

STATE PARK LOOKOUT POINTS POPULAR
DURING THE AUTUMN "COLOR" SEASON

Look-out points—such as the one pictured in Brown County state park—will be enjoyed by thousands of state park visitors during the coming weeks when the autumn color show is at its peak, Virgil M. Simmons, commissioner of the Department of Conservation, said today.

With ample parking space away from moving traffic, the lookout points make it possible for the visitor to stop as long as he likes and enjoy the sweeping view of wooded hills and valleys. At other points in the park observation towers have been erected while the towers from which watch is kept for forest fires are exceptionally popular lookout points with the more active park visitors.

1940 CHEVROLET
ON DISPLAY SOON

Final assembly operations on Chevrolet's 1940 passenger cars began this week in the company's 10 assembly plants throughout the United States, M. E. Coyle, general manager, announced today at Chevrolet headquarters in Detroit, amplifying an announcement made last night before 350 Chevrolet field and central office sales executives at the company's annual convention.

Mr. Coyle said that production was expected to approach 5,000 units a day very soon, in order to stock dealers for the new model announcement, set for October 14.

Chevrolet manufacturing plants, located in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, and New York, have been in operation since late August, Mr. Coyle said, building engines, axles, transmissions, and other sub-assemblies with which to supply the assembly lines when the latter get under way.

The assembly lines have already begun operations on the new 1940 commercial cars and trucks, it was announced, and delivery of many of these units is already under way.

DEER PROVIDE THRILLS
FOR MANY HOOISERS

Glimpses of deer along the highways and in wooded areas are providing new thrills for many Hoosiers this autumn, Virgil M. Simmons, commissioner of the Department of Conservation, announced today. Hardly a day passes that a report is not received of one or more deer being seen in the southern part of the state.

It is estimated that there are now approximately four hundred deer at large in Indiana, as a result of the liberations made by the Department of Conservation during the past several years. There is no open season on deer in Indiana and persons molesting the deer are subject to severe penalties.

Brown county state park when the leaves are turning red, orange, yellow and brown, Spring Mill state park with its pioneer village, McCormick's Creek park with its canyons and woods, Clifty Falls with its wooded gorges and view of the Ohio River, Lincoln park with its historical setting and Shakamak with its lakes, are other southern Indiana state parks sharing in the autumn beauty.

Turkey Run state park with its ravines and virgin timber, Mounds park with its prehistoric earthworks, Pokagon park, bordering Lake James and Dunes state park with its sand mountains and forest, give central and northern Indiana motorists opportunity to enjoy the autumn beauty of these areas.

HORTICULTURAL SHOW

AT PURDUE, NOV. 10, 11, 12

The 19th annual Horticultural Show will be held in the Horticultural Building at Purdue University on Nov. 10, 11, and 12. This show, organized and managed by the horticultural students of Purdue has become one of the outstanding shows of its kind in the country.

A fruit and vegetable identification and judging contest will be held Saturday morning, Nov. 11. This contest is open to all high school, vocational and 4-H club students who have not been on winning teams in previous years.

A copy of the 40 page catalog may be obtained by sending your request to the Manager, Purdue Horticultural Show, Horticultural Building, West Lafayette, Ind.

REV. YEAGER READS
KUHN-SAUSAMAN RITES

Last Sunday afternoon, in the presence of the immediate families, Rev. Victor Yeager, pastor of the Church of God, in Syracuse, read the ceremony for the pretty wedding in which Miss Margaret Sausaman of north of Warsaw, became the bride of Richard Kuhn, of near Shoe Lake. The ceremony took place at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sausaman. Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kuhn.

Following the vows, dinner was served to the guests. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sausaman, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sausaman, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kuhn, Rev. and Mrs. Yeager, and Mr. and Mrs. O. Lea Pike, of Claypool.

CONSERVATION CLUB
BROODERS PRODUCE
42,195 PHEASANTS

Liberation of 42,195 pheasants, reared in conservation club brooders, has been completed within the last few days, Virgil M. Simmons, commissioner of the Department of Conservation, said today.

A total of 232 brooders were operated by conservation clubs under the supervision of the Division of Fish and Game as a part of the cooperative program for improving hunting and fishing throughout Indiana. All pheasants were liberated in areas selected as possessing satisfactory food and cover conditions.

W. A. Stroup and son, Dewey, spent Sunday afternoon in Goshen, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Miller.

Miss Fern Stroup is taking a vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stroup.
