GRANDMA
SPEAKIN'...

Good many people spend too much time teaching children how to behave toward their parents. Seems to me lots of parents ought to be taught how to behave toward their children.

Bless my soul, there ain't nuthin' easier than makin' sure ye're gittin' a top-quality margarine. Just look for the words "Table-Grade." Nu-Maid Margarine's Table-Grade. Sez so just as plain as the nose on yer face right on the package.

When you see somebody let success go to their heads, you kin be mighty sure there was a vacuum there to start with.

When I want my cakes or pies to be extra-special, I alius use a Table-Grade Margarine... one that's got a nice mild, sweet flavor. Nu-Maid Margarine's Table-Grade.

(See Recipes Below)

First Aid for Lunch

"If only I had a good list of main dishes and desserts for company luncheons," said a friend of mine recently, "but it always seems I get stuck with things and can't think about something the girls really like."

A good solution for the above problem is to keep a card file of complete menus for such occasions. Be certain to try out the foods before the company date comes along so you will be thoroughly familiar with the preparation, and then everything will run smoothly.

If you don't want to plan the menu completely, then select just the main dish and fill in the salad and vegetable with whatever is in season.

Tuna à la King in Potato Nests.

(Serves 6)
2 cups milk
4 tablespoons flour
4 tablespoons butter
½ teaspoon salt
1-16 teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
2 cups canned tuna fish
3 tablespoons chopped pimiento
½ cup tiny mushroom caps
Scald milk in double boiler. Make a paste of the melted butter and flour and add to hot milk, stirring until thick and smooth. Add seasonings and cook 15 minutes. Flake tuna fish into large pieces and mix with white sauce. Add pimiento and mushrooms.

Potato Nests: Peel 4 medium-sized potatoes. Cut into tiny strips lengthwise. Heat in a small amount of fat but do not brown. Remove from fat, sprinkle with salt and arrange in nests inside large muffin tins. Press potatoes firmly against side of pan and bottom. Bake in a hot (450-degree) oven for 15 minutes. Serve hot tuna fish mixture in crisp, hot potato nests.

Lattice Rhubarb Pie.

Pastry
2 cups cut up rhubarb
Flour
1 cup sugar
Line pie pan with pastry. Wash and peel rhubarb; cut in small pieces. Flour pieces until they are quite white, then add sugar. Mix well and place in pastry-lined tin. Cover with lattice strips of crusts and bake in a 450-degree oven for 10 minutes, then in a 425-degree oven for 30 minutes.

A combination of yellow and green is attractive for working into a luncheon combination, especially when it involves favorites like chicken and lime chiffon pie!

Chicken Loaf With Mushroom Sauce.

(Serves 6)
2 cups diced, cooked chicken
1 cup soft bread crumbs
¼ cup chopped, cooked celery
2 tablespoons finely chopped pimiento
1 tablespoon minced parsley
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon paprika
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons butter or chicken fat
Combine ingredients, mixing well

LYNN SAYS:
Serve Meat in Ways That Tempt

Make appetizing luncheons out of leftover scalloped dishes by adding pieces of leftover meat to them. Pork with corn, beef with green beans, lamb with tomatoes, etc., are all good appetites satisfiers.

Veal à la King takes on special glamour if it's dressed up with slivered almonds and mushrooms. This may be served in patty shells or a noodle ring.

and pour into a greased loaf pan. Bake in a moderate (350-degree) oven for 35 minutes or until firm. Unmold carefully on platter and garnish with parsley. Pour mushroom sauce over loaf.

Mushroom Sauce.

4 tablespoons butter
4 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon paprika
½ cup cooked or canned mushrooms

Melt butter and blend with flour and seasonings. Add milk gradually and cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thick and smooth. Add mushrooms and cook two minutes longer. Serve hot over chicken loaf.

Lime Chiffon Pie.

1½ teaspoons plain unflavored gelatin
½ cup cold water
4 eggs, separated
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
4 tablespoons lime juice
Green coloring
Grated rind of 1 large lime
1 cup whipping cream, whipped
Baked 9-inch pie shell
Soften gelatin in cold water. Place in top of double boiler, the egg yolks, ½ of the sugar, salt, lime juice and rind. Cook over boiling water until thick and smooth, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, stir in gelatin and cool. When slightly thickened, fold in stiffly beaten egg whites to which remaining sugar has been added. Turn mixture into baked pie shell and chill in refrigerator for one hour. Spread or flute whipped cream over top.

A simpler combination than either of the two given thus far is this one of baked tomatoes and banana tarts:

Baked Stuffed Tomatoes.

(Serves 6)
6 medium sized tomatoes
1½ cups shrimp or crab meat
flaked
¼ cup thick cream sauce
¼ teaspoon mustard
1 teaspoon salt
Fine bread crumbs
Butter
Paprika
Scoop out tomato centers and mix half the pulp with shrimp or crab meat, cream sauce and seasonings. Fill tomato shells with mixture. Cover tops with fine bread crumbs, dot with butter and sprinkle with paprika. Bake in a hot (450-degree) oven for 20 minutes.

