AUXILIARY MEMBERS ATTEND MARION PARTY
Mrs. Russell Kistler, Mrs. Nelson Blough, Mrs. Lawrence Kahn, Mrs. Jasper VanSickle and Mrs. Floyd Brower, of the local American Legion Auxiliary, attended the birthday party at the Veterans' hospital in Marion last Thursday. The party was given by the Auxiliary Units of district

2 for veterans at the hospital whose birthdays occur in February. About 400 veterans attended this party including bed ward patients.

Approximately 115 home made cakes were taken by the Auxiliaries. These were served with ice cream, candy, apples, oranges and cigarettes to the veterans. A program was also given.

There are 11 districts in the state, each of which sponsors a party of this kind one month in the year. The department takes care of the 12th month. Officials stated that this was the largest and most complete party ever given at the hospital.

Auxiliary members were shown the work shops there, including the upholstery department and poppy work shop, seeing the actual making of the poppies.

The group from Syracuse visited with William Kline, of Wawasee Lake, who is at the hospital.
