

THEY TOOK A BIG TUMBLE

Automobile Westward Bound Went Over a Cliff Near Reelsville—The Machine Badly Wrecked But the Occupants Escaped Serious Injury.

CORN-SHREDDER FADED BY AUTOS

A thrilling automobile accident occurred Monday afternoon on the Reelsville Hill, in which the three occupants escaped with their lives by a miracle. The occupants of the machine, a touring car, were J. W. Eades and wife and their niece, Miss Corn Hancock, who live near Franklin, this state. Mr. Eades and party had been visiting relatives in Mechanicsburg, Ill., and were on their way home at the time.

It seems that the machine was climbing the treacherous Reelsville Hill, which has been the scene of many auto accidents, when the trouble occurred. There are varied accounts of the accident, but a telephone message from Reelsville this morning states that Mr. Eades' version of the affair is that he was climbing the hill and two boys were hanging to the back of his machine. His wife wanted him to stop and put the boys off. This detracted the driver's attention, and the machine started to back down the hill. He lost control of it and it shot down the steep decline at great speed. The auto swerved near the foot of the hill and before the bridge was reached, and shot over the embankment, falling almost twenty feet to the stones below. The machine turned entirely over and fell on its side.

Only a miracle saved the lives of the occupants of the car, which was almost demolished. Mrs. Eades was painfully injured, and for a time it was feared that she was seriously hurt. She was taken from the wreckage by her husband, who was not injured, being only badly shaken up. She was taken to the home of Mrs. Frank McCullough, where she was attended by a physician. Her left limb was badly sprained and she was bruised and shaken up. However, she was able to be up and around this morning, and expects to return to her home at once.

Miss Hancock was also painfully injured, but not seriously.

The car was badly wrecked, but he expects to have it sent to the factory in the hope of saving it.—Brazil Times.

Victim of His Vicious Assault is Some Better Today But There is Still Danger That the Wounds Will Prove Fatal—Prisoner And His Brother Furnish Bond—Wife Was in the Court Room.

Chas. A. Young, who on Tuesday, cut and badly injured his business partner, Edward Barr, in a fight in Roschdale, which resulted from argument over the county local option law, was before Judge Rawley Friday morning to answer to an indictment charging him with assault with intent to kill. The indictment was issued by the Grand Jury.

John H. James represented the prisoner. Young pleaded not guilty to the charge and Judge Rawley fixed the bond at $800. Later the bond was taken to Brazil by Young's brother, who will have it executed there.

HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

Cottage of Mr. and Mrs. John Soblaski, at Limerdale, is Burned to The Ground at Noon Tuesday—Little Was Saved—Loss Partially Covered by Insurance.

FLAMES CAUSED BY A SPARK

The cottage of Mr. and Mrs. John Soblaski, at Limerdale, was totally destroyed by fire near noon Tuesday. The Soblaski home was just east of the blacksmith shop. It is believed that the fire started from a spark which fell on the house from the chimney. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Soblaski were preparing their noonday meal when the fire was discovered on the roof. They had a very hot fire in the stove at that time and believe that a spark from the flue fell upon the shingle roof and started the blaze.

Neighbors ran to the assistance of the people but as they had nothing to fight the flames with the house was soon consumed. A little of the furniture was carried out and saved. Mr. Soblaski is a cripple. His son is employed in the Limerdale depot. It is said that there was near $1,000 insurance on the property. This will not cover the loss.

NO OIL IN RUSSELL TP.

Casing is Pulled From the Deep Hole Derrick is Taken Down and All Points to no Find by Drilling Company.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS MOVEMENTS

Whether or not there is oil in Russell Township is a question undecided, so far as the people of the township are concerned. The company that was drilling the well has just finished pulling the casing that had been put down. The derrick has been lowered, and all is in readiness, seemingly, for the whole outfit to be taken away. What the results are no one seemed to know. The leaving of the company and the pulling of the casing would seem to indicate that nothing had been found. Still there are wise ones that hold that the apparent move is only a blind.

One thing is sure, however, and that is that no more work will be done there for some time. Apparently the chance of striking oil in Putnam County is still remote.

CURC MCCORMICK DEAD

After a brief illness, L. P. McCormack, aged 62, who was for ten years a member of the State Labor Commission, died about 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning on his farm near Fisher's Station, Hamilton County, from heart failure. Until two years ago he resided in Indianapolis.

