked what the result would be on temperance, but always what the result would be on the political question. So far as the Democrats of the majority are concerned the matter is now history. The temperance Democrats were in favor of their own methods of solving the question. They were doubtful of the power of the Republican measure to bring the result promised. Now that the rival method has won they cease their opposition, and will join heartily in attempting to secure results. No one wishes to repeal it. All temperance men hope it will succeed as the Republicans promised. They will not work against it. They will work for it. Should the Democrats remember the insults heaped upon them by Republican speakers from Watson down, and refuse to aid, they have no chance. But we are not to forget history. So far as the Democrats concerned the issue is closed, and with their help.

Methodists Easily Win Both Football Games Saturday Afternoon — Unexpected Stars Appear in Both Varsity and Prep.

3 TOUCHDOWNS TO GREENSTREET

Saturday proved to be a successful day for Old Gold. Not only did the preps defeat the Ladoga moleskin artists 11 to 0, but also the Varsity "skunked" the Franklinites to the tune of 20 to 0.

In fact there were practically three victories—the preps over the Ladoga High School, the Varsity over Franklin and the DePauw Second team over the same Baptist team for during the last half of the Varsity game there were no regular Varsity men playing.

As a curtain raiser to the Varsity-Franklin game the DePauw Academy played the Ladoga High School team.
This game proved to be an easy one,
as the preps were not only heavier than their opponents, but they had received better coaching and practice.
However, the game showed that the prep team is still full of stars and that, with more practice and coaching, they will give some team a hard race for state championship. The game was at no time in any danger as the preps won their 11 points during the first half of the contest and then Captain Long chose to try out his squad rather than run up the score. Spurgeon at full, Tucker at quarter and Burnside at guard were the main lights of the game.

With the Varsity it was the same program. Within five minutes of play Greenstreet was shoved between the posts for the first goal,
and in six more minutes of quarterback runs and line bucks, the pigskin was once more placed behind the line for the second touchdown.

The consistent ground gainers for DePauw were Vesey and Greenstreet and Grady. Capt. Jackson played a fine game at end.

HASKELL HAS RESIGNED

DuPont of the Republican Campaign Committee Also Resigns and Foraker Clamors for Taft's Resignation.

GREAT STIR IN POLITICAL CAMP

Governor Haskell, of Oklahoma,
National Treasurer of the Democratic Campaign Committee, has resigned his position. The resignation is due to the charges preferred against him by Hearst and President Roosevelt. He does not, for a moment, admit that the charges are true, but resigns that no taint of corruption may rest upon the Democratic party.

Senator DuPont, chairman of the Republican Speaker's Bureau has also resigned from the Republican committee. DuPont is connected with the Powder Trust now being prosecuted by the government. He was sent to the senate by his trust friends to aid trust affairs. The campaign has become so warm that he now resigns.

Another startling incident of the day is the accusation by Senator Foraker, of Ohio, that Taft smells of oil and sugar. Foraker charges that Taft has been very close to the Standard Oil and to the Glass Trusts and other illegal combinations. He suggests that in the light of the action of Haskell and DuPont and himself when accused Taft should get off the ticket in order not to embarrass the Republican party.

DEATH OF MILTON HILLIS

The death of Milton Hillis, one of Putnam County's most popular farmers, occurred at his home just north of Town Thursday of typhoid fever. Mr. Hillis had been ill for several weeks and for several days had been in a most critical condition.
The death of Mr. Hillis occurred at near 9 o'clock.

He leaves a widow and four children. Mrs. Lee Reeves of this town is the only daughter. Roscoe, the youngest son, lives at home. John is employed by the American Express Company and Roy lives on the Hillis farm.

Mr. Hillis had lived in the north of town for about two years. Until two years ago he had been actively engaged in farming but he gave up active work at that time. The funeral was Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home.

A GARDEN PARTY

One of the most pleasant social events of the season was a garden party given Friday evening by Mr.
and Mrs. John Hodshire at their country home in honor of their son Ross. Suitable games were played after which delicious refreshments were served in the dining room. The room and table were beautifully decorated with the national flower, the golden rod. This color was very tastefully used throughout the evening. At a late hour the young people departed declaring to have had a very pleasant evening.

in the Court House at Greencastle
during the week of August 23 to 27.
The work will be along lines not heretofore taken up in this county,

Wilds, of Muncie, will discuss the literature of the Bible. Dr. Fred Mut-cher, of Bowling Green, Ky., will highly spoken of in their departments of study, and will, doubtless,

make the institute of 1909 one long
to be remembered.

COMMISSIONERS JOLLIFY

County Fathers Go to Indianapolis
Friday to Participate in the Meeting of the State Association of County Commissioners.

WAS MOST ENJOYABLE OCCASION

The commissioners of Putnam County met Friday, not to transact business for the county but to take a well-earned holiday. They were in Indianapolis at a meeting of the State Association of County Commissioners. All three of our Commissioners were present, Mr. Gardner and Mr. Raines remaining in Indianapolis till today. Mr. McCam-mack returning Friday night. A large attendance is reported from all parts of the state.

The association was treated to a unique dinner. It was served upon one of the beautiful new bridges in the north part of Indianapolis, and was a great success from both social and culinary point of view. The association will meet next year at Terre Haute.

SENDS KICINKINNIK HERE

Former Court Reporter Presents Box
Of Peculiar Western Shrub to Members of Greencastle Bar.

Fay S. Hamilton Friday received from Miss Maud Arnold, formerly court reporter here, and now in Colorado, a box of kicinkinnik, or Indian Tobacco. The shrub has small rounded leaves and bright red berries. It was gathered on the mountains some 25 miles from Denver,
where Miss Arnold has been camping for several weeks. She requests that members of the bar and the editors of the papers each be presented with a sprig of leaves and berries.

KNIGHT IS KNOCKED DOWN

Brazil Attorney Is Floored by Member of City Council in Row Over Interurban Matters.

A committee of the city council and Messrs. Grover and Holderman of the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern Traction Company, held a long session in the office of Engineer Fletcher Saturday in an effort to adjust the trouble arising over the fact that nine poles belonging to the company are located in the survey of the sidewalk on West National Avenue.

Arguments over the matter caused
A. W. Knight, it is claimed, to call Councilman Jack Jones a liar, whereupon Jones smashed Knight in the face, knocking him down.

Messrs. Holderman and Grover acted as peacemakers and separated
the two men.

An adjournment was taken without anything being accomplished and it is a difficult matter to conjecture just what the outcome will be, as the conference last night, it is claimed, did not diminish the ill feeling that now exists between the city and the traction company.—Brazil Times.

PROHIBITIONISTS OPPOSED

Temperance Party of Monroe County
Petition Representative Asking
Him to Fight County Option.

