

Neighborhood News

Salem

By Mrs. Joe Smith

On September the 10th, New Salem will have a home coming service. Dr. Homer L. Burke and wife, who are returned missionaries from Africa, will speak both forenoon and afternoon on mission work. In the evening they will show African pictures. Dinner will be served at the church.

Mrs. Irene Krider entertained the Ladies' Aid at her home last Wednesday.

Herbert Morehouse and D'Maris Fisher of Mexico, Indiana, were united in marriage, August 10th, at the Mexico Church of the Brethren. Guy Morehouse and family attended the wedding. Herbert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Morehouse.

The Weybright reunion was held at the Bethany church. Russell Stout preached in the morning.

Mike Kuneff and family of Mishawaka spent last week at the Joe Smith, Emory Guy, and Arnold LeCount home. Donald Smith and family of Mishawaka, and Mr. Bush of South Bend called Friday evening in the Smith home.

Betty, June, and Mary Ann Pinkerton spent a couple Jays last week at the Max Brower home in Syracuse and attended the big fair.

Guests in the Joe Smith home Sunday were Mike Kuneff and Arnold LeCount and families. Frank Brenneman and wife called in the afternoon.

Frank Brenneman and wife called at the Roy Pinkerton and Lester Dewart homes.

Clyde Sutton and wife of Muncie, who ran the Redman Park grocery this summer, have closed the store and will return to Muncie.

Raymond Main, who is at a CCC camp at Angola, spent the week-end with his parents, Harrison Main and family. Marlon Main and Harry Smith took Raymond back to camp Sunday afternoon.

Dale Mock and wife went to Michigan last week after peaches. Mrs. Mock called at the Joe Smith home last Friday.

Howard Mock called on his sister, Miss Wanita Mock, Saturday. Burdette Method was helping Alva Crow cut corn.

John Stout and wife attended the Weybright reunion Sunday at Bethany church.

Junior Bowser spent a few days last week with relatives and friends in this community.

Father Seymour, an Australian priest, pilots his own airplane in covering widely separated missions under his charge.

Ransom Thomson, who served eight years for embezzling $1-250,000 from a packing company, still faces a judgment for double that amount. He is working as a farm hand at $30 a month.

Concord

by Mrs. Ernest Mathews

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rookstool and son, Everett Earl, spent Sunday in South Bend with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bucher attended the Bucher reunion at Waukusa on Sunday.

Those who were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fisher, Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Worley and daughter, Sandra Lee, of Indianapolis, Mrs. Emma Bushong, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Weisser and son, Larry, and Miss Mary Bushong.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Mathews spent Sunday afternoon at the James Dewart home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Gosey of Goshen called Monday at the Wm. Wyland home.

Saturday and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Mathews were Mrs. Blanch Meyer, son, Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Nicholas of Syracuse, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mathews of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Godschalk and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dewart of Milford, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stiffler and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Ada Coy of Syracuse.

Mrs. Lena Lantz spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. Silas Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cleland and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cleland and family of Columbia City were guests at the William Wyland home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Coy and family spent Sunday evening at the Chester Stiffler home.

Head of the Lakes

by Mrs. Jacob Click

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas and Mrs. Dean Hite and daughter, Deanna Jo, were Labor Day dinner guests in the Martin McClintic home.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Miller and daughter were Labor Day dinner guests in the Jonas Cripe home.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Click and daughter, Ruby, were Saturday evening callers in the Jacob Click home.

Vada McClintic spent Thursday in the Dean Hite home caring for her little granddaughter, Deanna Jo.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Click and daughter, Ruby, were week-end guests in the Edw. Larson home.

Everett Crow and Louise Sensibaugh were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Pippenger of Albion.

Sunday evening callers in the Jonas Cripe home were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rothenberger and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Rothenberger.

Those who attended the Shock and Hornish reunion Labor Day at Kingsbury Park, Defiance, O., were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Shock, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Shock, and Mrs. Alice Shock.

Jacob Click was a caller Sunday forenoon in the Ned Stuckman home.

Luella Wingard and Fred Gresco were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Bennewitz of Pekin, Illinois.

Elvin Shock and three sons of Mishawaka visited Labor Day in the Eli Shock home.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brighton of Toledo, were week-end guests in the Ira Cron home.

Wayne Mock was a caller Sunday evening in the Jacob Click home.

Sunday dinner guests in the Elmo Shock home were Mr. and Mrs. Will Tooley and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuhn and family.

