

GREAT CROWD HEARS SPEECH AND CHEERS W. J. BRYAN

Largest Audience to Ever Hear Political Speech in Putnam County Turns Out to Listen to the Great Commoner
Discuss the Issues of the Campaign
—Talked for About 15 Minutes

AT LEAST 7000 PEOPLE THERE

Sunset Hill Never Before Presented the Sight It Did This Afternoon—Train Bearing the Great Commoner Reached Sunset Hill at 1:20—Col. Matson Accompanied Mr. Bryan from Lafayette and Introduced Him to the Great Crowd

A crowd estimated at from 7,000 to 8,000 persons greeted W. J. Bryan at Sunset Hill Tuesday afternoon, when the Great Commoner addressed the people of Putnam County. Never before did as large a crowd attend a political meeting in Putnam County.
Sunset Hill was literally covered with a surging mass of humanity and on the railroad right of way behind the speakers' stand were at least 1,000 people who could not get into the enclosure in front of the speakers' stand.

The crowd began to gather early and at 12:30 many were already on the ground. From that time on the people came in great crowds. A large enclosure had been wired off in front of the speakers' stand to prevent the scurries driving too near the stand.
At 12:45 Congressman Sullivan of Tennessee began to address the restless crowd, which at that time constituted several thousand. Mr. Sullivan spoke until the arrival of the Bryan train. The special was due to arrive at 1:15 but it was a few minutes late. The speakers' platform was placed at the edge of the railroad right of way with a shoot running to the train. Upon the arrival of Mr. Bryan he stepped out of the train upon the shoot and walked up the stand. Col. C. C. Matson introduced Mr. Bryan to the crowd.

Crowd Cheers "The Commoner."
As the speaker stepped upon the stand the great crowd began to cheer and the whole hillside was a mass of waving hats, handkerchiefs and umbrellas. After several seconds of applause the noise diminished sufficiently to allow Col. C. C.
Matson to introduce the speaker. As Mr. Bryan began to speak a hush fell over the audience and everyone in the crowd was all attention. Frequently there were hearty bursts of applause. Mr. Bryan spoke for about 15 minutes. He then returned to his train and started on his way south.
The special train consisted of an engine and two special coaches. The two coaches were full of prominent democrats and newspaper men, who were accompanying Mr. Bryan on his tour through the state. Stokes Jackson, state chairman, was in the party and was one of those to leave the train and take a seat upon the platform.

WHAT MR. BRYAN SAID

Proposals of the Argument of the Speech Made by the Democratic Candidate Tuesday Afternoon.

Mr. Bryan paid his respects to several of the issues of the day. He declared that anyone who was in favor of purity in politics, honestly in factor of elections uninfluenced by money and secret pull could not be against the publicity plank in the democratic platform. Publicity before the election could do no honest candidate any harm, and if conditions this year are as they were four years ago, then the people ought to

after their record of 1907, make them give bond that they will not cause another panic. Their word is not good.

If Mr. Taft and the president could not prevent the panic of 1907 when
Mr. Taft was in the cabinet, how can
Mr. Taft all alone accomplish this result when the president is off in South Africa.

If you vote the Republican ticket without knowing who contributed to the campaign you may be sorry when you see the list of contributors—after the election.

NOTES OF THE DAY

The Bainbridge Band arrived early Tuesday morning.

Many stores closed to allow the employees to hear Mr. Bryan.

The crowd began to arrive early and by eight o'clock many were on the streets.

The DePauw Democratic Club,
headed by a drum corps, marched to the grounds.

Everybody was in good humor and all were strong in their advocacy of Mr. Bryan and his ideas.

The down-town stores and many residences displayed flags and bunting in honor of Mr. Bryan's visit.

At least two hundred buggies
were on Sunset Hill behind the wired-in enclosure. Everybody was there.

Col. C. C. Matson accompanied Mr.
Bryan on his southern tour. Mr.
Bryan will speak in Louisville tonight.

The Bainbridge Band, headed a large delegation which marched from the square to Sunset Hill at near 12:30 o'clock.

Cloverdale township was here en masse. Seventy-five tickets for Greencastle were sold this morning and at noon 40 more came up. Beside there were many who drove up.

Col. C. C. Matson, who introduced the speaker of the day to the great crowd, went to Crawfordville this morning and came down on the Bryan Special. Col. Matson and Mr.
Bryan are long time friends.

The Hon. R. D. Sullivan, Congressman from Tennessee, arrived this morning from Wisconsin, where he had been stumpng the state. Mr.
Sullivan addressed the crowd at Sunset hill until the arrival of Mr.
Bryan.

James P. Priest of Bainbridge, 75 years old, was an early morning caller at the Herald office. Mr. Priest although old in years, is strong and hearty. "Yes, I'm here to hear the next President," said Mr. Priest. "I'm just as young as I ever was and could walk from Bainbridge to Greencastle to vote for Bryan, if it was necessary."

ASSAULTS CLOVERDALE MAN

Cleve McAvoy, a Baker, is Attacked
By Another of His Trade, Who Hurls a Brick—Victim is Badly Injured—Is Arrested at Interurban Station for Intoxication.

EXPLAINED IT TO THE OFFICERS

Cleve McAvoy of Cloverdale, was arrested at the interurban station
Friday and locked up for intoxication. When taken into custody last night he was so much under the influence of liquor that he knew nothing. His head was bandaged when arrested. This morning he told the officers that he had been assaulted at Seelyville yesterday.

