RED CROSS DRIVE HERE HITS $900 MARK

The Red Cross Drive in Syracuse and Wawasee and community is lagging! That's the only way to describe it. Far too few of our citizens have failed to step forward and pay their part.

What is your part? Well, that's a hard question to answer—perhaps only YOU can answer it. If you're working, making more money than you ever did in your life (as many, many are)—well, is a dollar YOUR part? Is $10 your part? ANYTHING you give is so far beneath that given by our men and women in the armed service, that there is no comparison. But YOU be the judge!

Are you having a hard time to make "ends meet" in these days of high prices? Compare your situation with that of our boys in the fox holes before you give!

Are YOU buying luxuries—things you never had in your life before? Well, how about it? Instead of those luxuries that you don't need—how do THEY stack up against what 250 Syracuse boys and girls are giving—all over the world? YOU be the judge! Have YOU got enough money—could YOU beg, borrow or steal enough money—to make any kind of a favorable comparison? YOU be the judge!

Excuses! The local Red Cross committee doesn't want EXCUSES! These workers are giving their time, voluntarily, they give their meager supply of A-coupon gasoline, and wear out precious tires. We're asking you to go in voluntarily with your donation. This isn't a private war—it's not for democrats only—it's not for republicans—it's not only for Methodists—or for any other group! It's YOUR war—and if our United States isn't on the winning side—well, all you have—money, home, family—it's all lost! How much can YOU give to this Red Cross campaign? YOU be the judge!

Don't let on you haven't read about this drive—every adult in this community is well aware of it—don't make excuses! Just one question—how much?

We're giving below the list of donations received to date:

Total collected to date $911.00

The designation "Mr. and Mrs." is left off names to save space.

Don't "hold back" on the size of your donation because you bought bonds! Or because you gave to the USO! Or for any other reason! A one dollar donation by some may be a hundred times larger, in proportion, than a one hundred dollar donation by others. YOU be the judge.

The quota for this community is $1,500. Let's be the first in the county to reach our quota!

Wednesday Afternoon Club.

The Wednesday Afternoon club met at the home of Mrs. Wales Macy Mar. 15. Fourteen members answered roll call with current events.

The clubs of Syracuse are hostess to the county convention, to be held April 11th, at the Methodist church. The Methodist ladies will serve the noon luncheon. Some of the committees for this meeting were named.

Mrs. Freeman reviewed the book, "The Ten Commandments." She first read from a comment by Boake Carter, given two years ago, about the Bible. This book is very interesting and Mrs. Freeman gave the review in a manner which held everyone's interest and created a desire for everyone to read the book. This was a most enjoyable afternoon.

The club will meet March 29th with Mrs. Ted Hilbish.

H. D. Harkless has purchased the residence and garage building of Guy Hoover, on south Huntington street. Mr. Harkless plans to erect a modern garage building there, after the war.

A telegram here to Mr. and Mrs. John Sudlow last week told of the death of Mrs. Rulo Conrad, who had been a summer resident on the south side, Lake Wawasee, for years. She passed away at Hot Springs, Ark. Funeral services were held Saturday morning at Kokomo, Ind.

News From the Boys in U. S. Service

Pfc. John P. Hughes, Jr., stationed at Camp Butler, N. C., is home on an 11 day furlough. He came in The Journal office to thank us for sending him the paper, and asked that we say "Hello," for him to all the boys from Syracuse in the service.

Pvt. William W. Stetler, 19 of Syracuse, has arrived at the College Training Detachment at Davidson College, Davidson, N.C., for a course of instruction lasting about 5 months, prior to his appointment as an aviation cadet in the Army Air Forces Flying Training command. We do not have his address.

An accidental explosion of a bomb at Camp Robinson, Ark., Monday killed 10 soldiers and wounded other. The only soldier from this vicinity at this camp is a brother of Mrs. Roscoe Howard, and he was not among the casualties.

From Pfc. Harry Coy: Harry I haven't written sooner, but you know a soldier's best excuse is "no time." I want to thank you for The Journal; I appreciate it very much and I know all the others in the service do too. I was very glad to receive the special Christmas edition, and I thank all those responsible for the issue. I know it was a real success with the boys and also those at home. I don't imagine Christmas at home was quite as enjoyable as previous years, but lets hope for the future. I am in Italy now, have been for some time. Feb. 14, 1943.

A letter from Chaplain Travis Purdy, who is in England, has some interesting things in it that ties right in with the Red Cross campaign now in progress. Read it—and then see whether you are ashamed or proud of the donation you made to the Red Cross this year. "Today I had a letter from Miss Lyse. She is having a very rough time. My hat is off to these Red Cross girls over here, and they are doing a grand piece of work. It makes one sick at heart to see their willingness and sacrifice and then put it up against the petty things and shallowness that is all too abundant in life. It puts us to shame. She is living without heat in her quarters and has been moved so many times—tents, huts and the general inconveniences of field work. We will all be happy to see summer for we don't like winter in England."