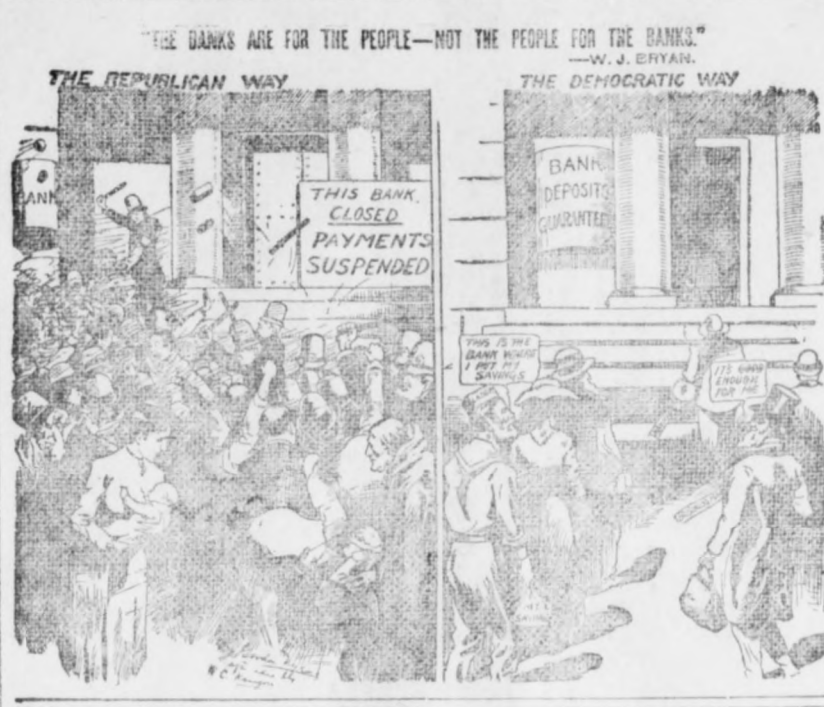

McCormack seemed to be in the best of health until Friday morning, when he complained of pains about his heart. His condition was some improved Saturday morning, but he was unable to rest when he retired for the night. He got up out of bed and sat in a chair until shortly after 2 o'clock Sunday morning, when he thought he would be able to sleep. In lying down on his right side he did not feel comfortable and when he turned over his death followed.

Although the arrangements for funeral have not as yet been made, the body will be brought to Indianapolis for burial. L. P. McCormack, who was a bachelor, is survived by two brothers, Z. K. and C. W. McCormack, who reside in Indianapolis.

MOSS PLEASES AUDIENCE HE RECEIVED HIS REWARD

Large Crowd at Assembly Room Saturday Night to Hear the Senator Discuss the Issues of the Campaign.

A CLEAR-HEADED PRESENTATION

The Democrats were particularly well pleased with the address made Saturday night at the court house by Senator Moss, a candidate for congress from the Fifth District. Mr. Moss covered the issues of the campaign in a clear, logical and forceful manner, without exaggeration. He had facts at his tongue's end, and these facts were convincing, driving home Democratic doctrine with force.

Senator Moss gave his attention to the tariff and to bank guarantee in a special manner, and showed very clearly the unjustness of the present tariff system. He took issue with the stand-patters and the Republican platform. He declared the proposal to increase the tariff, as shown in some of Taft's addresses, was unwise and a crime against the consumers of America. He was equally strong on bank guarantee.

Mr. Moss impressed his hearers as a clear-minded, solid, sane man who could safely be trusted with the interests of this district at Washington.

MAY BE FUGITIVE NEGRO

Officers Receive Message From New Castle Stating That Man Believed To be Clayton Herring, Wanted Here on Burglary Charge, is Under Arrest in That Town.

WILL AWAIT THE IDENTIFICATION

The officers here received word yesterday afternoon from the police of New Castle stating that a negro, who answers the description of Clayton Herring, wanted here on a burglary charge, is under arrest in that town. The negro was arrested there on the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Marshal Reeves Wednesday morning wrote to the officers at New Castle asking that they send further description of the negro. If he proves to be the right man Marshal Reeves will go after him. Herring is wanted here in connection with the robbery of the James L. Randal home several months ago. A valuable diamond ring belonging to Mrs. Randal was stolen.

It is believed that he also is the man who attempted to rob the E. B. Doll home. The negro left Greencastle on the night following the Randal home robbery. The police went to arrest him at the home of George Blake, where he was staying with another negro, who worked there. Her ring jumped from a window and escaped.

The Model is closing out 115 boys' knee pant suits at $2.98, suits that formerly sold for $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00. All wool too—and winter weight.

WARRUM AT GLOVERDALE

Ideal Weather and Democratic Enthusiasm Brings Out Large Crowd To Hear the Eloquent Indianapolis Man.

SENATOR MOSS ALSO SPEAKS

The Warrum Meeting at Cloverdale Wednesday afternoon was an immense success. The ideal weather made it possible to hold the meeting outdoors, as the hall in which Hanly recently spoke would hold but a small portion of the crowd that came out to hear the Indianapolis man and Senator Moss. Senator Moss spoke in Bainbridge Tuesday night and went to Cloverdale Wednesday morning. Mr. Warrum spoke in Madison, Indiana, and reached Greencastle at 12:45 and drove at once to Cloverdale.

The meeting was to begin at 1:30 o'clock, and was addressed first by Senator Moss, who briefly and clearly outlined some of the issues of the campaign. The senator was heard with interest, and his statement of the situation met with hearty appreciation and support.

Mr. Moss was followed by Mr. Warrum in a speech that covered the issues of the campaign in a masterly manner. There was plenty of enthusiasm and Democratic doctrine as put forth by the two eloquent speakers of the afternoon found a ready hearing.

A number of Greencastle citizens went down to take part in the afternoon's enthusiasm, and they report that Democracy in South Putnam was never more harmonious nor stronger.

SAM SMALL COMES HERE

Eloquent Georgia Clergyman Will Deliver an Address Before the Bryan and Kern Club of Greencastle on October 21.

IS MOST INTERESTING SPEAKER

The Bryan and Kern Club of this city is to be congratulated on having secured the services of the Rev. Sam W. Small for an address before the club on the night of October 21. Rev. Small is one of the most eloquent of speakers and discusses politics in a manner calculated to stir the most uninterested of voters. Mr. Small has been making a limited number of addresses in the state and has everywhere been met with large crowds and enthusiasm. The people of this vicinity will undoubtedly turn out to hear him on the night of October 21 at 7:30.