Friday evening callers in the Jonas Cripe home were Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Shock and son, Joe.

Sunday dinner guests in the Eli Shock home were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dye and Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Ferweda and daughter, Donna Sue.

South Shore

by Ada Searfoss

Mrs. Anna Blackwood of Chicago returned home after a visit with Estelle Swartz.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jenks and son, Junior, of Battle Creek, Michigan, spent the week-end and visited Mrs. Jenks' aunts, Mrs. Rentfrow and Mrs. Cable.

Pat Shea of Chicago has been very ill at the Zeltinger cottage. Mrs. Zeltinger accompanied him to Chicago Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Betes and son, Mr. and Mrs. William Pipp, spent the week-end at their cottage and attended the Fall Festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bjella are the proud parents of twin boys born Saturday morning at the McDonald hospital. The little sons are answering to the names of Dennis and Dallis. Mrs. Bjella is reported doing nicely.

Miss Bessie Adams spent Sunday in Nappanee with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Devant and sons Robert and Duane, and Mrs. Elmer Grisamore of Epping, N. Dakota, came Tuesday for a visit Mrs. Grisamore to remain for the winter.

Walter Middleton spent a few days in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey, LeCount attended the funeral of Mrs. LeCount's grandmother at Joliet, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ray and daughter, Nancy, were Sunday guests of Mr. Ray's brothers, James and Forest Ray.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker of Otsego, Mich., Mrs. Anna Wilkerson, Lillian Niles and Miss Betty Baker spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Baker and daughter, Barbara.

Mrs. Dale Ray is on our sick list since Monday.

Zion Chapel

by Adah Clayton

Rev. Henry Malson, Zion chapel pastor, has been transferred to South Woodridge, Michigan, by the decision of the stationary board at the annual conference at the Rothfuss assembly park, Hillsdale, Michigan. They spent Sunday there.

The Zion Chapel W. M. A., local held their regular meeting last Thursday.

Mr. Dallas Grindel and family, Chicago, spent the holiday week-end with his mother, Mrs. Harry Chiddister.

Mr. Roy Clayton and son, Roy Jr., and two friends of Detroit, Mich., were Sunday guests of Dave Clayton's. Mr. Clayton has purchased a farm at Lenox, and moved his family there but he will continue working for the Murray Body Company in Detroit.

Mrs. Mary Gilchrist, Indianapolis and Willow Grove, spent Saturday night with Mrs. Marie LeCount.

Rev. Hearsh, wife and children, Richard and Phyllis, were entertained this week-end in the Geo. Stienbarger home. He preached his first sermon at Indian Village Sunday morning and at Zion Chapel in the evening.

Until recently Marie Dionne has been the "runt" of the famous quintuplets, but a few days ago she weighed 49 pounds, a half pound more than her sister, Yvonne, who is now the smallest of the five.

Brice Fulgrum, expert tuba player in a band at Fredonia, Kan., was put out of commission when a wasp settled in his mouth piece and stung his lip when he started to play.

Two Philadelphia policemen in a patrol car speeded in reverse for three blocks to catch a man fleeing from a gambling place.

Diving for a set of false teeth lost by a companion while swimming, a boy near New Hope, Pa., brought up a set, but not the right one. A woman claimed the set recovered.

A 15-ton American bombing plane built for the British government was flown from San Diego, Calif., to England, instead of being shipped by steamer.

Thieves gave a hambone to Mrs. Elsie Engels' watch dog at Quincy, Mass., and ransacked her home while the dog gnawed contentedly.

Rev. and Mrs. Ralph G. Rarick motored to Warsaw on Tuesday, principally to call on Ambrose Finley, of Syracuse, who had an operation last week and is a patient in the McDonald hospital.

H & H Laundry

Phone 80

Syracuse, Indiana

PEOPLE WHO KNOW...

THE QUALITY AND WHOLESOMENESS OF GOOD BREAD—CHOOSE

"Ok" BREAD

In the Blue and Orange Dotted Wrapper.

SYRACUSE-WAWASEE BAKERY

SYRACUSE, IND. WATCH FOR SPECIALS PHONE 846

Journal :- :- Printing

PRICED REASONABLE

Each Job—large or small, is given the best of care in choice of types and arrangement.

DISTINCTIVE PRINTING WILL ADD DIGNITY AND APPEAL TO YOUR BUSINESS

For your next job of printing, try the—

SYRACUSE-WAWASEE JOURNAL