McAvoy said that he had gone to Seelyville Sunday to accept a situation as a baker. The baker who was succeeded by McAvoy and who was let out got drunk Friday and going to his former working place attacked McAvoy.

The angered man slipped up behind McAvoy and hit him on the head with a brick, badly cutting his head and scalp. McAvoy was so badly injured that a physician was called to dress his wounds.

The prisoner this morning declared that the whiskey and drugs given him by the physician while the wound was being dressed was the cause of his intoxicated condition when he arrived here last night on his way home to Cloverdale. The man was released on a suspended sentence this morning and allowed to go to his home.

Wagon and Horse Runs Away.

What is believed to have been an attempted hold-up occurred late Friday afternoon at the covered bridge over Walnut Creek just west of town. Frank Hall, driver for the Sackett Grocery Store, was the intended victim. Hall, however, put up stiff fight with the robber and managed to throw him off. The approach of a buggy scared the robber
and he ran.

Hall had been to deliver some groceries near Fern. It was late when he reached the bridge on his way home. As Hall drove into the bridge a man standing by the road asked if he could ride to town. Hall told him he could.

The man jumped into the rear end of the wagon and walking to the front grabbed Hall from behind.
Hall grappled with the man and both tumbled from the wagon. The horse taking fright, ran away. As Hall and the man continued to tussle the approach of a buggy was heard. At the approach of the buggy the robber broke loose from Hall and ran down the creek. Hall walked to town and told the officers of the occurrence. The officers immediately drove to the scene but could find no trace of the holdup man.

North Side Tuesday Afternoon—Is Arrested and Landed in Jail.

PAYS FINE FOR INTOXICATION

Marshal Reeves was struck across the cheek with a billiard cue late Tuesday afternoon by Clarence Cox, who lives near Belle Union. The men were in a pool room at the time.

Cox was playing pool when Reeves
and Officer Stone went into the room.
Cox is young in appearance and the Marshal asked him if he was 21 years old. As the result of words which followed Cox, who was intoxicated, became angry and struck the officer.

Policeman Stone stepped in and stopped the fight by landing a blow on the jaw of Mr. Cox which took the fight out of him. Cox was then arrested and put in jail. This afternoon he was before the Mayor and fined $15 for intoxication. He paid the fine. Cox pleaded guilty.

Next Morning—Smoke Fills The Air.

Fire which started Monday afternoon from burning trash on the farm of Charley Frakes, two miles west of Brick Chapel, burned over twenty acres of land, destroying nine hay stacks and much fencing. The fire burned all night and was still burning this morning. The loss will reach into the hundreds of dollars.

For a time a large corn field was threatened. Virtually every man in the neighborhood turned out to fight
the blaze and by hard efforts managed to save the field.

J. F. Crisk the tenant on the farm was burning burrs on the farm yesterday afternoon when the fire got a start on him. This occurred near 3:30 o'clock. The fire spread over the meadow rapidly and soon the hay stacks began to go. Help was summoned and an effort made to stop the blaze, but it had gained such headway that there was little use.

Fencing went in a hurry and soon
the flames began to threaten a corn field. Virtually every man in the neighborhood was at the scene by this time and all effort was directed toward saving the corn. Finally after much effort the field was saved.
The fire burned all night and was still burning this morning. A large number of the farmers watched the fire all night. The fire caused the air to be filled with smoke. The loss will reach far up into the hundreds of dollars.

Hay Wagon Broke Down.

drove to the home of Miss Flossie

There they were entertained at sup-social evening was enjoyed. On their way home the hay wagon broke down and the young ladies were forced to sollicit the aid of a farmer, who loaned them another hay wagon in which they came home. The evening's events were most enjoyable.

ACCEPTS THE NOMINATION

Daniel C. Brackney Gives His Reasons for Taking a Place on the Independence Party Ticket.

DID NOT CANVASS FOR SIGNERS

The people being desirous to know how I will treat the nomination for Congress which has come to me without any solicitation whatever upon my part, I will say that I have given the subject careful consideration and having remained out of politics for fourteen years voting from an independent standpoint, and to represent the people in the United States Congress is an honor no loyal citizen should turn his back upon. I therefore, shall have to let the people say no.

The habit of machine voting by the people for the past fifty years has been the outgrowth of political bossism and corrupt office holders. Through corrupt officials the money power of this country, has fastened its yoke of oppression upon the people. This year is noted for more machine-made candidates than ever before in the history of the country. And the people are awakening to the fact that they should fasten their seal of condemnation upon graft and greed, are more determined to stamp out bossism than ever before.

The paramount issue to be considered in this state is the temperance question. We now have a local option law that should be maintained for the general good and welfare of the people, and to assist in the enforcement of such a law by the state, there should be some laws regulating the interstate commerce as well as the federal license law, which is a menace to the enforcement of prohibition. If I shall be elected to represent the people of the Fifth District in Congress, I will use my best efforts to secure the passage of a law to prevent the issuing of government license to sell intoxicating liquors within a prohibition state. And every proposition for me to consider shall be balanced in the scales of equal justice to all the people.

LABOR COMES FROM BRAZIL

Large Delegations From Clay County Unions Come Here to Welcome Gompers Saturday Afternoon.

