

Red Cross Drive Next On Program

Chester Jontz, of Etna Green, chairman of the planning committee for the annual county Red Cross drive, announced Thursday that the list of Red Cross workers in the various districts in the county is now complete.

M. F. Jones has been named to head the drive in Turkey Creek township. Ira Nine will have charge of Tippecanoe township, and John Augsberger will head the VanBuren township drive.

On the morning of Feb. 25, the national Red Cross fund campaign will be launched with a talk by Gen. Dwight Eisenhower from the Medina Temple in Chicago. Miss Helen Hayes, stage star, and a cast of supporting actors will be featured in a specially written tone poem and James Stewart, movie star, will serve as master of ceremonies. Wayne King's orchestra will play.

In Washington, Basil O'Connor, president of the American Red Cross, will introduce President Truman for his annual campaign "kick-off" message. Both programs will be aired.

BOY SCOUTS HOLD

RALLY AT SEMINARY

About 25 Boy Scouts from Elkhart, Pierceton and Syracuse were guests at Our Lady of the Lake Seminary, on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 13. Two of their number, George Kieffer and William Beater, both of the Senior Scouts, Post 50 of Elkhart, received badges in recognition of their newly acquired rank of Explorer Woodsman.

Before the presentation, the guests together with their hosts, Troop 57 and Sea Ship 57, of the Seminary, nearly a hundred in all, heard a short exhortation by the Area Chaplain, Father Constant, who is also curate at St. Vincent's Parish, Elkhart. Father Smerke, Master of the Seminary, then gave Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Ceremonies over the seminars presented an hour's program. The Barbershop Quartet consisting of J. Mattingly, J. Murray, P. Rampe, R. Olemacher, D. Vernon, D. Isenbarger, C. Bennett, and J. Claus sang "Kentucky Babe" and "Dem Bones." The senior class presented a radio skit, an episode from the "Life of Riley." L. Heeg impersonated Riley; J. Schults took the leading lady's role; while H. Britton acted the incorrigible Junior's part; R. Jaeger filled in as Gilla, while A. Schmitt pretended to be Mrs. Jessup. The other filled out as announcers, commercial pluggers, racket makers, etc.

After a short tour of the seminary, all joined in the buffet lunch prepared for all the scouts and officials.

Among the Scout executives were Mr. and Mrs. Geiger, Mr. Eckols and Mr. Huth, all of Elkhart.

PYTHIAN SISTERS MEET

Loyal Temple of the Pythian Sisters met Wednesday evening, Feb. 16. Temple was opened by Mrs. Ella Unruh, M.E.C. The presentation was made by Manager Agnes Causser, the honored guests were G. C. Alma Myers and D.D.G.C. Iva Carpenter, of Warsaw. Each guest received a lovely corsage, also Ella Unruh. Mrs. Causser then sang a lovely Irish song, "Galway Bay" accompanied by Ruth LeCount on the piano.

Inspection followed with initiation. Congratulations to the officers and the degree staff and its captains for work well done. Delicious refreshments were served in keeping with Lincoln's birthday.

Six guests were present from Warsaw. A grand time was had by all.

DEATH OF C. B. STIVER

C. B. Stiver, 77, well-known Goshen business man for nearly half a century, died at 6:00 a.m. Saturday at his home in Goshen, where he suffered a heart attack five weeks ago. He was a summer resident at Wawasee Lake.

Mrs. D. E. Littler and son, John, were called to Amboy, Ind., Saturday by the serious illness of her father, Andrew Shrock, who is now a patient in an Indianapolis hospital. Rev. Mr. Littler went to Amboy Monday morning. Sandra and Almasue Littler are staying with Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Geiger.

Mrs. Flossie Penney, of Wawasee, is a guest of Mrs. Estelle Swartz.

ANNUAL DRIVE FOR BOY SCOUT FUNDS STARTED

At the Monday night meeting of the Syracuse-Wawasee Rotary Club, the annual drive for funds for the Boy Scouts was started. The Rotary club is sponsor for the Scouts in Syracuse. Letters are being mailed to hundreds of local residents and members of Rotary will also call upon many local people. The money from this drive goes to help support the Boy Scout camp at Indian Village and other Scout area activities.

