SENIOR NEWS

The seniors would like to congratulate the new varsity cheerleaders: Suzi Klink, Judy Jones and Sue Herdrich. Also, the second team cheerleaders: Janet Riley and Brenda Stabler. Congratulations to Deanna Grindle and Jim Connolly who reigned over the Spring King and Queen Dance last Friday night.

The senior office practice class find themselves working for a candy company.

The journalism class is now in the process of publishing another school paper.

SENIOR SPEECH CLASS

The senior speech class is giving speech to heckle, the reason for giving this speech is to learn to think under pressure.

The names of the students giving these speeches are as follows:

Nancy Baumgartner: "There should be a law against black-market babies."

James Connolly: "School starts too early."

Fay Gard: "There shouldn't be student courts in schools."

Phil Kitson: "The soil bank should be compulsory."

Susan Darr: "Does Syracuse Need A Teen Canteen."

Harry Brinkman: "Why Don't animals need maps?"

Carol Weaver: "There should be National Marriage Laws."

Ruthann Cory: "Going dutch on dates."

Larry Mock: "Why you should buy a Plymouth instead of a Chevrolet."

Darlene Dust: "Resolve: Mercury should be legalized."

Jerry Forrest: "Why Labor unions are important."

Suzanne Brown: "The United States does not need orphanges."

Mary Miner: "Why marry before you graduate."

Lucille Bushong: "Why Football should be prohibited."

John Searfoss: "Why we should have parity."

Donna Grindle: "Classes In Sex Education Should Not Be Taught In School."

Ronald Thornburg: "Why the Air Force is the best branch of the Military service."

Betty Denton: "There should be a law saying all teenagers should go to school until 18."

Barbara Montel: "Mercy killing is and should be prohibited."

Jay Brouwer: "There should be a law that drivers under the influence of alcohol should be fined $1,000."

Caroline Coil: "Why Syracuse should have a humane society."

Gleneen Peters: "We should have ways and means stopping school quitting through laws and changes."

Jay Rigidon: "Why the U. S. needs a strong military polishing."