TWO MEN FROM EACH UNION

All arrangements have been made to give a grand reception Saturday evening to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, when he arrives to speak to the laboring men. "The Grand Old Man of Labor" as he is affectionately known to the working men of the country, will arrive in this city at 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening and a meeting of the representatives of the various trades and labor unions was held at the miners' hall last evening to appoint a reception committee to go to Greencastle to meet Mr. Gompers and party and escort them to this city.

Patrick Golden, president of the United Mine Workers of District 8, was chosen chairman of the meeting last night and Joseph W. Williams was secretary. A number of short talks were made endorsing the action of Mr. Gompers in touring the country in behalf of Bryan on account of the injunction and labor planks of the Democratic platform.

It was decided that two men should be selected from each local union to compose the reception committee, which is to go to Greencastle tomorrow afternoon to meet Mr. Gompers and party. The following members of the reception committee were selected:

Carpenters' Union, Albert Whitner and Lawrence King.

Painters' Union, William Marshall

Clerks' Union, Joseph Dial and Paul Becker.

Printers' Union, Charles Barton and Ivan Gildewell.

Miners' Union, Sam Lynch and Patrick Golden.

Bricklayers' Union, Fred Butterman and Dennis Vanbibber.

Hod Carriers' Union, William Nichols and John Kennedy.

Electrical Workers' Union, L. M. Moore and William Reed.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION IS INJURED IN FOOTBALL

Delegates From the Various Schools Of the County Meet in All-Day Session at the Court House on Sunday.

Howard Dean of Roachdale Got Hard Fall in Saturday's Game With Greencastle High School. McKeen Field.

JUDGE RAWLEY GIVES ADDRESS

Sunday the delegates from the various Sabbath Schools of the County held a convention at the court house in this city. It was an all-day's session, including a program for both forenoon and afternoon. It also included an excellent dinner served to the delegates at the Palace Restaurant at noon. The large dining room on the second floor was given over to the Sunday School workers, and a most enjoyable time was had there.

The morning session was called to order at 10:30 o'clock and the devotional exercises were conducted by A. O. Lockridge. The rest of the session was given over to reports of officers and committees. After dinner addresses were delivered by Dr. Hoagland, Dr. VanDyke and Judge Rawley. Dr. VanDyke spoke on the subject of the "Study of the Bible in the Home." Dr. Hoagland discussed the "Relation of the Church to the School." Judge Rawley spoke on "The Largest Sunday School in the West." He gave some of his experiences as a Judge of the Juvenile Court, and stated that it was his opinion that the carelessness of parents in regard to the doings of their children between the ages of eight and fifteen was largely responsible for many of the children before the Juvenile Court.

The convention was an immense success, and O. L. Jones, county president, Minnie Bowen, county secretary, T. C. Grooms and A. O. Lockridge of this city are deserving of the thanks of all present for their untiring efforts to make the success possible.

HE HAS RECOVERED, HOWE

In the football game between high school teams of Greencastle and Roachdale played here on last Saturday, Howard Dean, one of Roachdale players, received injuries that were at first supposed to be serious. In one of the scrimmages Dean received a blow on the back of the neck that stunned him for a moment and rendered him delirious. He was taken to Dr. Preston's office, where he received medical attention, seemed to be suffering great pain and was frequently attacked by muscular contractions that rendered him unable to move. It was feared, at the time, that he was seriously hurt.

He recovered sufficiently, however, to go to the train with the team this morning. It is reported that he is quite recovered. In fact we are told that he was able to be about the streets Saturday night.

LARGE CROWD FOR GOMPERS

"The Grand Old Man of Labor" Arrives in Greencastle Saturday Night Over Two Hours Late, But Is Given a Great and Enthusiastic Reception—Spoke But a Few Minutes.

DENOUNCES WATSON AND TAFT

Samuel Gompers, "The Grand Old Man of Labor," addressed a large gathering of citizens and students at the interurban station Saturday night. Mr. Gompers' car was over two hours late, being scheduled to arrive here at 5:20, and on account of the other speeches he was to make the same evening, his special car did not tarry long in Greencastle.

When the car pulled into the station cheers were sent up for the "Grand Old Man." The reception committee representing Greencastle and the reception committee from Brazil climbed aboard and greeted the speaker. Mr. Gompers was introduced to the people by Lincoln Snyder, and when the speaker stepped before the crowd, on the back platform of his car, the cheering could be heard for squares.

Mr. Gompers spoke but briefly. The lateness of the hour and the condition of his voice, which was very weak, compelled him to make his remarks short. He said that Watson should be defeated at the polls because of his utter uselessness, as a Congressman, to the people. He declared that Marshall was the friend of the workingmen, and all the people, and that he should be the one to elect. Of the national ticket Mr. Gompers said, that "Injunction Taft" should be turned down by the people. As for Mr. Bryan, the speaker appealed to all laboring men, as he said, to elect him, as he represented, to vote for this champion of the laboring man and the American people.

Mr. Gompers then turned amid the loud cheering to the crowd, for his appointments at Brazil and Terre Haute, where he was scheduled to speak the same evening. If Greencastle's demonstration, where organized labor does not exist, counts for anything, Mr. Gompers must have had large crowds at Brazil and Terre Haute, at which places all trades and crafts are highly organized.

HEAR OHIO CONGRESSMAN

Assembly Room Well Filled by Democrats Who Listen to John J. Lentz's Exposition of the Political Questions.

