Primary Mothers Start Plans For Spring Party

At their first meeting of the new season, the main topic of discussion of the Primary Mothers Club Monday night was the annual spring party for mothers clubs. Twenty members joined in pot-luck supper at the home of Mrs. Clarence Eby who was assisted by Mrs. Gerald Hubbard.

As hostess club, Primary Mothers will make all plans for the party. Mrs. Hubbard was made general chairman. Other committee chairmen were named as follows:

Mrs. Philip Strieby, program; Mrs. Carroll Koble, decorations; Mrs. Gerald Bitner, prizes; Mrs. Louis Byland, reception; Mrs. Marvin Shock, menu; Mrs. James Frye, reservations.

Reports on summer activities were given during the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Charles Miller, and dues were paid. A coffee break and social hour concluded the meeting.

The next meeting will be held Monday 22 September at the home of Mrs. Melville Smith for a demonstration in cooking.
