

Camp Fire Leaders Discuss Procedures

At a meeting of the Independent Leaders Association of Camp Fire Girls of Syracuse 6 November at the Scout Cabin, the group discussed recommendations suggested by Mrs. Mary Owens of Chicago, Region 9 National Field Director of Camp

Fire, Inc.

On 16 October Mrs. Owens was in Syracuse while on tour of the region. At a called meeting of the officers and board members of the Syracuse leaders, Mrs. Owens outlined the various organizational procedures of Camp Fire, Inc. and made her recommendations to the group.

Final plans were made for the annual candy sale 23 November. Creamy mints and peanut crunch will be sold again with all groups except Bluebirds participating in the sale.

Election of officers of the Independent Leaders will be held in January. Present officers are Mrs. Paul Lantz, president; Mrs. Jack D. Clark, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Stefanski, treasurer; and Mrs. Bud Cripe, secretary.

Patty Niles, 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Niles of Piercetown, attended the Syracuse-Piercetown game here Friday night and remained for the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Niles.

His wife, Christel, is with him in Germany.

Rural Youth Clubs

Have Joint Meeting

Miss Phyllis Milner, president of Indiana Rural Youth, was the speaker at the meeting of five Rural Youth Clubs of Allen, DeKalb, Marshall, Whitley and Kosciusko Counties held recently at the Fairgrounds east of Warsaw.

Miss Milner told of trips she had taken with Rural Youth groups showing illustrations.

Frank Tom was master of ceremonies; John Marks, district leader, directed the recreation period when games and square dancing were enjoyed. Joyce Wilkinson, of Whitley County, led the group singing.

Among the guests were Dick Haynes, district president.

The next meeting of the Kosciusko Rural Youth Club is scheduled for 20 November at the Leesburg High School cafeteria, 7:30 p. m. C.S.T. A special tap dancing number will be given by Pat Smith.

Acting hosts at the five-club meeting were Frank Tom and Miss Mary Lou Denzel.
