

The Independent

SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 1896.

A SAFEGUARD.

The Widow—How strange! The people who live near the cemetery claim they are haunted by the ghosts of my three husbands.
The Friend—They should ask you to come and live with them.—Truth.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

From Wednesday's Daily.

L. Davenport, of Lapaz, was in Plymouth.

E. Spangle got in a new Estey chapel organ this morning.

J. Hagenbush, of Argos, was in this city today on business.

Ex-Judge Sidney, of Rochester, was a Plymouth visitor today.

Dr. Borton is at Culver City today performing an operation.

The trial of Scott Jackson has been postponed until April 21.

Harry Corbin is in Marquette today trying an important case.

Mrs. John Blain and Mrs. C. F. Blain spent yesterday in Argos.

Carl Reynolds and Chas. Wiltfong were in Bourbon yesterday.

Harris brothers fun makers will be at Twin Lakes next Tuesday.

Miss Jessie Thayer, of Warsaw, is the guest of Miss Angie Thayer.

Judge Burson, of Winamac, is trying the fourth ward case today.

Walter Hand, of Culver Military academy, was on our streets today.

There were registered at the Ross house today up to 1:55, 27 persons.

John Harris moved into the Keller property on North Walnut street yesterday.

John Yoder, of Hammond, is in Plymouth visiting with his daughter, Mrs. M. D. Tuttle.

Doctor Viets was called to Bourbon today, in his professional capacity to see C. B. Arnold.

Marion Guyer left today for St. Cloud county, Minnesota, where he expects to remain the coming summer.

Mrs. James Fribley visited Miss Flo Disher yesterday and returned to her home in Bourbon this morning.

Albert Gibson on South Michigan is having an addition built to his residence in the shape of a veranda.

W. L. Davis, who has been visiting in Warsaw and Goshen, returned today to continue working for E. Spangle.

Mrs. J. W. Swartz, of 604 State street, Laporte, is visiting in Plymouth and vicinity. She returned to her home Friday.

Frank Boss will return to Ann Arbor one week from Monday he having fully recovered from his recent attack of pneumonia.

Francis Lewis, of Chicago, who is employed on the Times-Herald, was in our city yesterday interviewing old acquaintances.

Jacob Leedy returned from Georgia, where he has charge of one of the colonies, to cry the Swoerland sale at Bourbon tomorrow.

W. W. Wilkinson, of Wilkinson & Co., expects his wife from Fremont, Ind., today. They will move into one of Kendall's houses.

The plan of the commencement exercises of our schools has been decided upon, and the graduating class is now hard at work on their orations.

A. E. Dickinson of the Hahnemann Medical college, who has been visiting his fellow students, Linquist and Howe, returned to California this morning.

Hiram Corse, brother of Fred Corse, living west of here, and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Elliott, died at his home in Columbia City, yesterday morning.

Mrs. Julia B. Kendall, S. E. Williams and C. C. Buck went to Plymouth this morning, where they are to attend a Presbyterian meeting.—Laporte Herald.

Hon. Chas. Reeves, in company with an architect has been looking over his property on Laporte street. It is reported that Mr. Reeves will soon commence the erection of a fine business block.

F. M. Axe's Chicago store is displaying a new line of lace curtains. They have enough percales, calicoes, etc., for all the Samantha Anns, Janes and Betties in half a dozen counties. This store prides itself considerably on its new shoe line.

Try the celebrated Perkins home-made mince meat. Kuhn's market, sole agent.

Frank Working, and family, are here today. Mr. Working is here on court business.

Silas Joseph is suffering with a cold and the aches of grippe. Mrs. Joseph is reported better today.

SEMI-WEEKLY INDEPENDENT and the Cosmopolitan, the greatest magazine in America, only $1.50 per year.

Miss Maud Fish sprained her ankle so that she was unable to assume her duties at the postoffice this afternoon.

Wm. Walters drove over to Rochester today on business. He will return Friday evening or Saturday morning.

Chas. Wilcox was suddenly taken very ill today while in Fullers fruit store and had to be taken home in a carriage. But this afternoon he is almost entirely recovered.

E. H. Petra and W. H. Crumb, of Central Union Telephone company, of Chicago, on their way to Ft. Wayne, stopped over in Plymouth today and investigated our telephone exchange.