The Pioneer Trails Council of the Boy Scouts of America announces with grateful thanks the contributions received thus far in their drive for funds. The council is the administrative service organization to supervise and promote scouting for Elkhart, Lagrange and Kosciusko counties. Besides using the funds for necessary scout administrative needs, it is also used for field work, such as maintaining and improving the fine scout camp at Indian Village. A list of donors to date follows:

Milo Geyer, Robert Laird, W. C. Gants, Ralph Knisley, Lillian Hamman, Syracuse Overhead Door Co., Lewis Immel, Nita Kline, C. J. Kline, A. H. Blanchard, Lee Poyser, Emory Kindig, Fred Searfoss, Dr. K. W. Mulholland, Everett Miner, James Wilson, May Kindig, Court Slabaugh, Thornburg Drug Co., F. Slusser.

MRS. FRANK HENWOOD

DIES SOUTH OF TOWN

A heart attack caused the unexpected death of Mrs. Frank Henwood, aged 79, of near North Webster, which occurred at 9 p.m. Saturday at her farm home. She had suffered from a heart ailment but was apparently better and on Friday evening had visited away from home.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Henwood was Miss Emma Rosbrugh, daughter of Benalish and Susan (Kimes) Rosbrugh. She was born in Plain township, March 13, 1869. She was married March 13, 1907, to Mr. Henwood, who died in 1945. She was a member of the North Webster Methodist church and was affiliated with the Pythian Sisters' lodge at North Webster.

Surviving relatives include one son, Harvey, with whom she resided; a daughter, Mrs. Lucille Hayworth of Phoenix, Ariz., formerly a teacher in the North Webster and Syracuse schools; and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Paul M. Bilby funeral home, with Rev. J. W. Rhine, pastor of the North Webster Methodist church, officiating. Burial was at Leesburg, where a graveside service was conducted by the Pythian Sisters.

SYRACUSE DEFEATS CROMWELL, 70 TO 43

Some kind of a high school record was probably set last Friday night as 37 personal fouls were called against the Cromwell cagers in their 70 to 43 loss to the Syracuse Yellowjackets. Syracuse was charged with 22 fouls, making a total of 59 in the game. The Yellowjackets made 26 free throws.

Charles Dietrick, Lowell Barnhart and Gareth Meek all scored well for the Yellowjackets. Dietrick collected 21 points, while Barnhart had 19 and Meek 14. Lawson tallied 12 points for Cromwell. Five Cromwell players left the game with five personal fouls.

In an overtime game, Cromwell's second team defeated the Syracuse reserves, 38 to 36. Officials were LeMaster and Hein, both of Port Wayne.

Syracuse will play Ligonier here Friday night in the last game of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Ball, of Elkhart, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Snyder. Mrs. Lucile Weaver was a caller at the home of Christ Darr, Saturday evening.

Miss Donna Darr, a student at the Memorial hospital at South Bend, spent from Friday evening until Saturday evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Darr. A son, Phillip Lee, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Eli Fry, of route 2, Thursday morning at the Goshen hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James McClintic and family, spent Sunday in Milford, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Pinkerton.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Charters and family, spent Sunday in Gary with Mrs. Charters' brother and aunt.

Fred Hoopingarner spent Monday and Tuesday in Detroit, Mich.

ON WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY BY COLLIER

JOHN Q. TAXPAYER—It was George Washington who said that one method of preserving the public credit is "to use it as sparingly as possible."

Wednesday Afternoon Club

Eighteen members of the Wednesday Afternoon Club were entertained in the home of Mrs. Olin Lougheed, Feb. 16th.

Mrs. E. L. Fosbrink conducted a short business session, during which contributions were made to the Heart Fund, the Pioneer Trails, Boy Scout Unit and the Musical Pennies.

"Home on the Range" was the theme of the program, ably presented by Mrs. Dorothy Harris, with the audience seated in Mrs. Lougheed's attractive modern kitchen. Mrs. Harris demonstrated the art of serving attractive and tasty souffe and rolls, and compared the right and wrong methods of vegetable cooking.

The guests then enjoyed the products during a social hour. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. James Stucky.

Stanley Reed, U.S. Navy, stationed at San Diego, Calif., who was called here two weeks ago by the death of his mother, Mrs. Earl Baker, left here last Friday for Champaign, Ill., intending to fly to California.

However because of weather conditions he was not able to leave Champaign and was given a ten-day extension of his leave. He returned to Syracuse Tuesday to spend a few more days.

