HELP WANTED

Young women, 18-30, high school graduates, to train as telephone operators in our Syracuse exchange.

To qualify, previous experience is not necessary. We offer excellent starting pay for student operators with substantial wage increases at regular, scheduled intervals.

In addition, there are vacations with pay, free life insurance, sickness benefits, and many other advantages that make this the most attractive job opportunity in Syracuse.

Our operators enjoy an eight-hour day, five days per week. The work is clean and interesting ... and it's right here in town.

Apply in person this week at our convenient location in downtown Syracuse.

Obituary . . .

KUHN

Services were held Thursday afternoon in the North Webster Church of the Brethren for Isaiah J. Kuhn, 94, who died Monday 4 November at the Wilmot Nursing Home. A lifetime resident of the North Webster community, he had been seriously ill about four days.

Born near Barbee Lakes 20 April 1863, he was the son of Jacob and Lydia Ann (Cox)
Kuhn and was married to Mary Elizabeth Goppert who died in 1936. He was a retired farmer and a member of the North Webster Church of the Brethren.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs.
Gerald (Eva) Priest, South Bend; a brother, Emanuel Kuhn, Route 1, Leesburg; one grandchild and two great-grandchildren.

Burial was in the North Webster Cemetery.

TATMAN

Neva Marie Tatman died at 9:00 a. m. Saturday morning at the home of her son, Clarence Ed Tatman, in Syracuse. Altho she had been an invalid for some time, her death was sudden and unexpected.

Born 20 May 1904, she was the daughter of John and Sarah Denn. Three sons and one daughter survive: Clarence Ed, William, Richard, and Mrs. Imogene Spencer of Hobart.

She was taken by the Harris Funeral Home service to the Kroeger Funeral Home in Lo-

How much light?

For reading . . . strong light on reading area and balanced room light

For games and the living room . . .
evenly distributed light throughout the room

For sewing . . . bright light on the job plus good room light . . . no glare or dark shadows

For safety . . . adequate lights at stairs, halls, porches . . . all potential danger spots

Make every job easy on the eyes!

To guard your eyesight be sure you have enough light directed right for the job and the room you want lighted. Light diffused over the room is not wasted . . . it relieves the harsh contrast of light and shadow that causes eyestrain. Use light for good vision, for safety, for comfort all through your home. We will be glad to help you choose the right lamp . . . there is a right size and type of bulb for every need.
