OBITUARY

Roy Clyde Hanks.

Roy Clyde Hanks, born November 1, 1886, died November 17, 1908; aged 22 years and 16 days. Since June 2 he had been confined to the bed and there is no way for us to express or even to realize how great his suffering had been during that period of time, yet through it all he was ever cheerful and hopeful, always ready to greet everyone with a pleasant smile.

He was very appreciative for everything done for him by friends and relatives, especially did he appreciate the loving care given by his mother, often calling her to his bedside and kissing her hands and face, he would say: "You are such a good mother." Sickness and suffering oftentimes cause a change of heart when otherwise in good health it might not take place and Roy often remarked that he could now sympathize with those who were sick and suffering and said he meant to visit and do what he could for the sick and afflicted when he was well again. Although he never united with any church he had always lived an honorable, upright life, with a kind and cheerful disposition and during his confinement to the bed, had read the Testament through, telling his mother that he had resolved to join the church when he was strong enough, and even though it is true that he was never able to do so, what a consoling thought to know that his heart was right with God to whom he looked and called upon for help in times of intense suffering.

If none were sick and none were sad, What service could we render? I think if we were always glad, We scarcely could be tender. Did our beloved never need Our patient ministrations, Earth would grow cold and miss, Indeed Its sweetest consolation.

The funeral occurred at Brick Chapel on Thursday, November 19, and a large crowd was in attendance to pay a last tribute of respect. Services were conducted by Elder Brewer and appropriate music furnished by the Brick Chapel choir. The floral offerings were many, the casket being covered with the most beautiful flowers of many varieties contributed by friends and relatives. Six young men who were near friends of Roy were his pall bearers. The people of the neighborhood extend to the bereaved family their warmest sympathy.

John E. Berry.

John E. Berry, son of David and Elizabeth Berry, was born December 28, 1830, in Montgomery County, State of Indiana; died November 17, 1908—aged 77 years, 11 months and 18 days. He was married to Nancy Barnett August 4, 1857, who died January 25, 1883. By this union there were five children born—James Charles, William Mary E., and Clarence who still survive the deceased with the exception of William who died March 22, 1889. Again November 10, 1884, he was reunited in marriage to Jane Everson who died March 6, 1907.

Mr. Berry was a well known citizen of Putnam County and was held in the highest esteem as being a good man by all his neighbors. The most striking characteristic of his life was that of being quiet, yet always sweet and in a good humor, every day the same, though the hardships were severe and the burden of life at times was heavy he never complained but in a gentle and modest way made the brightest rays of sunshine come into the hearts of those who were in his presence. He was a most devoted husband, always giving the closest attention to his faithful companion who was afflicted for several years before her death. By familiar friends he is known as "Uncle John" brought about because of his undivided kindness to all who knew him.

When a young man Mr. Berry united with the church and was a member of the M. E. Church at Brick Chapel until called to that home above. The funeral services were held at the Brick Chapel M. E. church Thursday, November 19, at 2:30 p. m. the pastor, Rev. Dodd officiating.

A child of God called home again. A faithful husband, father and friend. To join many loved ones gone before. Who wait for him on the celestial shore. Where sorrow and pain are not known.

To be with the Father on the throne, There to abide in peace, joy and love, Living evermore with saints above, Patiently waiting when we shall come.

After the last race of life is run, When we can join in that praise, That while here on earth all our days Have been spent in such a way, That we, all on that glorious day, Can meet with the one who has gone, Abiding forever in joy and song.

Joseph R. Parish.

Joseph R. Parish was born in Putnam County near Greencastle, November 28, 1838; departed this life November 22, 1908. He was married to Miss Laurinda Jane Lewis November 21, 1868, who preceded him to the grave about 27 years ago. To this union were born five children, Mrs. Ed. Farmer, Mrs. Emery Lane, Mrs. Elmer Stephens who survive him, Mrs. Rachel Bell and Ora preceded him to the grave. He was the second oldest child of eight children of William and Mary Ann Parish, all of whom have preceded him to the grave except one sister, Mrs. Clay Reeves. He was a kind and loving father, an affectionate brother, a good neighbor. No one knew him who did not respect him. He had been afflicted for many years but bore his suffering with patience. His last sickness was only of two weeks' duration when death came and claimed him. Weep not dear children and sister. Your father and brother is not dead but asleep in Jesus. Your loss is his eternal gain. Do not weep as those who have no hope. Dear father you have left us, And your loss we deeply feel, But it was God that has taken you, He can all our sorrow heal.

Father how we loved you, No mortal tongue can tell, But our parting won't be everlasting, But a brief farewell.

Dear brother you have left me all alone, But I hope to see you In that Heavenly home Where we'll never say goodbye.

Minerva Iddings Todd.

Minerva Todd, daughter of Joshua and Mary Iddings was born in Guilford County, North Carolina July 11, 1833, and died November 17, 1908, aged 75 years, 4 months and 6 days. She came with her parents, three brothers and sister in the year 1836 to Hendricks County, Indiana, and stopped three and a half miles west of Danville on Thomas Howell farm, and in the fall of 1837 they moved to Floyd Township, Putnam County on the farm now owned by her nephew, John W. Iddings, where she grew to womanhood. She was married to David Todd on February 8, 1872. No children were born to this union. In the spring of 1877 she moved with her husband to Cloverdale Township where she lived until death, her husband died March 14, 1907. She leaves to mourn of her nearest relatives, two nephews and one niece Frances M. and John W. Iddings and Mrs. Hugh L. Bovell, and a host of distant relatives and friends. She was loved by all who knew her in the community. Her funeral was held in Canaan Church, Floyd Township, conducted by Rev. Nixen of Cloverdale. Her body was laid at rest in Clear Creek Cemetery by the side of her relatives to await the resurrection morn.