CLEAR AND FORCEFUL SPEAKER

In spite of the fact that it was an afternoon speech and that many people who wished to hear him could not come, Congressman John J. Lentz, of Ohio, drew a good crowd Saturday afternoon. Mr. Lentz is a man of good appearance upon the platform, and has the ability to make points clearly and forcefully. He discussed the political issues from the Democratic point of view for more than an hour, and the intense interest on the part of the audience showed that his oratory was effective.

He spoke of the tariff and the chief issues of the campaign, and coming as he did directly after Maxwell last night, the discussion of these things was particularly timely. Mr. Maxwell started many toward the Democratic camp, and Mr. Lentz gave them added impetus. It was a clear and forceful exposition and very convincing.

THE GOMPERS SPEECH.

It is probably fair to say that few people who went to hear Samuel Gompers Saturday night expected just the sort of speech he made. They had not looked for such plain, unqualified statements of the unfriendliness of Watson and Taft for the office they seek. It came as a surprise in Greencastle because that which is the paramount issue with labor has not been the issue here. There are many in Greencastle that have believed that the temperance issue was claiming the entire attention of all the people of the state. Others have felt that the tariff was an important question of the campaign. To the laboring men both these issues are secondary to certain propositions which they believe will vitally affect labor. The attitude of men who are candidates toward these propositions is, to laboring men, the thing of prime importance. The record of Watson and Taft has not been such as to please labor. And labor is not to be satisfied with political promises. It believes that the leopard can not change its spots. By their record they judge them. The temperance Republicans are willing to take Watson upon his promise, ignoring his past, ignoring his record of broken political pledges. Labor runs no such risk. And Saturday night, in speaking here, Mr. Gompers assumed that he was speaking to an audience of union men, men familiar with the record of every one who has had to do with legislation, and who know the record of Watson and Taft. The earnestness, the striking personality of the speaker, the directness of his charge of unfriendliness, the solemnity of his appeal had its effect even upon the comparatively unsympathetic crowd, unsympathetic only because non-union. No wonder with those men who have been accustomed to look upon Mr. Gompers as their leader in battles innumerable, their adviser in times of stress and trouble, his words are a burning call to duty. And labor is hearing the call of Samuel Gompers.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

That good men can honestly differ in opinion all sane men will allow. Only the partisan and the man with doubtful motives is sure that he and his belief is right and all opposed corrupt and dishonest. The temperance man is not a friend of temperance who carries the movement into politics. As we have said, Democrats who were for temperance now stand by the county option bill. They feared some features of it, but now that it has passed, they do not propose to repeal it till it has showed that it will not accomplish the things promised by its supporters. If it does accomplish this it will continue to stand. And yet, in spite of this, the fight goes on as a purely political measure. The Anti-Saloon League and the Republican party have joined hands in this fight, and each insists on calling the statements made by honest Democrats lies. Each insists in making unjust attacks on honest temperance Democrats. We say the League has joined hands with the Republican party, for we can see no way in which the League's efforts in this county differ from the ways of the Republican party, except that the League is secret and covert, while most of the Republican work is open. Let the League remember that honest Prohibitionists, certainly as good temperance men as those of the League, do not approve of the bill just passed nor of Governor Hanly. The candidate for president on the Prohibition ticket said recently in a speech at Seymour as follows, as reported by the Seymour Republican, a paper of the same politics as its name:

"He even spoke quite harshly of Governor Hanly who is praised by many in Indiana. He opposes county local option and that too is commended by temperance members of the Republican party in this state as well as temperance people in other parties as being a wise measure from the standpoint of temperance."

We call attention to this as denoting that honest men may differ as to methods. That these men, so denounced and attacked by the League, may be for temperance, and an attack upon them may do more harm to the cause than any good that may result from intimidating others so that they will in the future more readily do the behest of the League. The movement looks to many like good Republican politics, but very poor temperance work.

THOSE BREWERY POSTERS

It is illustrative of the regard for truth of the Republican party in this campaign, that they should attempt to associate the bills, being placed upon the bill boards in opposition to county option, with the Democratic party. As a matter of fact this is purely brewery business. Any sane man knows that such bills would not aid the Democratic party. Rather they would tend to injure it. Such action on the part of Democrats would be suicidal. As a matter of fact it would be a good play for the Republican party to post such bills, and there are not lacking those who see such a trick in the present billing of the city. As a matter of fact such methods appeal only to the unthinking. Putnam County will not go wet or dry because of the actions of the saloon men, but because of the actions of the friends of temperance. People will not be frightened into voting wet because of any financial reasoning, but forced to vote wet by anger and disgust excited by those who hope to do the temperance cause good. These bills should teach that this is not a time for strife between those who have heretofore stood shoulder to shoulder and now differ as to a theory. These posters should teach that the fight is about to begin with one side united and the other side divided and being still further divided by the senseless and insane attacks of some who pose as the friends of temperance. This is the lesson of the bills, but it will not be heeded.

