

IS YOUR NAME HERE?

Portrait will be delivered SATURDAY FEB. 8.

Nearly Fifty Finished "Independent" Gift Portraits to be Delivered Saturday February 8 - If Your Name Appears Here Come Promptly and Get Yours.

Nearly fifty INDEPENDENT gift portraits will be ready for delivery at Ryan & Joseph's store in the Model building directly over the INDEPENDENT office on Saturday Feb. 8th.

THE PICTURES
The pictures will undoubtedly surpass the most sanguine expectations of our subscribers. The work on them has been executed in a high degree of artistic ability, and small photos have been reproduced in crayon with the greatest fidelity to features and outlines. All portraits are finished in the most excellent manner, and we do not believe that one of all those who have taken advantage of the Independents gift portrait proposition will be in the least disappointed.

OTHER ORDERS
This is the first delivery and includes only the first shipment of pictures to our portrait house in Chicago. We hope to have all portraits ordered and not covered by the appended list, ready for delivery on Saturday Feb. 15th, but whether then or a week later we will give all subscribers ample notice through the columns of the INDEPENDENT.

FRAMES
As has been understood from the beginning, there is absolutely no obligation on the part of any subscriber to have a frame for the portrait when delivered, but we have arranged to supply frames for these pictures to those who want them at prices so low that we believe none will prefer taking an unframed picture. We believe we have in store in the frames for our subscribers a surprise even greater if possible, than was our offer, to give the portraits away. In make and appearance there is not a cheap or inelegant frame in the lot. They are cheap in price only.

We shall have portraits ready for those named below on Saturday Feb. 8th. Delivery at Ryan & Joseph's store. Please be on hand promptly.

DEATH OF MRS. GRANT.

After a Short Illness Death Comes to Her Relief - Leaves a Babe but Three Days Old.

Monday Mrs. George M. Grant died after a short illness, Saturday morning a little babe was born, and from that time up to her death she has gradually sank. Every thing that could be done to save her was resorted to, but of no avail.

George Marie McCarty, was born in Ohio, May 31st, 1873. She first met Mr. Geo. Grant at South Bend, and a mutual attachment followed. On June 23, they were united in marriage in Plymouth, and have resided here ever since. Her brother Theodore, has been by her bedside ever since her serious illness. A large number of friends sympathize with the husband and brother.

The funeral services will be held today morning at 8 o'clock at St. Michaels church and the burial taking place at the Catholic cemetery.

Things We Don't Like.

We don't like to see people whining because they haven't five talents, when they hide the one the Lord has given them.

We don't like to hear a person always telling how much he loves humanity and doing nothing to help anybody.

We don't like to hear a man talk of the need of a humane society after he has kicked an inoffensive cat off the back porch.

We don't like to see a handsomely dressed woman in shabby shoes.

We don't like to hear men whose wives support them talk about the new woman.

We don't like to hear a man whose breath smells suspicious boast of his temperance principles.

We don't like to see a young man offer to carry a three-ounce parcel for his sweetheart after he has allowed his old mother to carry in the coal.

We don't like to see a woman with a $10 hat when she has holes in her stockings.

Left Twelve Hundred Dollars.

O. F. Karn, the well known horse buyer and shipper of Muncie, left this city Monday after a successful day of buying. He bought twenty one horses and left with Marshall county sellers nearly $1200. He expects to return again in about one week.

Mr. Karn expects to soon change his place of residence and is looking with considerable favor on this, the Queen City, and it is to be hoped that he may determine to come and abide with us.

A Sandbagger.

The irascible editor of the Argos Reflector placed himself on record last week as an obstructionist to the progress of arrangements for the Farmers' institute. There is no danger though that the institute will be any less a success on account of the Reflector and it is not likely that farmers of Marshall county will give much attention to the Reflector's editorial sandbagger. We don't believe the Reflector has a club big enough to pound the Farmers' institute very far away from its settled purposes. It can show its perverse and choleric disposition, however, which its farmer constituents cannot help noticing.

A Vacancy.

For several years W. F. Young has been a victim of the toothache. There are very few men but know how much nerve it takes to have this troublesome enemy to a comfortable night's sleep removed. Last week W. F. went to Fort Wayne and while there found his way into a shop where they administered gas. Young passed through the ordeal safely, but if you will observe him closely you will discover that W. F. has a fashion of putting his hand over his mouth when he laughs.

TWIN LAKES.

Jan. 31.

Literary at Gostil school house Thursday night.

A Box social will be held at Jacob Ringer's tonight.

David Holem, of South Bend, was the guest of his father.

Ben Holem had the misfortune of losing one of his best horses this week.

Protracted meeting closed at Twin Lakes church Tuesday evening with five accessions.

Miss Nettie Seider visited with her friend, Lottie Agler last Saturday night and Sunday.

C. M. Slayter and wife returned from Nappanee yesterday, where they have been visiting a few days.

There has been in the neighborhood of two hundred thousand feet of logs cut near here this winter.

Miller Bros., of Twin Lakes poultry farm, are having their first experience hatching chickens this week with good success.

Mr. Glass of whose sickness we spoke last week, died at the home of his son, last Saturday morning and was buried on Sunday p. m. The funeral was held at the Trinity church.

OF NOVEMBER 4, 1896.

Public interest will steadily increase, and the question how the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election are satisfied with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the country.

The New York Weekly Tribune, the leading Republican family newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations. Also general news in attractive form, foreign correspondence covering the news of the world, an agricultural department second to none in the country, market reports which are recognized authority, fascinating short stories, complete in each number, the cream of the humorous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures, fashion plates and elaborated descriptions of woman's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest. The "New York Weekly Tribune" is an ideal family paper, with a circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from the office of a daily. Large changes are being made in its details, tending to give it greater life and variety, and especially more interest to the women and young people of the household.