Charley Perkins, Son of Oran Perkins of Clinton Township, Badly Injured While Hauling a Heavy Load Wednesday Afternoon Brake Pole Broke Throwing Victim in Front of Wagon.

WHEELS PASSED OVER HIS BODY

While hauling gravel for the roads in Clinton Township Wednesday afternoon, Charley Perkins, 21 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oran Perkins fell from the wagon and was run over. The young man is badly but not dangerously injured.

Perkins was hauling gravel for Walter Sigler, superintendent of the roads. He had a yard of gravel on his wagon and was going down a steep hill when the accident occurred. As Perkins was pulling on his brake pole the pole suddenly broke and Perkins fell between the horses and the wagon.

The victim was caught under the wheels and the wagon ran over him. One of the wheels struck the side of the boy's face cutting it badly. He was otherways badly bruised and mashed but luckily no bones were broken. Dr. Moore of Clinton Falls attended the young man's injuries.

MOSS AT RUSSELLVILLE

Large Crowd Greeted Democratic Candidate in Republican Stronghold—Speaker Wins Audience by Clear Speech.

PROVES POINTS FROM ROOSEVELT

Senator Ralph Moss, Democratic candidate for Congress from the Fifth District, spoke in Russellville last night. The Knights of Pythias Hall, in which the meeting was held, was filled to overflowing, a large number of Republicans being out to hear the candidate. He spoke of the issues of the day, devoting considerable time to the tariff and the currency situation. He proved many of the points he made by quotations from one of President Roosevelt's messages. He read a letter from the President of the American Bridge Company of this state in which the writer said that he had been offered structural steel from the same company at $5 a ton less in Canada than in the United States, another illustration of how American manufacturers, protected by the tariff, sell cheaper abroad than at home. The president of this company is a Republican state senator from Indiana, but advises all persons to vote for tariff reform.

F. C. Tilden also spoke briefly. The meeting was an excellent one and all were well pleased.

CITY CASE ON NEXT FRIDAY

Trial of the Suit of E. B. Lynch Against the City of Greencastle Was Not Finished on Last Day of Circuit Court.

CONCLUDED IN SPECIAL SESSION

Saturday was the last day of the fall term of the Putnam Circuit Court. It was likewise the second day of the trial of the case of E. B. Lynch against the city of Greencastle. The case was not finished, and a special session of the court will be necessary to complete the case. Judge Rawley Monday opened Clay County Circuit Court, but he hopes to find time on next Friday to come here and hear the remaining witnesses and the argument.

The case proved longer than was expected. It was very complex, many nice points of law were involved, and many witnesses were to be heard. As a result the suit, which all supposed would end Saturday, was not near its termination. It is hoped that Friday's session will give time for the witnesses and the argument, though it is possible a decision may not be reached that day.

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES

Suit has been filed by Charles F. Zels against the C. C. C. & St. L. Railroad to collect $1,000 alleged to be owing the plaintiff. The complaint alleges that the plaintiff purchased from Ratcliff Bros. contractors, two accounts against the defendant, one for $956.71 and the other for $42. That this amount was due Ratcliff Bros. for work done on the new right of way of the defendant company. That this account was assigned in writing, and that the company has failed to pay the assignee. The defendant asks judgment for $1,000.

The case of George W. Christie against the C. C. C. & St. L. Railroad was taken up Mon in Circuit Court. This is a case venue from Hendricks County. It concerns the closing of a highway through the construction work on the line of the defendant company while building its newly constructed cut-off. Trial is by jury.

A divorce was granted to Minnie Seward who had asked for a decree of separation from her husband Hollock Seward. The decree was given on the ground of habitual drunkenness and failure to provide. The custody of the thirteen-year old child goes to the plaintiff.

Judge Rawley Fri morning rendered his decision in the cases of the Star Jack Company against James Chadd and M. G. Chadd, and the Star Jack Company against F. E. Lawton and Edward W. Parry. Judge Rawley announced that the case was really one of interpretation of contract, and that he believed the contract was one for the sale of agent's privileges and not a bill of sale as had been claimed. As a result the judge found for the defendants in both cases. The cases were argued some two weeks ago.

Otho McCamrack was Sat before Judge Rawley on a charge of assault upon John Hubble, of Belle Union. McCamrack gave bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance on the first day of the next term of the Putnam Circuit Court.

Thomas Peyton was before the court on a charge of contempt. Nearly a year ago Ollie Peyton secured a divorce from Thomas Peyton and the court ordered the husband to pay $10 per month toward the support of Mrs. Peyton. This sum had not been paid. Peyton day stated that he now had a regular position and would on next pay day carry out the order of the court. He was released upon his promise.

LEAGUE ATTACKS HOSTETTER

Supposed Secretary of Anti-Saloon Organization Sends Out Radical And Untrue Attack Upon Democratic Candidate.

