TRUSTING WOMEN.

THEIR CONFIDENCE OFTEN LEADS TO SUFFERING.

An Ohio Woman's Experience, as Here Related, is Interesting to Every American Woman.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

It is a very sad fact that the more a woman trusts to the skill of her physician in treating her female complaints, the longer she is apt to suffer.

Lydia E. Pinkham fully realized this fact when she commenced that exhaustive study that has enabled the women of the world to help themselves. She discovered the source of female complaints, and produced the Vegetable Compound, which is their absolute cure.

When such testimony as the following is given, the woman who thinks should act quickly, and no longer permit herself to trust to incompetent doctors. The Vegetable Compound is sold by all drugists, and every woman should have it.

"The doctors had told me that unless I went to the hospital and had an operation performed I could not live. I had falling, enlargement, and ulceration of the womb."

"I was in constant misery all the time; my back ached; I was always tired. It was impossible for me to walk far or stand long at a time. I was surely a wreck. I decided that I would give your Compound and Sanative Wash a trial."

"I took three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and used two packages of Sanative Wash, and I am now almost well. I am stouter, and healthier than I have ever been in my life. My friends and neighbors and the doctors are surprised at my rapid improvement. I have told them all what I have been taking."—MRS. ANNETTA BICKMEIER, Belaire, Belmont Co., O.

HAYWARD IS HANGED.

Murderer of Catherine Ging Pays the Penalty of His Deed.

Harry Hayward was hanged Wednesday morning in Minneapolis. He made a statement of five minutes' duration, and, while not making a confession, said he hoped God would forgive him for all the harm he had ever done. The murderer went to the gallows with a laugh on his lips, and went down with the trap just as he uttered the words, lightly:

Four Ballots Required.

The Republican national convention will be held at St. Louis on June 16 next. That was the decision reached by the Republican National Committee assembled in Washington, after spirited balloting lasting two hours.

The successive ballots are shown as follows:

St. Louis.....13 14 18 22 29
San Francisco.....20 19 19 16
Pittsburg.....9 9 1 0
Chicago.....8 8 9 9 6
New York.....1 0 0 0 0

The morning was spent in hearing speeches in behalf of the contending cities, the doors being open to the various contesting delegations. This concluded, the committee began its afternoon session behind closed doors. An eager crowd choked up the corridors leading to the committee-room and awaited the announcement of results.

The first important question of the afternoon was the fixing of the date of the convention. The Executive Committee reported a resolution favoring June 16. This was amended by Committee-man Lannan, of Utah, in favor of Aug. 18. There was sharp debate, and Mr. De Young of California finally proposed a compromise between June and August—July. The Dr. Young and Lannan amendments were both defeated, and the whole matter referred to the Foreign Affairs Committee which, it is expected, will report back a resolution of censure. This was not done without opposition from the Democrats, nor until after a lively debate, in which ex-Speaker Crisp and Mr. Dingley were the chief participants. Mr. Barrett made a speech attacking the ambassador for his address at Edinburgh, in which Mr. Bayard denounced the American protective policy as fostering class legislation and corruption in public life. Mr. McCall, also of Massachusetts, made a still more bitter attack upon the ambassador.

Ex-Speaker Crisp replied to Mr. Barrett in rather an ironical tone. The purpose of the resolution, he said, was evidently to give the gentleman on the other side something on which to air their views on protection. He did think, he said, that any gentleman elected to a seat on the floor of the House believed that this resolution contained grounds for impeachment. "If you impeach Mr. Bayard for those words," said the ex-Speaker, "you must impeach a majority of the American people." Mr. McCall followed Mr. Crisp, and said that Mr. Bayard made a violent partisan speech which was obviously one of impropriety. Bayard, he said, had misrepresented the American people by saying they needed a strong master. The people of the United States, he had no master. The President was their servant. He moved to amend his resolution so as to include in it the extract from Mr. Bayard's Boston (England) speech incorporated in the McCall resolution.

BAYARD UNDER FIRE.

The Ambassador's Speeches Abroad Attacked in the House.

One of the new members of Congress, Mr. Barrett, of Massachusetts, caused a sensation in the House Tuesday by offering resolutions for the impeachment of Ambassador Bayard. The resolutions were not adopted, but the impeachment clause was stricken out and the whole matter referred to the Foreign Affairs Committee which, it is expected, will report back a resolution of censure. This was not done without opposition from the Democrats, nor until after a lively debate, in which ex-Speaker Crisp and Mr. Dingley were the chief participants.
