"Life With Father" Here Hectic and Entertaining

(By Jane Bachman).
"Life with father" proves to be hectic and entertaining in the Wawasee Playhouse interpretation of the life with the well-known Clarence Day family. David Grogan plays "I don't want to be baptized" Clarence Day in a truly stormy Day mood throughout the play. Patient, long-suffering, and long-suffering, played by Sally Noble. Clarence Jr. is played by Kent Guthrie, and he soon discovers that being the eldest son can have its dark moments. Son John, the salesman of the family who manages to sell 120 bottles of the beneficent balm that killed the neighbor's dog is played by Walter Bagot. Whitney and Harlan, the youngest sons, are played by Oliver and Bernard Hart. Marilyn Beck portrays Aunt Cora, and Mary Jo Henderson plays Mary Skinner, two relatives who draw wrathful comments from Father. The Episcopal minister who takes a prayerful attitude toward all goings on in the Day household is played by Vic Kleman. Doctors Humphreys and