THEY FEAR FOR DRY TERRITORY

The Prohibition party of Indiana, recognized as the most radical temperance party in existence, is bitterly opposed to the county option plan of the Republican party. Petitions have been in circulation all over the state which are being signed and forwarded to the legislators at Indianapolis asking for them to vote for an amendment to the Constitution which would prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor in the state.

Thursday, local prohibition leaders mailed to Representative Hottel six petitions containing the names of over two hundred Monroe county voters asking him to vote for such an amendment.

Prohibitionists of the county have written letters to Mr. Hottel asking him to vote against the county option bill, as they do not think the measure would advance the temperance cause, believing that if a county should vote "wet" the entire county would have to be so, regardless of the fact that a ward or township might be "dry." Those who have been carrying the petitions in this county are John C. Hunter, Dr. W. S.
Simmons, W. H. H. Parks, Charles Junkin, George Galtner, William
Welsh, Homer Coater, James
Franklin, James H. Ransom.—

AS OTHERS SEE IT

The latest thing in the humorous line hails from Putnam County and it is a peacherina with a black-face capital "P". Oscar F. Lane, the man whom the Republicans of Putnam County drafted in filling the county ticket to run for representative on a forlorn hope, has telegraphed Representative D. B. Hostetter, the present Democratic Representative from Putnam County and candidate for re-election, that if he, (Hostetter) would vote for the Republican caucus county option bill, he (Lane) would withdraw as the Republican candidate and give Hostetter a clear field. It is to laugh, ha, ha. Hostetter immediately and indignantly informed Mr. Lane that he would never vote for the Republican measure and that he would have about as clear field with Lane on the Republican ticket as if he were to withdraw.
With a Normal Democratic majority in Putnam County of 500 to 800
what would Hostetter want with a clear field when the Democratic lan-slide this fall is certain to elect him
by a majority of anywhere from 1,000 up. The nerve of some people; Mr. Lane offering the Democratic candidate a clear field. Ha, ha, it is to laugh. Why, Harry Smith, we are surprised at you publishing such rubbish in the Banner.

acted beyond the approval of claims

ves of over $7,500,000.00, and is the Trust Company of the State and County Funds. This strong bank is the great central bank house of Indiana farmers. So extensive its business with country customers
it maintains a

Farmers' Banking Department

which gives to farmers throughout the state the same banking privileges enjoyed by manufacturers and merchants. It has a special department for the purpose of BANKING BY MAIL. This makes it easy for farmers to deposit
draw out money without leaving home.
The Indiana Trust Co. has a special time deposits or savings—"Time Bank." If you have money lying idle are losing interest money every day.
The experience of some of our best customers is interesting.

Interest Would Have Clothe Two for Three Years

One farmer, in making a $2,000 deposit said: "This $2,000 has been lying idle
three years. I regret that my money
was not called to your institution some
No wonder—for in that three years
$4,000 would have earned $300, which would have purchased a handsome
span of horses!"

Interest Would Have Paid for Handsome Span of Horses

Another farmer, who deposited $1,000
said: "This money has been lying idle
three years. I regret that my money
was not called to your institution some
No wonder—for in that three years
$4,000 would have earned $300, which
would have purchased a handsome
span of horses!"

An Education in Thrift

The Indiana Trust Co. encourages you folks on farms to save money. One dollar is enough to start an account. "You saved money earned"—and when your savings are deposited instead of being foolishly, they really earn 100 per cent.
Few people realize that $5.00 a month cents a day), with interest at 3%, amounts to $32.77 in 5 years, or $99.44 (practically $100 in 10 years). Put your savings in or small, the Indiana Trust Co. will them GROW!

FIRE IN CLOVERDALE SUNDAY

Residence of Mary J. Appleby, of Cloverdale, Totally Destroyed by Fire Sunday Afternoon. Building Was One of Putnam County's Landmarks, Being Over 60 Years Old.

The residence of Mary J. Appleby, northwest corner of Market and West Main Streets, was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday about one o'clock p. m. The structure was a one-story frame building erected over 60 years ago and being thoroughly seasoned the flames spread so rapidly that the bucket brigade was powerless to save the building, but did succeed in saving nearly all the household effects. Brands from the burning building were carried a distance of four squares. The houses of Mrs. M. A. Devore, Charles Hunter and Jesse McCoy caught fire but the flames were extinguished by men on the roofs of the buildings, before serious damage resulted. The contents of the building were insured for $100 which probably will cover the loss except for $50 cash which was burned. The building was insured for $500.

Senator Wood of Lafayette Addressed a Few Republicans and Many Empty Benches at the Court House Monday Night.

Either the Republicans of this town are surfeited with Republican doctrine, or are not interested in it, or did not believe that Senator Wood of Lafayette had the right brand, for few of them came out Monday night to hear him discuss the issues. There were just 88 men, women and children, by count in the room. The speaker dealt with the greatness of the Republican party, state and national, and declared that the people must elect the Republican state ticket or the Democrats would repeal the county option bill, a statement that sent smiles around the room, filled as it was with hard-shell Republicans.

OBITUARY

Milton Hillis.

In loving remembrance of Milton Hillis, who departed this life Thursday, September 24, 1908.

And now a gentle voice is hushed
A warm true heart is stilled,
And on thy loving tender brow,
Is resting death's cold chill.
Thy hands are clasped upon thy breast

We have viewed thy lovely brow
And in our aching hearts we know
Thy hard, so hard, the words:
We must forever part.
But dearest Lord, one we must lay to thee

In the peaceful graves embrace;
But thy memory we will cherish
Till we meet in Heaven's place.
We loved him, yes we loved him,
But Jesus loved him more,
And he more gently called him
To yonder shining shore.

A gentle voice said "Come",
And with farewell's spoken
He calmly entered home.
The Saviour called and he departed
He willed it for the best,
Although it leaves a broken hearted
Yet to know it is eternal rest.

But God in his wisdom has recalled
The boon his love had given
And though the body moulders here
The soul is safe in heaven.
And now there is one less friend on earth—
One more in Heaven.

Art thou so far, O dear one, thou dost not know
What wondering looks we lift unto thee, up there.

What visions of transcendent fairness grow
About thy likeness so familiar here,
What questioning thoughts of what thy life may be;

What varied tasks thy growing powers employ;
What fitness of sight and sound agree

To crown thy fullness of completed joy?
Nay, nay, thou art not far—we hold thee still.

Our souls catch music from thy spirit's tone;
Something upon our hearts clear dews distill

From wandering airs of that untroubled zone
Where thou dost range—thou dost not love us less.

That in our narrow bounds we cannot guess
To what great glory thou hast entered in.

O gentle spirit, who hast gained so much
Sometimes we pray thee when our hearts are sore,

Reach, pitying, down with healing in thy touch,
Inspire the faint, who faintest now no more.

