

TYNER.

March 5, 1896.

William Wallace's baby, about five months old, is quite sick with lung fever.

Miss Dora Bennett returned last Saturday evening from a prolonged visit with relatives in Wayne county.

Garrett Jarrell, of Marion, has been in this place for a few days shaking hands with his friends.

Henry Haag spent Saturday and Sunday with his family in this place. Henry is at Valparaiso attending college.

Mrs. Myers was called to LaPaz last Sunday to see her son, Fred Myers, who was quite sick.

Jacob Pryer and family, of Monterey, visited with his father a few days this week.

In one year from the time they organized, the U. B. sewing society sewed 538 pounds of carpet rags, 112 garments, 26 quilts, 6 comforts, and pieced 97 quilt blocks. They have succeeded in raising $70 for the benefit of the new church.

Henry Jarrell entertained a large number of relatives and friends at his home on last Friday in honor of the eighty-second birthday anniversary of his mother, known as Grandma Jarrell. The relatives partook of an elegant and enjoyable dinner. Grandma is a kind and affectionate old lady, beloved and esteemed by all who know her. She is a kind and devoted Christian. As a mother, loving and true, she delights the younger generation with her stories of life years ago when she was a little girl. We wish her a succession of birthdays.

Rev. Burton organized an Epworth League at the M. E. church last Sunday afternoon. The league will meet every Sunday evening.

Quite a number have been improving the sleighing by hauling logs.

Frank Johnson's youngest child is reported sick with the measles.

Mary Walterhouse's baby is quite poorly with a very bad cold.

William Walterhouse, Sr., returned to his home in Cando, N. D., March 4th. Mrs. Walterhouse will go with the colony.

A. D. Johnson attended the Salvation army at South Bend Friday evening of last week. He said he listened to some very fine music while there.

A surprise supper was given at the home of John Haag Saturday, it being his sixty-fourth birthday. The friends did not go empty handed. They were also entertained by some fine music by Messrs. Shafer, Wallace and Roberson. All enjoyed themselves hugely and left wishing him many returns of the day.

The ladies of the U. B. sewing society and neighbors, numbering thirty-five, met at the home of Mrs. Samuel Diperd, four miles west of this place, and spent the day in sewing. Rev. Burton and family were with the guests of the day. A splendid dinner was served and all enjoyed themselves.

LAPAZ.

March 4, 1896.

John Thomas has a sale Thursday. Teachers institute here this week.

Fred Myers is complaining of being sick.

Two opticians are doing the town this week.

Mr. McCaffey, the collector for the creamery is in our city for a two weeks' stay.

Rev. Miller, of the Progressive Brethren church is at home for a few weeks.

Mr. Fuller was called to bed side of his brother who is lying very low at Milford. Mr. Phillips is doing the agent work in his absence.

Dr. Holtzendorff, of Plymouth, passed through here Sunday morning on his way to Mishawaka to make a professional call.

Miss Nellie Gregg on account of sickness was unable to return to school at Plymouth Monday.

Henry Lonaker, of South Bend, was in Lapaz visiting friends last week.

Fred Myers is again able to be about.

Miss Sluss has returned home from South Bend where she has been for the past ten days.

Bertha Martin acted as assistant in the Meyers store Friday and Saturday.

W. F. Fuller and wife have returned home from Milford where they have been nursing Mr. Fullers' brother during a severe sickness.

H. T. Shick has gone to Chicago in the interest of the hard ware store which is about at open here.

Mrs. Brugh visited in Bremen between trains Thursday.

Dr. Holtzendorff last Tuesday was called to the bed side of her uncle at Mishawaka.

Wm. Babcock has succeeded in getting full control of the Johnson building there by having use of the hall.

Chas. Zents and Bang Thayer took in Plymouth Saturday.

Master Johnson, of Plymouth, spent Sunday with the Logan boys.

Mrs. Waltz is suffering with a bilious attack.

There was a wreck on the B. & O. at this place with little damage out side of delaying trains for a few hours. A car broke down.

Fred Myers is having the roof of his residence repaired.

Rev. Peters baby has recovered from its recent severe illness.

Wm. Scottfield shipped a car load of cattle to Chicago last Friday.

Wm. Forsythe and brother, were in South Bend Sunday and Monday.

Wm. Bessie has four children very sick. Two lung fever and two grippe.

Mr. Decker was attending business in South Bend the latter part of last week.

Ira Clark's wife, who has been sick for a week, took suddenly worse Sunday but is again improving.

