School News . . .

Sixth Grade News

We are studying about a class newspaper in English. The newspaper's staff is as follows: editor-in-chief, Sherry Sealoff; assistant, Patsy Hummel; reporters, Tom Firestone and Diana Lung; sports writers, Bill Duckwall and Charles Folger; copyreaders, Larrena Laird and Carolyn Barnhart; make-up editor, Dixie Burtsfield.

Laura Wood left us about a month ago. She went to Florida. We are in contact with her for she sends letters to us. It is nice to be able to go to Florida, isn't it?

The workman has installed a new oil heating system at the new grade school. The heating system is heating the whole high school, too.

We are going to have a play. The name of it is "The Hillbilly Family." The play will be given Wednesday. The cast is as follows: Ma, Charles Folger; Pa, Joe Schlebach; Trouble, Rodger Bornman; Willy, Bill Duckwall; Jake, Tom Firestone; Larry, Larrena Laird; Dot, Sherry Sealoff; Sis, Patsy Hummel; Sue, Sharon Nordman; Jessie, Diana Lung. The playwriters are Sherry Sealoff and Diana Lung.

At the first of the year our room divided into two groups for a baseball contest in arithmetic. One group is the Indians and the other is called the Giants. The Indians have won twenty-one games and lost nineteen games. The Giants have won nineteen games and lost twenty-one games.

In health we have experiments. The boys and girls enjoy them very much. On November the tenth our experiment was to use the microscope and look at different things, such as: human blood, frog blood, meat, etc.

We started to study history three weeks ago. We studied about the cave dwellers. Last week we made posters and reports on the growth of wheels and boats in transportation.

Some of the most interesting things the boys and girls like to do in school are having spelling bees, arithmetic races, and health experiments.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

Nancy Powell celebrated her 12th birthday Sunday, November 21, with a party. She invited the following: Marsha Crow, Kay Bender, Beverly Mey, Nancy Stump, Susan Fosbrink, and Susan Bachman. However, Mary Holloway and Brenda Stabler were unable to come.

For entertainment the girls played games of Bingo and "Pin the Tail on the Donkey." Following the entertainment, ice cream, cake and cokes were served.

After refreshments the girls, still feeling energetic, amused themselves with dancing and ping pong.

A good time was had by all and many more Happy Birthday's to you, Nancy.