Sometimes, when dangers thicken in our way,
Send to our shrinking souls a breath of cheer

That we may feel thee living day by day
Our loved one, who is so far and yet so near."

The funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Saturday, September 27, at Brick Chapel.

Emily Beard King

Emily Beard King was born April 23, 1855, and departed this life Tuesday, September 15, 1908 at 2 o'clock a. m. She leaves to mourn her demise a dear husband, two children, two sisters and many distant relatives and friends.

"We watched her breathing through the night
And prayed that she might go
As in her breast the wave of life
Kept heaving two and fro.

Our tears came then in showers,
Her quiet eyelids closed and then
She had another morn than ours.

Her dear, sweet smiles no more we see
No more her lips can kiss,
And, yet, what comfort 'tis to know
She reigns in Heavenly bliss.

Heaven now retains our treasure,
Earth her lonely casket keeps,
And the sunbeams long to linger
Where our darling mother sleeps.

The moonlight nights are beaming
Upon a silent grave
Where sleepeth now, without dreaming
One we loved but could not save.

Fondly loved by all who knew her,
Many farewell tears were shed,
Now her dreams of life are over
And her gentle spirit fled.

The golden gates were slowly opened
A gentle voice said softly, "Come,"
And from all thy pain and suffering
Try angel spirit entered home.

Gone from us, but not forgotten,
With aching hearts we are left behind;
But the thought that thou art happy
Bids us gently be resigned."

The funeral was preached at Little Walnut Baptist Church on Thursday, September 17, at 10:30 a. m. by the Rev. Collins. Burial at Little Walnut Baptist Cemetery.

WOMAN'S BACKACHE

The back is the mainspring of woman's organism. It quickly calls attention to trouble by aching. It tells, with other symptoms, such as nervousness, headache, pains in the loins, weight in the lower part of the body, that a woman's feminine organism needs immediate attention.

In such cases the one sure remedy which speedily removes the cause, and restores the feminine organism to a healthy, normal condition is

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Will Young, of 6 Columbia Ave., Rockland, Me., says:

"I was troubled for a long time with dreadful backaches and a pain in my side, and was miserable in every way. I doctored until I was discouraged and thought I would never get well. I read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to try it; after taking three bottles I can truly say that I never felt so well in my life."

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I had very severe backaches, and pressing-down pains. I could not sleep, and had no appetite. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me and made me feel like a new woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

RAIN; DROUTH IS BROKEN

Putnam County Gets a Good Soaking After Weeks of Dryness—Rain Began to Fall at Near 7 O'clock Sunday Evening and Continued all Through the Night.

DROP IN TEMPERATURE WITH IT

It rained Sunday night. After weeks of drought Putnam County that night welcomed a good soaking rain. And with the rain came a fall of temperature. Sunday evening the thermometer registered 78 degrees. Early Monday morning it showed 48, a drop of 30 degrees.

The rain fell all night and was of the kind which soaked in. The morning broke cold and cloudy. Furnace fires were lighted and overcoats taken out of their place of summer storage. At noon, however, the sun broke through the clouds and the air became warmer.

For any pain, from top to toe, from any cause, apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Pain can't stay where it is used.

A Broken Idol.

We are sorry, as every friend of President Roosevelt must be, that he has chosen to disregard convention and to establish a precedent by taking an active and partisan place in the campaign. But even this might have been overlooked as due to the impetuous nature of the man, had not the place he chose to take reflected upon his character as a man, and given the lie to many of the declarations of the past for which he was remembered and honored. That he should assume the position of a man in a glass house throwing stones was not expected. That he who has stood for morality in office should now stoop to political methods common to politicians of the worst type comes as a surprise. It is justified what has been declared of Roosevelt by Col. Harvey of the Harper's Weekly, and by the editorial writers of the New York World. It makes it look almost as if the president had been posing for political effect for several years, and that his true partisan character was now revealing itself in the form declared to be true by his enemies. The attack upon Governor Haskell, even if true, comes with poor grace from the president, the supporter of Taft. This man who now attempts to make political capital out of the short-comings, not yet proved, of a Democrat, it will be remembered had in his cabinet one Paul Morton, accused of grafting and breaking the laws of the United States while a railroad magnate, and that the president shielded him from prosecution. It will be remembered that when he, himself, was candidate for president he induced Mr. Harriman to raise $240,000 for the campaign, accepting from this "undesirable citizen" the money to win his election. It will be remembered that Roosevelt has personally stood between government prosecution and several guilty combinations, notably the New York and New Haven Railroad. It will be remembered that this man who now raises the question of voracity of Governor Haskell has been accused of untruth by so many men whom he has attacked that his "Hans club" has become one of the jokes of the country. It will be remembered that this man who calls for fair play and the square deal now renounces both, since he accuses the Democrats of corruption because they have on their National Committee a man now accused by the Republicans, his guilt yet unproven, while the Republicans have on their committee, as chief of the bureau of public speaking, the president of a trust now being prosecuted; have for their treasurer an appointee of Mr. Harriman, declared to be an undesirable citizen; have for their speaker of the house Uncle Joe Cannon grafter and obstructionist. This man who believes in fair play accuses Governor Haskell of removing teachers from the State University of Oklahoma for political reasons, when not the Governor but the board of regents has control there. He accuses this man of having sold out to Standard Oil when it appears that Haskell was but carrying out the articles of the franchise granted this company by Hitchcock, then Secretary of the Interior. This man attacks his personal enemy, Foraker, and forgets to mention men more guilty than he, such notorious tools of the trusts as Aldrich, Penrose, DePew and Cannon. It looks very much as if the president in his desire to win for Taft, was getting into a kind of politics that is small and mean, even for people less high in government and the esteem of the people than Roosevelt. It shows the man in a light that has been hinted at by enemies before, but never so plainly and undisguisedly laid before the people themselves. His course is to be regretted, not because of any influence he may have upon the campaign, but because his action destroys an idol, and lets politics, at least for the Republican party, drop back again into the mud of "anything to win" methods. We shall dislike to remember Theodore Roosevelt as the author of these political "policies."

The Situation.
Now that the local option bill has passed the house, the senate, received the governor's signature and become a law, it occurs to us that true friends of temperance, those actually in favor of increased morality and not merely a party position, will cease vaunting themselves and do all in their power to heal the bitterness caused by statements already made. That Republicans, through love of party and hopes of an issue, have given themselves liberty of tongue that will not soon be forgotten, none will deny. That many honest temperance people, over-zealous and incapable of seeing honesty in any that opposed them have made statements that have not helped temperance is also sure. The situation requires that this now be dropped. He who will attempt by ill-adviced and unfounded statements to keep alive any bitterness now existing is not a true friend of temperance. The question must be taken out of politics and put back in the hands of its friends of both sides, and repetition of the bigoted utterances of the past campaign for the bill will not aid in doing this. Let us now be reasonable.