Armstead E. Owen.

Armstead E. son of J. T. and M. A. Owen was born in Green County, November 23, 1867; deceased October 31, 1908, at the home of his parents in Greencastle, Ind., at the age of forty years, eleven months and eight days. He was sick but one short week of acute meningitis.

Deceased was a member of the Baptist church since 1886. Was also a member of the Tipton Masonic Lodge, No. 33, at Logansport, and of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Eel River division No. 612. He was a dutiful son, ever ready with a kind heart and a helping hand.

The funeral services were conducted from their home on Hanna Street by Rev. T. C. Vaughn, from the Text, Job 14-14: "If a man die shall he live again?" The interment took place on Sunday following at Worthington, Ind., where the final services were conducted by Rev. D. Hanna.

In Memory of Ina Burks Lane.

Died November 24, 1907. We'll cover with flowers our darling's tomb, But they will fade away; While the love of Ina in memory shall bloom, Till we meet her some sweet day.

Oh how dearly we loved you, Oh how hard to give you up, But an angel came down for you, And removed you from our flock.

We think of you dear Ina, At morning, noon and night, Our hearts are filled with sadness, Since God called you from our sight.

But we know that you have gone to sleep, In the arms of Jesus' love, And wait for us who sadly weep, In our Father's home above.

LOCAL MASONS AT ROACHDALE

Forty Members of the Greencastle Lodge Attend an Initiation and Banquet at the North County Town Friday Night.

The special which took the De Pauw routers to the football game at Crawfordsville also carried a number of Greencastle Masons, who visited the game first and then stopped at Roachdale on their way back. Here they were joined by other Greencastle Masons who went up on the evening train. These men to the number of forty were there on invitation of the Roachdale Masonic lodge, and they attended an initiation and banquet given by the Masons of that town.

Part of the initiation was in the hands of the Greencastle team, but all the exercises were taken care of by the Roachdale men. And they did it in a royal manner, too. The Greencastle visitors vote their thanks to the Roachdale lodge for a grand good time in that town.

MARSHALL NOT HANLYIZED

The Governor Elect Turns Down a Lecture Bureau's Attempt to Engage His Services in the Lecture Field During His Term as Chief Executive of the State.

NEXT 4 YEARS BELONG TO STATE

Thomas R. Marshall will devote the four years of his term as governor to the people of Indiana. He will not make the governorship a side issue to a lecture tour.

On November 16, Mr. Marshall received a proposition from the Chicago Lyceum Lecture Bureau to fill the engagements made by that bureau for the late Senator Carmack, who was one of the most brilliant orators of the south. Mr. Marshall declined to go further into the matter, informing the bureau that he intended giving his time to the people of the state who had chosen him as their chief executive.

The letter from the bureau follows:

Chicago Lyceum Bureau Chicago. Co-operative Lyceum Bureau Omaha. Columbian Lyceum Bureau St. Paul. Colt Lyceum Bureau Cleveland. Catholic Lyceum Bureau Chicago. Chas. W. Ferguson, President. Chas. E. Bentley, General manager. Suite 705 Orchestra Building Chicago. Nov. 10, 1908.

Hon. Thos. R. Marshall, Indianapolis, Ind.

Dear Sir:

We have been very much interested in your recent and successful campaign in the state of Indiana, and we have a large Chautauqua clientele who are anxious to arrange with the leading political men of the day, especially those interested in reforms, and we write to know if you would be willing to make a limited number of engagements with our assemblies next summer under our auspices.

Doubtless you noticed in the morning paper today the account of Former Senator E. W. Carmack, of Tennessee. Senator Carmack was one of the leading attractions of our list, and we had a number of Chautauqua engagements for him next summer, as well as a number of engagements under the direction of the Chicago Lyceum Bureau for him for this fall. If you would be in position to fill these engagements, we believe that most of our committees would be very glad to arrange with you.

If you would be interested in this, the writer would be glad to run down and see you within the next few days, at such time as would suit your convenience.

Congratulations upon your tremendous success in Indiana, and hoping to hear from you favorably, we remain, Yours respectfully, Chicago Lyceum Bureau, Chas. W. Ferguson, President. Mr. Marshall's reply was as follows:

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 16, 1908 Charles W. Ferguson, Chicago, Ills.

My Dear Sir:—

It may be that my views are entirely unwarranted, but I am impressed with the idea that except as such time as I may need for rest and recreation the next four years of my life belong to the people of Indiana.

I have therefore concluded to accept no Chautauqua engagements and will only be driven to accept them in the event that I cannot live upon my salary.

Very respectfully yours, THOS. R. MARSHALL.

HEMENWAY IN POLITICS

Believes Indiana Republican and That The Party Was Beaten by Temperance, But Will Win Next Time.

WILL NOT BE NEXT SENATOR

Senator Hemenway is still in politics. He said so in an interview today. Commenting on the recent election he made the following statement:

"Indiana is a Republican state and always will be, as was plainly seen from the vote that was cast for Taft. The voters lost sight of every other issue but that of prohibition. They talked and thought of nothing but that one question, prohibition and temperance, all other matters being of minor or of no importance. This is the first time I have ever been defeated, and it does not at all mean that I am out of politics. Quite the opposite is true. I don't attach any importance to the rumors that the Indiana Legislature, which is safely Democratic, will elect a Republican Senator. I am quite sure they will not elect me; I am a strong party man. Whom they will elect is too difficult for me to even guess."—Bedford Mail.

BLOOD

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor. There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high we are being refreshed—bone, muscle and brain, in body and mind—with continual flow of rich blood. This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take
