

Church of God
Rev. Elvin Hoffman, Pastor
Louis Firestone, Supt.
Jan. 8, Sunday School—9:30 A.M.

Worship Service, 10:30 A.M.
7:30 P.M.
Jan. 11, Prayer meeting and
Bible Study 7:30 P.M.
Youth meeting in the basement.

Grace Bible Church
Associated with Independent
Fundamental Churches.
Rev. M. Raymond Mason, Pastor
10:00 A.M. Morning Worship.
11:00 A.M. Bible School.
7:30 P.M. Evening Service.

North Webster
Church of God
Rev. E. Earl Wells, Pastor
Morning Worship, 9:30 A.M.
Sunday School, 10:30 A.M.
Evening service, 7:30 P.M.
Youth Fellowship, Prayer
Hour, and Children's Story
Hour Wednesday at 8:00 P.M.

St. Patrick's
Catholic Church

Ligonier, Indiana
Masses every Sunday at 8:30.
Third Sunday of the month
at 10:00.
Masses on Holy Days at 7:00.
Daily Masses in the Mission
House Chapel at 7:30 a.m.

Ligonier
Presbyterian Church
Dr. Richard Wolfe, Minister
Worship with us 9:30 and 10:45.

Syracuse
Methodist Church
W. Noble Greene, Minister;
Miss Catherine Connell, Director of Religious Education; Mr.
John Kimpel, Sunday School
Superintendent.
Sunday, Jan. 8, Worship Service
10 A.M. The Minister's Sermon
subject will be Four

Anchors That Hold. The Chancel Choir will furnish the Anthem. The Nursery Room will be available again. A special invitation is extended to the public to worship with us.

Sunday School and Study
Period will be from 11 until 12 o'clock.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at 5:30 P.M. The Senior group will meet at the Church and the Intermediate group will meet in the Parsonage.

Commission on Education will meet 12 January. In connection with the meeting, we are urging all teachers of the Sunday School to be present. Part of the program is especially designed for your interest. We sincerely hope all workers in the Sunday School will be present. Time of meeting is 7 P.M.

Chancel Choir rehearsal will be at the Church at 7:45 P.M. Thursday.

Nightingale Choir rehearsal will be at the Church at 4 P.M. Friday.

Burr Oak E. U. B.
Rev. John Schroeder, Pastor
Sunday School—9:30; Raymond Baker, Supt.
Worship Service 7:30.

Wawasee
Lakeside Chapel
Rev. Herbert Yoder, Pastor
10:00 A.M. Worship Service.
11:00 A.M. Sunday School.

Grace Lutheran Church
9:45 Sunday School. After a recess by some of the pupils during the Festival Season, all are expected to be on hand with the opening of the New Year.

10:45 The Nursery group.
10:45 Divine Worship. Sermon, "The Manifestation of Christ To The Gentiles." Matt. 2:1-12.

Tuesday 8 p.m. Church Council meets.
Thursday 7:30 Senior Choir rehearsal.

A warm welcome is extended to visitors and residents of our community who have no regular church home. The Sunday School has a class for boys and girls not attending elsewhere. Make 1956 a Happy and Useful New Year throughout.

Missionary Training School at First United Lutheran Church, Indianapolis Thursday Jan. 5.

Morris Chapel
Methodist Church

Rev. Hillis L. Avery, Minister
Worship and Holy Communion Services next Sunday at 10:30. Communion message on, "The Spiritual Glow." All members and friends urged to be present.

Church School with Mr. Hale Wright, Supt., at 9:30 Sunay morning. Classes for all ages.

A hearty welcome for all who come among us. See you in church Sunday morning!

Solomon's Creek E. U. B.
Rev. John Schroeder, Pastor
Sunday School—10:00; Mr. John Darr, Supt.
Worship Service 11:00 a.m.

Richville
Methodist Church
C. B. Carpenter, Pastor
Sunday School at 9:30 a.m.

St. Francis
Catholic Church
Pierceont, Indiana
Robert J. Hoevel, Pastor
Sunday Masses at 7:30 a.m.
Saturday morning Mass at 9:00 a.m.
Weekday Masses at 7:00 a.m.

Benton
Methodist Church
C. B. Carpenter, Pastor
Sunday School at 9:30 a.m.

Church of the Brethren
Rev. Harlan Smith, Pastor
Ray Darr, Sunday School Supt.

Vivian Kern, Prim. Supt.
9:30 a.m. Sunday School
10:30 a.m. Morning Worship.
No evening worship this week.

Nazarene Church
Milford, Indiana
C. E. Eash, Pastor
Sunday School 9:30 a.m.
Morning Worship 10:45 a.m.
N.Y.P.S. 7:00 p.m.
Junior Society 7:00 p.m.
Evangelical Service 7:45 p.m.
John Pynchon, Sunday School Superintendent.