Flash Promises.
We understand that the Republican candidates for commissioner are going about repeating to the voters of the county the statement made by Mr. Hanna at the time of his nomination. This promise was to the effect that if he were elected commissioner he would absolutely refuse to sign any liquor license. We commend Mr. Hanna's good intentions, but we cannot believe that Mr. Hanna is, in good faith, making such unfounded and impossible promises. Mr. Hanna, as a county commissioner, is bound by the law of the State of Indiana. As long as license is allowed in the county, and a man who satisfies the law applies for license there is no recourse but to grant that license. It will not do to declare that such a man is of unfit character to conduct such a place of business because he desires to conduct it. There must be special proof of unfitness. To refuse to grant a license because of personal opinion would but throw the matter into the circuit court, there to be decided by law, not opinion. Such promises as Mr. Hanna is making are exceedingly rash and unfounded. If carried out it would only result in costs for the county. To promise to sift all evidence and to refuse to grant a license where possible would be safe and sane. To do otherwise is to make a campaign based on the credulity of the people. It is to make a campaign, laughable to thinking men, as was the statement of the candidate for presidency on the Prohibition ticket when he declared that he would at once, when inaugurated, call out the army and navy to enforce prohibition. He seemed to take it for granted that the people did not know that the army and navy would not move when such a call was issued contrary to all rights vested in the president, and that such action would only result in impeachment. Law is, after all, the only safeguard of our state and nation. To break it for good is as evil as to break it for bad purposes. That which weakens the law, even though good result, makes unsafe to that extent the rights, property and happiness of each and every citizen.

Rule of the People.

Republican papers all over the state are declaring that the passage of the county local option law is an example of the rule of the people. While admitting that many people of the state did want county local option, we are, nevertheless, unable to see any victory for the people in the methods used to pass the bill. As a matter of fact the question had been left to the people to decide. They were to vote upon the proposition at the coming elections. Instead of allowing the people to express themselves the Republican party forced the issue, compelled a number of their own party to vote against their beliefs, even as the Republican party at Washington compelled members of the party to vote for the ship subsidy bill, Aldrich-Vreeland currency bill, and in the same manner that Uncle Joe Cannon smothered the Littlefield bill on interstate shipments of liquor from wet to dry territory. The passage of the bill as it stands was the triumph of machine politics, not of the will of the people. The bill itself was, we hope, good. That is, it will be good if it succeeds in doing what it promises, which only time can tell. But it is not a triumph of the people. It is a case of the Republican party deciding what the people want and giving it to them without waiting to see whether they are really in favor of it or not. It is a trick learned from "Uncle Joe" who holds that the people never do know what is good for them, and that they should never be listened to. Again we say that the law is no triumph of the people, but a triumph of machine politics on the part of a party struggling for mere existence because of its record, wishing to use the law for political purposes, careless whether it accomplishes results or not, and unwilling to wait for the people to express themselves on the party and the question at the polls.

Some That Are Told.

That the Republican campaign of fraud is getting down to details is evidenced by the smallness of some of the scare stories that are now going the rounds. Democrats and doubtful Republicans on the rural routes are being assured, in some parts of the state, that the Democrats are pledged to repeal the rural free delivery. The story originates with the postmaster of the community in which the lie is to be broadcasted, and is scattered out by the rural carriers. The facts that Senator Moss and other Democratic candidates are pledged to do everything possible for the farmer and the farm comfort matters nothing to the sowers of such campaign material. They believe they can make the people believe it. When a man approaches with such a story it is safe to call it at once a lie and give it no further credence.

Now we shall see whether the Republicans and President Roosevelt who hailed with whoop the Hearst accusations of Haskell will whoop equally loud over the same man's accusation of Hughes. Hearst declares: You Independence party men of New York have every reason for patriotic effort in this campaign. One of the old parties has nominated Mr. Hughes, who, throughout his term, has served the great privileged interests with the consummate skill of a trained corporation lawyer. He has created public-service commissions, which have spent by the millions the money of the people, and whose only service has been to protect corrupt corporations in the pillage of the people. Mr. Hughes vetoed the 2-cent railroad fare bill and the 5-cent Coney Island fare bill. He has protected on every side the corporations which own him and has overlooked on every side the people who elected him. His opposition to racetrack gambling is creditable and would amply justify his election as Town Marshal, but his abject subservience to privileged interests is not creditable and does not justify his re-election as Governor.

We are quite sure that the strain of the campaign is telling on President Roosevelt for his latest effort to justify the making public of campaign funds after election sounds like softening of the brain. The president says in substance that contributions should not be made public till after election for the reason that should on honest corporation contribute a few hundred thousands to the Republican fund, the knowledge of this might lead biased persons to vote against the party. Of course the emphasis is on "honest corporations". We wonder if any corporation giving a hundred thousand to a campaign fund is honest. We believe the president is right in supposing that such things made public would influence many votes. It is the very thing we want to know. We are surprised that the president should be reduced to such reasoning in defense of what is not defensible.

President Roosevelt seems surprised that Senator Foraker and Mr. Bryan, whom he attacked so furiously in some of his most Anglo-Saxon vocabulary, have dared to reply in kind. We say in kind, though we must admit that the statements thus far have lacked some of the fierceness that characterized the president's first statement. The mild Mr. Taft is especially surprised, and recalls with a shudder that at one time he attempted to appoint a Standard Oil attorney to the supreme bench. There was much truth in the hackneyed advice that those who live in glass edifices should not hurl boulders.

as well as for the man. Mr. Roosevelt's resort to the verbal paganism of a political wrangle.—For Wayne Journal-Gazette.

The New York World is printing short letters from the people as to their presidential preferences. Out of twenty-four such letters appearing in one recent issue sixteen favor Bryan and the others scatter. Some of those who declare for Bryan say that they did not support him in previous campaigns, but have since come to the conclusion that the welfare of the country demands his election. It is apparent that what used to be called "the enemy's country" is preparing to give Bryan and Kern a tremendous vote.

Judge Taft's Opinions.

It is to be regretted that Judge Taft has determined not to make any further replies to Mr. Bryan in the newspapers, but it is to be hoped that in his future speeches, in which he says he will take up anything Mr. Bryan might say "worthy of notice," he will keep to the same style of argument he has thus far employed. His reply to some of Bryan's arguments has been absolutely pitiful—not worthy of a cross-roads politician. For instance, the childish assertion that Mr. Bryan brought on hard times by his vote for the Wilson tariff.

DEMOCRATIC NEWS

What Good Democrats Over the State Are Saying About Things Political in Indiana And Elsewhere.

Democrats, Be On Your Guard.

On last Monday evening the Chronicle of this city printed alleged interviews with about fifty saloon keepers of Marion and Grant Counties, in which it made these said liquor dealers say in substance that they were all opposed to the election of "Jim" Watson for governor, as it would mean the ruination of their business. They were also made to say that they favored the election of Tom Marshall for governor, as it meant the salvation of their business.

