Mother-Daughter Party Held At Church of God

Members of the Syracuse Church of God and their guests enjoyed a delicious carry-in supper at a Mother-Daughter Banquet held Thursday evening in the church basement.

Approximately 45 guests enjoyed the meal and a program sponsored by the youth, which was directed by Mrs. Elvin Hoffman.

Church rooms were decorated with aqua and pink crepe paper, which centered each table where an aqua or pink program was found at each place setting. Each member and guest received a pink or white artificial carnation.

After group singing the youth took over the program to honor their mothers.

Young members participating in the program were Martha Mae and Mary Firestone, Peggy Hughes, Christy Niles, Sharon Frederick, Sandra Yeager, Becky Eyer, Jane Hirschman, Linda Hoffman, Peggy Firestone, Janice Pilcher, Susan LeCount, Donna Sue Hirschman, Vickie Firestone, Diana Hoffman and Marsha Crow.

Mrs. Carroll Koble, youngest mother attending the banquet, and oldest mother attending, Mrs. Hazel Ward, were each presented with a beautiful potted plant for the occasion. Presentation was made by Miss Sandy DeGroff.

Benediction by Martha Mae Firestone ended the evening's entertainment.