Concord E. U. B.
E. J. Cornelius, Pastor
Eugene Blackburn, Supt.
Worship Service 9:30.
Sunday School 10:30.

Calvary E. U. B.
(Corner of Benton & Harrison Streets)

Church Worship at 10:45 A.M.

This Sunday is the closing day in the observance of Universal Week of Prayer. In the service the pastor will underscore the place and purpose of evangelism in all the work of the church, as he speaks on the theme, "Will You Lend A Hand?"

The Boy and Girl Fellowship will meet in the evening at 6:00 P.M.

Every person present in the evening service this Sunday, 7:30 P.M., will be asked to think seriously about the question, "Why Am I A Christian?" Opportunity will be given for volunteer testimonies from members of the congregation.

The Ladies Aid Meeting will be held on Tuesday evening at Lakeside at 7:30 P.M.

The WSWS Meeting will be held at the parsonage on Thursday afternoon at 2:00 P.M., with Mrs. Esther Osborn giving the lesson.

The Midweek Prayer Service will be under the direction of Mrs. Ted Pauls at 7:30 P.M. Choir Rehearsal at 8:30.

The second team also won by a score of 23-19.

Seniors Who's Who
On December 29, 1937, in Bluffton, Indiana the stork dropped a small bundle at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Klein knight. This bundle became known as Max Lynn.

Now he is grown to a height of 5 feet 7 1/2 inches tall, has blue eyes, and dark hair.

Max has attended school at Ossian, Angola and Syracuse.

He has been very active in high school with such things as student manager, sophomore year, track, class play and dancer in operetta his junior year, F. T. A. his senior year, band 4 years and chorus 4 years.

After a basketball game (his favorite sport) around 3 o'clock in the morning (his favorite song) he enjoys kidnapping giggling girls (his hobby and pet peeve). He enjoys a steak (his favorite food) while studying physics (his favorite course in school) and listening to Glen Miller (his favorite band) and watching June Allison (his favorite actress) in a yellow (his favorite color) gown, on color television.

His plans for the future are uncertain although he has some secret plans.

The class of '56' wishes you the best of luck in the future.

FEATURE NEWS

I think that everybody had a wonderful vacation. Was everybody anxious to come back? Well, when we did get up to the study hall, everybody was really surprised! The study hall was lighted with new fluorescent lights, and are they really bright.

Everyone was walking around with new sweaters, skirts, and a lot of bruises which showed that there were some pupils that got new skates.

Here is what some of the members of S. H. S. did over vacation.

Mrs. Beck—went with my husband to Sarasota, Florida, to visit mother.

Mr. Slabaugh—spent the last three days in bed.

Jay Rigidon—gave a ring to a

A newspaper is of necessity something of a monopoly, and its first duty is to shun the temptations of monopoly. At the peril of its soul it must see that the supply of news is not tainted. . . . Com- munity is free, but facts are sacred. . . . Comment also is justly subject to a self-imposed restraint. It is well to be frank; it is even better to be fair. This is an ideal. . . . We can but try, ask pardon for shortcomings, and there leave the matter.

What is charity? It is a friendly smile, a kind word, an unselfish act which seeks no return; it is patience, and tolerance; it is giving of ourselves; it is forgiveness and forgiving; it is considering the feelings of others; it is brotherly love.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. — (1 Corinthians 13, 1.)

Everyone was walking around with new sweaters, skirts, and a lot of bruises which showed that there were some pupils that got new skates.

Here is what some of the members of S. H. S. did over vacation.

Mrs. Beck—went with my husband to Sarasota, Florida, to visit mother.

Mr. Slabaugh—spent the last three days in bed.

Jay Rigidon—gave a ring to a

A newspaper is of necessity something of a monopoly, and its first duty is to shun the temptations of monopoly. At the peril of its soul it must see that the supply of news is not tainted. . . . Com- munity is free, but facts are sacred. . . . Comment also is justly subject to a self-imposed restraint. It is well to be frank; it is even better to be fair. This is an ideal. . . . We can but try, ask pardon for shortcomings, and there leave the matter.

What is charity? It is a friendly smile, a kind word, an unselfish act which seeks no return; it is patience, and tolerance; it is giving of ourselves; it is forgiveness and forgiving; it is considering the feelings of others; it is brotherly love.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. — (1 Corinthians 13, 1.)

Everyone was walking around with new sweaters, skirts, and a lot of bruises which showed that there were some pupils that got new skates.

Here is what some of the members of S. H. S. did over vacation.

Mrs. Beck—went with my husband to Sarasota, Florida, to visit mother.

Mr. Slabaugh—spent the last three days in bed.