Rev. Linville acted as the officiating minister at the wedding of Mr. Elmer McBroom and Miss Lena Battes at Linkville, last Sunday.

The creamery is running in full blast and if present indications can be relied on it will run to its full capacity in a few weeks.

Gus Waltz not being able to procure a pair of rubbers of the required dimensions, had to walk to Teegarden and procure a pair there.

Ella Costello was housed up a few days on account of sickness.

Mrs. Barber, sister of Rev. Linville has gone to Plymouth for a long stay.

W. E. Bailey, of Plymouth has been on our streets for several days during the past week.

Misses Gonter, Annis, Linville, Miller, Linebaek and Messrs. Alberts, Gonter, Plake and Hansen made a sleighride party to the U. B. church.

ILLION.

Mar. 4 1896.

Dora Roberts, of Knox, was visiting relatives and friends in Illion last week.

John Kramer is on the sick list with a complication of diseases, and at last reports was a very sick man.

The I. O. O. O. of Bourbon and Burke installed a lodge of Daughters of Pocohontas here last Tuesday evening. Thirty-two members were initiated into the mysteries of squawdom.

Miss Metta Seavolt and Miss Ella Keyser of near Bourbon were visiting Mrs. Anna Laird last Tuesday.

Rev. French an evangelist, formerly pastor of the P. M. church at Mentone was in town Friday, and took the pulpit in Rev. Bundy's place in the evening.

The young Websters are improving oratorical powers their settling the most grievous questions of the state and international bearing. Next Friday they discuss the utility of arbitration as a means of settling all international disputes.

Quite an anxiety rests upon the minds of a few of the wild would-be rowdies in our village. It seems as though chicken flesh had a peculiar flavor to some of our boys, and as a result a wig-wam was erected among the jungles of the edge of the bank of Tippecanoe where these youngsters held high carnival.

Last Thursday night while Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Allen and wife were at church the miscreants appreciated three of Mrs. Allen's pet biddies and proceeded to the carnival ground to feast. But no matter how well such organizations are governed, murder will out, and one of the lads confessed to one of our citizens and before many days the whole lot will be dining with Sheriff Smith.

TWIN LAKES.

March 5, 1896.

Everything is booming.

Mrs. Benj. Holm is reported quite well.

The "Reading Circle" of this place is in a flourishing condition.

Miss Bertha Stockgen went from this place to Plymouth last Thursday to aid Mrs. Rev. Rothenberger in household duties.

Norman Miller and Miss Ruey Holm left Monday morning for Kaneville, Ill., to engage in work.

J. W. Nichols shipped his imported dog, "Old Bruno," to parts unknown last Friday. He will likely land in Mississippi or Georgia. The receiver will please write Mr. Nichols and receive the pedigree or return mail.

Mike Roads, of near Argos, is moving into the Caroline Burkett property, which is being vacated by Peter Mumby.

Jesse Beldon has been doing business in Ohio for a few days.

Miss Pearl Agler is engaged in work at Harvey Steele's in Plymouth.

For some unknown cause Rev. Rothenberger was not present on last Sunday to fulfill his appointment at 2:30. The hour was taken up with song and prayer.

An old-fashioned spelling school will be held at the hall next Thursday night. Everybody come and in particular bring the old maids and "school mams."

Billy Warner and Mr. Geib exchanged horrees yesterday. Billy says he will have some stock ready for the track the coming season.

Rev. Dustman will preach at Trinity next Sunday evening.

Some of our people, since reading the "Leap Year Pointers" in Tuesday's

There was a wreck on the B. & O. at this place with little damage out side of delaying trains for a few hours. A car broke down.

Fred Myers is having the roof of his residence repaired.

Rev. Peters baby has recovered from its recent severe illness.

Wm. Scottfield shipped a car load of cattle to Chicago last Friday.

Wm. Forsythe and brother, were in South Bend Sunday and Monday.

Wm. Bessie has four children very sick. Two lung fever and two grippe.

Mr. Decker was attending business in South Bend the latter part of last week.

Ira Clark's wife, who has been sick for a week, took suddenly worse Sunday but is again improving.

Rev. Linville acted as the officiating minister at the wedding of Mr. Elmer McBroom and Miss Lena Battes at Linkville, last Sunday.

The creamery is running in full blast and if present indications can be relied on it will run to its full capacity in a few weeks.

Gus Waltz not being able to procure a pair of rubbers of the required dimensions, had to walk to Teegarden and procure a pair there.