Syracuse School News

Who's Who

There seems to be one senior boy who can't get along with his drum, for he has been playing it for six years. This boy is none other than Raymond Gene Kition.

I will give some further information about this senior. He was born in Syracuse, Feb. 18, 1931. His favorite sport is track of which he has participated in 4 years. Gene also has been a member of the softball team, 3 years, basketball 4 years and chorus 4 years.

In case anyone is interested he prefers mashed potatoes, sauerkraut and weiners as his favorite foods. His favorite subjects are typing and civics, and blue as his color. For his top tune he prefers "Embraceable You."

Gene's pet peeve is lipstick on drinking fountains. His weakness is mystery radio programs. He is editor-in-chief of the school news and literary editor for the year book. His plans after graduation are indefinite. Good luck, Gene.

Senior News

Has anyone found out why Mr. Longenbaugh changed so many seats in Civic class? Perhaps it was because the boys couldn't keep their hands to themselves.

The movie "Instruments of the Orchestra" featuring the London Symphony Orchestra was shown last Thursday. It showed the various instruments and how they contributed to the music of the orchestra as a whole.

Chapel services were held Friday afternoon with Rev. C. M. Fawns delivering the address.

Three seniors, Connie Weingart, Brent Bushong and Charles Dietrick took the state scholarship examinations last Tuesday.

Six seniors will be playing their last basketball game on the Syracuse floor Friday night. They are Brent Bushong, Charles Dietrick, Gerald Bitner, Gene Kition, Roger Fry and Robert Hoover.

There will be no school in Kosciusko county on Friday, all schools are dismissing for the Tourney.

WEDDINGS

CRIBE-TREADWAY

The Syracuse Methodist church was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon, when Miss Patricia Joan Treadway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Treadway, and Clifford Dale Cripe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cripe, all of Syracuse and vicinity, were united in marriage.

White flowers were arranged with the bank of palms at the altar, lighted with burning tapers in tall candelabra, as the double ring marriage service was read by the pastor, Rev. Claude Fawns. Mrs. John Bryan, of Ligonier, vocalist, and Mrs. Hilary Bachman, Syracuse, organist, presented a half-hour musicale preceding the ceremony.

Robert Whiteman, of South Bend; Russell Bertram, Jr., of Cromwell; and Gareth Meek, of Syracuse, seated the guests.

A classically styled white satin gown, fashioned with net yoke, full length sleeves and long train, was worn by the bride, escorted down the carpeted aisle by her father. Her finger tip veil, of lace, was caught to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Dorothy Causser, maid of honor, was attired in yellow tulle. She carried maroon carnations. Miss Nancy Treadway, sister of the bride carried yellow carnations with her blue tulle gown. Sharon Treadway small sister of the bride, the flower girl, in pink tulle, carried a colonial bouquet of red and white snapdragons.

Robert Treadway, brother of the bride, attended Mr. Cripe as best man.

Mrs. Treadway, mother of the bride, was wearing a tan dress with white accessories and Mrs. Cripe, mother of the bridegroom, wore yellow accessories with her aqua dress. White carnations were used in their corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception for 150 guests was held at the Hex Grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Cripe are at home on the Eyer farm, east of Syracuse. The latter a graduate of the Syracuse high school, and the business college, at South Bend, has been employed in the offices of the Bendix corporation there.

STEPHENSON-MARCH

The marriage of Miss Sally Ann March, daughter of Mr. Albert Thomas March and the late Mrs. March, of Western Springs, Ill., to Edward Edgerley Stephenson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stephenson, of Syracuse, was solemnized Saturday evening Feb. 12, in All Saints Episcopal church, Western Springs, with Father C. El Bigler officiating.

Mrs. Donald P. Fondriat, Jr. of Savannah, Ga., sister of the bride was matron of honor and Robert H. Stephenson, of Attica, uncle of the bridegroom was best man. The Misses Kay and Jane Stephenson, sisters of the groom, were bridesmaids, and James Custer, of West Lafayette, Ind., and Edwin Fondriat, of LaGrange, Ill., ushers.

