The modern standard Family Medicine: Cures the common every-day ills of humanity.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

From Tuesday's Daily.

At Baintown, quite an excitement was aroused by the discovery of a valise in the mill race at that place Friday. It is supposed, according to papers contained therein, to have belonged to a man named Ross. The river is being dragged.

Mrs. Carrie Craig has been ill for some time. She has been affected with lung trouble and a nervous ailment and has been confined to the house part of the time but is now considerably improved and hopes soon to be in her usual excellent health.

Henry Horgeshumer, who lives at Marmont, was up before Justice Corbin for an assault upon one Zechel. It seems to have been the outcome of a family scrap and cost Henry fourteen "plunks," and still the curtain has not fallen on the closing scene.

Eva D. Doolittle, of South Bend, Deputy Supreme Commander of the Ladies of the Macabees, is here giving a school of instructions and installing officers for the L. O. T. M. She goes from here to Tyner to help organize a Hive of L. O. T. M.'s in that place.

Mrs. Ford, of Chicago, the popular World's Fair lecturer, will lecture upon "The Women in Shakespeare," on Thursday, Jan. 30th, under the auspices of the Saturday Club at the club room in the Simon's block. General admission 35c; school children 25c. Tickets on sale at Losey's.

A short time ago a Wm. Neterer lost some money in the store of H. B. Sykes, at Elkhart. A clerk found the money and a stranger claimed to have lost it. It was given to him and now the rightful owner has sued the firm owning the store. Judgement was rendered in his favor. The case has been appealed.

A family fracas took place in West township last Sunday, whereby two brothers assumed an attitude similar to that occupied by Spain and Cuba. The result of the former was somewhat different than the latter, as one of the brothers bathed the earth with his gore, throwing up his hands and crying "nuff."

Prohibition Convention.

The prohibitionists of Marshall Co., are requested to meet at Argos on Friday, Feb. 7th, 1896 at 1 o'clock p.m. to select delegates to the state convention that convenes on Feb. 26th, 1896 at Indianapolis, and to transact such business as may come up. The prohibition ladies are invited and expected to be present, as they are eligible to be delegates to the state convention.

By order of committee.

L. W. McClure Chairman.

To Attend The Institute.

Dr. Wilson had the pleasure of entertaining prominent visitors yesterday. They were: Doctors Porter, Swearingen, and Wheelock, all of Ft. Wayne. They were enroute for South Bend to attend the St. Joseph County Medical Institute that met there yesterday. Dr. Porter is the President of the state organization while Dr. Wheelock occupies the position of secretary. They left on the 12:30 train.

FASHION.

Changeable corded fabrics, both in silk and all wool, are in great use, and appear in new and attractive effects.

The dahlia, mulberry and reddish plum shades in velvet and cloth are much used for elegant fur-trimmed costumes.

Brilliant cherry, orange, yellow, green and other striking colors are used in velvet for stock collar and vest or plastron front.

Painted buttons, of French origin, and particularly those of Louis XVI. date, are eagerly sought after just now, and command a very high price.

Among the novel elegances in the shops of the city are coats of very light-colored cloth, the coat and shoulder-cape lined with richly plaided taffeta silk.

Ribbons or narrow galloons spangled a very little on the edge make an effective and inexpensive garniture which can be arranged for neckbands, belts, edgings and braces over the shoulders.

PENCIL POINTS.

A patch is often the sign of poverty, but not when it is a strawberry patch. "No news is good news," perhaps. But you can't make an editor believe it.

It is when "the world is mine oyster" that the greedy man wants the earth. "James," said his father sternly, "I will see you in the stable this evening."

If you have any remarks to make about a mule, it is safe to say them to his face.

A young marrying man asks for the hand of his love, but he expects more than that.

Mileage Tickets Issued by the Pennsylvania Lines.

Persons who travel will find mileage tickets issued by the Pennsylvania Lines west of Pittsburgh great conveniences, as well as money savers. Principal cities and towns in Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois are reached by these lines, which also extend to Pittsburgh, Erie, Ashtabula, Cleveland, Toledo, Ft. Wayne, Chicago, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Columbus, Wheeling and other important places. Over one-half the counties in Ohio are traversed by the Pennsylvania lines, the county seats of nearly all of them being located thereon. They also traverse forty counties of Indiana, touching at county seats. Holders of mileage tickets over the Pennsylvania lines can conveniently reach any leading city or town between Pittsburgh on the east, the Mississippi river on the west, the great lakes on the north, and the Ohio river on the south, these tickets being available over the several trunk lines of the Ft. Wayne and Pan Handle routes, as well as over the numerous branches. The cost of a 1000 mile ticket is $20.00, a rate of two cents per mile, making the saving on a 100 mile ride $1.00, with proportionate larger amounts saved on longer distances. This convenient money-saver may be obtained at ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Lines. The person to see at Plymouth, Ind., for information about it is J. E. HANES, Agent.

THE New York World,

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

18 Pages a Week. 156 Papers a Year.

Is larger than any weekly or semi-weekly paper published and is the only important Democratic "weekly" published in New York City. Three times as large as the leading Republican weekly of New York City. It will be of especial advantage to you during the Presidential Campaign, as it is published every other day, except Sunday, and has all the freshness and timeliness of a daily. It combines all the news with a long list of interesting departments, unique features, cartoons and graphic illustrations, the latter being a specialty.

All these improvements have been made without any increase in the cost, which remains at one dollar per year.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and the SEMI-WEEKLY INDEPENDENT together one year for $1.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

THE NAME OF THE NEXT President of the United States

WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE

OF NOVEMBER 4, 1896.

Public interest will steadily increase, and the question how the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election are satisfied with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the country.

The New York Weekly Tribune,

the leading Republican family newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations. Also general news in attractive form, foreign correspondence covering the news of the world, an agricultural department second to none in the country, market reports which are recognized authority, fascinating short stories, complete in each number, the cream of the humorous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures, fashion plates and elaborate descriptions of woman's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest. The "New York Weekly Tribune" is an ideal family paper, with a circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from the office of a daily. Large changes are being made in its details, tending to give it greater life and variety, and especially more interest to the women and young people of the household.

A SPECIAL CONTRACT enables us to offer this splendid journal and The Semi-Weekly Independent three papers a week, for

ONE YEAR FOR ONLY $1.25, CASH IN ADVANCE.

(The regular advance subscription price of the two papers is $2.25.)