On Tuesday the Leader called upon these saloon keepers and in every instance the interviews in the Chronicle were pronounced as forgeries. Not one liquor dealer in Marion would be found who had uttered one word to that paper or any other paper on the subject of state politics.

The object of the Chronicle in printing these bogus interviews with liquor dealers is very plain. It is expected that temperance Democrats of the state can be reached by such deception.

Seventy-five per cent of the saloon keepers misquoted are Republicans and are loud in their denunciation of such dirty politics.

On Tuesday of this week this same Chronicle had printed 25,000 copies of their issue of last Monday containing the bogus interviews. There were shipped to the Republican state headquarters at Indianapolis for distribution over the State of Indiana. Not satisfied by trying to betray their own party workers in Grant County, the Chronicle, with the as-stance of the state Republican organization, now desires to fool the people of Indiana.

Democrats everywhere in the state should be on their guard.

Watch for the Marion Chronicle of last Monday with the bogus interviews from saloon keepers.

Crush this deception wherever it shows itself.

Desperate indeed, must be the straits the Republican national committee is in when it appeals to the president of the United States to ruffe the dignity of his high office and engage in the whirl and turmoil of a political campaign to save its candidate from defeat. There is a dignity which doth hedge about a king, and Americans who believe the presidency a more exalted office than any kingship the world ever knew cannot but feel regret to see the occupant of that high position descend to bandy words and shout accusations and hurl billingsgate at all who oppose his chosen successor. There are many things in the character of Theodore Roosevelt which challenge our admiration, some characteristics we have been disposed to look upon leniently, some things which did not meet with our approval. But no American has, we hope, forgotten to reverence the high office he held. Yet when the president himself forgets the dignity due to his position and plunges ruthlessly into the mire of political denunciation and recrimination like a Bowery boss nothing else can be expected but that the common people will lose respect for the of-

Surprise Friends and Relatives.

Ethel Boone Campbell, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Indianapolis surprised her many friends here this week by announcing to them her marriage to Mr. J. T. Dunn of Louisville, Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Dunn have kept their marriage a secret for many months. On Jan. 18, 1908 they went to Cincinnati, where they were quietly married, unknown to their many relatives and friends. On returning to Indianapolis after a few days in Cincinnati and Newport, Ky., they both resumed their former positions and with much secrecy have succeeded in keeping their marriage from their friends. Mrs. Dunn went to Indianapolis more than a year ago where she entered Eastman's Training School for nurses. She is a Greencastle girl and is well known and liked by every one. She has a host of friends in Greencastle and adjoining towns who wish her happiness and success. Mr. Dunn is a Southern gentleman, his former home being in Louisville, but for the past four years has made Indianapolis his home, where he has been employed with the Traction and terminal company where he has a host of well wishers.

Since having made known their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Dunn are at home to their friends and relatives in their new home which has just been completed for them at 1238 S. Sheffield Ave., Indianapolis.

Mt. Hebron Pastor Resigns.

Last Sunday was a great day at Mt. Hebron Church. The pastor Rev. Harris preached two sermons. Rev. Harris preached to the old people at the morning hour. His sermon was very impressive and at the close of the service a most heart-searching experience was manifested. Everybody was moved to tears, even Mr. Harris was overcome when he told his people of his departure he was soon to take. At the evening hour he preached to the young people from a text taken from Second Chronicles. "While he was yet young he began to seek the God of David." It was the best sermon and delivered in the most powerful manner of any he has ever preached. He was filled with the Holy Ghost and it had its effect upon his hearers. He spoke for 45 minutes. At the conclusion he announced it was his farewell and it was a touching scene.

When Mr. Harris came out here to preach he found a church in which no services had been held for months. Today it is in a lively condition. A Sunday School with an average attendance of 40. The morning service had an average attendance of about 70. The average attendance is over a hundred and many times the seats were all taken. During the past 38 Sundays, Rev. Harris has preached 90 sermons, 49 being in this church and 41 elsewhere. He has the best wishes of the members and friends. It is an abandoned U. B. church and now is for sale.

DEATH OF CHILD

ACKNOWLEDGE IT

Greencastle Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Greencastle given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the kidneys in good health since can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this:

W. H. Renick, living at 1011 Crown Street, Greencastle, Ind., says: "I was cured of backache and kidney complaint by Doan's Kidney Pills about six years ago and since that time I have never had the slightest return of the troubles. I was so pleased at my cure that I gave a statement for publication in which I endorsed the remedy which cured me and I am now glad to confirm what I said then. For years I had been suffering from weak kidneys. There were severe pains across my loins accompanied by a weakness which was so bad at times that I just could not work and was often scarcely able to get my clothing on. Every cold I took settled in that one weak spot and laid me up. After doctoring and using a number of different remedies I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and I soon discovered that I had at last found the right remedy. I got them at Jones' drug store."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

CASH SCARCE FOR COAL

Currency Situation Still Bothers Manufacturers and Makes Difficult The Holding of Jobs.

AS MINE OPERATORS SEE IT

While the miners of the block coal field are enjoying fairly good work at present, much better than in the other sections of the state, and of the Middle States, there is still room for improvement.

A prominent operator, in conversation with a Times reporter, this morning, remarked: "Maybe you do not know it, but it is none the less a fact that money is hard to get hold of, and that the operators of this section could mine and sell a great deal more coal if it were possible to get pay for it within the prescribed and regular time. But the big users of coal, or at least a large number of them, have plenty of orders ahead and are anxious to operate their plants as near their capacities as possible, but they cannot get hold of the money to pay their bills when they come due. The operators cannot afford to carry these people four or five months and pay their bills in cash, hence much of the natural production is cut off. I do not know just how this thing can be remedied, but it does look as though something should be done."—Brazil Times.

iff bill It is only necessary to say that Mr. Bryan cast his vote for the Wilson tariff bill in 1894 late in the long session of Congress that year, and several months after Coxe's army had marched with a "petition in boots" to Washington City; and that Mr. Bryan was elected to Congress in a district that was some 5,000 Republican, because under Harrison the farmers of Nebraska had been burning corn for fuel and the coal miners of Pennsylvania had been shot down for engaging in strikes for living wages!

But the silliest thing Mr. Taft said in the same reply to Mr. Bryan was that Bryan stood for a "fifty-cent dollar!" Of course this is an assertion that might with propriety be answered by saying that Mr. Taft is in favor of compelling a debtor to pay two hundred-cent dollars on an obligation calling for one hundred. In 1896, when the money question was at issue, just such catch-phrases served for Republican argument while Mark Hanna proceeded to raise a corruption fund of $16,000,000 with which to buy the "Nation's honor."

Too Late.

