BOY SCOUTS IN BIG GAIN AT SUMMER CAMP

Estimated reports from Pioneer Trails Council has revealed a 50% anticipated increase in enrollment over last year's summer camp attendance. The camp near Cromwell, Ind., consists of 167 acres and is adjacent to three spring-fed lakes.

A new record of nineteen chartered troops planning to attend with own leadership and using the camp facilities and program has been reached.

All camp sites have been reserved to capacity, with the exception of the provisional camp during the weeks starting July 3 and 10th. Good representation has been assured from Elkhart, Atwood, Goshen, Silver Lake, Syracuse, Middlebury, Nappanee, Warsaw, Jamestown, Dunlap, LaGrange, New Paris, Milford, Warsaw, and Millersburg. So far 241 Scouts have registered from these communities for camp.

William Campbell, of Elkhart, an ex-Marine and currently a student at Ball State Teachers' College, has been selected as waterfront director. He will attend the National Council Aquatic School near Joliet, Ill., from June 12 to 18th.

Gerald Kelter, local Social Security Administrator, for the three counties coinciding with the Council Area, has volunteered to spend a day at camp each week as rifle marksmanship instructor. He holds a National Rifle Association instructor's certificate and has been a leader in the Scouting Movement for many years. Art Parrish, district extension forester, has again volunteered to serve as camp naturalist.

With the appointment of three additional junior staff members, the camp staff has been completed. Morris Young, troop 11, First Presbyterian church in Elkhart; Russell Poor, troop 30, First Methodist church in Warsaw; and Dave Thomas, troop 18, Central Christian church in Elkhart have all accepted staff assignments.

Many troops are making preparations for a parents' night at camp on Wednesday evenings. A special feature for the parents will be a stunt campfire that evening.

Emphasis will be placed on a rugged out-of-doors program requiring alertness, scoutcraft knowledge, physical fitness and initiative. Adequate rest and wholesome food are provided. The camp is regulated by national health and safety standards.

Scouts may still enroll for camp through their scoutmasters, although they may no longer qualify for the 10% discount given those enrolling by June 1.