CHARGES DISHONEST PURPOSE

To the Voters of Putnam County:

As to the candidates for the legislature in Putnam County we believe that Mr. Lane should receive the support of every temperance voter and that he should be elected. Until the call of the special session of the legislature the League had the utmost confidence in Mr. Hostetter. He voted right on every proposition two years ago and the writer, himself a Democrat, took a great pride in mentioning Mr. Hostetter by name in all his addresses and pointing to him as a Democrat that could be trusted to vote right in spite of party. Before we began our remonstrance fight at Roachdale we went to Mr. Hostetter personally and asked him if the fight would in any way endanger his prospects of re-election for we assured him that to have him in the legislature would be better for the cause than to have the saloons out at Roachdale. He gave his consent and the saloons were remonstrated out of Franklin Township and Roachdale by a large majority.

When the special session was called Mr. Hostetter, under the mistaken notion that it would be to the interest of the Democratic party and help elect Mr. Marshall governor of Indiana, voted with the brewers and distillers, against the home of the people. He did not fear defeat himself for Mr. Lane wired him that he would withdraw from the ticket and leave him an open field if he would vote for the county unit law.

He turned his back on his past life betrayed the confidence of his friends and voted with Crawford Fairbanks and Tom Taggart in order to advance the cause of Tom Marshall. If Marshall's election demands that men like Mr. Hostetter sacrifice their honor and life-long reputation is it not going to cost more than it will be worth?

No one knows what to expect of Mr. Hostetter if he is elected and we therefore believe he should be defeated. Mr. Lane has promised to support temperance measures and his word is as good as gold. Vote for him and urge others to do the same.

Yours truly,
O. O. WHITENOCK,
District Superintendent.

We would especially call the attention of our readers to the above circular letter. Note particularly its radically partisan tone, its exaggerated statements, its unsubstantiated facts. It is the statement not of a fair and sincere man, but of a narrow radical, incapable of giving credit for actions that are past. It is the statement of a man, who, seeing one thing can see nothing else, concluding that all who are opposed to him and his view are dishonest and dishonorable. That the Anti-Saloon League should, for its own reasons, prefer a man who would always willingly yield to its dictation without thought or personal consideration of the thing desired is natural. That a fairminded man, in order to elect such a retainer of the League, should stoop to misrepresentation, to unproved charges of dishonesty of purpose and to insinuations against the fair character of such a man as Mr. Hostetter was not expected. A statement from an organization supposed to have the tone and standing of the Anti-Saloon League should be on a higher level than the cheapest and most irresponsible campaign literature. Such a letter would almost prove the often made assertion, that the League is a partisan, at least not a broad-minded organization, and not honestly in favor of temperance, but only its own brand of temperance.

VALUE OF FINE CATTLE

Of Pure Breed in Indiana is $500,000—Shorthorns Head the List; Herefords Second With Half as Many.

Figures on the number and value of pure bred cattle in Indiana, just compiled by Mary Stubbs Moore, chief of the Indiana bureau of statistics, show that more money is invested in Shorthorns than in any other class. The total number of Shorthorns on hand June 1, 1907, was 7,564 and their total value was $516,064. Herefords came second in the list, the total number being 3,586 and the total value $290,992. Both Shorthorns and Herefords come in the class of beef cattle. The other brands of beef cattle and the number and value are: Aberdeen-Angus 3,085, value $197,579; Gallopway 172, value $11,101; Polled Durham, 1,699, value $120,380.

In the class of dairy cattle, the Jerseys have the greatest total valuation and are the largest in number. The number on June 1, 1907, was 3,192 and the value $192,929. The number and value of other breeds of dairy cattle were as follows: Ayrshire 33, value $2,400; Brown Swiss 15, $1,390; Dutch Belted 7, $320; Guernsey 113, $9,160; Holstein-Friesian 643, $55,730. Only one other breed is listed among the pure breeds and that is the Red Polls. These cattle are used for both beef and dairy purposes. The number is 495 and the value $32,245. The total number of all pure bred cattle in the State on June 1, 1907, was 20,604 and the total value $1,439,290.

SQUIRREL LAW NOW ON

Present Game Law Makes it a Penalty to Shoot the Little Animals Between November 1 and July 1 of the Following Year—Warning To Hunters.

THE LAWS ARE BEING ENFORCED

The present game law makes it a penalty to shoot, destroy or possess any wild squirrel between November 1 of any years and the following July 1. It says nothing about the time from July 1 to November 1. Section 608 makes it unlawful to hunt any kind of game, except wild ducks and other water fowl, from October 1 to November 10. Both of these sections are in force today. The open season for squirrels is clearly limited to the time between July 1 and October 1. The only closed season for rabbits is from October 1 to November 10.

The object of this closed season is to keep the violators out of the fields that hunters who observe the law may have a fair chance at the quails November 10. The game laws are being better enforced and more respected every year.

Hunters should be careful not to go into the fields without their resident licenses, as some are paying heavy penalties for this violation.

I am putting in a number of extra deputies for October with instructions to arrest all violators of every kind.

Very Truly, Z. T. SWEENEY,
Commissioner.
Columbus, Ind., Oct. 7.

FOREST KING

(3) 2:18½

The great trotting stallion, Forest King, owned by Ernest McHaffie of the Forest Home Stock Farm, 11 miles east of Greencastle on the National Road, will serve a few mares this fall during the Fall Season.

Forest King has a three year old record of 2:18½ over a half mile track. He is probably the greatest trotting stallion of his age living.

Great things are expected of this horse in the next few years. He has not been raced this year but has been kept in training. All judges of trotting horses who have seen this colt have predicted that in his six-year-old form he will be a world beater.