The bride's gown of ivory satin was fashioned with long sleeves, a yoke of illusion net, embroidered with seed pearls and a sweeping train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion net fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, and an heirloom handkerchief of Honiton lace which originally was carried by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. U. W. Kirkpatrick, and has been carried by three generations of brides of Mrs. Stephenson's family.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids wore identical gowns of peacock blue tulle and carried shower bouquets of pink carnations.

Mrs. Stephenson wore a powder blue dinner gown with a shoulder corsage of diminutive garnet roses, and Mrs. Herman March, of Madison, Wis., aunt of the bride, wore a powder blue lace dress with a corsage of gardenias.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the bride's home.

The former Miss March was graduated from Lyons Township high school and attended Brenan college, Gainesville, Ga.

Mr. Stephenson was a graduate of Shortridge high school of Indianapolis and received his degree in Chemical Engineering from Purdue University on Feb. 6th. He served in the army for three and one-half years. He has accepted a position with the Sorg Paper Co., Middletown, O., where after a wedding trip in the South the young couple will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stephenson and daughters, Jane and Kay, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCrea, of Syracuse, attended the wedding ceremony.

Home Talent Show Here

March 3-4

Rehearsals are being held nightly this week and next by the members of the cast of the "Gay Nineties Revue", to be presented at the Syracuse high school gym two nights, March 3rd and 4th. The 2 1/2 hour show is sponsored by the Syracuse Business & Professional Women's club, and all proceeds will go toward the fund to install flood lights on the athletic field here.

More than sixty members are in the cast, making it probably the largest number ever to take part in a home-talent play here.

Old-time square dancing, a barber shop quartet, real "drama", a Florida sextet number, a black-face minstrel act, etc., will make up the show. Tickets are now on sale.

MRS. SARAH E. HOWER DIES AT MILLERSBURG
Mrs. Sarah E. Hower, 88, a resident of Millersburg, for 35 years, died at 6:00 p.m. Friday, at the home of a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Hower, in Millersburg. Mrs. Hower had been bedfast for the past two weeks.

Born Oct. 23, 1860, three miles east of Syracuse, Mrs. Hower was a daughter of Samuel and Rebecca Snavely. Her husband, David Hower, died last May, 24.

Surviving are two sons, Harry, of Provo, Utah, and George, at whose home she died; seven grandchildren; five great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Angeline Edmonds, of Syracuse.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in St. Peter's Lutheran church, Millersburg. The Rev. A. H. Miller officiated and burial was in Brown cemetery.

Mrs. Hower had spent much of her time the last few years here in the home of her sister, Mrs. Edmonds.

RETURNS TO INDIANA AFTER 40 YEARS ABROAD

Raised as a boy in Syracuse, Indiana, and after touring nearly the entire world as a trick cyclist, Amos Audrey Snyder, arrived in Goshen a few days ago after living in England since 1905.

Snyder, 68, returned to the United States on several entertainment tours since his initial departure from the United States, but had made England his home until January 8, when he left for America.

"I learned the cycling act as a boy," Snyder said, "and I traveled the entire United States, Canada, and Mexico before I left for England 44 years ago." After arriving in England, he toured Denmark, Germany, Belgium, France, Italy, Ireland, Scotland, Wales and presented his act before many of the royal families of England.

During the first World War, Snyder did charity work in many of the European countries.

In the late 1920's, he met his wife, Quetta Papucci, English ballet performer. Mrs. Snyder was also a great English star, having played at the Empire theater in London for seven and one-half years. Her stage career started when she was 12 years of age. She is now known as Ketta Snyder, having changed her name after retiring from the stage many years ago.

During World War II, Mr. Snyder resided in London and volunteered his services in the ambulance corps there during the "blitz." He was presented a special medal of honor and ribbon by the British government for his active service from 1939 until 1945. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder said that several times during the "blitz" their home was shattered badly by bombs.

During this time, Snyder presented his trick cycling act to hundreds of children's tea parties there. He retired from the entertainment world about three years ago.

Mr. Snyder, who remembered having presented his cycling act to a large Syracuse crowd in the early 1930's, said that he and his wife plan to remain in Goshen and Mr. Snyder would like to open a toy factory there. At present, they are staying at the home of Mrs. C. L. Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hirschman entertained the Win-A-Couple class of the Church of God in their home Wednesday evening. After a lengthy business meeting, refreshments of home made ice cream and cookies were served. About twenty attended.

Mrs. Hattie Davis is ill in her home.
