

Editorial Page

SYRACUSE-WAWASEE JOURNAL
Page 2—Thursday 28 Nov. 1957

Published each Thursday by the Wawasee Publishing Co. Entered as second class matter at the post office at Syracuse, Indiana. Subscriptions $2.50 per year by mail.

Publisher W. W. Paull
Editor Margaret Freeman
Business Manager Lucy Garrett
Production Manager Sandra DeGroff

The Syracuse-Wawasee Journal is a Republican newspaper, owned and produced by residents of the Syracuse-Wawasee community in its own modern printing plant. Display Advertising rate, 70 cents per column inch. Telephone 191.

Local News . . .

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Pritchard and her mother, Mrs. A. H. Blanchard, all of Veedersburg, Indiana, were guests Friday and Saturday of Mrs. Eva Rarig.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Clyde Butt and family are spending Thanksgiving week end in Chicago and Dundee, Illinois, with relatives and friends.

Jody Shaw of Huntington was a guest last week of John Trook.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zollinger and children, Brenda and Bobbie, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert George. Mr. Zollinger, son of Mrs. George, is a student in the engineering school of Tri-State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walburn of R. R. 1, Cromwell, held a birthday supper Monday evening for their son, Tommy. Mrs. Leonore Hennessy, aunt of the boy, was among the several guests attending.

Miss Sandy DeGroff was a Saturday caller of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Groff of Millersburg. She also visited Mr. and Mrs. Junior Smith and family, also of Millersburg.

Terry McDonald was a Sunday guest of Donald McCulloch.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Neer were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Galen Neer on Sunday 24 November in honor of the senior Neers 26th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miller will be hosts for a family dinner Thanksgiving Day including Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wills of Logansport, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Ort of

NOTICE

Effective 1 January, 1958, the subscription price of the Journal will be: one year $3.50; two years $6.00; three years $8.00. Single copies 10c.

Churbusco, Mrs. Ada Miller of Goshen and Mrs. Georgia Miller of Syracuse.

Miss Phyllis George will return to Manchester College to begin the new term Monday 2 December. Miss George has completed two years at the college.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hall returned Monday from Crown Point, Indiana, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Hall's brother.

Mrs. Ernest Huff of Solomon Creek was a guest Sunday of her daughter and family, the Gilbert George's. Mr. Huff is still in the Goshen Hospital following an accident several weeks ago but is improving nicely.

Miss Jane Kroh was home last Friday and Saturday from Methodist Hospital Nurses School in Indianapolis. She reported Monday for training at the Madison State Hospital in Madison, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bushong will have as guests for Thanksgiving dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Miles, Mrs. Mary Miller of Elkhart, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Weingart and sons of Gary.

Everett Ketering left Friday for several weeks' vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Koher and two children, and Maurice Koher will have Thanksgiving dinner with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koher.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown and daughter, Sherrie, will be in St. Joe, Michigan for Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Rapp will spend Thanksgiving with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mawhorter, at Wawaka.

Mrs. Ruth Rapp is spending Thanksgiving at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Overman, in Michigan City.

The Rollert family left Monday on their trip back to Florida from their Lake Wawasee home where 'Bushy' had operated a small restaurant during the summer months.

VIEWS and REVIEWS

Kent Hare, a teenager who ranks close to the top as an all round sportsman, received quite a surprise Monday evening while checking his muskrat traps. He had inadvertently trapped a fine large bass!

Don't forget that 1 December is the deadline for contributions to the county mental health drive for Christmas gifts for the mentally ill. The gifts, which should be gaily wrapped and tagged as to contents, may be left at the Stucky Furniture Store. Children's gifts are welcome this year, as the recipients will be those patients at the state school in Fort Wayne.

With only twenty-two shopping days til Christmas, and festive decorations appearing in all the stores, a quick look in Syracuse shopping districts shows that shopping can be fun and early Christmas shopping can be accomplished right here at home. All the stores have many things for Christmas giving and the gift shops have all those pretties that have been advertised in the volumes of catalogs which have been mailed since early October. If you don't believe it, try making a tour of the gift shops from the House of Gems south on Road 13, then Seiffert's, Indiana Glass, the Village Antique Shop, on the way to town, Rose Jewelry on Main Street and the Mexican Curio north on Road 13. And don't miss the beauty shops, drug stores, and every store in the community because they are all loaded with gifts for everyone from tots to grandparents.

