

CULVER STUDENT

Enrolled at Culver Military Academy for the 60th academic year which got underway last week are Robert M. Baer and C. Richard Tuttle, both from Syracuse. They are sons of Melvin H. Baer, R. R. 3, and Mrs. Carl R. Tuttle, R. R. 1, respectively.

Founded by Henry Harrison Culver, the internationally known college preparatory school opened for its first term on September 25, 1894. Forty-two cadets comprised the first corps, as compared with a capacity enrollment for the 1953-54 academic year of 740 cadets.

WINS CONTEST

Mr. Ed Kleinknight, local Chevrolet dealer, has become the recipient of a three-day vacation jaunt to Rhinelander, Wisc., on the basis of his having placed first and fourth in the Chevrolet Champions Campaign which was conducted during the months of May and June in the Indianapolis zone area. The contestants were judged on the basis of their total gross business during the two month period. Mr. Kleinknight's standing of first and fourth were earned on the basis of his businesses in Milford and Syracuse. 179 dealers took part in the contest. The 14 winners will leave Indianapolis today by air, returning Sunday.

ROUND TABLE

The Ladies of the Round Table met in the home of Mrs. Carl Sorensen, Monday evening, September 28th.

HEX GRANGE NEWS

The Hex Grange met Tuesday evening with 33 members present. Master Samuel Bushong presided.

Mrs. Clyde Neff, lecturer, reported on a trip to the Bashor orphanage near Goshen to which she had taken 18 bath towels and wash cloths to match that had been donated by the Hex Grange. Plans were begun for the annual fair which will be held Nov. 23.

The members having July and August birthdays had charge of the program and served refreshments.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 6 at 7:30 p.m.
Last Saturday evening the Hex Grange was host to the Elkhart the order of business as usual. The theme for the entire year's program is "Woman's Part In Preserving Our American Heritage," and today's program was headed "Citizenship and the 166th Anniversary of the Signing of the Constitution."

Mrs. Thelma Brinkman presented her part of the program in the following divisions:

1st Gettysburg Address, 2nd Story of the Liberty Bell, 3rd The Declaration of Independence, 5th The 13 Original States, 6th The First Flag and the Present Flag, 7th The Preamble of the Constitution. Mrs. Brinkman also described the building of the first United States Capitol and its destruction by fire. Her presentation was most interesting and instructive.