There is one thing, no, there are two things that the great double store of Ball & Carabin have a particularly complete line of, and they are carpets and silk waist patterns. They are very fine indeed.

TO THE LADIES:—Mrs. David Holm is prepared to do all kinds of sewing. She has the "Taylor System" of dress cutting, a perfect "system" for drafting all kinds of ladies and children's garments. Corner Sycamore and 5th sts.

The Clipper quartette, of South Bend, will arrive in Plymouth tomorrow evening. A full dressed rehearsal will be held at the opera house tomorrow evening. The parade will start promptly at 12 o'clock Friday instead of 1:30 as previously announced.

Miss Maude Stoops, aged about 18 years of age, died of consumption at her home five mile northwest of Plymouth this morning at 1 o'clock. Miss Stoops had been sick but a few months. The funeral services will be held at the U. B. church, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment taking place at Oak Hill cemetery.

Holmes, who will be hanged May 7, has accepted the offer of New York publishers, and is busily engaged in writing a history of his crimes. He confesses to twenty murders and six that were planned but not executed. While he made money killing his victims, his chief aim was to gratify a fiendish delight in taking life. Polite, generous and loving were the enticing accompaniments of his bearing as he pursued the vocation of the foulest criminal monster on record.

From Thursday's Daily.

Mrs. Pius Myers is very sick. Mrs. Charles Rosenbury is very ill. Mrs. Harvey Steele is quite poorly.

Onion sets and garden seeds at W. E. Leonard's.

Julius Bluebaugh and wife have a girl baby.

New maple sugar, 10c a lb.—W. E. Leonard's.

John Bowell is in Lakeville trying to swap horses.

C. C. Buck arrived in Plymouth from Laporte this morning.

Our pickled beets are the appetizers at W. E. Leonard's store.

Lafayette Sores since last night is the proud possessor of a baby boy.

There is a trainload of ties here for the double track construction.

Geo. W. Barnes, of Culver City, was in Plymouth today on business.

Dr. Viets and student Howe went to Bourbon today to visit four of Dr. Viets' patients.

Mr. Mead returned from Chicago today. He has been attending the funeral of John Beckler.

Our 25c bulk coffee is fast taking the place of packages by reason of its excellency.—W. E. Leonard.

W. Barhan, of Valparaiso, is in Plymouth trying to organize a class for violin and guitar instruction.

Five and 10c cookies per doz.; ginger snaps, graham wafers and sweet crackers at 10c a pound at W. E. Leonard's.

Sheriff Smith is going to Indianapolis today to accompany Mercy J. Dillon on her return from the insane asylum.

Dr. Burkett returned from Kankakee on account of the rain. He reports snipe plentiful of which he got several. Some boys while boating near Bristol discovered a cave and upon investigation found a counterfeiters outfit and $4000 worth of coins.

The Franklin house is now open and doing its share of the hotel business. It is prepared to accommodate 20 guests with the best accommodations.

The daily press, of Monticello, which ever since its first issue has been along independent lines, has announced its policy in the future as republican.

The Northern Indiana medical society met with Dr. Wilson this afternoon to arrange for the meeting of the state society at Ft. Wayne, June 1st. Those from other cities in attendance were Drs. Sweringen, McKoskey, Wheelock, Ft. Wayne; Dr. Bertrand, Leiters Ford; Dr. E. L. Annis, Laporte; Dr. Reo, of Marquette; Drs. Smith and Gould, of Argos, and Dr. Hamilton, of Lapaz.

Price and Shell have a successful hatch from their incubator. They have re-filled it, and with their acquired experience expect to do better next time.

Jacob Wade and daughter, left for Marion this afternoon. Miss Wade will remain with acquaintances some time. Mr. Wade returns in two or three days.

Walter Bucher informed a reporter that he has rented the barn east of the site of the old Parker house and will start a livery there next Tuesday or Wednesday.

The Rev. W. W. Jones has received an invitation to hold a series of meetings at Rochester and will probably go there after the close of his engagement at Waukegan.

Bishop White and Rev. W. W. Raymond took the 9:49 train for Rochester where they will hold services tomorrow. They will go from there to Kewanna and then to Michigan City.

We are glad to see that grandma Shay is pleasantly settled at home, having moved in the property belonging to Richard Shay, deceased. Her many friends join in wishing her long life and much happiness.

