WITH THE SCOUTS

Boy Scout Troop 28, met at 7 o'clock at the Lakeside Park on Thursday, Sept. 15, for a bicycle ride around Syracuse lake. After a quick meal of hot dogs, etc. a meeting was held, after which a game of "Keep Jack Alive" was played, which is played as follows:

"Keep Jack Alive" is played by arranging the players in a circle around the camp fire. Then a person taking a stick with a glowing end from the fire, blows on the glowing end and passes it to the person next to him, saying, "Keep Jack alive." This person does the same, and so on around the circle until the ember goes out. The person who is holding the stick when the ember goes out has to lead the group in a song or tell a story. The person telling stories or leading in songs were Roddy Wilt, Jerry Clark, and Joel Bates.

P. T. A. NEWS

Your P. T. A. will hold its first meeting this fall, on October 6, it being the first Thursday of the month, which is always P. T. A. get-together time. In Turkey Creek township, Everyone is invited, and anyone interested in children may become a member.

Any P. T. A. needs people interested in children, to help carry on the ideals of Home School and Church for the welfare of children.

A few P. T. A. officers and chairman, from Syracuse, attended a recent "School of Information Conference", in Warsaw. The speakers were the District Chairman of this area, Mrs. Floyd Clark, assisted by Mrs. Gloy, of Kokomo, and Mrs. Burkholder, of Elkhart, chairman of Home and Family Life. They gave general information on P. T. A. functioning, and a question and answer discussion followed each subject, making the meeting both interesting and instructive.

Mr. Jones, Principal of East Ward School, Warsaw offered an enthusiastic "Thank You" to the assembly, and said it was good for everyone to work together for the child, instead of being the kind who, (his own words) would rather grow grass, than children.