Banana Cream Tarts.

(Serves 6)
4 bananas
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon vanilla extract
¼ cup whipping cream
6 baked tart shells
6 tablespoons shredded coconut
Fold sugar and vanilla into whipped cream. Slice bananas into tart shells. Cover at once with whipped cream and garnish with coconut.

To make bread crumbs flavorful for use as toppings, grind them fine and brown them in meat drippings. When you're serving roast pork or pork chops with dressing, add that special touch to the dressing by using a few chopped spinach leaves.

When making biscuits, do something different and roll the dough out in a rectangle; spread with orange marmalade and roll as for jelly roll. Cut and baked slices in oiled pan for pinwheel biscuits.

LESSONMoral Integrity in
Our Everyday Lives

LESSON TEXT FOR JULY 6—Job 1:1; 27:1-5; 31:19-28.
MEMORY SELECTION—My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go; my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.—Job 27:6.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Of The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.
MODERN problems may well be solved by the principles found in Old Testament Scripture. Man is essentially the same as he always has been; sin and temptation to evil have only changed their outer trimmings. Above all, the Word of God is eternal in its validity and effectiveness.

We learn from Job and his experiences that it is possible so to live by the grace of God, that he can be pleased with our lives. That is an encouraging fact. Job was just a man, but he was a man who was

I. Upright and Good (1:1).

SOME liberal critics of the Bible have tried to prove that Job was not a real man, but other Scripture makes it clear that the words "there was a man" (v.1) states a fact. (See Ezek. 14:14 and 20; James 5:11)

He was a man with a large family, with great flocks and herds, and so a man of business, and the husband and father in a growing and active household. But in it all he was upright, and a good, God-fearing man.

Many make excuses for their failure to serve the Lord. They say that their business duties and relationships make it just about impossible. Others say that family situations and responsibilities keep them from service and worship of the Lord.

The experience of Job explodes all such excuses and squarely faces us with the fact that it is possible to live for God in the midst of the very circumstances of modern life.

II. Tried and True (27:1-5).

AFTER Job had lost his property, his children and even his health, three of his friends came to comfort him. But they only added to his sorrow by accusing him of being sinful, and suffering only what he deserved.

Job in these verses is replying to them. We note that in his ignorance of God's purposes, he accused God of being cruel to him (27:2; 30:21). This matter was later to be straightened out with the Lord.

But even now when he did not understand God's dealings, and stood there sick and destitute, he maintained his integrity. He would not turn from the Lord, nor would he be led off into wickedness.

It is possible for a man to be beaten and bruised and bewildered, and still true to the Lord. Let's never forget that!

III. Kind and Fair (31:19-23).

JOB had been a rich man, but had not let his own prosperity dim his eye so that he could not see the need of his poor neighbor. He was not among those who, because they are well fed, can see no point in all the fuss about the hungry people round about.

There is something very fine and worthy of our imitation here. It is so easy to take what we have as a special favor from the Lord, to be retained and used by us, when we ought to recognize it as a matter of stewardship for the Lord.

A vital part of real moral integrity is the right use of possessions. Many a man or woman who has passed all the other tests with flying colors comes to grief at this point.

IV. Spiritual and Faithful (31:24-28).

THERE were plenty of temptations in Job's day, as there are now, to depart from the worship of the true God to other modes of devotion.

The worship of the sun was common, and Jeremiah 44:17 shows that it continued for generations. In fact, what shall we say of the worldwide devotion to astrology in our day.

Then there was the temptation to worship gold. How up-to-date that is, for do we not have millions who worship "the almighty dollar," yes, even if they do not have it.

To all such temptations Job said a resolute "No." He would not even permit his innermost heart to be enticed secretly (v. 27). He stood true for the God he loved and served.

Who will question that one of our greatest needs in the world today is for men and women who, by the grace and blessing of God, will live good and upright lives, true to the Lord, and sacrificial, in real loving-kindness to men. God give us men, yes, that kind of men!

Ships, Unable to Make
Headway, Tie to Iceberg

Ships sailing in the North Atlantic and the oceans surrounding Antarctica are sometimes unable to progress against strong head winds and surface currents, says Collier's. On the other hand, icebergs are not affected by these factors owing to their size and depth, but are moved only by deep currents.

When possible, therefore, a ship in such a predicament will tie itself to an iceberg that is going its way.

When setting out upon a shopping trip, include an extra pair of stockings in your handbag. One can never tell when a run may occur.

When footsore after a hard day's shopping, sit down and soak your feet in warm salt water, dry with an absorbent towel, and massage briskly with ice-cold cologne.

Take time to sweep up broken glass carefully and empty it into a tin can. Use a damp cloth or moist cotton to pick up the tiny slivers.

Cranberry and most fruit stains will come out if boiling water is poured on them with force while stains are still fresh. Soap will set the stains.