Those having mares to be served this fall should notify Mr. McHaffie at once.

I have a right good orchard

Beyond my barn and stable

Fruit down in the cellar

And fruit upon my table.

Fruit around the garden

Fruit out in the bin

Fruit for the neighbors and fruit for the kin.

And cider by the barrel

And cider by the small,

Cider by the jug full,

And cider for us all.

When local option has won out

And nothing turns us out

Come out here for cider,

(That's no joke, you bet).

When that's within their reach.

No matter where you plant it

Hurry and be quick,

Be sure to plant an orchard

If you plant it south of Deer Creek.

LINCOLN'S PLACE

The most insane, the most partisan, the most mean and important attack made upon any man by any party in this campaign is the attack made upon Mr. Marshall in the smaller organs of the Republican press because of his statement that Lincoln would have been a Bryan man had he lived now. The Bedford Mail says it is as follows: "That Mr. Marshall should have the audacity to make the assertion that the martyred president, who was one of the fathers of the Republican party, would vote for Bryan is incomprehensible. Much less do we comprehend his claim that Lincoln would be a Bryan Democrat."

And why not? We have never thought of Lincoln as a Republican, but as a man. In Lincoln's day the Republican party stood for the rights of men. It is useless to attempt to prove that the Republican or Democratic parties of today represent the same issues as in that time. Honest men have changed from one party to the other as party principles and issues have changed. It is no great stretch of the imagination to think of Lincoln, the great hearted, human, broad-minded man, as now arrayed against an evil and unnecessary tariff, against the concentration of wealth in the hands of the few, against the Forakers and Aldriches and Platts and DePews and Penroses who have run the senate in the interests of the few and against the many. The idea of the Mail seems to be that Lincoln could not change his party. Really the country's idea of Lincoln is that he was greater than his party. We know that after him his party made the most miserable of records in the reconstruction days, a record that historians feebly admit would not have been made had Lincoln lived. No honest man is surprised at a suggestion that Lincoln might have stood for Bryan and the things he represents. Surely the Republican party would not so belittle his memory as to have him appear a hide-bound partisan renouncing the principles for which he gave up his life. There is audacity in such a suggestion. Really the audacity lies in the assumption that the memory of this great man is the special property of a party that has long ceased to remember the principles he gave to it. Where Lincoln might stand today we do not know, nor does the Republican party. Then Lincoln was the party. Now he is a symbol of honest power. And that the Republican party is not.

THAT OPTION SCARE

While Watson is running hither and yon over the state ruining his fine voice and his reputation for veracity by declaring that the Republican state ticket must be elected in order to prevent the Democrats from repealing the county local option law just passed at an expense to the state of some $110,000, Senator Hemmway is assuring President Roosevelt that the question is out of politics. He says further that it will be impossible for the Democrats to repeal the bill as the state senate will be Republican for some time. Hemmway says, according to the Bedford Mail, (Rep.):

"As to the state ticket?

"It is hard to guess as to the plurality it will get, but I see little reason why it should be any less than that for Taft," said Mr. Hemmway. "The most serious of our troubles on the state ticket was removed by the action of the Legislature in passing the county local option bill. That took the question out of the fight and cleared things for the Republicans and left the Democrats without the local issue they had been expecting to win on. It is conceded that the law must remain upon the books, as the Senate will stay Republican no matter how the House goes. The question is settled for this election at least."

These men should consult together and avoid the plain inference that someone is either mistaken or lying. Both can not be right, and Hemmway says there is no danger, and Watson is black in the face with shouting there is. And Hemmway is said to have a reputation for veracity, and Watson, well—we won't say.

OVER ENTHUSIASM

It happens, now and again, that men, perfectly honest, become so enthusiastic over some particular thing that they lose all sense of perspective, see only one side, and become biased and radical. Such men, in their over-enthusiasm, become not only biased in view, but also exaggerated in statement. Small things become mountains, ordinary acts are distorted into acts of crime and corruption. A story illustrating this attitude has just come to hand. It has to do with a member of the state legislature. Some time ago, when the $1,000 license was up, some of his friends, much interested in temperance, advised him strongly to vote for it. He did not believe it a right measure and refused to do as they requested. Immediately they became over-enthusiastic, declared that he had forfeited his manhood, that he had betrayed his people, that he had wrecked his life, sold out to the saloon interests, and in other exaggerated statements pointed out that they would see to it that his political future was ruined forever. Later, when the county local option fight was on, this man, after careful consideration of the question, came to the conclusion that it was right, and voted for the measure. At once the men who had held that the member's character was still his life ruined, his constituency betrayed, forgot their threats, hailed him as the greatest of living heroes, and declared themselves willing to vote for him for anything from president down. Now the point is that the man had not done anything dishonest in the first instance. The $1,000 license has since been shown to be far other than many at that time thought it, and that the man was honest and clear-sighted in refusing to vote for it. It was over-enthusiasm that led his friends, when he could not see it as they did, to make the abusive and untrue statements regarding him. Now they see their error. But the man and these over-enthusiastic gentlemen can never be friends again. Over-enthusiasm should some times be curbed.

