

THE STUDIO GIRL.

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM A YOUNG LADIES' COLLEGE.

Race Between the Sexes for Education. Health Impaired by Incessant Study.

The race between the sexes for education is to-day very close.

Ambitious girls work incessantly over their studies, and are often brought to a halt, through having sacrificed the physical to the mental.

Then begin those ailments that must be removed at once, or they will produce constant suffering. Headache, dizziness, faintness, slight vertigo, pains in the back and loins, irregularity, less of sleep and appetite, nervousness and blues, with lack of confidence; these are positive signs that woman's arch enemy is at hand.

The following letter was received by Mrs. Pinkham in May, one month after the young lady had first written, giving symptoms, and asking advice. She was ill and in great distress of mind, feeling she would not hold out till graduation, and the doctor had advised her to go home.

College, Mass.

You dear Woman:—

I should have written to you before, but you said wait a month. We are taught that the days of miracles are past. Pray what is my case? I have taken the Vegetable Compound faithfully, and obeyed you implicitly and am free from all my ills. I was a very, very sick girl. Am keeping well up in my class, and hope to do you and myself credit at graduation. ** My gratitude cannot find expression in words. Yours sincerely

friend, MARY

P. S. Some of the other girls are now using the Compound. It benefits them all.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only safe, sure and effectual remedy in such cases, as it removes the cause, purifies and invigorates the system, and gives energy and vitality.

IS NOW MRS. HARRISON

MRS. DIMMICK 17 WEDDED TO THE EX-PRESIDENT.

Ceremony Is Modest Enough to Please the Groom and Beautiful Enough to Charm the Bride—Only a Few Guests Are Bidden.

Simple Services.

The marriage of ex-President Benjamin Harrison and Mrs. Mary Scott Lord Dimmick took place in St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church, New York, at 5:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, the Rev. Dr. John Wesley Brown officiating. Two hours later they had left New York, and before noon the next day the bride was installed in her new home at Indianapolis.

This, the most notable wedding of the year in the light of its interest for the whole country, was the quietest. Not more than thirty persons saw the ceremony, and fewer still were bidden to the post-nuptial collation. Only the immediate relatives of Mrs. Dimmick and the lifelong friends of Gen. Harrison who had borne with him the burden of a national government were there. All the members of his immediate family were conspicuously absent. Mrs. Dimmick was given away by her brother-in-law, Lieut. John F. Parker, U. S. N., and Gen. Harrison was supported by Gen. R. F. Tracy, ex-Secretary of the Navy. Two ushers, E. F. Tibbitt, the ex-President's private secretary, and Daniel M. Ransdell, sufficed to seat the guests.

Gen. Harrison's ingrained repugnance to anything approaching publicity in relation to his private affairs extended to his matrimonial plans. It mattered not to him that the whole country would read eagerly every detail touching the marriage of one who had walked so many years in the public eye, and who had served in office at the head of the nation. He wanted a quiet wedding, and Mrs. Dimmick was of the same mind. Hence it was that the few bidden to the ceremony were asked to keep secret the hour.

Gen. Harrison left the Fifth Avenue Hotel, accompanied by Gen. Benjamin

Tracy, in a close carriage, at 5 o'clock and was driven to Rev. Dr. Brown's house on Fifty-third street. They passed through the house to the vestry, where they awaited the coming of the bridal party. The bride left the home of her sister, Mrs. John F. Parker, 40 East Thirty-eighth street, at 5:10 o'clock. She was accompanied by her brother-in-law, Lieut. John F. Parker, who gave her away. They arrived at the entrance at 5:20 o'clock and proceeded to the tower room, where the bridal procession formed. They proceeded to the chancel, where Gen. Harrison, accompanied by his groomsmen, Gen. Tracy, received his bride. The ushers, standing to one side, faced the altar as the bride and groom stepped forward to the altar rail, where the rector, Dr. Brown, was waiting. Dr. George William Warren, organist of the church, playing the bridal music from "Lohengrin," and during the entire ceremony playing very softly Mascagni's intermezzo in the "Cavalleria Rusticana."

That portion of the matrimonial service known as the marriage service proper, the recital of which lasts only about fifteen minutes, was used, and immediately the blessing was pronounced Gen. and Mrs.

Harrison, followed by Mrs. John F. Parker and Gen. Tracy, Mr. Tibbitt and Mr. Ransdell, Lieut. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Pinchot, walked down the aisle to the strains of the "Tannhauser" march of Wagner, and entering the carriages waiting at the entrance the bridal party was driven to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Pinchot, 2 Grammercy Park, where light refreshments were served, and where the party dined traveling attire for the trip to Indianapolis.

Hundreds of valuable presents were received by the couple. Col. E. S. Forgan

RHEUMATISM.

From the News, Hutchinson, Kansas.

This summer, when a representative of the Hutchinson, Kan., News was taking his vacation he had occasion to visit the thriving little city of Peru, Ill. He had hardly had time to shake hands with friends in the city before he was told of the wonderful cure of Mrs. George Perry of rheumatism. Every one that has ever lived in Peru, Ill., knows Deacon George Perry and wife. They have lived there forty years, and being active workers in the church and kind, obliging neighbors, they are both well known and universally loved. The News representative being always on the lookout for news and wonderful cures, called on Deacon Perry and wife the second day after his arrival. He was met at the door by Mrs. Perry, an old lady now over seventy years of age. He told her bluntly that he had heard that she had been recently cured of rheumatism and asked for her story, which she readily gave, expressing a desire that she wished that the world at large should know of her good fortune. She said:

"About three years ago I was taken down with the grip and suffered nearly all winter. After the grip left me I was taken with the rheumatism. I could absolutely do no work, and for over a year I was so bad I could not pick a pin off the floor. I had the best physicians doctor me and I used many remedies, but none of them seemed to do me any good for any length of time. At last my husband noticed an article in a paper about a wonderful cure brought about by the use of Pink Pills for rheumatism, and I determined to try more. I used only six boxes of Pink Pills, and long before I took the last box I was nearly as well as you see me today. I now do all my own housework, although I am over seventy years of age, and I have no words at my command to express my gratitude to the manufacturers of Pink Pills, for without their medicine I am satisfied I would still be laid up with rheumatism, and not only been a sufferer but been unable to do any work."

Mrs. Perry's story can be substantiated by hundreds of citizens of La Salle, Ill., for her wonderful cure is one of the much-talked-of subjects in that locality.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are now given to the public as an unfailing blood builder and nerve restorer, curing all forms of weakness arising from a watery condition of the blood or shattered nerves. The pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Schenectady, N.Y.