The sympathy of her many friends in Syracuse goes to Mrs. Eugene Hall upon the loss of her brother, Dr. Franklin Champion, a resident of Crown Point, Indiana, who had been ill for several years. His death occurred Friday morning at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Another brother, Clifford, died eighteen months ago.

It is good to hear that Rev. Kenneth Foulke, and Mrs. Fred Banta have both returned to their homes following surgery. Rev. Foulke, who was at Elkhart General Hospital, came home Monday and is reported to be doing very well, as is Mrs. Banta, who returned from the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota.

If you haven't yet seen the "Ten Commandments," the wonderful life story of Moses, make it a "must" on your list as we believe it is one of the truly great motion pictures of all times. Syracuse is fortunate in having the facilities to show such a picture.

Opal and Olin Keim have at long last moved into their picturesque colonial type house on Main Street after several months of hard work in painting and remodeling the lovely old home. Knowing Opal's decorative skills, will be anxious to see the house when they are past the "furniture in the middle of the room" stage.

If you have occasion to be in Chicago during the Christmas season, be sure to stop in at Marshall Field's to see the Great Christmas Tree, a truly gigantic tree standing in the center well of the department store and completely covered with gorgeous, sparkling Christmas decorations. It is a sight that you'll long remember.

Noble Blocker, local banker, met with a painful misfortune at the bank this week. But it wasn't a hold-up man or a safe-cracker that hit him altho he did get a hard crack on the head while in the vault. Maybe his story would be better!

The sympathy of her many friends in Syracuse goes to Mrs. Eugene Hall upon the loss of her brother, Dr. Franklin Champion, a resident of Crown Point, Indiana, who had been ill for several years. His death occurred Friday morning at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Another brother, Clifford, died eighteen months ago.

It is good to hear that Rev. Kenneth Foulke, and Mrs. Fred Banta have both returned to their homes following surgery. Rev. Foulke, who was at Elkhart General Hospital, came home Monday and is reported to be doing very well, as is Mrs. Banta, who returned from the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota.

If you haven't yet seen the "Ten Commandments," the wonderful life story of Moses, make it a "must" on your list as we believe it is one of the truly great motion pictures of all times. Syracuse is fortunate in having the facilities to show such a picture.

Opal and Olin Keim have at long last moved into their picturesque colonial type house on Main Street after several months of hard work in painting and remodeling the lovely old home. Knowing Opal's decorative skills, will be anxious to see the house when they are past the "furniture in the middle of the room" stage.

If you have occasion to be in Chicago during the Christmas season, be sure to stop in at Marshall Field's to see the Great Christmas Tree, a truly gigantic tree standing in the center well of the department store and completely covered with gorgeous, sparkling Christmas decorations. It is a sight that you'll long remember.

Noble Blocker, local banker, met with a painful misfortune at the bank this week. But it wasn't a hold-up man or a safe-cracker that hit him altho he did get a hard crack on the head while in the vault. Maybe his story would be better!

The sympathy of her many friends in Syracuse goes to Mrs. Eugene Hall upon the loss of her brother, Dr. Franklin Champion, a resident of Crown Point, Indiana, who had been ill for several years. His death occurred Friday morning at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Another brother, Clifford, died eighteen months ago.

It is good to hear that Rev. Kenneth Foulke, and Mrs. Fred Banta have both returned to their homes following surgery. Rev. Foulke, who was at Elkhart General Hospital, came home Monday and is reported to be doing very well, as is Mrs. Banta, who returned from the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota.

If you haven't yet seen the "Ten Commandments," the wonderful life story of Moses, make it a "must" on your list as we believe it is one of the truly great motion pictures of all times. Syracuse is fortunate in having the facilities to show such a picture.

