ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

Bowling League Plans Completed Thursday

Ten Teams Entered
This Year.

At a meeting of the bowlers of Syracuse, which was held at the room formerly occupied by the Kline Store in the Pickwick block last Thursday evening, a league was formed consisting of ten teams. Both the league and the new alleys are to be sanctioned by the American Bowling Congress in accordance with the rules and regulations set up by the Congress.

League play will officially begin on the night of Monday, October 2, at 7:00. The sanctioning of the league and the alleys makes the players eligible for participation in various tournaments which are sponsored in cooperation with the Congress, including the national meet which is held in the spring.

Each team is allowed five regular members with one substitute which will mean a total enrollment of sixty members. A list of the teams and their respective sponsors follows:

Electrics, Syracuse Electric Co.; Plumbers, C. W. Howard; Pickwick Enterprises; Lumber, Syracuse Lumber Co.; Wilts, Wilt Industries; Dixies, Dixie Sandwich Shop; Teachers, local teachers; Jones, Jones Dairy; Boosters, James Kemp; Legion, Wawasee Post 223, American Legion.

JAMES DEWART, 77,
PASSED AWAY MONDAY

Funeral Services Held Wednesday.

Funeral services for James Dewart, 77, who passed away last Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock at his home three miles west of Syracuse, were held Wednesday at 2 p.m., at the New Salem church, southwest of Syracuse, with Rev. Hugh Tomson of Frontier, Ohio, officiating.

Mr. Dewart, a long time resident of near here, was the owner of the Champion fruit farm, but was unable to readily take care of his farm because of illness during the last six years. He was born on March 29, 1862, the son of Lewis and Nancy Dewart and was united in marriage to Miss Mary Ropp of near Milford in 1898. For 43 years he was an active member of the Zion United Brethren church.

Surviving are the widow; one daughter, Mrs. Lavica Bucher, Dewart lake; one grandson, Wayne Bucher; one granddaughter, Yvonne Bucher; and a step-sister, Mrs. Myron LeCount, Syracuse. He was preceded in death by two brothers and two sisters.

CONCLUDES PASTORATE AT SYRACUSE

Rev. Ralph G. Rarick, who for the past two years and more has served the pastorate of the Church of the Brethren in Syracuse, and who tendered his resignation some time ago, will bring his pastoral connection here to a conclusion the coming Sunday, Oct. 1.

Rev. Ralph G. Rarick

The Rev. Rarick and his family will transfer later to another pastorate, but his immediate schedule calls for the conducting of several evangelistic campaigns in Ohio and out west in Idaho.

Wawasee Post 223 Attends National Convention

in a singing mood, the boys unanimously selected Bob Seafoss to lead in singing a number of the songs that were most popular in 1917 and 1918.

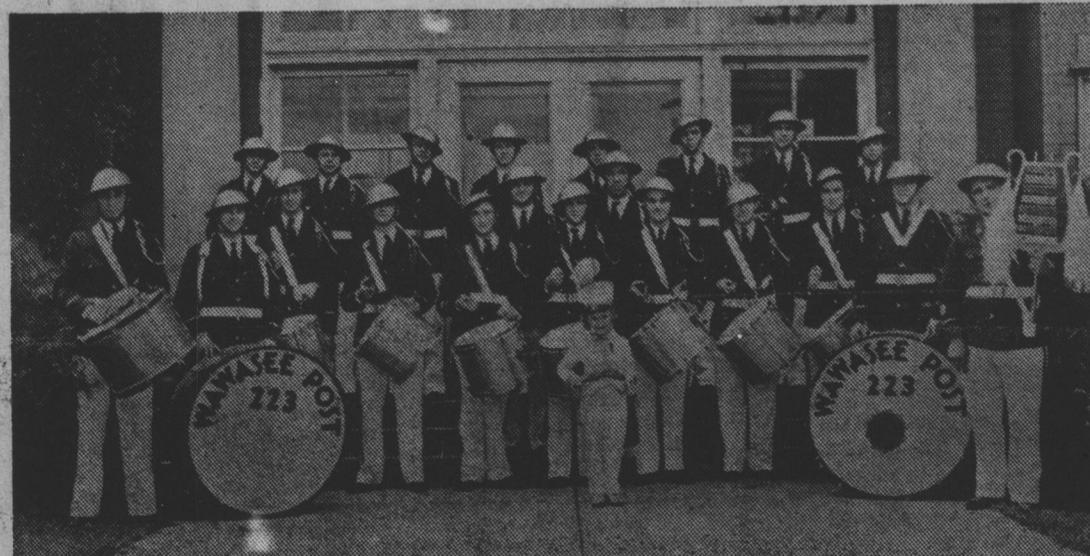

Human interest was lent to the scene upon their arrival when it was found that some of the boys had forgotten one part or another of their paraphanalia and it was up to Barney Davis to bring them when he traveled to Chicago on the train on Tuesday morning.

In the "Windy City" the boys were quartered in the Van Buren hotel and most of the members witnessed the beautiful Drum Corps competition which was the major part of the program for Monday. Others spent their time in taking in the free attractions along the streets which were afforded the Drum Corps.

At 9:30 on Tuesday morning the different outfits from each of the United States and several of the European countries were lined up for the big event. There was a cold wind blowing and a drizzle of rain, but this did not dampen the enthusiasm and the parade was soon ready to start. The local organization was lead by pretty little Sasha Hire, who proudly

Wilmet Jones Weds Nedra Hire;
Daniel Jones-Edna Fleming.

In a beautiful candlelit double ceremony held at the Methodist church last Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, Miss Nedra Hire became the bride of Wilmet Jones, Jr., and Miss Edna Fleming of Rochester became the bride of Daniel Jones, with Rev. Travis Purdy officiating.

The wedding procession, led by Rev. Purdy and followed by the two lovely couples, proceeded down the aisle as Mrs. Velma Purdy played "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," "At Dawning," and Lohengrin's "Wedding March."

Miss Hire was attractively attired in a white net wedding gown and Miss Fleming was sweetly attired in a white satin wedding gown. Both lovely brides carried beautiful bouquets of white and pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a wedding reception was given in honor of the newlyweds at the Sargent hotel with nearly seventy friends and relatives attending.

The two couples plan to leave soon for a wedding trip through the eastern states and will then return to make their homes in Syracuse. Both young men are associated with their father in the dairy business.

STANDARD STATION CHANGES MANAGEMENT

(Special to the Journal.)

The Standard Service Station located on South Huntington St., and formerly known as the Sarver Standard Service underwent a change in management last week when Ralph Sarver sold his interests to E. H. Blair. Mr. Sarver has been associated with the station for the past two and one-half years and has taken over the management of a similar business in Michigan City, Indiana, at the corner of 11th and Michigan Sts.

Mr. Sarver states that he has thoroughly enjoyed his associations in Syracuse, and it is with deep regret that he makes plans to leave this community. The hospitality and friendliness of the people of this community has been appreciated to the fullest by both Mr. Sarver and his family for they were first welcomed and then accepted in this community with the most pleasing hospitality.

Mr. Blair comes to Syracuse from Hammond, Ind., where he was associated with the same company in a similar capacity. He plans to move his family here in the near future and will enter three boys in the local schools. Friends and patrons of the station are extended an invitation by Mr. Blair, to continue their business and social associations, and he assures the residents of the community that they will be sincerely appreciated.

Duane Bauer, formerly assistant of Mr. Sarver, will remain in the same capacity with Mr. Blair.

Mrs. P. R. Sprague and Mrs. William Jarboe spent Tuesday in Fort Wayne.
