Past Matrons Meet For May Day Breakfast

Twenty-one members of the Past Matrons club of Syracuse met for an 11:30 breakfast Saturday morning at Foo and Faye's restaurant.

Seated at a long table, a lovely centerpiece with thin tapers caused much comment. It proved to be a part of the program as it was made up of individual corsages for each guest.

Using as the theme for the program, Mrs. Ruth Rapp, chairman, presented the story of flowers representing each month. As different members read these stories, a flower for the month of her birthday was given to each one present and was taken from the centerpiece.

Assisting Mrs. Rapp were Mrs. Bertha Meek and Mrs. Beulah Bushong.

The next meeting will be in June with Mrs. Deloss Weaver and Mrs. Charles Kroh as hostesses.

Wednesday Club Meets With Mrs. R. Heyde

Nineteen members of the Wednesday Afternoon Club met at the home of Mrs. Richard Heyde 29 April. The program given by Mrs. Ralph Thornburg, Jr. and Mrs. Robert Searfoss was on the subject of "How Can American Homes be Made Stronger."

Discussed from many angles, the program stressed the responsibility of parents in setting the example for living and making the home a lovable place in which to live.

It was reported that over $9.00 was collected at a previous meeting for the Children of India fund.

Homemade candies were served during the social hour.

The next meeting will be a luncheon party which will conclude the club program until fall.

Nursery Guild furnishes adult care for all pre-school children Wednesday 13 May Methodist Nursery Guild meeting at home of Mrs. Franke Hale at 8 p.m.
