

THE MAIL

A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

Because!

THE SATURDAY EVENING MAIL is a good medium of communication between Terre Haute business men and the people who buy their goods—

Because, it has the largest circulation of any paper published in this city. But not on this account alone, but—

Because, it goes into the family circle on Saturday evening, and during Saturday night and Sunday is read thoroughly, advertisements and all, by every member of the family who can read, after which it is loaned to the neighbors.

Because, after having been read by the borrowers and buyers in the city, it is enveloped, stamped and sent to some friend or relative in some other town or city.

Because, it is a paper which reaches all classes, high and low, rich and poor.

Because, of its very large circulation among farmers.

Because, it is an especial favorite with the ladies, who do a large part of the buying of household goods, in addition to the jewelry and dress goods they wear, and are critical readers of advertisements.

Because, two editions are published, Thursday and Saturday evenings, and all advertisements go in both editions for price of one issue.

Because, its rates are cheaper, all things considered, than those of any other paper in the city.

PERSPICACITY!

ONLY three prisoners in jail.

ONLY $2.75 to St. Louis on the 20th.

THE town pumps are well patronized.

HOT weather is no respecter of persons.

SWEET home draws the flies this weather.

BARNUM is coming and the small boy is lying in wait for him.

THERE is a finely executed counterfeit half dollar in circulation.

THE date has been fixed. Barnum's show is to be here on the 10th of August.

LOOK not upon the ice-water when it beareth itself on the outside of the goblet.

NEXT Saturday is the date for that big excursion to St. Louis for $3.75 the round trip.

VELVET finish is what the barbers call the summer cut of the young men's hair.

FARMERS say this weather is good for corn. That is some comfort, as we persepire.

THE doctors do not complain of too much business—and yet they are not happy.

THE Sullivan Opera House is to be opened with the White dramatic combination.

THERE is one friend that sticketh closer than a brother this weather—a man's shirt.

ICE cream men say this weather is "something like." Glad somebody is pleased with it.

SUCH weather as this a man can avoid his creditors by walking on the sunny side of the street.

J. C. KOLSEN & Co. will not remove their hat store to Sixth street, as at one time contemplated.

EXCURSION to Vincennes to-morrow. Train leaves at nine o'clock. Round trip fare, one dollar.

PALMING a twenty cent piece on a man for a quarter will test his true inwardness better than anything else we know of.

TERRE HAUTE is no slouch as a summer resort—at least there has been considerable summer resorting here the past two weeks.

THE position of baggage master at this season of the year is of solemn responsibility, involuntary profanity and unlimited perspiration.

It has been said that acorn on the tree is better than a corn on the foot; and now that green corn is ripe we are led to say that a corn on the cob is best of all.

THE Republicans will meet in convention at the Court House next Saturday to put in nomination candidates for county offices. Delegates were selected last Saturday in the various wards and townships.

THE general health of this community is good, notwithstanding the enervating character of the weather. The diseases incidental to the summer season are thus far much less prevalent than during previous summers.

J. M. HAAS & Co. are going to fill a "long felt want"—a grain elevator. It will be erected on Main street, just east of their present warehouse, and work will be immediately commenced. It will have all modern conveniences and capacity for storing 100,000 bushels.

THE managers of the big excursion to St. Louis next Saturday have extended their route so as to take in Greencastle, Reelsville and Brazil. The round trip fare is only $4.50 from Greencastle; $4.25 from Reelsville, and $4.00 from Brazil. The train leaves Greencastle at 8:30 next Saturday morning.

Dr. Harter's Fever and Ague Specific can be found at all drug and general stores. No merchant can afford to be without it. Forsale by all druggists.

THE Universalist folks contemplate a picnic at Fort Knox, their favorite ground.

THE Turkish baths at Dr. DePuy's on north Sixth street, were put in operation this week.

FARE for the round trip to Vincennes and return, to-morrow, $1.00. Train leaves at 9 a. m. sharp.

THE Evansville and Terre Haute road, which a short time since had only five freight conductors, now has seven. Such is business.

MRS. MARY REEVES, a most estimable woman, the wife of Wm. Reeves, died at their residence on North Seventh street, Wednesday night.

TRAMPS are again overrunning the city. Housekeepers do a great wrong in feeding them and thus encouraging them to stay. Let them pass.

READERS of The Mail who may go out of the city for a few weeks or months, can have the paper mailed them free of postage, for any time desired—if it is only one week.

A MAN who awoke from a drunken sleep on the steps of the Congregational church, Tuesday morning, was startled to find an immense blue ribbon which some wag had tied on his arm.

It is estimated that 12 car loads of people will leave the city to-morrow for Vincennes, over 500 tickets having been sold already. We account for this by the fare being placed so low—$1.00 for the round trip.

ONE of the most delightful lawn socials of the season was that of Thursday evening, in Joseph Gilbert's beautiful grounds on the borders of Lake Elkhart. There was a large party and it was a success in every respect.

THE excursion given by the Ringgold Band and Governor's Guard, to-morrow, will leave the union depot at 9 a. m., arriving in Vincennes at 11 p. m. Fare for the round trip, $1.00. Meals will be furnished the excursionists for 25 cents per meal.