Mr. Oscar Lane, candidate for representative on the Republican ticket, writes us that we have been unjust to the Anti-Saloon League. He holds that the League has a right to support him and to turn from Mr. Hostetter. We quite agree. If the League believes Mr. Lane will do all its behests without question, and knows Mr. Hostetter will not, then they are surely right, from the standpoint of politics, to support Mr. Lane. We have never quarreled with this position. Our quarrel was with the statements, direct and implied, that Mr. Hostetter, because he refused, for good and sufficient reasons, to vote for this particular measure, was, therefore, corrupt, a traitor to his pledges, an ally of the saloon interests. This does not follow, and we object to the biased and unfounded statements. The League has a right to support Mr. Lane. It has no right to accuse Mr. Hostetter of dishonesty, or to insinuate that his character has been smirched. This, and this only, we contend.

DEMOCRATIC NEWS

Two Pictures.

Few of the people of Parke County saw the moving pictures presented by one of the local theatres last Wednesday evening, and fewer still saw in them the significance that they portray. By far the greater part of the spectacle was devoted to Mr. Taft, the Republican candidate. He was first pictured standing at one of the imposing entrances to the army and navy building in Washington City; well dressed, portly, even kingly in appearance, talking to a cabinet officer. The scene then changed to the beautiful surroundings of the White House; next Mr. Taft was shown going for a morning gallop, attended by two officers of the army; then he is shown reviewing a regiment of cavalry, and a battery of artillery; the splendid trappings of the horses, the military bearing of the officers, their salutes, the formalities, all a part and parcel of what is daily seen in Russia or any military despotism, told of the form of government for which Mr. Taft stands—a government of force that people fear, and obey because they fear.

The scene changed. A great concourse of people was shown in the foreground. It is an unsightly wharf at one of the great cities of the country. People are coming and going, boats are moving on the water, but in all the throng every man is clad in the dress of a citizen—not a uniform of any kind is seen. A steamer comes to its landing, and a great throng presses forward. From the boat a crowd surges and passes along the gang plank. In the crowd a figure appears. 'Under the slouch hat left and right' as he glanced to acknowledge the plaudits of the people is seen a well known face—the face of a man known in every hamlet and on every farm in the land—the face of William J. Bryan. The scene changed to a roughly built wooden stand. A man comes forward. He is surrounded by smiling, happy faces, he is patted on the back, his hand is grasped by men and women. It is Bryan. Bryan the demagogue, if you will, but a splendid demagogue, a demagogue such as Stone was, such as Lincoln was—the man of the people, standing for a government by consent of the governed, a government whose laws are to be obeyed and respected, not through fear, but love!—Rockville Tribune.

A Matter of Veracity.

ALLEN BROTHERS

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN

The Banner Please Answer.

Greencastle, Ind., Oct. 13.

Editor Herald: I read in a local Republican paper that the election of William J. Bryan would "level" the industries of the country and "prostrate" all manner of trade.

I would call the editor's attention to the fact that on the outer edge of the city is a magnificent tin plate plant, a costly affair, that stands there day after day in solitude and quiet, a monument to man's faith in the prosperity that "walks hand in hand with the Republican party."

The editor of the local Republican paper has always been deeply interested in this great plant, and has pretended to be on the "inside" in regard to its affairs. I would like for him to tell us who "levelled" this industry and "prostrated" the tin plate trade in Greencastle. Was it William Jennings Bryan, or was it the steel trust that Mr. Bryan is so courageously fighting; the steel trust that is financing the Taft campaign? Will the Republican business men of this town think over this question carefully, and if they decide that the steel trust is responsible for the "prostration" of this industry, we will ask them: Under whose administration was the condition conceived and nurtured that made it possible for the steel trust to "level" it? Was it Mr. Bryan's or was it the administration of the man who has devoted all the vast power of his office to have Mr. Taft and the steel trust to succeed in this campaign.

Yours truly,

ANTI-TAFT.

Mr. Editor: Referring to the secret letter of the Anti-Saloon League to elect Mr. Hostetter and urging the election of Mr. Lane, as explained in your daily of the 10th, proves one thing, namely, that some having had the misfortune of all temptations, (of which Mr. Hostetter was one), sought to betray the Democrats into the Republican party.

And they said to Hanly call a special session and we will deliver them you. For a parallel case read Mr. 26th chap. 14-25. "Then one of the Twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the Chief Priests and said unto them, what will ye give me and I will deliver Him unto you? and the covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver. And from that time he sought opportunity to betray Him." SUBSCRIBER

Would Mortgage the Farm. A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd name, says "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Oct. 25c, at the Owl Drug Store.

A clipping from a Hereford, Texas newspaper, announcing the marriage of Ross McCullough and Miss Gracia Job, was received here recently by friends. Miss Job was making that her home at the time. The bride was dressed in brown and the groom wore the usual black. OBITUARY

John Wesley Low.

John Wesley Low was born in Clark County, Ills., October 5, 1867, where he grew to manhood and finally married Miss Eliza A. Hauser, November 16, 1886. This union was blessed with seven children—six boys and one girl.

At the age of about nine years his mother died and he and his brother and sister were left without the influence of mother in their home until his father's subsequent marriage to Anne C. Hawkins under whose care his remaining days of boyhood were spent.

In the year of 1897, Mr. Low and his family moved from Clark County to Cumberland County, Ills. where he resided until November 12, 1907 when he moved to Putnam County, this state.

