

Owner Identifies Last Week's Farm

Claus Bobeck owns the above farm, which was correctly identified by Carl Wilkinson, Raymond Bitner, Joe Zehr and Mary Kelly in that order. There were a host of other callers who correctly identified the farm also. Comprising 80 acres, the farm is located on the county line road, three miles east of Syracuse. Formerly the old Bobeck home farm, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Paulas have occupied the farm for the past two years. General farming is carried on with sheep raising as a major livestock item. A new Mystery Farm appears on page one. Try your luck at identifying this farm.

WE LIVE TO REMEMBER

Many of the best hours of life are spent in happy memories. Without them, the past would lie withered and desolate. To preserve and to honor the memory of a loved one is the privilege of the living—a privilege that must be accepted with a sure knowledge of the responsibility involved. We are counsellors in all phases of memorial craftsmanship. However small the price, we can assure you sympathetic consideration and honest value. Our new stock has just arrived. Won't you call on us?
