Treatment for the prevention of lock jaw was also administered as the hand was dressed.

COUNTY ESCAPES

FOURTH OF JULY

PARADE OF DEATH

Kosciusko county escaped this year without a fatality, being one of the few communities to do so.

That no reports of drownings or death from accidents or fireworks have been made is very commendable when we consider the number of lakes and resorts that we have in the county and the amount of traffic that passes through the cities and towns located near here.

PARENTS OF SON

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lindsey, of South Bend, announce the arrival of an eight and one-fourth pound son, Roger LaMarr, born on June 28th.

Mrs. Lindsey will be remembered as the former Frieda Foust of Syracuse, who moved to South Bend some time ago.

Both the mother and the new son are reported as doing very nicely.

SYRACUSE BOY TO EXHIBIT IN SHEEP SHOW

Kosciusko county will be well represented in the third annual Fort Wayne District Lamb show which will be held in that city on Thursday, July 6, County Agent Joe Clark said.

There are 29 exhibitors entered earlier in the year from Allen, Dekalb, Adams, Fulton, Huntington, Kosciusko, Noble, Stueben and Whitley counties. Entries from Kosciusko county in the Hoosier Gold Medal Sheep club exhibits are Rudy L. Ross, Jackson township; Cloid D. Swartz, Warsaw, and Harold Wilson, Milford.

Four-H club entries from Kosciusko county are: Harold Wilson, Milford; Irwin Knoop, Claypool; John Beeson, Mentone; Lawrence Stevens, Mentone; Richard Baumgartner, Syracuse; Max Warner, Sidney; and Alfred Beyer, Warsaw.

The Lambs will be graded and judged in the pens as they arrive at the Fort Wayne Union Stock yards Thursday morning, July 6, by Claude Harper, Henry Mayo, and Jack Frost, all of the Purdue animal husbandry department. In addition to the Gold Medal lambs, there will be pens of 4-H lambs in pens of three and pens of five. All pens of lambs will be placed on finished, quality, conformation and uniformity.