Opal and Olin Keim have at long last moved into their picturesque colonial type house on Main Street after several months of hard work in painting and remodeling the lovely old home. Knowing Opal's decorative skills, will be anxious to see the house when they are past the "furniture in the middle of the room" stage.

If you have occasion to be in Chicago during the Christmas season, be sure to stop in at Marshall Field's to see the Great Christmas Tree, a truly gigantic tree standing in the center well of the department store and completely covered with gorgeous, sparkling Christmas decorations. It is a sight that you'll long remember.

Noble Blocker, local banker, met with a painful misfortune at the bank this week. But it wasn't a hold-up man or a safe-cracker that hit him altho he did get a hard crack on the head while in the vault. Maybe his story would be better!

The sympathy of her many friends in Syracuse goes to Mrs. Eugene Hall upon the loss of her brother, Dr. Franklin Champion, a resident of Crown Point, Indiana, who had been ill for several years. His death occurred Friday morning at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Another brother, Clifford, died eighteen months ago.

It is good to hear that Rev. Kenneth Foulke, and Mrs. Fred Banta have both returned to their homes following surgery. Rev. Foulke, who was at Elkhart General Hospital, came home Monday and is reported to be doing very well, as is Mrs. Banta, who returned from the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota.

If you haven't yet seen the "Ten Commandments," the wonderful life story of Moses, make it a "must" on your list as we believe it is one of the truly great motion pictures of all times. Syracuse is fortunate in having the facilities to show such a picture.

Opal and Olin Keim have at long last moved into their picturesque colonial type house on Main Street after several months of hard work in painting and remodeling the lovely old home. Knowing Opal's decorative skills, will be anxious to see the house when they are past the "furniture in the middle of the room" stage.

If you have occasion to be in Chicago during the Christmas season, be sure to stop in at Marshall Field's to see the Great Christmas Tree, a truly gigantic tree standing in the center well of the department store and completely covered with gorgeous, sparkling Christmas decorations. It is a sight that you'll long remember.

Noble Blocker, local banker, met with a painful misfortune at the bank this week. But it wasn't a hold-up man or a safe-cracker that hit him altho he did get a hard crack on the head while in the vault. Maybe his story would be better!

The sympathy of her many friends in Syracuse goes to Mrs. Eugene Hall upon the loss of her brother, Dr. Franklin Champion, a resident of Crown Point, Indiana, who had been ill for several years. His death occurred Friday morning at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Another brother, Clifford, died eighteen months ago.

It is good to hear that Rev. Kenneth Foulke, and Mrs. Fred Banta have both returned to their homes following surgery. Rev. Foulke, who was at Elkhart General Hospital, came home Monday and is reported to be doing very well, as is Mrs. Banta, who returned from the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota.

If you haven't yet seen the "Ten Commandments," the wonderful life story of Moses, make it a "must" on your list as we believe it is one of the truly great motion pictures of all times. Syracuse is fortunate in having the facilities to show such a picture.

Opal and Olin Keim have at long last moved into their picturesque colonial type house on Main Street after several months of hard work in painting and remodeling the lovely old home. Knowing Opal's decorative skills, will be anxious to see the house when they are past the "furniture in the middle of the room" stage.

If you have occasion to be in Chicago during the Christmas season, be sure to stop in at Marshall Field's to see the Great Christmas Tree, a truly gigantic tree standing in the center well of the department store and completely covered with gorgeous, sparkling Christmas decorations. It is a sight that you'll long remember.

Noble Blocker, local banker, met with a painful misfortune at the bank this week. But it wasn't a hold-up man or a safe-cracker that hit him altho he did get a hard crack on the head while in the vault. Maybe his story would be better!

The sympathy of her many friends in Syracuse goes to Mrs. Eugene Hall upon the loss of her brother, Dr. Franklin Champion, a resident of Crown Point, Indiana, who had been ill for several years. His death occurred Friday morning at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Another brother, Clifford, died eighteen months ago.

It is good to hear that Rev. Kenneth Foulke, and Mrs. Fred Banta have both returned to their homes following surgery. Rev. Foulke, who was at Elkhart General Hospital, came home Monday and is reported to be doing very well, as is Mrs. Banta, who returned from the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota.