Local Grocery Changes Hands

The Bachman grocery store, owned by C. C. Bachman, and his son, Hilary, was sold Wednesday to Harry Carter, of Carrollton, Ill., who took possession Thursday. Mr. Carter has been in the grocery business for about 25 years, having recently sold his store there.

Mr. Bachman, Sr., has been in business here for just 20 years, and during that time has gained hundreds of friends. He says he will be "like a fish out of water," now and hasn't made any plans for the future. Hilary Bachman will stay with the new owner for a short time.

Mrs. Carter, wife of the new owner, is known here. She is the daughter of Rev. J. A. Carwile, and was prior to her marriage last summer to Mr. Carter, employed at the Bachman store.

The only change Mr. Carter has announced is that, due to lack of help he will discontinue delivery service after Saturday night.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. Robert Smith and 10-day-old daughter, Sharon Roberta, were brought from the McDonald hospital, Warsaw, to their home here Tuesday.

Mrs. Everett Crow and 10-day-old daughter, Renee Lue, were remmed from the McDonald hospital, Warsaw, to their home here Tuesday.

Enlistment Open in Marine Corps for 17-year-old Hoosiers

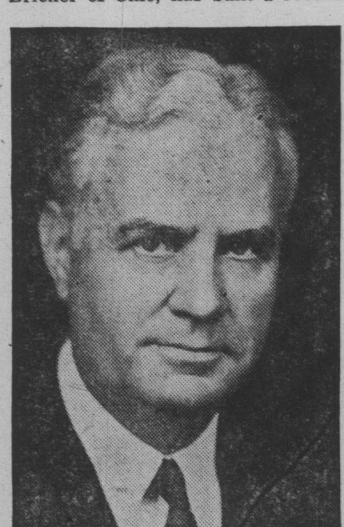

Indianapolis, Ind., March 14.—Seventeen-year-old Hoosiers continue to choose the Marine corps for service, according to Maj. R. E. Boulton, officer in charge of Marine induction and recruiting in Indiana, who announces that opportunity for voluntary enlistment still is open to these youths. Maj. Boulton said that hundreds of Indiana men in this age group have joined the Marine Corps during the past months and have proved themselves to be excellent Leathernecks, possessing the traditional Marine Corps qualifications for efficient fighting and devoted service.

ship service with sermon by the pastor at 11:15.

A seat and a welcome for all.

Ohio's Governor Bricker Builds Outstanding Record of Economy

Columbus, O. (Spl.)—In 23 years of experience in one office of public trust after another, Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio, has built a record for sound government which marks him as one of America's outstanding administrators.

But even if one does not go back beyond January 9, 1939, when Bricker took office as Ohio's chief executive, one will discover a list of outstanding, almost unbelievable accomplishments which today have brought the Buckeye State's three-time-governor to the front as a candidate for the Republican nomination for President of the United States.

When Bricker took the helm of Ohio's government it was operating on a deficit basis and was approximately $40,000,000 "in the red." The new Governor pledged his administration to put the state on a pay-as-you-go basis, pay the debt, meet the full requirements of the state school financing program for the first time, provide adequate relief for the unemployed, start a long over-due institutional building program, and improve the regular, day-to-day operations of the state government—all without any increase in taxes!

The program was prodigious. Citizens, politicians and the press, all were skeptical that his goal was possible of achievement. Bricker went to work with a vengeance. He selected strong key men for his department heads—men he had known personally for years—men he could count on. He ordered every kind of economy—none too little, none too big. He saved millions of dollars in road materials, and just plain dollars on prunes, bacon, syrup and staple foods for the state's institutions; hundreds of thousands of dollars in the trucking, warehousing and rentals of the state's monopoly liquor and thousands of dollars through salvage of state equipment—long before the nation was salvage-conscious. He fired 3,000 unnecessary state employees who have never been replaced.

S. P. Bush, president of the Citizens Tax League of Ohio, a Democrat, industrialist and Elvite leader, said it was the first time in his half century of personal observation that he had seen a governor "actually roll up his sleeves and start saving the people's money."

At the same time, Bricker saw to it that taxes were collected where and when the law intended them to be collected, reorganized the Tax Department and reduced the cost of collection.

Results were apparent at once. State government became really efficient. Now, at the beginning of his sixth year as Governor all of the inherited $40,000,000 debt has been paid, the state has never resorted to deficit financing, there is a $74,000,000 cash surplus in the state treasury, welfare and local government needs have been met. And there has been no increase in taxes!
