60,000 Leagues Over the Earth

They used airplanes that had been built for domestic transport service and flew them from here to Timbuktu. They flew people and guns and machines and parts and pills over every one of the seven seas. Back from the war fronts they brought 400,000 sick and wounded soldiers. Altogether they eventually operated nearly 180,000 miles of foreign and domestic routes, with 336 bases along the way.

The glorious record of the Air Transport Command has won it a permanent place in this nation's Air Forces. But its scope has now extended far beyond its original "ferrying" duties.

Today the ATC "provides and operates on a global scale: air transportation service, airways communications, weather, aircraft accident prevention, air search and rescue, and aeronautical charts for the Air Forces and other designated government agencies."

On Air Force Day, August 1st, millions of Americans will turn their thoughts to the Air Forces, which are providing the country with the Air Power to halt aggression, maintain the peace and back up American foreign policy. Make a point of finding out more about them on Air Force Day.

Rev. and Mrs. Joseph J. Koble returned Monday from Des Moines, Iowa, where they attended the International Sunday School Convention for one week.

There were 4200 delegates registered and many others were present. Prominent speakers from all over the United States gave their version for the future of Peace and stressed that only Christian Religion will be the solution. A great pageant was given on Sunday evening in the Drake University Stadium and was witnessed by several thousand. A chorus of 1000 was a special feature. Rev. and Mrs. Koble were the guests of Dayse Mae Gaylord, who is a very prominent organist and had been on several featured radio programs in Iowa and surrounding states.

Rev. and Mrs. Koble were the only delegates from Kosciusko county present and were sent by the local Church of God. Rev. Koble has much literature from the convention and is willing to share its contents to any other religious body in the community and anyone desiring such may have by calling at his residence 210 No. Huntington St. Mrs. Chloe Hire of Elkhart, visited her sister, Mrs. Roy Riddle, Sunday. ### Former Minister And Wife Observe 60th Anniversary

(Note.—The following article from the Republican-Courier, Findlay, Ohio, concerns a former minister of the Church of God in Syracuse.)

Findlay, Ohio.—The walls of the Rev. G. W. Wyatt home, 134 Garfield avenue, have settled back on their foundation and the roof, which threatened several times last week to raise right off the rafters, has a normal appearance now as the twin daughters of Rev. and Mrs. Wyatt attempt to restore the home to normal after a week's celebration.

On Saturday July 12, the parents marked their 60th wedding anniversary and the celebration lengthened out into a week of fun and merriment as the 11 children in cluding a set of twins with their families, gathered together for the first time since the golden wedding celebration ten years ago. They came from as far south as Texas and as far west as Oregon.

A musical family, the air was filled with song from the time the group started to arrive until goodbyes were said by most of them late last week.

When they arrived a week ago a daughter, Mrs. Lois M. Beery, of Mississippi, a composer who has had many of her songs published; Joe Wyatt, of Kansas City, and accomplished pianist; Mrs. Ruth Carder, of Westerville, O., poet; and Mrs. Priscilla Wyatt Nye, music supervisor in the Columbus schools, assisted the other brothers and sisters, wrote the words and composed the music of a song honoring their parents, which was sung at the luncheon held for 33 members of the family at the Elks Saturday noon.

Family Holds Parade
Pedestrians on Main street on a Saturday noon watched with interest the parade of Wyatts to the Elks. With police escort and sirens blowing, a 1941 Ford driven by Ralph Wyatt carried Linda Zaugg and Joan Neff, grandchildren of the Wyatts, who acted as flower girls. Following them was a car carrying Rev. and Mrs. Wyatt on which was tied a large placard saying "Just Married—Sixty Years Ago." This car was followed by seven other automobiles carrying the family.

All eleven children born to Rev. and Mrs. Wyatt, since their marriage 60 years ago are living. Matthew Wyatt, the oldest, flew here from his home in St. Petersburg, Fla. John Wyatt, of Portland, Ore., flew in a transport plane to Kansas City where he joined Jacob and Joe Wyatt, and all three flew here in Jacob's private plane.

