

Miss Helen Willard has returned to Syracuse after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lantz in New Paris last week.

Rev. and Mrs. Hockman, of Quentin, Illinois, were Friday and Saturday visitors at the home of Nelson Miles.

Rok-O-Gliders

20% Discount

See these attractive and comfortable pieces for lawn and porch. All our yard samples are now on sale.

BECKMAN
FURNITURE
HOME

FARMERS AND FARM ORGANIZATIONS PLAN BIG DAY AT STATE FAIR

One of the biggest days at the Indiana State Fair this year is expected to be Thursday, Sept. 7th, which will be known as Farmer's and Farm Organization Day.

The Indiana Board of Agriculture has designated Lieut. Governor Henry F. Schriker as general chairman of the committee on arrangements, and he is busy now selecting a committee to cooperate with him in making this day the largest in attendance of any during the exposition.

A meeting of those selected will be held at the administration building on the Indiana State Fair grounds, Tuesday, August 8th at 10:30 A. M., when a program for the day will be decided upon.

It is planned to have a parade around the mile track, participated in by bands and floats, special entertainment on the stage in front of the grandstand and a short speaking program. The parade will begin at 10:30 A. M.

4-H NEWS

The 4-H boys met at the Hibschman home on Friday evening. Dairy cows and horses were judged and faults in two calves were pointed out and explained. Several group pictures were taken thru out the evening. There were fourteen members present. Refreshments of ice cream and cake followed a brief business meeting.

Wayne Coy, Reporter

THE POCKETBOOK of KNOWLEDGE BY TOPPS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zimmerman, of LaGrange called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rothemberger, last Sunday.

The new baby of Mr. and Mrs. Haworth, of North Webster, was taken to the Riley hospital at Indianapolis last week for observation and treatment concerning a case of exzema from which it case been suffering.

The grade school building is receiving a new coat of paint this week on the window frames and spouting. It is being painted white and will be greatly improved when the job is done.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Thomas and son, William, of Ithaca, New York, are visiting friends in Syracuse. They plan to stay here for two weeks before returning to their home.

Mrs. Melvin Dillen and daughter, Marise, and Elizabeth Casper spent a very enjoyable afternoon with Mrs. McCarthy and daughter, Joan.

"Closed. Out to lunch," is the placard the proprietor puts in the window of a small lunchroom in Boston.

Detectives who responded to a report of robbery by Myles Manus in Elizabeth, N. J., learned that only 25 cents had been stolen.

TENTED CITY READY FOR INDIANA STATE FAIR CAMPERS

Double pleasure will be afforded those who attend the Indiana State Fair, September 1 to 8 inclusive, and enjoy outdoor camp life at the same time in "Tented City," the modern, enjoyable camping site located opposite the east gate of the fairgrounds.

Added to the many sanitary conveniences of Tented City this year will be the new incinerator located at the north end of the grounds at the bank of Fall Creek and where refuse and trash, both from the state fair and camp site can be disposed of in an odorous, smokeless manner.

More than 2,000 camp and trailer fans enjoyed the facilities of Tented City during the last state fair and the grounds was given a very high rating. Many farmers and their families enjoyed several days at the fair as well as an outing at the same time.

Tented city facilities are offered free to those who bring their own camping paraphernalia and to those who do not, a nominal fee of 75 cents per person, per night, is charged for a waterproof tent, cot, clean bedding and other conveniences.

A nearby market is available for all type of supplies and recreation features also are available. A free parking space will be available for each registered camper's automobile.

Pass out checks will be issued at the registration gate enabling the campers to come and go from the fairgrounds at will. Lyndes L. Lattimer, Warsaw, Ind., R. R. 5, who has been in charge of the camp several years, again will be in charge this year.

Alleging his mustache, which had "grown unclipped for a period of 47 years" had been cut when he ordered only a shave and haircut, Francesco Mastrostefano of Kingstown, R. I., brought suit against his barber.

An Associated Press dispatch recently described a man as "two-headed." Later a correction was flashed over the wires changing it to "tow-headed."

Goldsmith Maid

Goldsmith Maid, the famous trotting horse, is buried at Fashion Stud farm, Trenton, N. J. Over the grave is a monument bearing the inscription: "Here lies Goldsmith Maid, queen of trotters for seven years. Born in Sussex county, 1857, died here September 23, 1885. Best record 2:14, made at Boston in 1874. Earned $364,200, the world's record. Driven by Bud Doble. Owned by Henry N. Smith."