The Republican leaders, after building up an organization grounded upon special privilege and slimy with graft, are beginning to experience a knocking together of the knees. Mr. DuPont, of the Powder Trust, has voluntarily—or involuntarily, it makes no difference which—stepped down and out. There are rumors that George Rumsey Sheldon and Boles Penrose may follow suit. But if they do so in what way will the moral tone of the Republican organization be improved?

Mr. Taft and President Roosevelt knew when Chairman Hitchcock selected Mr. DuPont as the head of the Bureau of Campaign Speakers of the National Republican Committee that Mr. DuPont was connected with a corporation alleged in an indictment to be a criminal corporation, and that his appointment was altogether and improper and violative of every principle proclaimed by Theodore Roosevelt, wielder of the "spears that know no brother" and inaugurator of the no-quarter crusade against the rich malefactor. Mr. Taft, and Mr. Roosevelt, who had found the useful Cortelyou invaluable in previous fat-frying campaigns as a collector of corruption funds, knew all about the peculiar qualifications of George Rumsey Sheldon when he was selected treasurer of the National Campaign Committee, and Boles Penrose is not a politician who must be exposed to be known.

Mr. DuPont's stepping down and out does not in any way relieve the leaders, Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt, of the record they have made. Either could have prevented his appointment. Neither objected until it became clear that the national scandal of the appointment would not down. The scandal of this and the other notorious appointments is one of their own cooking. Mr. Hitchcock's assumption of the responsibility notwithstanding. To turn tail now and begin a housecleaning in the middle of the campaign will be profitless.

Nothing as to Mr. DuPont or Mr. Sheldon or Mr. Penrose has been brought to light since their selection for important positions in the organization of the fighting force of the Republican party. Mr. Taft, Mr. Hitchcock and President Roosevelt knew as much about each of them six months ago as they know today, or will know tomorrow. Their selection reflected the same spirit that resulted in the nomination of "Sunny Jim" Sherman for the vice presidency upon a ticket proclaiming a monopoly in virtue and a policy of reform. Mr. Taft and Mr. Hitchcock and President Roosevelt made their bed and selected their bed-fellows. Panic-stricken as a result of the popular protest against reform parading cheek by jowl with the "undesirables," they would like to be between cleaner sheets, but a change at the present time can serve only to call more general attention to the insincerity of reformers who have failed during several years of noisy pretensions of sinlessness to cut loose from the interests and influences they are fond of denouncing.—Courier Journal.

There Stands Nelson B. Aldrich.

And yet there stands Nelson B. Aldrich, like Teneriffe or Atlas, unremoved.

Mr. Foraker, of Ohio, has been repudiated because forsooth he has been an attorney for the Oil Trust and does not deny the connection, but candidly asserts it and stands pat. But how about Nelson B. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, not inaptly described by one of his biographers as "the man who runs the United States?"

Mr. Aldrich is related to Standard Oil by ties of blood-money and marriage. He is the father of John D. Rockefeller's daughter-in-law. With this relationship no fault could be found—since young people will get married regardless of political considerations—but there is much fault to find with a chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance who is notoriously the representative of Standard Oil and other trusts in the upper branch of Congress. Whether or not his advocacy of the measures endorsed by the Oil Trust and other trusts therewith allied proceeds from conviction and is pure matters not at all. Like Mr. Cannon, who runs the House, while he runs the Senate, Mr. Aldrich must be judged by the record he has made.

In the Senate Mr. Aldrich is the Master of Ceremonies. He says which bills shall die and his sentences are invariably executed. He has never taken the trouble to defend his record. Entrenched in the esteem

Their Way in New York.

A dramatic incident occurring in the New York Democratic state convention is described in the Associated Press report as follows: "When in the midst of his set speech Mr. Bryan was interrupted by Former Assemblyman John Palace, Jr., of Rochester, who stated that if he would consent to suspend his speech for five minutes, the Democrats of Monroe County would show him more substantial support than mere applause and cheering. Ushers rushed about the hall handing out black applications for membership in the 'Central Bryan and Kern Club,' containing a pledge to vote and work for the success of the national ticket. There also were spaces to mark the last ticket voted by the signer. When the slips had all been collected Mr. Palace announced that more than 2,000 applications and pledges had been made. 'I think that is the largest club that I ever knew organized in so short a time,' said Mr. Bryan, 'and if you can work as long as you can fast there'll be an immense amount of work done.'"—Commoner.

A Taft Opinion of Farmers.

A dispatch from Waterbury, Conn., to the New York World of August 5, says:

Horace D. Taft, youngest brother of the Republican candidate for the presidency and master of a boys' school in Watertown, has plunged into politics with an attack on the country voters of Connecticut, ending a "red-hot" statement with these words:

"If a crowd of rascals should march to Hartford and steal the whole capitol building, half of these Connecticut backwoods towns wouldn't know anything about it, and if they did they would keep right on ploughing just the same."

From this it is evident that the Taft family has a poor opinion of farmers and the inhabitants of "backwoods towns." Brother Horace seems to think that they haven't "sense enough to go to mill." Just what he will think after Brother Bill has been snowed under in November staggers the imagination.

AS UNION LABOR SEES IT

Organizations for the Protection of Laboring Men Urge the Election Of Bryan and the Defeat of Taft—Fear Rule of Wealth.

GOMPER'S POSITION IS DEFENDED

On last Thursday the Buffalo Republic, one of the leading daily labor papers of the country devotes its entire space to a consideration of the political situation. This paper has been taking a straw vote of the labor organizations over the country, and finds that almost unanimously these organizations will stand for the Democratic party and will vote as Gompers suggests. Editorially the paper says:

"The Republican is not a Democratic paper. It is not a Republican paper, and it is not an Independence party paper."

"It has no more interest in the Democratic party than it has in the Republican party; no more in Democratic politicians and office-seekers than in Republican politicians and office-seekers."

"The rank and file of both parties is made up of decent, patriotic citizens, and it is only when the Cannons, the Aldriches, the Jim Shermans, the Posts—tools of ruthless financial and corporate interests—secure control of a party that that party becomes vicious and a positive menace to the rights, liberties and material well-being of the rank and file of all parties."

"To the workingman this is not a issue that is to be fought out this fall."

"The dignity, the rights and the life of organized labor are at stake and will be worn or lost in this battle."

"The powerful interests that are opposed to Mr. Gompers and the American Federation of Labor are opposed to the right of the Republican workingman, precisely as they are opposed to the rights of the Democratic workingman."

"You workmen all must stand or fall together."

"Already the railroads have threatened to reduce wages. At the request of the overlords of the Republican party as now controlled they have deferred action until after election."

"That is nothing more or less than an attempt to intimidate the vast army of railroad employees."

"When Taft was a Federal Judge every time a great dispute arose between labor and capital, the possessors of the swollen fortunes rushed into Judge Taft's court, where they never once failed to be comforted and protected at the expense of the workingman."