If you haven't yet seen the "Ten Commandments," the wonderful life story of Moses, make it a "must" on your list as we believe it is one of the truly great motion pictures of all times. Syracuse is fortunate in having the facilities to show such a picture.

Opal and Olin Keim have at long last moved into their picturesque colonial type house on Main Street after several months of hard work in painting and remodeling the lovely old home. Knowing Opal's decorative skills, will be anxious to see the house when they are past the "furniture in the middle of the room" stage.

If you have occasion to be in Chicago during the Christmas season, be sure to stop in at Marshall Field's to see the Great Christmas Tree, a truly gigantic tree standing in the center well of the department store and completely covered with gorgeous, sparkling Christmas decorations. It is a sight that you'll long remember.

Noble Blocker, local banker, met with a painful misfortune at the bank this week. But it wasn't a hold-up man or a safe-cracker that hit him altho he did get a hard crack on the head while in the vault. Maybe his story would be better!

The sympathy of her many friends in Syracuse goes to Mrs. Eugene Hall upon the loss of her brother, Dr. Franklin Champion, a resident of Crown Point, Indiana, who had been ill for several years. His death occurred Friday morning at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Another brother, Clifford, died eighteen months ago.

It is good to hear that Rev. Kenneth Foulke, and Mrs. Fred Banta have both returned to their homes following surgery. Rev. Foulke, who was at Elkhart General Hospital, came home Monday and is reported to be doing very well, as is Mrs. Banta, who returned from the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota.

If you haven't yet seen the "Ten Commandments," the wonderful life story of Moses, make it a "must" on your list as we believe it is one of the truly great motion pictures of all times. Syracuse is fortunate in having the facilities to show such a picture.

Opal and Olin Keim have at long last moved into their picturesque colonial type house on Main Street after several months of hard work in painting and remodeling the lovely old home. Knowing Opal's decorative skills, will be anxious to see the house when they are past the "furniture in the middle of the room" stage.

If you have occasion to be in Chicago during the Christmas season, be sure to stop in at Marshall Field's to see the Great Christmas Tree, a truly gigantic tree standing in the center well of the department store and completely covered with gorgeous, sparkling Christmas decorations. It is a sight that you'll long remember.

Noble Blocker, local banker, met with a painful misfortune at the bank this week. But it wasn't a hold-up man or a safe-cracker that hit him altho he did get a hard crack on the head while in the vault. Maybe his story would be better!

The sympathy of her many friends in Syracuse goes to Mrs. Eugene Hall upon the loss of her brother, Dr. Franklin Champion, a resident of Crown Point, Indiana, who had been ill for several years. His death occurred Friday morning at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Another brother, Clifford, died eighteen months ago.

It is good to hear that Rev. Kenneth Foulke, and Mrs. Fred Banta have both returned to their homes following surgery. Rev. Foulke, who was at Elkhart General Hospital, came home Monday and is reported to be doing very well, as is Mrs. Banta, who returned from the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota.

If you haven't yet seen the "Ten Commandments," the wonderful life story of Moses, make it a "must" on your list as we believe it is one of the truly great motion pictures of all times. Syracuse is fortunate in having the facilities to show such a picture.

Opal and Olin Keim have at long last moved into their picturesque colonial type house on Main Street after several months of hard work in painting and remodeling the lovely old home. Knowing Opal's decorative skills, will be anxious to see the house when they are past the "furniture in the middle of the room" stage.

If you have occasion to be in Chicago during the Christmas season, be sure to stop in at Marshall Field's to see the Great Christmas Tree, a truly gigantic tree standing in the center well of the department store and completely covered with gorgeous, sparkling Christmas decorations. It is a sight that you'll long remember.

Noble Blocker, local banker, met with a painful misfortune at the bank this week. But it wasn't a hold-up man or a safe-cracker that hit him altho he did get a hard crack on the head while in the vault. Maybe his story would be better!

The sympathy of her many friends in Syracuse goes to Mrs. Eugene Hall upon the loss of her brother, Dr. Franklin Champion, a resident of Crown Point, Indiana, who had been ill for several years. His death occurred Friday morning at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Another brother, Clifford, died eighteen months ago.