Martindale & Stevens have placed an excellent new safe in their office today. This is of course no criterion of prosperous times for this popular firm, but it is certain to preserve important papers by their numerous clients.

The funeral services of Miss Maud Stoops will be held at the U. B. church tomorrow at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Kiley, of Waukegan conducting the services assisted by the Rev. Mr. Landis. The remains will be interred in Oak Hill cemetery.

The Hon. James M. Robinson, of Ft. Wayne, received the democratic nomination for congressman in the 12th district, which held its convention at Kendallville, last Tuesday. It is said to have been quite an enthusiastic gathering.

It was reported on the streets today that Al Crance of one of the Georgia colonies, formerly of this place had died. The report purported to have come through John Giller, but Mr. Giller said he has received no information to that effect. It is probably not true.

From Friday's Daily.

Today is dress parade at the schools. Mrs. Oliver Soice is in South Bend today.

J. P. Kirk returned to Argos this morning.

C. W. Chapman, of Warsaw, is in town today.

M. Hollingshed is in Rochester today on business.

Mrs. Judge Capron returned from Larwell at 1:55.

John Baugher trod the pavements of Plymouth today.

Swindell Bros. shipped 10000 dozen of eggs this morning.

Lot Losey is reporting for the News out of school hours.

Miss Louie Borton returned to her home in Bourbon today.

Thos. Tribbey has shipped three carloads of hogs this week.

Wm. Weaver is quite ill with symptoms of typhoid fever.

Mr. Henri, of Donaldson, was in our city today on business.

Mrs. Dr. Dunlap went to Bourbon this morning to visit patients.

John C. Kuhn is on the sick list but is still able to attend to business.

The Cycle company sent out 750 catalogues to applicants this morning.

Ten cent dress gingham for 5 cents this week at Carpenter & Bosworth.

Mrs. Dorbon, North Walnut street, is completing an addition to her house.

Samuel Barrett, of Tipton, is visiting his nephew J. C. Barrett, of this city.

Miss Libbie and Robert Philpott came from Warsaw to visit Jas. Huffman.

Mrs. W. O. Lattimore has been the guest of Mrs. J. A. Gilmore since Monday.

Mrs. Mary Dickerson, of Rutland, is visiting her daughter Mrs. David Baker.

Nicholas Fleck has platted an addition to Plymouth west of the Bicycle works.

Those who desire employment would do well to address Box 923, Plymouth, Indiana.

Albert Hoham, of Chicago, is in the city visiting his grandfather and other relatives.

E. G. Wagar, of Fair, Mich., representing the Three Rivers Robe Co., in town today.

Mr. Melburn, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Will Daniels went to Goshen the noon.

We see by a number of exchanges that Dr. C. A. Brown is getting quite a reputation as a fruit grower.

South Bend Tribune: Lorie Capron, of Plymouth, who has been in the city, has returned. Messrs. Charles Harris and Albert Bowell, of Plymouth, were in the city yesterday. James Ulrich, of this city, has gone to Plymouth, where he has accepted a position in a factory.

Miss Hattie Kelley and her mother have postponed their trip to Ohio owing to the illness of Mrs. Kelley.

Mr. W. W. Wilkinson, of the Bargain store next to Bennett & Jacox, is living in one of Mr. Wm. Kendall's houses.

Mrs. Shadel, of Delong, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Johnson during her illness returned home today.

C. A. Reeves goes to Rochester tonight in the interest of the telephone exchange he is establishing in that city.

Miss Emma Gallagher will arrive in Plymouth tonight, returning home to attend the funeral of Bert Rosenbury.

Geo. Johnson has been called to DeLeiters Ford several times lately on account of the severe sickness of his sister.

Drs. Wilson and Borton drove out into the country this morning to hold a consultation over Dr. Wilson's patients.

Peter Burgener's room at school was dismissed at 9:30 this morning on account of his having to be at the court house on a trial.

The funeral of Miss Stoop took place this afternoon, the remains being followed to the cemetery by a large concourse of friends.

Mrs. Carrie Baker returned to Ft. Wayne this morning after a two months visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Amasa Johnson.

Large portions of the Chicora wreck have come ashore the past few days at St. Joseph. The Graham Co., propose to attempt once more to locate the vessel.

