IT OUT YOURSELF

Count the reasons — figure it any way you wish — the answer will still be the same — you do need a telephone.

1. Protection: Gets the Police, Fireman, Doctor.
2. Convenience: Brings everything closer to you.
3. Savings: Of time, of effort, often of money.
4. Incoming Calls: Bring information, friendly visits, invitations, news.
5. Privacy: It's your telephone; no need to use a neighbor's.

There are many other advantages only a telephone can provide — and the cost is modest.