Jay Rigidon—gave a ring to a

A newspaper is of necessity something of a monopoly, and its first duty is to shun the temptations of monopoly. At the peril of its soul it must see that the supply of news is not tainted. . . . Com- munity is free, but facts are sacred. . . . Comment also is justly subject to a self-imposed restraint. It is well to be frank; it is even better to be fair. This is an ideal. . . . We can but try, ask pardon for shortcomings, and there leave the matter.

What is charity? It is a friendly smile, a kind word, an unselfish act which seeks no return; it is patience, and tolerance; it is giving of ourselves; it is forgiveness and forgiving; it is considering the feelings of others; it is brotherly love.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. — (1 Corinthians 13, 1.)

Everyone was walking around with new sweaters, skirts, and a lot of bruises which showed that there were some pupils that got new skates.

Here is what some of the members of S. H. S. did over vacation.

Mrs. Beck—went with my husband to Sarasota, Florida, to visit mother.

Mr. Slabaugh—spent the last three days in bed.

Jay Rigidon—gave a ring to a

A newspaper is of necessity something of a monopoly, and its first duty is to shun the temptations of monopoly. At the peril of its soul it must see that the supply of news is not tainted. . . . Com- munity is free, but facts are sacred. . . . Comment also is justly subject to a self-imposed restraint. It is well to be frank; it is even better to be fair. This is an ideal. . . . We can but try, ask pardon for shortcomings, and there leave the matter.

What is charity? It is a friendly smile, a kind word, an unselfish act which seeks no return; it is patience, and tolerance; it is giving of ourselves; it is forgiveness and forgiving; it is considering the feelings of others; it is brotherly love.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. — (1 Corinthians 13, 1.)

Everyone was walking around with new sweaters, skirts, and a lot of bruises which showed that there were some pupils that got new skates.

Here is what some of the members of S. H. S. did over vacation.

Mrs. Beck—went with my husband to Sarasota, Florida, to visit mother.

Mr. Slabaugh—spent the last three days in bed.

Jay Rigidon—gave a ring to a

A newspaper is of necessity something of a monopoly, and its first duty is to shun the temptations of monopoly. At the peril of its soul it must see that the supply of news is not tainted. . . . Com- munity is free, but facts are sacred. . . . Comment also is justly subject to a self-imposed restraint. It is well to be frank; it is even better to be fair. This is an ideal. . . . We can but try, ask pardon for shortcomings, and there leave the matter.

What is charity? It is a friendly smile, a kind word, an unselfish act which seeks no return; it is patience, and tolerance; it is giving of ourselves; it is forgiveness and forgiving; it is considering the feelings of others; it is brotherly love.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. — (1 Corinthians 13, 1.)

Everyone was walking around with new sweaters, skirts, and a lot of bruises which showed that there were some pupils that got new skates.

Here is what some of the members of S. H. S. did over vacation.

Mrs. Beck—went with my husband to Sarasota, Florida, to visit mother.

Mr. Slabaugh—spent the last three days in bed.

Jay Rigidon—gave a ring to a

A newspaper is of necessity something of a monopoly, and its first duty is to shun the temptations of monopoly. At the peril of its soul it must see that the supply of news is not tainted. . . . Com- munity is free, but facts are sacred. . . . Comment also is justly subject to a self-imposed restraint. It is well to be frank; it is even better to be fair. This is an ideal. . . . We can but try, ask pardon for shortcomings, and there leave the matter.

What is charity? It is a friendly smile, a kind word, an unselfish act which seeks no return; it is patience, and tolerance; it is giving of ourselves; it is forgiveness and forgiving; it is considering the feelings of others; it is brotherly love.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. — (1 Corinthians 13, 1.)

Everyone was walking around with new sweaters, skirts, and a lot of bruises which showed that there were some pupils that got new skates.

Here is what some of the members of S. H. S. did over vacation.

Mrs. Beck—went with my husband to Sarasota, Florida, to visit mother.

Mr. Slabaugh—spent the last three days in bed.

Jay Rigidon—gave a ring to a

A newspaper is of necessity something of a monopoly, and its first duty is to shun the temptations of monopoly. At the peril of its soul it must see that the supply of news is not tainted. . . . Com- munity is free, but facts are sacred. . . . Comment also is justly subject to a self-imposed restraint. It is well to be frank; it is even better to be fair. This is an ideal. . . . We can but try, ask pardon for shortcomings, and there leave the matter.

What is charity? It is a friendly smile, a kind word, an unselfish act which seeks no return; it is patience, and tolerance; it is giving of ourselves; it is forgiveness and forgiving; it is considering the feelings of others; it is brotherly love.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. — (1 Corinthians 13, 1.)

Everyone was walking around with new sweaters,