Mr. Reed, proprietor of Hayes house, Warsaw passed through here today enroute to Chicago, where he joins an excursion of hotel men for California.

Miss Anna Burns, sister of H. H. Burns, of West Garro street, who has been visiting with him several days, returned to her home in Crawfordsville yesterday.

It has been learned that young De Vere who was killed at Valparaiso several days ago, was a cousin of Miss Nellie Wheeler, who is employed in this office.

D. A. Snyder in attempting to all gh from a Vandalia train yesterday, had the misfortune to strain one of his legs. Mr. Snyder realizes the fact that he is not as young as he used to be.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock Mr. N. S. Woodward will address the People's party club at its hall corner Michigan and Washington streets, on the political issues of the day.

The ladies who issued the special edition of the Goshen News a few days ago, printed one number of the edition on satin. This souvenir number was sold last Monday for $45.00.

Miss Ollie Farry returned to her mother's, south of Bloomingsburg today, after an extended visit of four or five weeks with her sister, Mrs. Alex Young, and old acquaintances.

A movement is being set in motion to have a debate on the financial problem between Secretary Carlisle, and W. H. Harvey when the former is in that city to address the workmen. Doughnuts to a house and lot, Carlisle will not tackle the free silverite.

The following persons went to attend the services of Bishop White at Kewanna. Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Raymond, Mrs. Frank Lamson and daughter, Julia, Gertrude Soice, Mrs. S. C. Jilson, Mrs. Sam Parker, Mrs. M. W. Simons, Miss Queen Cleveland and Miss Daisy Bowell.

G. W. Ames, M. A., an optician of note, is now at the Ross house for a few days to attend to anything in his line that may be presented to him. He has the finest line of lenses ever brought to this city, and guarantees satisfaction in every case. His assistant is Mrs. M. L. Ames.

While Alba Heywood was holding the boards at the opera house in Piercetown last Saturday night the clang of the fire bell, created considerable excitement. It proved to be a barn and three horses were consumed in the flames. That little city has had enough experience, to lead them to putting in a system of water work for fire protection.

Reports have been gathered from every county in Northern Indiana showing the condition of small fruits. The acreage planted is nearly double that of last year, and it is the consensus of opinion of fruit-growers that an unprecedented crop will be gathered. The fruit district along the Michigan state line reports that the peach trees are in perfect condition, and that the crops will be a record-breaker. Ten thousand trees have been planted in the several localities.

Bishop White and Rector Raymond held a service in St. Paul's church, Rochester, last evening with a large congregation present. The Bishop confirmed two youths and addressed them and preached an instructive sermon on the ministry of human hands, under the great commission of Christ in last verses of St. Matthews Gospel. This evening services will be held at Kewanna. The bishop will be at the rectory until noon tomorrow and will be pleased to see all who may call upon him.

A Few of our many bargains now on hand are:==

All wool Novelty Dress goods at 19c.

Satin de Alsace at 10c.

La Belle Crepon, looks like silk, 10c.

A $2.00 Marseilles Bed Quilt, at 99c.

A young Table Cloth—commonly called a towel at 25c., strictly all linen.

The best and largest all linen Towel, 10c.

The finest line of Organdies in the city.

Elegant Dress Gingham, at 5c. per yard.

The best Seamless Hose for ladies and children at 10c.

Ladies and Misses' Union Suits at 25c.

Ladies' Capes from 99c. upward.

Children's Jackets from $1.00 up.

And 1,000 other great bargains too numerous mention. All at

KLOEPFER'S NEW YORK STORE

Carpenter & Bosworth

East Side,
West Side,
All around the Town,

Buy Hosiery in Our
Hosiery Department.

Misses' and Children's Heavy Black Seamless Hose.....10c.
Ladies' Heavy Seamless Hose.....10c.
Ladies' White Feet Hose Black Tops.....15c., 25c., 35c. and 48c.
Ladies' Ribbed Top 10-gauge Hose worth 25c.....Our special price, 19c.
Men's Ribbed Top Heavy Mixed Half Hose.....15c.
Men's Fine Black Half Hose.....15c. to 25c.
Men's Fine Tan Half Hose.....15c. to 25c.

CARPENTER & BOSWORTH.