

LOCAL NEWS

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Cox and Rev. and Mrs. Claude M. Fawns attended the County Ministerial Association meeting at Warsaw on Monday.

Mrs. W. I. Geiger was hostess to the Ladies Aid society of the Lakeside E.U.B. church in her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Roy Niles was the leader.

BROOD. SOWS getting HOG SPECIAL at Dr. Hess Research Farm have always farrowed big litters of husky pigs, and had plenty of milk to start them off with a bang. Your sows are no different. Let 'em try HOG SPECIAL. — Thornburg Drug Co.

Mrs. Harold Bassett and Mrs.

James McClintic were guests last Friday of their aunt, Mrs. John Kavanaugh, in Elkhart.

Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips of Iowa, were over-night guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Babcock, Sunday night.

Karen Lee Glass, of Etna Green, is spending this week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Geiger.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bassett, of Morocco, Ind., are spending several weeks here in the homes of their children, Harold Bassett and Mrs. Dale Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Harkless have returned from a vacation in Florida. They spent a few days in Chicago, enroute home.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Insley are in Florida for a few weeks vacation.

AROUND TOWN

The Cub Cruiser, manufactured here in Syracuse by the Liberty Coach Co., was the hit of the outdoor show at Navy Pier, Chicago, last week, according to several local people who attended. Chicago papers carried several pictures and write-ups about it. The new Cub has retractable wheels. The national Trailer Show is on next week at Chicago and Liberty will have several models on display, one trailer having a full bath room (with tub) built in.

Blair Laughlin sang several numbers over the P.M. radio station from Warsaw last Sunday evening. Several local people were tuned in.

Radio station WLS, Chicago, has carried several local stories recently, as told in The Journal. They told of the Cub Cruiser going to the outdoor show, and of the picture showing Blair Laughlin taking a "swim" in Lake Wawasee recently.

The lowest prices in town are those advertised in The Journal by local stores. Follow them closely. These merchants spend

P. T. A. STUDY GROUP MEETS

The P. T. A. Study Group met for their second meeting at the home of Mrs. Willard Nussbaum, with 13 members and one guest, Mrs. Edna Vawter Hess, a former teacher, now retired 5 years. Mrs. Hess taught in the one-room Vawter Park School at Wawasee, several years and the 5th and 9th grades in Syracuse and later in the Opportunity Room in the grade school. She recalled many endearing and amusing incidents.

The lessons for this month were "How Intelligence Develops" and "Lesson Trouble". The leader for this meeting was Anna Sudlow, very ably assisted by Mrs. Hess. A lively discussion followed each part of the lesson. The idea of a Study Group is very instructive and enjoyable and is gaining more members.

Coffee and cookies were served by the hostess and a short social few minutes were enjoyed. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Harold Kitson on Tuesday, March 15. Mrs. Kitson passed out pamphlets on various subjects from Childcraft, for lesson discussion at that meeting.

vance of the annual one-day mission study class, which for several years the two churches have held jointly.

The book selected for review was "Chinese Diamonds" by Rosalind Goforth. Each chapter is a separate story of a Chinese man or woman who was converted to Christianity through the ministry of Dr. and Mrs. Goforth, missionaries to China from 1888 until 1934. They had been sent out by the Presbyterian Mission board of Canada.

The author of many books, Mrs. Goforth gives as the reason for writing "Chinese Diamonds", an answer to the many people who ask me, "Do missions pay?"