Ella Costello was housed up a few days on account of sickness.

Mrs. Barber, sister of Rev. Linville has gone to Plymouth for a long stay.

W. E. Bailey, of Plymouth has been on our streets for several days during the past week.

Misses Gonter, Annis, Linville, Miller, Linebaek and Messrs. Alberts, Gonter, Plake and Hansen made a sleighride party to the U. B. church.

ILLION.

Mar. 4 1896.

Dora Roberts, of Knox, was visiting relatives and friends in Illion last week.

John Kramer is on the sick list with a complication of diseases, and at last reports was a very sick man.

The I. O. O. O. of Bourbon and Burke installed a lodge of Daughters of Pocohontas here last Tuesday evening. Thirty-two members were initiated into the mysteries of squawdom.

Miss Metta Seavolt and Miss Ella Keyser of near Bourbon were visiting Mrs. Anna Laird last Tuesday.

Rev. French an evangelist, formerly pastor of the P. M. church at Mentone was in town Friday, and took the pulpit in Rev. Bundy's place in the evening.

The young Websters are improving oratorical powers their settling the most grievous questions of the state and international bearing. Next Friday they discuss the utility of arbitration as a means of settling all international disputes.

Quite an anxiety rests upon the minds of a few of the wild would-be rowdies in our village. It seems as though chicken flesh had a peculiar flavor to some of our boys, and as a result a wig-wam was erected among the jungles of the edge of the bank of Tippecanoe where these youngsters held high carnival.

Last Thursday night while Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Allen and wife were at church the miscreants appreciated three of Mrs. Allen's pet biddies and proceeded to the carnival ground to feast. But no matter how well such organizations are governed, murder will out, and one of the lads confessed to one of our citizens and before many days the whole lot will be dining with Sheriff Smith.

The "Reading Circle" of this place is in a flourishing condition.

Miss Bertha Stockgen went from this place to Plymouth last Thursday to aid Mrs. Rev. Rothenberger in household duties.

Norman Miller and Miss Ruey Holm left Monday morning for Kaneville, Ill., to engage in work.

J. W. Nichols shipped his imported dog, "Old Bruno," to parts unknown last Friday. He will likely land in Mississippi or Georgia. The receiver will please write Mr. Nichols and receive the pedigree or return mail.

Mike Roads, of near Argos, is moving into the Caroline Burkett property, which is being vacated by Peter Mumby.

Jesse Beldon has been doing business in Ohio for a few days.

Miss Pearl Agler is engaged in work at Harvey Steele's in Plymouth.

For some unknown cause Rev. Rothenberger was not present on last Sunday to fulfill his appointment at 2:30. The hour was taken up with song and prayer.

Mike Roads, of near Argos, is moving into the Caroline Burkett property, which is being vacated by Peter Mumby.

Billy Warner and Mr. Geib exchanged horrees yesterday. Billy says he will have some stock ready for the track the coming season.

Rev. Dustman will preach at Trinity next Sunday evening.

Some of our people, since reading the "Leap Year Pointers" in Tuesday's

There was a wreck on the B. & O. at this place with little damage out side

It Is Safe

TO SAY THAT OUR LINE OF CARPETS, MATTINGS AND SHADES

EXCEL ANYTHING EVER BEFORE HAD.

Recognizing the importance of this department for the coming spring we have put forth every effort to place in our store such a line that will be acknowledged to be far superior to anything before shown.

The line will consist of Velvets, Body and Tapestry Brussels, Pro-Brussels, Ingrains, Rag, Hemp, Cottage and Stair Carpets.

Our Extra Super, all wool, and Extra Super C. C. will bear the most critical examination, both as to quality and design.

The many beautiful, delicate, rich and tasty patterns will at once please the eye.

The prices will range from 15c. to $1.00 per yard.

And Talk about Mattings,---

Well, the line is simply peerless. You have 50 pieces from which you can make your selection. The prices will be 10c. to 35c. per yard.

And never were we so well equipped to fill your wants in the "Shade" line. Any quality, any color, with fringe or without fringe, at any price.

We believe it will be to your interest to give our line a careful and thorough inquiry before making a purchase.

BALL & CARABIN, PLYMOUTH

FOR SALE.

Hard maple trees, for shade purposes. All sizes. For information regarding same enquire of Ketcham & Wilson.

Taxicola Tablets.

Made exclusively from the leaves, barks, and roots of tropical plants that have a specific action on the liver and kidneys. No poison, no mercury,