He had always enjoyed good health until in the year of 1905, on the 13th day of February, when he was stricken down, and from that day on the fight for health and finally for life began. This ended on when death was the victor on November 2, 1908.

Mr. Low leaves five boys and one girl, one brother and one sister, one step-sister, and four half-sisters, step mother, and his loving wife to mourn his departure.

On the bright Sunday morning of November 4, the sad procession of half-mile or more moved from the Low home to the little church at Reelsville, where funeral services were conducted by Rev. Kirk after which the remains were laid at rest by his brothers of the I. O. O. F. Lodge of Carbon.

Jamima Call Bishop.

Jamima Call Bishop was born near Greencastle, Ind., January 19, 1840, departed this life, October 7, 1908, being at the time of her death 68 years, 8 months and 19 days old. Early in life, probably when she was twelve years old she united with the Christiana Church at Sumerset, later moving her membership to New Maysville where she was a faithful member, when her health would permit, until her death.

She was the daughter of John and Tolley Call both of whom passed away several years ago. She is one of a family consisting of five daughters and two sons.

She was married in marriage to John Bishop May 19, 1865, and leaves behind her to mourn her demise. But while his home will be sad and lonely, he can find comfort in the words of the master, when he sayeth, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

We can only say may the good deeds of her life and her instructive words live long in the hearts of those who love her, and may husband and wife finally be reunited in that city which hath foundation and whose builder and maker is God.

Why should our tears in sorrow flow When God recalls his own, And bids them leave this world of woe For an immortal crown. Is not even death again to those Whose lives to God are given Gladly with their eyes they close To one who in Heaven. Her work is done, her work is done, And she is at rest, the victory won She has entered into rest. Thee our sorrows lead to flow God has called his own. But let our hearts be woe Still say, Thy will be done.

The funeral was held at the Christian Church, conducted by Rev. W. H. Bishop, in presence of a large number of friends and sympathetic friends. Her body was carried by six pieces and laid at rest in the beautiful cemetery here on Thursday noon. All that loving hands could do was done and whom we call dead lives with her God evermore.

HORSE FELL ON THE PORCH

Exciting Runaway on Bloomington Street That Ended in a Spill on Andrew Hanna's Front Steps Late Last Night.

RAN TOO FAST TO MAKE TURN

Andrew Hanna was roused from his slumbers about nine o'clock Thursday night by what he at first supposed was an earthquake. Later he discovered it was only a horse that in a freak runaway had ended its career by falling upon his porch. The horse was owned, so it is said, by Edgar Wood. The vehicle was empty when first seen going north on Bloomington Street. The horse was then running at top speed. At the corner of Bloomington and Washington Streets the animal was unable to make the turn. It crossed Chamber's yard, and still unable to turn, ran upon Andrew Hanna's porch. Here the buggy caught on one of the porch pillars, tearing the harness from the horse, which then slipped and fell against the house, striking with terrific force.

Neighbors gathered and the horse was taken to the livery barn, and later was reported none the worse for its frantic run and fall.

LETTER OF THANKS

Editor Herald: The Ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps and the Comrades of Greencastle Post, G. A. R., desire to express their most cordial thanks to one and all who contributed to the splendid success of the reunion on last Thursday, the 8th instant.

Their special thanks are extended to the patriotic citizens for the beautiful display of flags and bunting as a welcome to the visiting Posts; to the Court House officials for the use of the Assembly Room and corridors, and assistance of attendants; to Mr. W. A. Grogan of the Belnap Hotel and to Mr. E. B. Lynch and R. J. Gillespie for their generous courtesies; to the Fife and Drum Corps consisting of Hon. T. T. Moore and Messrs. J. S. Hunter, Elam Denny and Chas. Conklin, for the inspiring and martial music; to Comrade Rev. D. K. Landes for his eloquent and appropriate invocation; to Comrades Martin, Starr and Ratcliff for their apt and happy responses to the welcome extended to their Posts; to Comrade J. D. Alexander for his orate and touching address, "In which he poured out his patriotic soul;" to Mrs. Frank Donner for her thrilling recitation of "The Old Veteran;" to Mr. Albert Moran for his spirited rendition of the patriotic song, "The Sword of Bunker Hill;" for the heart-to-heart talks of a most delightful variety—in reminiscence, pathos, and merriment, from Mrs. Aggie Hitt, of the Woman's Relief Corps, from Comrades Fessler, Daugherty, Baisley, Wheat and Hardin, and to Rev. Dr. VanDyke for his impressive Benediction.

To the Banner and to the Herald we express our thankful appreciation for the generous and timely publication of the notices and program of the reunion, and also for their full and faithful reports of the exercises.

There was not a single incident to mar the enjoyment of the occasion; and the Woman's Relief Corps and Greencastle Post expresses their highest gratification to the visiting Posts from Cloverdale, Bainbridge and Portland Mills, and to other guests for their prompt and patriotic response to our invitation—a response which has made Thursday, October 8, 1908, "a red-letter day," of unalloyed pleasure in the reunion of the Woman's Relief Corps and the Grand Army Posts of Putnam County.

May we meet again!

JESSE M. LEE,

Commander of Greencastle Post

G. A. R.

Greencastle, Ind., Oct. 10, 1908.

In connection with the above letter of thanks the following letter from Comrade Alexander the distinguished and revered Department Commander speaks for itself:

Bedford, Ind., Oct. 9, 1908.