Peanut Connoisseur

Bruce Dudley, executive manager of the Louisville (Ky.) baseball club, who is a connoisseur of peanuts, insists that one bad peanut can ruin a spectator's enjoyment of an entire game. "If you bite into a soggy, damp peanut when your mouth waters to crunch a fresh one, your mood is ruined and so's the game as far as you're concerned," he explained.

Rose Is Secrecy Symbol

For centuries the rose has been the symbol of secrecy. The preposition "sub" means under. In places of sanctuary where confidences were to be exchanged, it was customary to carve a rose over the entrance. Literally, to be under the rose was to have the benefits of secrecy.

Glowworms Light Mine

When an old gold mine was reopened recently near Karangahake, New Zealand, miners found countless glowworms 1,000 feet below the surface. They were so numerous that in one stretch of about 100 feet it was possible to walk along the truck rails using only the beetles' light.

Largest Diesel Locomotive

The new locomotives of the trains, the City of Los Angeles and the City of San Francisco, are the most powerful Diesel locomotives in the world. The two 5,400-horsepower Diesel plants of these locomotives were built by the Electro-Motive corporation of La Grange, Ill.

First Troops Return

The first large contingent of returning World war troops, about 4,000, arrived in New York on the Mauretania from Liverpool on December 1, 1918. They disembarked at the docks on the Jersey side of the river the following day, and went directly to Camp Mills.

25,000 Tons of Coins

If all the pure nickel coins which have been put in circulation throughout the world could be collected and put on a huge scale, there would be about four and one-half billion coins, weighing approximately 25,000 tons.

Washington Against Franking

President Washington deprecated the practice of the franking of the mail and Jackson, in an annual message, pointed to a deficit of $100,000 and asked congress to revise laws granting the privilege.

Boudins Blancs

Boudins blancs are French sausages made of minced white chicken meat, yolk of eggs, onions, bread crumbs, salt and spices mixed with cream or milk, cased and boiled in milk or water.

Deepest Spot in Ocean

The deepest place yet found in the ocean is off the island of Mindanao, in the Philippines, where soundings of 35,400 feet have been reported.

Tongue-Twister

"Honorificabilitudinitatibus" is from Act V, scene 1, line 41 of Shakespeare's play "Love's Labour's Lost." It is a stock example of the longest Latin word.

Tomatoes From Cuba

Practically all the tomatoes bought in the stores during the winter come from Cuba. They arrive at the rate of two boatloads a week.

World's Highest Road

The highest road in the world, nearly two miles above sea level, is the one over the Iseran pass in Savoy, France.

Typhoid Vaccination

Vaccination against typhoid fever gives protection against the disease for at least two or two and one-half years.

NEWS? CALL BETTY-842

Ask for OK
BREAD - CAKES - ROLLS
NEW FORMULA NEW PRICE
At Your Grocer or Retail Store
SYRACUSE-WAWASEE BAKERY
SYRACUSE, IND. WATCH FOR SPECIALS PHONE 846

SEIDER'S GROCERY
Phone 82 or 172 Syracuse, Ind.
10 lb. SUGAR 40c
With One Dollar's Worth of Groceries, Not Including Flour or any of the Saturday Specials.
BUTTER lb. 26c
BREAD 3-10c loaves 25c
TOILET TISSUE 6-1000 sheet rolls 25c
NOODLES, Ferndell lb. 14c
AMMONIA quart 10c
APPLE BUTTER, Redmond 22 oz. can 15c
DILL PICKLES 48 oz. can 23c
PEANUT BUTTER quart 23c
RED KIDNEY BEANS 3-10c cans 25c
— FRESH MEATS —
Fish — Salmon — Shrimp — Scallops — Frog Legs
RICHELIEU FROSTED FOODS

The End of the World

Today the very existence of civilization is threatened! Already gas masks and bomb-proof shelters have become a household necessity in many countries of the earth. What is the world coming to? Is the end of the world near? What is the end the the world? Will the earth be destroyed when the world ends? What blessings are in store for mankind in

THE WORLD OF TOMORROW?

Hear Mr. Norman Woodworth, editor and international lecturer of New York, who has recently returned from a tour of Europe, discuss this subject.

Epworth Forest Auditorium

Epworth Forest, North Webster, Indiana

August 6

3:30 P. M., Sunday

ADMISSION FREE

NO COLLECTION

Plan your Sunday trip this week to Webster Lake and hear this lecture on the prophecies pertaining to present world conditions.