"Taft, through instinct and training, has all his life been out of sympathy with the cause of labor. It has been born and bred in him always to see first the rights of property and to protect those rights as above the rights of men."

"In May, 1903, the Journal, official organ of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, had this to say of Judge Taft:

"Judge Taft's decision proclaims members of the B. of L. E. a band of conspirators."

"We cannot accept Judge Taft's decision in any other light than treason to Republican institutions and the liberties of the people. It is, will be, and ought to be denounced and repudiated by all liberty loving men."

"Back of this candidate, as the most conspicuous figure in the fight, stands Joe Cannon, who has had his foot on the neck of labor in Congress for twenty years, and who now is making a tour of the country, bitterly and falsely assailing Gompers and union labor."

"As between Gompers and this man Cannon, where do you workingmen stand?"

AS PARRY SEES IT

The Following Contributed to the Sullivan Times, is Worth Careful Reading in These Days of the "Bloody Shirt" Speeches of Taft.

Editor Times: The old trick of trying to intimidate or scare men into voting the Republican ticket at the coming election is again to be practiced.

The Indianapolis News at the time of the Republican National convention served warning on the party that if they nominated W. H. Taft they would have to intimidate the laboring people if they hoped to elect him. It also said that would be hard to do since labor was already out of a job? How can they hope to scare a man by threatening him with the loss of his job, when he has none?

Notwithstanding this fact they are asking manufacturers of the country to post "placards" promising steady work and good pay if Taft is elected.

David M. Parry the former president of the Manufacturers National Association, and a leading Republican, refuses to be a party to the plot in a letter to Hon. John W. Kern, August 29 he says: "To disabuse your mind at once of any doubt as to where I stand on this matter, I will say that no such placard will be posted at the plant of the Parry Manufacturing Company. I think it impossible to fix a date for the return of prosperity. Of course ill considered legislation and the continued existence of public evils will obstruct the path to prosperity and perhaps, if my distinguished acquaintance, William J. Bryan, and my esteemed friend, John W. Kern, were really anarchists or socialists, enemies of individual or property rights, I might feel justified in posting some kind of placards, but despite my Republicanism, I can not bring myself to any such conclusion of them. In a recent poll of the National Association of Manufacturers, a majority of its members declared in favor of revision of the tariff, and since manufacturers will not be disposed to buy heavily of raw material when there is a possibility of cheaper prices for such material through a relaxation of the tariff, I believe that a speedy revision of the tariff will materially assist in restoring business to normal conditions."

So Mr. Parry, and no body will accuse him of being either a friend of the Democratic party or a special friend of labor, not only refuses to scare, but regards Mr. Bryan safe, and can see the factories going only when the tariff is revised along Democratic lines. That is, downward and not upward, as Mr. Taft says must be the case on many articles.

Mr. Parry, you see, has learned who pays the tariff, and promises to wait before buying material out of which to make his buggies, until it is off or lowered. I wonder if the buyers of the finished product of Mr. Parry's factory have not concluded it would be just as wise for them to wait before buying a buggy, until he can get cheaper material out of which to make the buggy. They must know that he will be able to sell for less money and after all the great benefit is with the consumer who buys the finished product. And what is true of buggies is just as true of other manufactured articles. The benefit of the reduction is first to the manufacturer by giving him cheaper raw materials, second to the laborer by giving him work, and third to the consumer by giving him cheaper finished product.

The great question then is which party, or which candidate, stands for and is likely to give us cheaper raw materials. In view of the position of the parties and the candidates it must be clear to all, that the party to do that is the Democratic party and the candidate is William J. Bryan.

FRED DONNER HAS TROUBLES

Former Greencastle Resident, a Brother of Frank Donner Attempts to Aid Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic Candidate for Governor, But Explosion of Auto Tire Complicates Affairs.

FREIGHT TRAIN ENDS TROUBLES

COLUMBUS, Ind., September 23.—Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic candidate for Governor, had troubles of his own in southern Indiana Saturday, and it was a wonder that he ever reached Aurora, where he spoke Saturday afternoon. He and Mrs. Marshall spent Friday night in this city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Custer. It was arranged that the candidate should go south Saturday morning and catch a train for Aurora, and that his wife should return home.

When Mr. Marshall went to the Pennsylvania station to catch a train for North Vernon, where he expected to make connection over the B. & O. for his speaking place, he found his train so late he knew he would miss the B. & O. train at North Vernon. He then obtained a runabout auto, driven by Fred Donner, and the latter agreed to get him to North Vernon in plenty of time. The machine was a few miles below this city when a rear tire blew up, and there was nothing to do but come back. A new automobile was engaged and the driver pulled the throttle wide open to make up for lost time. Although he broke the speed law to smithereens he did not arrive at North Vernon with Mr. Marshall until the train had gone. The candidate was trying to bargain with the automobile owner to take him on to Aurora when a B. & O. official offered to let the candidate ride in the caboose of a freight train. This invitation was accepted and he reached Aurora in that manner.

Fred Donner is well known here. He is a brother of Frank Donner and formerly lived in Greencastle.

DEMOCRATS MEET AT FILLMORE

Monday night a crowd that filled the available space of the temporary school room in the Mason's Hall at Fillmore gathered to hear a discussion of the Democratic attitude on the questions before the people. The speaker discussed in detail the recent panic and its bearing on such questions as the tariff, currency reform and the power of the people to rule. He declared that the Democrats had no intention of repealing the county option law just passed. On the contrary they would await with interest the results of its operation, hoping in the meantime that they were mistaken as to inability to solve the problem, especially in this county.

of the hardest to solve that he had ever worked on but that he had several clues, one of which might develop into a case.

Blue Handkerchief a Clue.

The local police are also working on the case to the best of their ability and possibly may dig up something. Marshal Reeves has in his possession a dark blue handkerchief which was found in the interurban station. He is attempting to learn where the handkerchief was purchased in hopes that the identity of its owner may develop a clue. The marshal visited all of the local stores this morning but was unable to trace the ownership of the handkerchief.

The handkerchief was found in the ticket office of the station immediately after the murder was committed.

Mrs. Hendren was shown the handkerchief and says that it did not belong to her husband. If the ownership of the handkerchief can be established it may result in a good clue.

Wednesday afternoon the Marshal and one of the detectives working on the case went to Brazil to investigate a clue there.

Tues night Marshal Reeves and Officer Stone went to Fillmore and later to Coatesville in answer to a telephone call stating that a man answering the description of the man who is believed to have committed the murder was seen walking east on the Vandalla tracks. They went to Amo and walked back to Coatesville on the Van tracks, but did not find the man.

Sims Still in Custody.