LANE AND THE SENATORSHIP

Mr. Lane's candidacy for the position of representative from Putnam County has some interesting features in addition to those connected with the question of county option. One of the most interesting is that Mr. Lane is practically pledged to support Governor Hanly for the senate of the United States. Mr. Lane's position on this matter is as follows: It is understood that the Anti-Saloon League, in return for the services rendered the cause by Governor Hanly in calling the special session of the legislature, has agreed to support him for the senatorship. All candidates supported by the Anti-Saloon League have pledged themselves to aid any legislation desired by the League. At least this pledge has been presented to a number of candidates and only those who have been supported who signed it. The League is supporting Mr. Lane, and it is natural to suppose that he has given that body assurance that he was with it in all things relating to temperance. Now Senator Hemenway has made no decided record for temperance, and Governor Hanly has made a record for little else. There must be temperance legislation at Washington and the league believes that Hanly would find time, in spite of his heavy lecture work, to take care of it. He will, therefore, be supported for that position in opposition to Hemenway, and Mr. Lane is looked upon as one of those who will aid. This is nothing against Mr. Lane or the League, but the idea does not go well with some Republicans who have not loved Governor Hanly in the last year and more.

Word comes from every corner that Democratic success is in the air. Think of it, even New York, Ohio and Wisconsin are classed "doubtful states" even by the Republicans who are prone to admit nothing unless forced to it.

Its a land slide, boys, and nothing can stop it. Not even "Sunrise Bill Taft" and the creative Republican press can put on the brakes.

We wonder what Charley Zeis thinks of his chances for the post-office.

Old Putnam County will respond to the call by giving the largest Democratic victory in its history.

Two weeks from today all the Democrats will be Oh! So Happy!

DEMOCRATIC NEWS

Industrial Monopoly.

The people ought to realize that they are face to face with a serious condition. Within recent months they must have seen that their own control—such control that is as the public ought to exert—over the transportation system of the country is fast slipping away from them. There has been more railroad mileage absorbed by a few wealthy men—by Harriman in particular—in the last two years than in any previous twenty-five year period in our history. Consider the triumphal march of Harriman! Two years ago when the President turned on him it was thought that he was out of the game. Now he is the most powerful railroad influence in the world. He controls $1,000,000,000 of railroad capital, and is operating lines from ocean to ocean—several of them. With the exception of the Hill roads, Harriman is practically the master west of the Mississippi. Having made himself supreme there, he turned his attention to the East. As Mr. Lewis showed in The News of Tuesday, this man controls the Baltimore & Ohio, the Norfolk & Western, the Illinois Central, the Georgia Central, the Wabash Pittsburgh terminals, the Alton, the Clover-Leaf and the Erie. Just what is the nature of his relation to some of these properties will not be known—till after the election! But that he is master of most of them, and influential in all of them is indisputable. Last of all he broke into the Rock Island only a few days ago, when he advanced money to that company. Practically everything except the Hill roads in the Northwest, the Vanderbilt lines and the Pennsylvania is now under the control of Harriman. The Rockefeller-Harriman combination, Morgan and Hill are today the masters of our transportation system. And these men, let us not forget, are to be "permitted" to increase rates 10 per cent after the election.

What has happened in the railroad business has happened in the steel industry. Here we have another billion-dollar concern which is the master of the steel industry. Many of the wisest business men believe that this giant trust has, by its policy of keeping up prices, done much to retard the longed-for improvement in commercial conditions. Prices have been kept at a figure so high as to discourage building operations and railroad extensions and improvements. This has curtailed the demand for labor, reduced the capacity of laboring men to consume, and so affected the business of thousands and hundreds of thousands of men all over the country. The trust, instead of putting prices low enough to stimulate the demand, reduces its output, and closes its mills, thus throwing the burden of supporting the idle workmen on the communities in which they reside. In Wheeling, for instance, from 4,000 to 5,000 men have been idle for more than a year. The trust has preferred a comparatively small business at high prices to a large business at low—and yet remunerative prices. So we have an imperial industrialism which is quite indifferent to the general welfare, but which, according to the standpatters, the Government must care for. We believe that the straightest path to the cure of such conditions lies through the reform of the tariff, and a general withdrawal of all special privileges on which these men have fattened. It does not seem to us that it is a good time to talk about protection and prosperity. For the steel trust is protected, and yet it has done much by its methods to delay the return of prosperity.

For our part, we regard the situation as serious. The people will have to deal with it in some way, and at an early day, and this without regard to who is elected President. The problem is one involving the prevention of the concentration of power in the hands of a half dozen men by which they are able to control the transportation business of the country—a business on which the prosperity of every one depends. We must find some way to check this consolidation of manufacturing interests in a few hands, if we wish to give the laboring man a chance for employment. These latter may well consider whether it is to their interest to strengthen the railroad monopoly and the industrial trust, whether it is to their interest to favor a continuance of those high duties under which the trusts have been built up. The situation is full of peril. It is time that the eyes of the people were opened to the danger which threatens them.—Indianapolis News.

Defense of Bank Guaranty.

In a speech at Columbus, Neb.,

Wednesday on the Bank Guaranty Deposit question Mr. Bryan said: "The same objection now made to the guaranty of bank deposits was made against fire insurance when it was first suggested. Then its opponents argued learnedly that to insure all houses was to make some men careless about fire, and that it would lead others to burn their houses in order to get the insurance. If that argument had prevailed we would have no insurance today, but the people wisely decided that we should have protection against fire, so that it was better to punish criminally the few who burn their houses than to leave unprotected the many whose houses were likely to burn by accident."

"The case in favor of guaranteed banks is even stronger than the case of fire insurance, because the 100 per cent penalty against the stockholders added to the entire loss of his investment, is sufficient to prevent carelessness and the amount of money called out of hiding will more than repay the tax which is imposed upon the bank. From every standpoint it is beneficial, because it helps the depositor, it helps the community and it helps the bank."