THE Gazette, in a review of the spring trade in this city, says a feature has been the small amount of credit asked as compared with past years. This is one of the best and healthiest evidences of the sure and reliable recovery of the retail trade from the hard times panic.

THERE is consternation in the ranks of the spiritualists. Jesse Cleveland, the artist (in whitewash) who has been of the faith lo, these many years—one of the most outspoken, zealous and enthusiastic, who never tired of telling of the wonderful mediumistic powers of his wife, now declares that it is all a fraud. The longer we live the more we find out.

BRIDGTON had a serious fire last Saturday night. It was first seen breaking out of the roof of Dan Duree's grocery store, in which was the postoffice. Mr. Duree lost everything. The drug store of Dr. Crooks, on the north, and the Millinery store of Mrs. Foss, on the south, were destroyed. Dr. Crooks saved about one-fourth of his stock, including notes and accounts, but Mrs. Foss lost all her stock, including $1,500 in money—all she had.

COUNCILMAN APPMAN, arrested for "swearing in" an alleged non resident voter at the late city election, had a preliminary examination before Esquire Cookerly this week and was acquitted. Notwithstanding all the cry of fraud at our elections, there is not much danger of anybody being punished, but if these proceedings shall cause voters to be a little more careful to guard the ballot box, some good will be accomplished.

THE Rose Dispensary—another of that good man Channey Rose's legacies—is being put in shape. It will be remembered that he left $75,000 to found a dispensary where medicines would be dispensed and advice given the poor free of charge. The articles of association were put on record in the Recorder's office this week. The officers are: W. K. Edwards, President; Uriah Jeffers, Vice President; M. S. Durham, Secretary, and Samuel McKee, Treasurer.

ONE room wouldn't hold the red-hot Democrats who assembled in Sullivan last Saturday to nominate a candidate for Circuit Judge. After a tempestuous scene, the nearly distracted chairman declared the convention adjourned sine die. One wing remained in the room and renominated Chambers Y. Patterson and the other wing went out in the yard and put in nomination Sydney B. Davis. Both factions claim to have a majority of votes and that theirs is the regular nominee. If they stick to it, the Republicans will have a show for putting in a man.

ONE of the great attractions of the excursion to St. Louis next Saturday, July 20th, is the Lafayette Park, which is comprised of thirty acres of artistically laid out grounds, diversified by gentle hills and pleasant valleys. Well graveled walks extend in all directions and moss-grown rocks form inviting retreats. In the middle of the park is an artificial lake, with water fowls sailing on its glassy surface, and a pleasing fountain in the center. Here, for a small sum, boats may be hired for a row on the water. Near the lake is a colonial statue of Benton, Missouri's greatest statesman. This statue is the work of Miss Hosmer, the American sculptress. On the south side is a copy of Boudoin's celebrated statue of Washington. On the east and west sides are rustic bridges, caves, fountains and grottoes. Flower plants abound and their gay colors charm the eye, while their sweet odors fill the air with fragrance.

SEVERAL of our very best known and oldest citizens have voluntarily come out with testimonials in the daily press, stating that they have been most successfully treated by Dr. Von Moschizker for the various diseases specially treated by him. Mr. John B. Ludowick states that his son, who had been very deaf for years, has been restored to his hearing. A. W. Heiny, of the National House, has been successfully treated for catarrh. S. D. Terry, of the Ledger, publishes a very strong statement of the Doctor's great success in his case and several others do the same. The people of Terre Haute are more fully assured that Dr. Von Moschizker is a physician of sterling merit and great experience and are eager to avail themselves of such skill, and we hope those who need his help will not delay calling at his rooms in the Terre Haute House, and further trust that he will remain with us as long as in other places he has visited.

ONE of the principal attractions of the St. Louis excursion will be the free admission to the Merchants' Exchange building to holders of excursion tickets—a brief description of which may not be out of place.

The building is located on Third street, between Pine and Chestnut streets, and is of modern Italian style. The first story being of Roman Doric order, and the upper stories of composite order. The third story facade is broken or diversified in the central portion by isolated columns extending throughout the several stories, and culminating at the main cornice in an imposing pediment. The wings at either side and the Pine and Chestnut street fronts are treated with pilasters corresponding in their details and carving with the columns.

The character of the building is one of simple dignity, depending more upon correct proportion and elegant detail than upon meretricious ornament and useless contortion of outline. In this it correctly represents the character of the business men who daily assemble within its walls.

The Grand Hall has nowhere in this country a rival in point of magnitude and is divided in three great panels, the middle one being filled with a figure grouping typifying America with its teeming products, and the two others with designs emblematic of the nationalities of Europe, Asia and Africa. The central figure of the middle panel represents the "West" or rather the metropolitan city, St. Louis, personated by a beautiful star-crowned girl. The drawing throughout, and especially the foliated work, is beautifully easy and graceful, and a unity of design prevades the entire work.

EVERYTHING will be done to make the excursion to Vincennes to-morrow, an attractive and enjoyable affair.

—OF course you observed our Chief of Fire Department as he appeared in the procession on the Fourth, in one of the noblest new side bar wagons ever seen in this city. It was made by Fish Bros. & Co., Racine, Wis. C. A. Power sells them.
