Next Civic Production

The eighth and final production of the Booth Tarkington Civic Theatre for the current season will open Friday, May 17. "Critic's Choice," the three act comedy by Ira Levin, will complete the 48th season of continuous performances for Civic, entitling the near north side playhouse to the caption of "America's Oldest Community Theater."

"Critic's Choice," a modern sophisticated comedy, that was produced on Broadway in 1960, and later made into a movie, will be presented for three weekends. Seat reservations may be obtained by calling the box office starting Monday, May 13.

ST. CHRISTOPHER'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

organizations at St. Christopher will receive corporate Holy Communion. After the Mass, breakfast will be served in the school social room.

Sunday evening a group of Junior CYO are planning on attending the performance of "The Music Man" at Marian College. Tickets for $1.00 can be purchased from Father Richart by the CYOs. Adult tickets are $2.00.

Any boy between the age of 8 and 10 years, who is interested in becoming a Cub Scout, is invited to contact George Deady (AX. 1-4330) or Sidney Luckett (AX. 1-6320).

Again this week High Masses are being sung at 6:15 a.m. and at 8:00 a.m.

At 6:15 Monday morning the Mass was for Lenore McEvoy at the request of Helen McCarthy.

On Tuesday morning the early Mass was also for Lenore McEvoy at the request of Nellie Sassen.

The Robert Prouty family requested that the 6:15 Mass on Wednesday be said for Ivo DuVal.

The 6:15 Masses this morning and tomorrow morning are to be said for the living and deceased members of St. Christopher parish.

The early Mass on Saturday will be a Low Mass.

At 8 o'clock on Monday the Mass was for Jack Dowd at the request of Alice Cartwright.

The eight o'clock Masses on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday are to be said for the intentions of the lay teachers at St. Christopher school . . . Tuesday, Jacqueline Bailey; Wednesday, Rachel Joyce; Thursday, Letha Schultz; and, Friday, Judith Stevens.

An Anniversary High Mass will be sung Saturday morning for Donald Ellison at the request of the Marguerite Ellison family.

Father Victor Wright was appointed pastor of new St. Gabriel parish to the northwest of us last week, effective as of May 29th. St. Gabriel will take in about one-third of St. Christopher parishioners, as well as parishioners from St. Michael's and St. Monica. Father Carl A. Shumaker, one of the seven newly ordained priests, will be assistant pastor.

A card party, benefit for the Holy Cross Brothers, will be held Saturday afternoon, May 18th, in Wm. H. Block auditorium.

Sacred Heart Discussion Group met with Mary Helen Ramsey on Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Pray your Rosary daily for peace in the world. Nora Bray