It is good to hear that Rev. Kenneth Foulke, and Mrs. Fred Banta have both returned to their homes following surgery. Rev. Foulke, who was at Elkhart General Hospital, came home Monday and is reported to be doing very well, as is Mrs. Banta, who returned from the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota.

If you haven't yet seen the "Ten Commandments," the wonderful life story of Moses, make it a "must" on your list as we believe it is one of the truly great motion pictures of all times. Syracuse is fortunate in having the facilities to show such a picture.

Opal and Olin Keim have at long last moved into their picturesque colonial type house on Main Street after several months of hard work in painting and remodeling the lovely old home. Knowing Opal's decorative skills, will be anxious to see the house when they are past the "furniture in the middle of the room" stage.

If you have occasion to be in Chicago during the Christmas season, be sure to stop in at Marshall Field's to see the Great Christmas Tree, a truly gigantic tree standing in the center well of the department store and completely covered with gorgeous, sparkling Christmas decorations. It is a sight that you'll long remember.

Noble Blocker, local banker, met with a painful misfortune at the bank this week. But it wasn't a hold-up man or a safe-cracker that hit him altho he did get a hard crack on the head while in the vault. Maybe his story would be better!

The sympathy of her many friends in Syracuse goes to Mrs. Eugene Hall upon the loss of her brother, Dr. Franklin Champion, a resident of Crown Point, Indiana, who had been ill for several years. His death occurred Friday morning at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Another brother, Clifford, died eighteen months ago.

It is good to hear that Rev. Kenneth Foulke, and Mrs. Fred Banta have both returned to their homes following surgery. Rev. Foulke, who was at Elkhart General Hospital, came home Monday and is reported to be doing very well, as is Mrs. Banta, who returned from the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota.

If you haven't yet seen the "Ten Commandments," the wonderful life story of Moses, make it a "must" on your list as we believe it is one of the truly great motion pictures of all times. Syracuse is fortunate in having the facilities to show such a picture.

Opal and Olin Keim have at long last moved into their picturesque colonial type house on Main Street after several months of hard work in painting and remodeling the lovely old home. Knowing Opal's decorative skills, will be anxious to see the house when they are past the "furniture in the middle of the room" stage.

If you have occasion to be in Chicago during the Christmas season, be sure to stop in at Marshall Field's to see the Great Christmas Tree, a truly gigantic tree standing in the center well of the department store and completely covered with gorgeous, sparkling Christmas decorations. It is a sight that you'll long remember.

Noble Blocker, local banker, met with a painful misfortune at the bank this week. But it wasn't a hold-up man or a safe-cracker that hit him altho he did get a hard crack on the head while in the vault. Maybe his story would be better!

The sympathy of her many friends in Syracuse goes to Mrs. Eugene Hall upon the loss of her brother, Dr. Franklin Champion, a resident of Crown Point, Indiana, who had been ill for several years. His death occurred Friday morning at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago. Another brother, Clifford, died eighteen months ago.

It is good to hear that Rev. Kenneth Foulke, and Mrs. Fred Banta have both returned to their homes following surgery. Rev. Foulke, who was at Elkhart General Hospital, came home Monday and is reported to be doing very well, as is Mrs. Banta, who returned from the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota.

If you haven't yet seen the "Ten Commandments," the wonderful life story of Moses, make it a "must" on your list as we believe it is one of the truly great motion pictures of all times. Syracuse is fortunate in having the facilities to show such a picture.

Opal and Olin Keim have at long last moved into their picturesque colonial type house on Main Street after several months of hard work in painting and remodeling the lovely old home. Knowing Opal's decorative skills, will be anxious to see the house when they are past the "furniture in the middle of the room" stage.

If you have occasion to be in Chicago during the Christmas season, be sure to stop in at Marshall Field's to see the Great Christmas Tree, a truly gigantic tree standing in the center well of the department store and completely covered with gorgeous, sparkling Christmas decorations. It is a sight that you'll long remember.