Every time the Republicans attempt to deceive the people on a moral issue something in their devious record turns up to show the inconsistency of their party. Just now Governor Hanly is going over the State fairly preaching a gospel of temperance. It is a well known fact that he has been a frequent guest at the Columbia Club, the wealthy Republican organization at Indianapolis, where whisky and beer are sold and drunk every day and night in the week, including Sundays. It is equally well known that Ed Ballard, a Republican of prominence has been running a gambling resort at West Baden within a half mile of the French Lick, of which the Governor had so much to say two years ago and since. Back when Levi P. Morton was Vice-President of the United States, the Republican undertook one of their moral temperance bunks, and set up against the proposition that Vice-President was the actual proprietor of one of the biggest saloons in Washington City. Elsewhere this issue will be found a telegram from Washington showing that party of Prohibitionists on a visit to the White House had wine offered them, which placed them under embarrassing necessity of declining. The Republicans of Indiana will do all in their power to favor with the saloon vote, while Governor Hanly is preaching temperance, are in a nice position to insist that a Democrat should vote with them on the temperance question. HOW GENERAL LEE STANDS

Retired Officer Would Support the Democratic Candidate if he Should Vote This Fall—Would be Just One "Scratch"—Would Override Political Beliefs by Personal Friendship and Vote for Mr. Taft.

IS STRONG IN DEMOCRATIC BELIEF

When shown an alleged interview written by Louis Ludlow and published in the Indianapolis Star this morning, which stated that he had said that if he voted this year he would vote for Mr. Taft, and that he advised all of the old soldiers in Indiana to do the same, Major General Jesse M. Lee, retired, gave an entirely different version of what he had said to Mr. Ludlow.

"I am a Democrat," said General Lee. "I have always been a Democrat, and if I voted this year I would vote the Democratic ticket, excepting in one instance. I would vote for Mr. Taft."

"My reasons for this are purely personal. Mr. Taft and myself have been warm personal friends for years and I would vote for him on that account. As far as the rest of the ticket is concerned I would vote for the Democratic candidates."

"I am not going to vote, however, as I leave for San Antonio tomorrow, to be there all winter. I have not advised my comrades to vote for Mr. Taft, nor will I do so."

"I am a Democrat and believe in Democratic principles. This bosh of the Republicans saying that if Mr. Bryan is elected there will be no crops, that the sun will be hid by a mist, that business will cease. That is all."

"In Indiana? Why I would vote for Mr. Marshall and all the rest of the Democrats. Mr. Watson is not the man who should fill the Governor's chair. If I should vote in Indiana I should certainly vote for Mr. Marshall."

"And if I should advise my comrades to vote I would advise them to vote for Mr. Marshall. But I am not advising. I believe the old soldiers are competent and capable of deciding these things for themselves."

"My friendship for Mr. Taft began years ago. He was at the head of the War Department when I was a Major General. I know the man well and admire him. He is a personal friend and if I voted this year I would vote for Mr. Taft. I would vote for him because he is my friend and not because of his political belief."

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN

AS TO REPUBLICAN MORALS.

A Cloverdale Democrat is Roused to Reply to Some Statements in Regard to the Democratic Party made by Mr. Moore.

Cloverdale, Ind., Oct. 19, '08. Editor Herald:

The Republicans have had their spell-binders here and the people have been treated to the usual amount of "dope" dished up in regulation "Artful Dodger" style. The entertainment was furnished by Mr. George W. Hanna, Mr. Maxwell and Thomas T. Moore who, by the way, was stripped by Governor Hanna who spoke here recently, of the credit of being the respected father of the Moore Remonstrance Law. Gov. Hanna surprised his hearers here when he laid claim to all the credit of suggesting and securing the passage of the law that bears the name of Mr. Moore. Mr. Moore did not dispute the claim of the Governor and Democrats and Republicans alike regret to see Mr. Moore despoiled of the honor he has in the past been claiming as author and promoter of the Moore Law. Mr. Moore made his characteristic campaign speech, and pointed with pride, backward, to his legislative record.

He said, however, that he was opposed to the special session of the legislature recently called by the governor, and admitted that the governor had the Republicans in a box and the only thing that they could do was to pass the County Option Law, for if they did not they would be called cowards by the Democrats and this Mr. Moore could not stand, and hence to avoid the accusation of cowardice the Republicans were forced to pass the bill. Mr. Moore told us that it would be no easy thing to put the Local Option Law into operation as it would require at least 1040 legal voters to put the law to test, and that it would be well to have many more than 1040 legal voters as many named might be taken from the petition. He did not tell us that it would cost the taxpayers of the county about $3500 to hold a special election, and that this expense would have to be met every two years, or in other words that it would cost the taxpayers of the county about $150 per month as long as the law lived to vote saloons out of a Republican Township, by the way, the strongest and most enthusiastic hot-bed of Republicanism in Putnam County, Greencastle Township and City. Mr. Moore never mentioned the fact that every Democratic Township in Putnam

County had already settled the saloon question, but as a parting shot at us told us to vote for morality and the Republican party and not vote with the saloon party, (i. e.) the Democrats.

Mr. Moore has evidently but little faith in the morality of the voters of Greencastle, and Greencastle Township, since he virtually admits that the City of Greencastle, and the Township is unable to handle the saloon question alone. He fears that God and morality and the Republican majority located almost in the shadow of DePauw University cannot, or could not, vote saloons out of Greencastle without calling for help of the other thirteen townships of the county. O, shame, shame! Now Mr. Moore, when next you make a speech, will you please explain why Greencastle Township and City could not, if we had a township option law, vote out the saloons at its own expense. Why would it call on the Democratic townships for help?

