

THE MAIL

A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

Personal.

Senator Newton Booth came in this week.

D. C. Greiner went to Boston for shoes this week.

Mrs. N. K. Elliot started last Monday for Colorado.

Mrs. Isaac Mitchell started on Wednesday for Strawn, Kansas.

Mrs. John G. Williams did not go to Colorado with her husband, as stated last week.

Miss Belle Van Vorhis, of Newman, Ill., is visiting relatives and friends of this city.

John Warren has gone to the Waukegan Springs, where he will recuperate for a month.

Stanley Robbins has taken his family to Milwaukee, where they will spend the summer.

The Chicago excursionists have been dropping in this week by twos, threes, and half dozens.

James Landrum and wife are spending the school vacation at Eminence, Morgan County.

Miss Lucia Craft started, Monday morning, for St. Paul, Minn., where the summer will be spent.

Mrs. Julia E. Patrick went to Danville, Ill., on Wednesday where she will stay several weeks.

Flora and Stella Terrell of Indianapolis, are visiting their uncle, D. B. Irwin, on north Seventh street.

Rev. Darwood repeated the marriage ceremony with which they set up house-keeping half a century ago.

Miss Mollie Jones of Paris, Ill., has been visiting Miss Emma Reese, on South Seventh street, this week.

Will Koopman started last Monday, on a visit to Europe. The Exposition will be seen and he will return about the 1st of September.

Rev. G. P. Peale will preach his last sermon to-morrow previous to his summer vacation, most of which will be spent with his parents in Ohio.

A large party of relatives and friends celebrated the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Beauchamp, at their residence last Saturday evening.

James McCutcheon and Wm. Sherburne have visited St. Louis in order that all arrangements may be perfect for the accommodation of the excursionists next Saturday.

Dr. Von Moschizker has nearly all the editors in town as his patients. The Dr. is such a genial gentleman that we almost wish we had some ailment, that we might have the benefit of his skillful treatment.

Rev. A. Etheridge, who has been "on trial" in the Congregational pulpit, fills his two months' engagement to-morrow and will return to his Illinois home. Then it will be in order for the Congregational folks to say whether they will extend a call. Mr. Etheridge and his wife have made many friendships during their two months' stay.

The Gazette mentions a notable fact that the Grand Masters of the four great orders, Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights Templar, and Ancient Order of United Workmen, reside in this city. Dr. Van Valzah is Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons; Col. Edwards is Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows; Alex. Thomas is Most Eminent Grand Commander of the Knights Templar for the State; James B. Lyne is the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ancient Order of United Workmen. These are officers of the highest character in these great orders. No city of the State will likely ever be again thus honored.

Charles Stow, the advance agent of Sells Brothers' Seven Elephant show, which is to exhibit in this city two weeks from to-day, arrived in the city last night, and did us the honor to make his first call on The Mail. For four years Mr. Stow occupied a similar responsible position with Barnum's show, but this season a little question of salary caused him to cast his lot with the Sells Brothers, which is to the loss of the former and to the gain of the latter. Mr. Stow is perhaps acquainted with more newspaper men than any man in the United States, and while we know he thoroughly understands what he's doing, he does not try to impress those with whom he does business that he "knows it all." He allows a newspaper man to have some rights and something to say, and yet all the while he looks well to the interest of the managers of the show that is to come. Courteous, gentlemanly, intelligent, quickly taking in the situation, he is, in short, a model man to put in advance of a good show.

The largest procession of any secret order in this city was that of the Masons yesterday. The line of march was up Ohio street to Seventh, north to Wright & King's popular grocery store, where we will stop to note that here are to be found all the seasonable fruits and vegetables fresh and in great abundance, canned goods, fish, everything in the line of staple and fancy groceries, hams, breakfast bacon and extra dried beef and spring chickens, Graham and St. Louis Mills Patent Flour, cracked wheat, Akron oatmeal, Hudson's clean meal, grits and hominy, and in fact everything needed for the table.

P. S. Gentlemen, if you want the best tobacco, fine cut and plug, or an ordinary 10 cent cigar for 5 cents, go to Wright & King's.

Rev. F. M. Pavey and wife have returned from their Kansas trip.

S. R. Freeman appears to be the champion croquet player in this city.

Mrs. James Hunter started Thursday morning for a prolonged stay at Grand Haven.

Mrs. A. B. Pegg and Mrs. Louise Smith are visiting at Lebanon, Boone county.

Jacob White will furnish the refreshments on the Vincennes excursion to-morrow.

Will Borgan, now yardmaster at Ottumwa, Iowa, is visiting his home here for a few days.

The family of G. M. Barbour, of the Gazette, will spend the summer in Chicago, their old home.

