Mrs. Eva Vargo, who broke a leg several months ago, has graduated to a walker which she will use for two months, after which she hopes to be able to walk normally.

Mrs. Lester Plew has accepted a job at the Baker Cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gutoski moved over the week end into one of the apartments above the lumber company.

Plan Vacation Bible School At Webster

Mrs. H. A. Ganger, general superintendent for the North Webster Vacation Bible School, reports plans fairly well completed and that classes will begin on Monday 27 May from 8:30 to 11:00 a. m., continuing each week day for two weeks.

The pre-school age group will meet at the Methodist Church with Mrs. James Folk as superintendent. The primary class, which includes grades one, two, and three, at the Church of God with Mrs. Rollin Christner. The junior group, which includes the fourth grade and up, at the Church of the Brethren, with Mrs. Joe Barrett.

Each leader will have her own group of co-workers and teachers.

The final program of the school will be held at the school gym on Sunday night 9 June, at which time each group will exhibit handiwork and results of things learned during the Bible classes.

Mother-Daughter Fellowship Day

One of the loveliest Mother-Daughter fellowship meetings was held Saturday 4 May by the W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church when mothers and daughters met for a luncheon and program at Faye and Foo's.

Mrs. J. D. Clark, president of the organization, and her committee, seated the more than a hundred guests at tables daintily decorated with tapers in pastel shades in bases of flowers of corresponding colors. The nuptial favors, made from white styro-foam by Mrs. Effie Spencer, were hats daintily decorated with satin ribbon and miniature flowers.

Miss Nancy Powell spoke a welcome to mothers and her mother, Mrs. Ralph Powell, gave the mother's response.

Living pictures of a mother's duties were shown as Mrs. Frank Stefanski narrated the story. Mother is a Nurse was pictured by Mrs. Horace Gottschalk and daughter, Linda. Mother is a Teacher was shown by Mrs. Orville Knisely and daughter, Rebecca.

Miss Ann Vanderford gave a tribute to grandmothers as she and her grandmother, Mrs. Leone Hogue, presented another living picture.

When mothers of yesterday, today and tomorrow appeared, styles of the years were cleverly presented. Mrs. J. D. Clark in high toed shoes and typical dress complete with bustle, represented the bride of 1890. And she presented Mrs. DeLoss Weaver's mother from Converse, who was a bride in 1880.

Mrs. Douglas Naylor, a very recent bride, appeared as the bride of 1957.

Going back to the early 1900's, Mrs. Hubert Anglemeyer appeared as the Belle of 1910, Mrs. Paul Markley modelled an evening dress of early 1920's, and Mrs. Richard Miller brought down the house in her representation of the Flapper of the Roaring Twenties.

Mrs. Lewis Hastings modelled an attractive outfit of the Mother of Today, Miss Marcina Greene appeared in a tennis outfit as the woman of tomorrow and Miss Linda Hastings, seven year old daughter of Mrs. Lewis Hastings, with her doll, concluded the program as the Mother of Tomorrow.

Mrs. James Mahar of Phoenix, Arizona spent the past two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall.

Mrs. Viola Robbins is spending some time at the home of Mrs. John Heddens of Epworth Forest. Mrs. Robbins is cooking and doing light housekeeping for Mrs. Heddens.

The North Webster Church of the Brethren held their spring Children's Program Sunday night. Mrs. Joe Barrett directed the pageant which was centered around nature—the seasons and months.

Charles Spry, 90 year old North Webster resident, suffered a compound fracture to his left leg and numerous bruises Thursday 2 May when he was accidentally struck by an automobile while walking toward his home. The leg was set Monday at the Murphy Medical Center in Warsaw and Mr. Spry is doing as well as can be expected.

The North Webster fire department was called both Saturday and Sunday to extinguish grass fires.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF WEBSTER CHURCH OF GOD

Mrs. Charles Dye was hostess Thursday to the Missionary Society of the North Webster Church of God with 19 members present. Mrs. Robert Miller was in charge of meditations and Mrs. Jerry Carey had the lesson
