JUNIOR MOTHERS CLUB

Mrs. John Bryan, assisted by Mrs. Keith Cripe, Mrs. Bill Eyer and Mrs. A. W. Spencer, entertained the Junior Mothers Club at her home Monday evening. In place of a program, the members spent the evening making favors for the annual Spring party.

A nominating committee composed of members of the executive committee, Mrs. Keith Cripe, Mrs. Charles Garner and Mrs. Feri Rhodes, will prepare a slate of officers for the annual election to be held at the next meeting 20 January. Mrs. Frank Hale will be hostess.

INTERMEDIATE MOTHERS

Mrs. Nelson Auer was elected President for 1958-59, as members of the Intermediate Mothers Club met on 6 January at the home of Mrs. Ed Coy.

Mrs. Max Brower will be vice-president; Mrs. S. O. Myers will assume the duties of secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Delbert Brown will be program chairman.

Other chairmen include Mrs. Delos Martin, project; Mrs. Bud Cripe, Membership; Mrs. Lewis Immel, Social; and Scout Cabin board representative will be Mrs. James Stucky. Mrs. Stucky will take office immediately while the other officers will not assume their duties until fall.

Mrs. Harold Kline was chairman of the Nominating Committee, assisted by Mrs. Noble Green and Mrs. James Stucky.

Mrs. Leo Kowalik presided at a short business meeting before the election, at which time several program changes were announced by Mrs. Lewis Immel. Reports were also heard from various other chairmen.

Mrs. Delbert Brown won the Sunshine plant.

A dessert of delicious pecan pie and coffee was served by Mrs. Coy and Mrs. Maurice Lung and Mrs. Orrin Smith.

The next meeting will be on 20 January at the home of Mrs. Robert Searfoss. Members of the Primary Mothers Club will be guests.

SENIOR MOTHERS CLUB

The Senior Mothers Club met on Monday evening 6 January at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Foulke.

Mrs. Hilary Bachman presented an interesting program on the history of pipe organs, made additionally enjoyable as she played recordings of famous organ music, including one of Albert Schweitzer, and several of Ethel Smith at a Hammond organ.

gan. She also stated that the first record of an organ dates back to 200 B. C., and that the first electronic organ was introduced into the United States from Germany in 1935.

Mrs. Floyd Gingerich was appointed chairman of a Nominating Committee, assisted by Mrs. Gilbert George and Mrs. Kenneth Foulke.

A report was heard on the Scout Cabin board, presented by representative Mrs. John Sheire. 17th March has been named as project night for the club. The Sunshine plant was won by Mrs. Noble Blocker.

A delicious dessert of a fruit and cheese salad, assorted crackers and coffee was served to the 15 members and a guest, Mrs. Roy Eichstaedt, who were present. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Leonard Barnhart and Mrs. Lois Schleeter.

The next meeting will be 20th January at the home of Mrs. Muriel Sharp.

PRIMARY MOTHERS CLUB

Nineteen members of the Primary Mothers Club arrived at their meeting Monday evening 30 December in "Come As You Are" costumes including everything from housecoats to blue jeans. Two guests, Mrs. Louise Murray and Mrs. Sherry Mangus, also enjoyed the evening at the home of Mrs. Ernest Rogers.

Response to roll call was "the biggest surprise I've ever had." During the business meeting the club voted to contribute their quota to the scout cabin fund. Mrs. Bud Smith also announced that any hospitalized child of a member would be remembered with a gift.

For the program, Mrs. Alan Shively showed slides of some of the past activities of the club including the spring and Halloween parties and the stand at the PTA Festival.

Mrs. Clarence Eby won the door prize of black slipper socks. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Don Smith and Mrs. Charles Miller.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Adrian Zollinger on 13 January.

GO-GETTERS CLUB

Meeting for the second time since their organization, seven members of the Go-Getters Club enjoyed an afternoon at the home of Mrs. Glen Stiffler Tuesday 7 January. The group is one of the Home Economics clubs which will follow a program recommended by the county organization.

Vice-president Mrs. Stiffler opened the meeting and gave meditations. Mrs. Paul Yeager, chairman of health and safety, spoke on polio. Names of secret pals for the year were drawn.

Mrs. Ivy Detwiler, Sr., who was instrumental in starting the club, was a guest.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistants, Mrs. Yeager and Mrs. Jon Eushong.

ART CLUB

Twelve members of the Syracuse Club met at the home of Mrs. Arnold Pfingst Monday evening. Mrs. Pfingst presented a lesson of making bird feeders from wooden salad bowls.