The Mammoth Cave attracted this week Miss Boyer, Miss McFarland, Miss Kate Baur and Forest Kendall.

J. P. Crawford, Secretary of the Northern Rolling Mill Company, is visiting his old home in Pennsylvania.

C. H. Smith, of the Express, and his wife, went up to Green Lake, Wisconsin, where they will sojourn until this heated term has passed.

John Paddock returned from Washington on Thursday to survey the field as a candidate for County Auditor on the Republican ticket.

Mrs. H. Fairbanks and her daughter Miss Carrie, started yesterday for Battle Creek, Michigan, where they will join Mrs. Ed Fairbanks for the summer.

One by one the city ministers will now skip out for needed rest. Rev. C. R. Henderson, however, proposes to run his church right through the heated term.

E. A. Hess, for a long time in charge of Langford's Bindery, this week changed his place of residence to Indianapolis, much to the regret of a large circle of young people in which he was always gladly welcomed.

C. K. Benight and wife celebrated their silver wedding—twenty-fifth anniversary—Wednesday evening. The impressive ceremony of the Episcopal church was pronounced by Rev. S. F. Dunham, and then a supper was served.

John K. Graff, of the carriage making firm of Scott, Graff & Co., and Miss Alice Grandell, principal of the Second District school, were married Wednesday evening, at the residence of the bride's parents, south of the city. Rev. G. P. Peale officiated and a large party made the occasion one of unusual pleasure.

Mrs. T. H. Riddle, next door to Middle's old stand, is now closing out her stock at cost and below cost, in order to give room to an immense stock of goods suited to fall and winter, which she will in a few weeks select in person in New York.

Let's all take a visit to Vincennes to-morrow.

Bedroom furniture, did you say you were looking for? Well, just step in at R. Forster & Son's, on Ninth Fourth street, and you will find what you want at prices that will please.

When you do make up your mind to buy a musical instrument get a good one—if it is a piano, get the Chickering; or if an organ, the Mason & Hamlin. Both these instruments and others from good manufacturers are to be had on favorable terms at W. H. Paige & Co's.

This hot weather seems to have no effect on the Big Black Bear that goes so benignantly on the thronging multitude going into S. Loeb & Co's popular hat, cap and gent's furnishing house, corner of Fifth and Main, attracted by the new styles, elegant goods and low prices ruling there. Drop in there this evening and get one of the comfortable light straw hats.

It would be more comfortable, if fashion would permit, to go barefooted this weather, but so long as shoes will be worn, why of course the people will call on J. P. Tutt at his elegant shoe house in the Opera House block, because they know he deals in goods of the best manufacture, is a reliable, conscientious dealer, representing the goods for just what they are, and wants only a living profit.

Groquet does not seem to lose any of its popularity. It is a nice out-door summer game. If you want a real elegant set at a low price call at the Central Bookstore. And while there you will find lots of other pretty things to admire, none the least of which are the new and nobby styles of stationery, in paper and envelopes, calling cards, wedding outfits, etc. In blank books and commercial stationery the Central takes the lead in variety of stock and low prices.

There is one busy place in town. If you are inclined to doubt this just go down to J. H. Chapman's Market Dining Rooms about meal time and see the hundreds enjoying the splendid meals he sets for twenty-five cents. His arrangements are so perfect that one hundred people are served as promptly as half a dozen persons could be. And now one word to housewives. Don't burn out wood and spoil your temper in baking bread, but have Chapman send up daily his palatable, home flavored bread. Everybody takes it.

Ladies' Lace Mitts. A nice lot of new styles and extra lengths just received at Mrs. Riddle's, next door to T. H. Riddle's old stand.

PHOTOGRAPH FRAMES. Wright, the Photographer, has received a large lot of Frames for photographs, embracing many new and beautiful designs.

Well, this is billin' hot weather, ain't it? I don't shilly shally 'bouts I've got a dry thread on me. An' I'm that excited over the Masonic celebration an' one thing an' another, I don't know whether I'm a standin' on one end or the other. Wunt it a poor personation? I saw it every bit, an' I'll tell it 'round all it will be in the Opera House; an' wot's become of my parson an' fan, I don't know. But I don't keer. I told more'n four thousand people, yesterday, 'st of they wanted cheap eatin', an' a good eatin', an' a variety uv it, an' all manner uv kitchen truck an' garden sass, an' four an' seep an' sugar, an' blackberries an' apples, spring chickens, cabbages, beets, onions, potted meats, canned turkey, deviled ham, tongue, an' sich to go to Hippotee's, which the same is the "White Front," on Main strete, an' I think I made an impression every time.