You boast of Greencastle as being the seat of intelligence, the home of morality, the strong-hold of Republicanism, (the only township in the county that ever elected a negro to a public office), the place that gave birth to Asbury University, and now the home of the greatest Methodist College west of the Alleghany Mountains, with all its boasted faculty, who are now playing politics, and urging the unsophisticated students under their charge to vote the Republican ticket, with all these elements combined you confess yourself unable to do what Cloverdale Township and Town did almost twenty years ago. We settled the saloon question at our own expense and did not get a single penny from Greencastle. We made no loud howl either, nor did we try to make a political question out of the saloon or drug store. We did this work, not as a political party, but citizens, friends and neighbors, and at that time we had about 200 Democratic majority in our township, and still Mr. Moore had the audacity to come down here and call the Democratic party the brewery party. O, shame on you, Mr. Moore. We hope you will take these facts of history into your dome of thought and that they may brew and work until you can free yourself of that bitter partisan feeling that makes you think that the Republican party has a patent, copyright or option on all intelligence, decency and morality.

NO VOTE FOR REPUBLICANS

Attempt of Putnam Republicans to Have Prohibitionists Withdraw Their Candidate for Representative in Favor of Lane Fails.

DOES NOT STAND FOR THEIR WAY

It has just been made public that the Republican organization of Putnam County, through Chairman Zeis and Mr. VanArsdel, have been attempting to get the Prohibition party of the county to withdraw its candidate for Representative, Richard W. Raaf, in favor of Mr. Lane. The party leaders have positively refused to do so. They hold that Mr. Lane, standing upon the Republican ticket, does not represent the things they desire, and that they will not be serving prohibition to vote for him. Especially after hearing and consulting with their candidate for governor do they take that position. Mr. Haynes intimated that the law passed at the special session left the temperance situation in the state more unsatisfactory than before. The Prohibition party stands for state-wide prohibition, and no half-way measures.

One Prohibitionist this morning stated that if it came to a vote for Lane or Hostetter he would vote for Hostetter, as the Democratic candidate had already cast a vote for state-wide prohibition.

MANY HEAR PROHIBITION

Candidate for Governor on the Dry Ticket Tells the Voters of Putnam Of the Weakness of Local Option in the Temperance Fight.

ROASTS BOTH OLD PARTIES

The Prohibitionists of Putnam County were a proud lot Fri morning and they have reason to be proud. They had the largest crowd that has attended a night meeting in Greencastle this year. When we look back a little and remember that only a few years ago such a gathering would have been impossible, we see what a gain has been made, at least in the attitude toward the party. An excellent quartet helped draw the crowd, and entertained it after it was there.

The chief speech of the evening was made by Sumner W. Haynes, candidate for governor on the Prohibition ticket. He spoke for two hours and held the attention well during that time. Perhaps the most striking thing said by Mr. Haynes was that in his opinion county local option was not a valuable remedy for the liquor evil. He believed that the Moore Remonstrance was as satisfactory as any measure that could be passed short of prohibition. He stated that now Governor Hanly was claiming credit for the Moore law, which in fact was drawn by the Anti-Saloon League. He said county local option made 92 prize rings in the state to be fought over every two years, an expensive and unsatisfactory situation.

WILL EMPLOY THE MEN

Western Firm Agrees to Give Work To All Men Let Out by Eastern Concern if Bryan is Elected.

The effort of certain manufacturing concerns to intimidate or coerce employees by telling them that if Bryan is elected plants will close or work will be scarce was forcibly met today. One of the concerns notifying its men that its plant would close if Bryan is elected was the Sharples Separator Company, at Westchester, Pa., which, it is said, forced its 1,000 employees to march in the Hughes parade in that town recently. Chairman Norman E. Mack, of the Democratic committee, today received a letter from the Iowa Dairy Separator Company, of Waterloo, Ia., one of the Sharples competitors, in which it offers employment to all of the Sharples people who are let out.

In the letter president W. W. Marsh says: "We, as the largest manufacturers of cream separators in the United States, will agree, in the event of Bryan's election, and the threats of the Sharples company being put into effect, to take the men into our employ. In view of the fact that the finished product of the steel trust is the raw material of a separator factory, and under the present tariff the steel trust is permitted to charge us 50 per cent more and does charge us 50 per cent more than we could purchase it for in the world's market. The Sharples company must be talking as shareholders in the United States Steel Corporation rather than as separator manufacturers."—Indianapolis News.

DEATH OF JOHN EARP

John Earp, aged 77 years, one of Putnam County's oldest citizens, and for many years a prominent Greencastle business man, died suddenly Saturday morning at his home in the north part of town. Mr. Earp had been in failing health for some time and was unable to be out, but his death was not expected. About 5 o'clock this morning he was found by his wife, who alone survives him, lifeless on the floor, where he had fallen against a stove, supposedly just after getting up. Mr. Earp was the first agent of the Big Four Road here and held that position for more than twenty years. He was for a time employed in the old Putnam County bank on the west side and later purchased a hardware store on the west side, in the building now occupied by Charley Kelley. He retired from this business a few years ago.

The funeral service on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Brick Chapel, conducted by Rev. David Van Dyke.