Besides a number of grandchildren, there were two great-grandchildren, James Cleveland Parks, Jr., and Georgia Ann Brasher, both of Mississippi, at the celebration.

As the different members of the family started to arrive the walls of the Wyatt home fairly bulged and so the family rented Fernbaugh Manor, the Findlay college women's dormitory, for three days.

Tuesday, just as the celebration started to calm itself, a sister of Mrs. Wyatt's, Mrs. Joe Klopentien, of Garden City, Mo., 91 years old drove up with her son, John, 71, and another sister of Mrs. Wyatt, Mrs. Lydia Zehr, 84, of Pioneer, O. Mrs. Klopentien and her son had motored here from Missouri stopping in Pioneer for the other sister. And then the celebration was renewed with vigor.

The family attributes much of its happiness and health to the fact that it has sung its way through life. All of them, including 83-year-old Rev. Wyatt and his wife, 79-year-old Rev. Mary Wyatt, who has also been a minister for the past 45 years working with her husband in the evangelistic fields have excellent voices and all through the years which held lifes full share of troubles and sorrows they have carried a song in their hearts.

There were duets, solos, ensemble numbers and of course songs from "The Four Queens," the quartet which a number of years ago broadcast over station WTAM with the famous comedy team of "Lum and Abner." The quartet is composed of the twins, Aquilla Wyatt Sterret, of Atlanta, Ga., Priscilla Wyatt Nye, of Columbus, and Eunice Wyatt Neff, of Mansfield and Esther Wyatt Zaugg, of Cleveland, O. The family worship hour which marked the close of every day for the family for many years was revived this week as all of the children gathered around their father and mother for a

Is Retired Minister
Rev. Wyatt is a retired minister, affiliated with the Indiana Eldership of the Churches of God. He preached for 65 years in many states. His wife says she will never retire from the ministry although ill health during the past year has prevented active participation in church services.

Despite their advanced ages and ill health, they declared the reunion with all their children was one of the happiest events of their long and busy lives, and the confusion and excitement of the past week served only as a tonic.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Jane Cupper's
"Daring" Bathing Suit

The Cuppers showed me some tin-types of their nineteen-ten vacation—picnicking on the beach with beer and pretzels, in bathing suits that made them look like they were dressed in street-wear.

Dee was smothered in a long-sleeved pull-over with knee length shorts, and looking embarrassed—as if he thought Jane's costume of a heavy blouse, two copious skirts, and long black stockings was a little daring.

We laughed a lot at those costumes... but come to think of it, as Dee says, we'll probably look just as funny twenty years from now, in what we call our "Modern" clothes. Only thing that won't change in the picture is that melon, wholesome glass of beer.

From where I sit, tolerance that lets us wear sensible, decent clothes—to give us sun and air and freedom—will keep that wholesome glass of beer a part of the American tradition.

Card Tables ALL-STEEL WELDED FRAMES

Choose from attractive designs in red, white or tan pigskin or beautiful rare wood mosaic reproductions. Stain-resistant tops stay good looking. To clean, just swish a damp cloth over them. Held by the steel frame and supported by a welded steel cross brace, they won't warp. Double braced legs won't wobble. These convenient folding tables cost little folding money! You can afford to buy several at this low price!

FEATURES YOU WANT

Rigidity—All Steel Frame with Welded Steel Cross Braces and Double-Braced Legs.

Convenient—Fold to store in small space. Quickly set up.

Easy to Clean—One-piece, smooth tops are washable and stain-resistant.

Easy on Stockings—Mirror-smooth steel legs.

Easy on Floors—Legs equipped with nickel floor glides.

Examine the corner construction of these tables. The corner bracket is welded directly to frame and snap brace riveted to bracket. A hinged brace opposite snap brace gives positive solidity. These are quality-built DURHAM card tables. Construction is as rigid as in the more expensive tables in this famous line.
