HEART TROUBLE FATAL TO CLAIRE DAUSMAN, AGED 60

Mrs. Claire A. Dausman, aged 60 years, one month and nine days, succumbed Thursday morning at 4:45 o'clock at her home near the Tippecanoe Fish Hatchery, east of Leesburg. Death followed an illness of several years caused by heart ailments which had kept the aged woman in a poorly condition nearly all of the time.

Mrs. Dausman was born near Granett, in Kosciusko county, on April 10, 1879, the daughter of James and Liddy Thaitts. She had been a resident of this county all of her natural lifetime. On July 8, 1897, she became the bride of Samuel Dausman to which union three daughters and one son were born. Mrs. Dausman was a member of the Baptist church of Oswego, and was very active, when her health permitted, in religious work.

Survivors are the husband, Samuel Dausman, at home; three daughters, Mrs. Alfred Hammon, Oswego; Mrs. Della Popenfoose, Leesburg; and Mrs. Donald Fox, Milford; one son, Vern Daus-man of near Leesburg; four sisters, Mrs. Sam Hollar, Milford; Mrs. Jenny Silves, Jackson, Michigan; Mrs. Fred Kaylor, Milford; and Mrs. Orvil Silves, Syracuse; two brothers, Elmer Thwaitts, Milford and Robert Thwaitts of Goshen; and ten grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Oswego Baptist church, Saturday, August 19, at 3:00 o'clock, (DST), with the Rev. B. H. Truman officiating. Interment will be made in the Ireland cemetery near Hastings, in this county.

DATES ANNOUNCED FOR TAX SCHOOLS

The first big gun in the tax budget investigation will be fired on August 24, when the Indiana Farm Bureau, Inc., and the Indiana Taxpayers Association call in their field representatives for a day's final schooling before going out to budget schools in almost every county, according to Anson S. Thomas, director of the Tax and Legislative Department of the Indiana Farm Bureau, Inc.

The schedule of meetings calls for a meeting in practically every county within a period of about seven days preceding the date when budgets will be presented.

Through the efforts of taxpayers' organizations, 11 1-2 million dollars were taken from the budgets last year, and the belief is general that good government has not been crippled. The date for the Kosciusko County meeting is August 25th.

JBB CONTEST TO CLOSE SATURDAY, SEPT. 16

The Junior Business Builders' contest that has been going on at the Thornburg Drug Store for the past several weeks will end on Saturday evening at 9:07, with the winners being announced as soon as possible, thereafter.

The contest is one that aids the children to become better business people and it helps them to gain an early knowledge of business transaction and how to use their own individual initiative.

Each week the entrants are credited with so many points for the amount of JBB coupons they bring to the store, the coupons being given to those who make a purchase at the store according to the amount of the purchase. The value of the coupons ranges from twenty-five cents to five dollars with amounts up to forty dollars given for certain purchases.

At this time there are nearly forty children listed in the contest, with each and everyone of them striving to the best of their ability to gain the head of the list so that they will be eligible for the winning prizes.
