You Asked For It!

When the first Annual Spring Open House Days were planned for last April, our committee did not quite know what to expect -- but you came -- thousands of you -- and here we are -- at it again. It's your show -- you asked for it!!

Bargain Festival!

We are sending you this message to persuade you to pay us a visit. We will make it worth your while. Our merchants have seen to that by cutting prices to the bone for this special sale. When you see our fine selection of modern stores you will want to come again and again. Let's get acquainted!