Charley Sims, who was arrested yesterday, is still in jail. Sims, the officers say, appears very nervous whenever they talk to him regarding the case. It is said that he was not at his home on Monday night and that he cannot account for his actions during the night. He is being held on the charge of intoxication and probably will be held for several days awaiting developments.

SLASHED CONDUCT—OR WITH RAZOR

The killing of Otis Hendren has brought out the story of an assault on Interurban Conductor Powell several days ago. Powell said that he was attacked at near 8 o'clock one evening as he was on his way home from the station by two men who sprang out of the alley between the residence of A. E. Harris and U. V. O'Daniel on East Seminary Street.

They grabbed him and one of them slashed across the chest with a razor. His coat and shirt were cut. As they grabbed him one of them exclaimed, "We've got him now." Powell struck one of the men and knocked him down. When he showed fight the two men ran.

Mr. Powell and Mr. Hendren are similar in appearance and many believe that the men believed they were attacking Hendren when they got Powell. Why Powell did not report the affair to the police at the time it happened is something that many cannot understand. Powell lives on Bloomington Street between Seminary and Anderson.

NEW NIGHT TRACTION AGENT

R. B. Hornaday of Plainfield Accepts Position of Assistant to Rupert Bartley—Will Take up Duties of the Victim, Late Otis Hendren, At Once.

Rupert Bartley, interurban agent, announced Wednesday that he had appointed R. B. Hornaday as night interurban agent. Mr. Hornaday comes here from Plainfield. He will immediately take up the duties of the late Otis Hendren, who was murdered while in discharge of his duty at the station on Monday night.

MAY COMPROMISE CITY SUIT

THAD PECK, CITY ATTORNEY, SAYS THAT EDMUND B. LYNCH HAS AGREED TO GET TOGETHER WITH THE CITY PROVIDED THE COUNCIL AT ONCE TAKES STEPS TOWARD STOPPING FLOW OF OBJECTIONABLE SEWAGE UPON HIS LANDS.

TO BUILD A SEWER NEXT YEAR

Committee Which Has the Matter in Charge Says That It Will Be Ready To Let a Contract for the Preparation of Plans and Specifications For a Sewer by November 1—Work to Begin Early in Spring.

City Attorney Peck stated this morning that Edmund B. Lynch had agreed with him that the suit filed by Mr. Lynch against the city could be easily settled provided the city took immediate steps toward stopping the flow of objectionable sewage upon the property of Mr. Lynch. In his suit Mr. Lynch asks an injunction and damages.

No definite arrangement or a settlement was made. Mr. Lynch simply told the city attorney that he would do what was right in the matter provided the flow of sewage upon his land was stopped immediately. Mr. Peck and the Street Commissioner have already seen many of those who are draining sewage into the city tiles and have ordered them to discontinue doing so at once. A section, 20 feet long, of the city tile will be taken up on Walnut Street, just west of Jackson Street within a few days. This will be allowed to stand open for several weeks and the street commissioner and city officials will watch the sewage which passes through it. In this way they hope to learn if objectionable sewage is passing through and if they find any they will immediately make an effort to learn where it comes from and to see that it is discontinued.

Mr. Lynch agrees to a settlement on the understanding that the city will next summer put in a sewer system. The city attorney says that the council has agreed that a system must be put in. The sewer committee has agreed to be ready by Nov. 1 to let a contract to an engineer to prepare plans and specifications for a sewer system. If that is done work on the sewer could be begun early next spring.

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES

Bertha Russell has filed suit in circuit court against Willis Russell asking for divorce, the custody of their child and for alimony. The complaint is sensational, alleging that the defendant is guilty of cruel treatment in that he struck beat and injured the plaintiff with his fists, threw tumblers, china and stove lids at her and kicked her. That last March, at the time of the final separation, she was beaten and driven from the house with her infant child and told never to return. The defendant is a resident of Marion County, and it is alleged is owner of $1,000 property there. The plaintiff asks divorce, the custody of the child and $500 alimony.

The case of Benjamin Frankenberg against Frederick Johns for breach of contract was continued Thurs. Frankenberg alleges that he rented a piece of land of the defendant and that later the defendant refused to abide by the terms of the lease and drove him from the land. He asks $150 damages.

The case went to the jury just before dinner. The jury returned a verdict at 2 o'clock, finding for the plaintiff in the sum of $75.

George Briscoe vs. Charles T. Peck, adminis. of estate of Mary Briscoe, deceased. Suit on claim. Claim allowed in sum of $750 and ordered paid out of proceeds of estate.

Charles A. Cawley, Florence C. Cawley vs. Frank W. Cawley, defendant called and defaulted. Court finds Frank W. Cawley and Mamie Gainer are each the owner of an undivided one-fourth of the real estate in question. Same is to be sold at public auction. Central Trust Co. appointed commissioner to make sale. Cross bill of First National Bank against Charles A. Cawley filed. Cross bill of Joseph Treiber against Frank W. Cawley, Anna Cawley et al. and Cross bill of Florence Cawley against Frank W. and Anna Cawley filed. Process ordered on both bills.

Friday morning the court took up the case of John Riley against Herod & Smith. This is the case in which Mr. Riley holds that while of unsound mind due to sickness he disposed of his store and property in South Greencastle at a price, which, he alleges, was below its real value. Later he attempted to secure possession of the property and alleges that he offered the purchase price received in return and was refused. This morning many witnesses were present on both sides. It was at length decided, however, to postpone action until 1 o'clock, and it was believed possible that a compromise might be reached. At 1:30 the attorneys for both sides appeared before Judge Rawley and stated that an agreement had been reached. The case was dismissed and the witnesses and jury discharged. The agreement is stated to be that Mr. Riley withdraws his claim and quiet the title in the defendants. The defendants are to pay the costs of the proceedings thus far.

John W. Gardner vs. Ira Sutton, trial had and Clay Bridges appointed receiver.

Mary M. Wolf vs. Schuyler Wolf, divorce, finding for plaintiff.

Lydia J. Wolf vs. Schuyler Wolf and Mary Wolf, suit for possession, finding for plaintiff.

John W. Kiergan vs. Fred Vaughn change of venue to Clay county.

In the case of Edgar Collins against Fred Goodwine the defendant appeared Tues in court and filed a motion to set aside judgment by default rendered by Judge Rawley on the first day of the present term of court. The affidavit alleges that the defendant had understood that the case was not to come to trial during the present term of court and urged this as an excuse for not being present. The motion to set aside judgment was sustained.

Case of Apperisana Rosaris against the Big Four Railroad is dismissed by the plaintiffs. Judgment given for costs.

Suit was filed in circuit court by Scott Browning against the C. C. C. & St. L. asking for judgment on an account alleged to be due said Browning, said plaintiff having purchased the account from Ratcliff Bros. The complaint alleges that the account is owing, due and unpaid. The plaintiff asks judgment for $456.30.