General Jesse M. Lee,

Greencastle, Ind.

Dear Comrade:

I take this occasion to thank you in my "own proper person" for courtesies extended to me on yesterday, and also to you, and the Comrades of your Post and the Woman's Relief Corps in the name of the department of Indiana for your splendid meeting, and the courtesies and kindness shown to all, the officers of the department and visiting comrades. It was certainly a "red letter day" to us all. My train was late in arriving in Bedford, and when I reached home I had a "roaring headache," but glad I had the privilege of being with you all, for I certainly enjoyed being there, and meeting so many Comrades. I was not very well all day, as I had a little fever, which lasted me until in the night.

Accept my kindest wishes for yourself and the continued prosperity of your Post, and all Posts in your county, and believe me as ever, Your Comrade in F. C. & L.,

John D. Alexander,

Comm. Dept. Ind. G. A. R.

AN AMUSING INCIDENT

As the old soldiers, to the number of some score, were standing at the Monon station Thursday evening waiting for the train south, an amusing incident happened. Of the score of veterans a majority were Democrats. Naturally they and their Republican brethren fell into a discussion of politics and especially the recently enacted local option law. In the thick of the discussion a Republican veteran very much the worse for many drinks of that which local option is to prohibit, pushed his way into the crowd, and declared that he was a Republican and very much in favor of county local option. The climax was reached, however, when, striking an attitude, the inebriated man declared that "I and Hanly stand on the same platform." All of which proves that politics makes strange companions.

COMMISSIONERS IN PARKE CO.

Putnam Fathers in Neighbor County To Arrange for the Construction Of Gravel Road on Russell Township Line.

The members of the Putnam County board of Commissioners were in Parke County Thursday to meet with the Commissioners from that County in considering the advisability of constructing an improved road between the two counties along the Russell Township line. It is understood that Russell Township and the adjoining township in Parke County are both able, financially to construct the road and it is probable that it will be built soon.

MONON COAL ROAD

W. H. McDoel Judge Fields, vice president, and B. E. Taylor, general manager of the Monon line, on Saturday completed a three days' examination of that line, among other things going over the new coal branch. As a passenger road not much was expected, but that line of service is proving more profitable than had been anticipated. The officials speak of the main line and Indianapolis division as doing a very satisfactory business at the present time. There was a time during the summer when business dragged some what, but at present it is quite heavy.

LOCAL POSTS ENTERTAIN

Members of Woman's Relief Corps And of the Grand Army of the Republic Act as Hosts to Other Putnam County Posts.

A DAY FILLED WITH PLEASURE

When Comrade Starr, of Bainbridge Post of the G. A. R. rose to respond in behalf of his post to the address of welcome of Gen. Lee, he expressed a sentiment that all, for the day at least, agreed with. He declared that the old soldiers own this country, and that they are entitled to every thing in sight. At least the old soldiers and the members of the Woman's Relief Corps owned the City of Greencastle Thursday. It was old soldiers day. The streets were bright with bunting and flags, and all the citizens turned out to do honor to this reunion of the veterans of Putnam County.

The Greencastle Posts of the G. A. R. and the W. R. C. were today the hosts to the other posts of Putnam County. There were present here the posts from Cloverdale, Bainbridge, Russellville and Portland Mills. A royal welcome had been planned for the visiting members, and the plan was fully carried out.

Members of the local posts were early astir. The first committee met at the court house at 7:30 o'clock, and all were busy from that time on. Incoming posts were met at the stations by reception committees and escorted to the court house, led by a "sheep-skin band" composed of T. T. Moore, fife; Elam Denny, Sam Hunter and Chas. Conklin, drums.

The exercises of the day began shortly after 10:30 with an address of welcome by Gen. Lee, commander of the Greencastle Post. This address was in the General's best vein, bright, witty, filled with anecdote, and calculated to put the visitors and the entire audience in the best of humor. He was followed by representatives from the visiting posts, Captain Martin speaking for Cloverdale, Comrade Ratcliff for Portland Mills and Comrade Starr for Bainbridge. Russellville Post did not respond.

After singing the meeting adjourned for lunch, which was served in the corridor just outside the G. A. R. Hall. The lunch was delightfully served and most heartily appreciated.

After dinner the hosts and visitors assembled in the gaily decorated assembly room for the afternoon's program. After music the large audience listened to an address by J. D. Alexander. The speakers efforts were well received and much appreciated. Mr. Albert Moran gave a song that was one of the hits of the afternoon. The meeting was then given over to short addresses by visiting members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. Short talks were also given by members of the local post.

Was Gaily Decorated.

The square was gay with flags. Almost every business house displayed the patriotism of the proprietors and their respect and veneration for the old soldiers as expressed in the unfurling of flags. Old Glory fluttered from doors and windows and bunting was twined about posts and draped in the show windows.

Notes of the G. A. R.

Cloverdale brought a delegation of 50.

Elam Denny, T. T. Moore, William Hunter and Charley Conklin constituted the drum corps, which made music. Mr. Moore played the fife, Mr. Hunter the bass drum and the other two men tenor drums.

That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases. If we would properly investigate them, and in confirmation of this conviction, he points with pride to the "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and distressing disorders, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of grateful testimonials contributed by it of catarrhal pelvic troubles, painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus and other disorders, caused by weakness, ulceration of uterus and kindred ailments, often after many other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle wrapper.
