MIDDLE STATES SERVICE STATION OPENS SOON

The new Middle States Oil Company's service station, located on south Huntington St., and which has just been erected, will open Saturday with a complete line of motorists' needs.

Being conveniently located, the station is very attractive with its beautiful driveway lined with stones which are painted white, giving it an added distinction. The building is of cement blocks in a modernistic arrangement being divided into a very spacious office, lubrication and sanitary rest room facilities.

Included in the products the new station will carry are the regular 72-74 octane gasoline and the Ethyl gasoline, both of which are licensed by the Ethyl Corporation; the Middle States special gasoline which is not leaded; Middle States kerosene and all grades of lubricating oils and greases. Besides these, the company will handle a complete line of candies, tobaccos and cold drinks, along with the nationally-known Goodyear tire.

The policy of the company is to bring their clientele a satis-

ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. James Kenys entertained the Bridge Club with a dinner and two tables of bridge, Thursday.

Mrs. James Connolly had high score.

Fidele Di Parsio charged in an Atlantic City court that his wife had deserted him because his 17 children were always quarreling with her 11 children by a former marriage.

factory gasoline at lower prices and in order that this may be accomplished, they have begun to do their own hauling in semi-trailer transport trucks with a 3,500 gallon capacity, thus offering a direct-to-consumer service to the public by cutting out the profit of the "middle-man."

Modern equipment is being used at this station with new cash register computing pumps and service equipment.

Charley LeCount will be the manager of the new station and will have full charge of its operation. He is well known in and around Syracuse, being a graduate of the local school, and hopes that his many friends will pay him a visit.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB ORGANIZED

On April 28, a home economics club was organized in Turkey Creek Township. The name selected by a member was the "Good Will Club." The meetings are held at the Guy school house. The lesson at the last meeting, given by the leaders, Marie LeCount and Rosa Koher, was entitled "Kitchen Clinic." The officers are as follows: Pres., Mrs. Blanche Kline; Vice-Pres., Mrs. Marie Bleeks; and Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Alma Eyer.

GIRL SCOUTS MEET

The Girl Scout troop of this city met Monday afternoon in the basement of the Methodist Episcopal church. The lesson was on splatter-work with ink. Stationery and handkerchiefs were worked on. Sue Shea, scout leader, was a guest at this meeting. She will take charge of the Investiture Services in several weeks. They will meet next Monday at 2:30 in the basement of the church. The troop plans at present to take a hike if enough members are willing to cooperate.

U. B. CLASS TO MEET

The Leader Class of the United Brethren church will meet with Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Bailey on Friday night, June 16th, for their regular meeting. The Good Samaritan's Class will be invited to attend this meeting, also.