T. T. MOORE OBJECTS

Recently Governor Hanly, in his speeches over the state, has been rather pointedly claiming that the credit for securing the temperance legislation known as the Moore Remonstrance Law was due to Hanly and not to Mr. T. T. Moore. This statement took rather definite form in Cloverdale, and has become so common with Hanly that Mr. Haynes mentioned it last night. Mr. Moore objects seriously to this attitude of the governor's and intimates that anyone who claims credit for that law other than himself and the secretary of the Anti-Saloon League is well beyond the line which separates truth from falsehood. We can not blame Mr. Moore, for it begins to look as if Hanly was claiming all that has been done by his party in the state.

BRICK ROADS IN COUNTY

Marion County Commissioners Decide on More Permanent Rural Roadway.

$12,000 TO $30,000 PER MILE

County Commissioners John McGregor, John Mendenhall and William H. Roberts of Marion County have returned from Delaware County, where they became enthusiastic as to the desirability of building brick roadways in the county districts.

The trip to Delaware County was made after a petition had been filed with the commissioners by eighty property owners in Warren township, asking for permission to build a brick road from the east line of Cumberland for three miles west toward Indianapolis. It is the aim of the petitioners eventually to obtain a brick road all the way from Cumberland to Indianapolis, a distance of six miles, but the road law makes three miles the limit for one petition. If the road is ordered, Warren township, as a whole, will have to pay for it.

County Commissioner Mendenhall said yesterday that the Marion County Commissioners found that the township in which Muncie is situated is spending $400,000 in "bricking" county roads leading in all directions out of Muncie. The commissioners were delighted with what they saw, and it is their opinion that brick pavement in the county would be cheaper in the long run than gravel or crushed stone roads which have to be repaired constantly.

"When the Warren township petition was presented the other day, I was inclined to oppose paving county roads with brick," said Mr. Mendenhall. "But after I saw the roads in Delaware County I was converted to the belief that brick roads are a good thing."

The commissioners learned that in Delaware County roadways twenty two feet wide were being paved and gutters and curb added at the expense of about $30,000 a mile. Roadways sixteen feet wide, with straight curb, were being paved for about $12,000 a mile.

Mr. Mendenhall said that when it was taken into account that broken stone roads cost about $8,000 a mile, paved roads which would not have to be repaired often would not be expensive in cost.

DOC HURST'S BARN BURNS

Fire Destroys Structure at the Corner of Indiana and Olive Streets Last Night at Near 11 O'clock—Origin of the Fire is Unknown Although it is Believed That Tramps Probably Started it.

TWO HOUSES CATCH FROM FIRE

Fire of unknown origin totally destroyed the barn belonging to Doc Hurst, at his residence at the corner of Indiana and Olive Sts. Wednesday night. The fire occurred at near 11:30 o'clock. The barn, together with its contents consisting of a buggy, harness, hay and grain were destroyed. The horse which was in the stable, was gotten out.

The blaze was not discovered until the fire had gained much headway and when the fire department arrived at the scene the barn was falling in. There was no chance to save it. During the fire sparks blew into the houses of Dr. Lawton and Enos Townsend but bucket brigades soon extinguished the blazes started by them.

The origin of the fire is a mystery. The general belief, however, is that a tramp, who had gone to the barn to sleep, dropped a spark from his cigar or pipe into the hay. The loss will reach several hundred dollars.

SOME VERY FALSE ALARMS

Assertions Circulated by Republicans Far From the Actual Facts as Revealed by State Statistics.

The Republicans, on the stump and through circulars, are sending out some comparisons of prices of farm products under the administration of Cleveland and Roosevelt. The facts are badly garbled, and prove nothing. It is asserted that under Democracy farm products were low, and under Republican administration, high. The facts are they have been high and low under both administrations. The first years of the Cleveland second administration saw some of the highest prices for farm products of any time since the war. Hogs sold at that time for $8.75 a price not reached since. On the other hand, in the time of the Republican rule between 1888 and 1892 farm products were at the lowest. Corn, at that time sold on the Chicago markets for less than 30 cents per bushel, and oats for less than twenty, a price not reached in Chicago under Cleveland.

Such comparisons of the price of products means nothing. Prices of farm products in America depend upon competition with the world, and rise and fall as the world's need for our products varies. No administrative policy will affect farm products till we consume all and more than we produce. On the other hand the tariff has raised the price of all manufactured articles which are sold here some 47 per cent. It costs nearly twice as much to live now as it did ten years ago, a condition due entirely to the tariff and the trusts.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and open to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the closest scrutiny. Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious ingredients and that they are made from native medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians. As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, prostrating, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

HATE TO ADMIT THE TRUTH

The poor, disheartened Republicans, who witnessed the great ovation given Mr. Bryan Tuesday hate to admit the truth. Next morning and Tuesday afternoon, the "long faced crew" could be seen standing around in little bunches, their faces the picture of despair, discussing the event of the day and wondering how it all happened. So disheartened and dejected are they that they just cannot muster up enough courage to admit the truth.

The gang members attempt to pass over the subject of the meeting by saying, "Oh, I guess about 1,500 people would cover the crowd." It is not surprising that they talk in this way. They hate to admit the truth.

Newspaper men on the train, who have made a study of crowds and who are competent to judge them, stated yesterday that there were between 7000 and 9000 people on Sunset Hill when W. J. Bryan spoke.
