Deaths—Funerals

BROWN

David L. Brown, lifelong resident of the Syracuse community, died of a heart attack Friday afternoon at his home on SR 13 two miles north of Syracuse.

Born near Syracuse 30 December 1883, Mr. Brown was a son of Milton and Melissa Hendrix Brown. He married Hattie Hinderer 31 December 1905. She survives. Mr. Brown was a charter member of Hex Grange.

Also surviving are three brothers, Frank, Arthur and Vern, and a sister, Mrs. Maude DeVault, all of Syracuse.

Services were held Monday afternoon at the Harris Funeral Home with the Rev. Elvin Hoffman officiating. Burial was in the Syracuse cemetery.

McCLINTIC

Martin McClintic, a resident of the Syracuse area for many years, was found dead at his home by a neighbor Friday evening.

According to Dr. William Cron, deputy county coroner, Mr. McClintic died of a heart attack Friday morning. It appeared that he had been on a ladder outside his house when he suffered a fatal attack, he fell to the ground with the ladder falling on top of him.

Mr. McClintic lived alone about a mile west of the fish hatcheries. Son of John and Lydia McClintic, he was born in Kosciusko county 14 July 1878. He was a Spanish American war veteran and a member of the North Webster K of P Lodge. His wife, the former Navada Hall, whom he married in 1909, died in 1945.

Surviving are a son Donald, of Fort Wayne; two daughters, Mrs. Charles Thomas, Elkhart, and Mrs. Dean Hite, Ligonier; nine grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

Services were held in the Troxell funeral home at North Webster Monday afternoon with Rev. Herbert Yoder officiating. Burial was in the McClintic cemetery.

DREW

Mrs. Nettie Drew, former Syracuse resident, died 15 July in Three Rivers, Michigan. Mrs. Drew had lived with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Gomboski for the past six years and was hospitalized for the last 55 days of her life.

While residents of Syracuse, the Drews owned the drug store which Thornburgs bought. Mrs. Drew joined the Syracuse Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, 9 November 1914 and retained membership here. Memorial services will be conducted at the next regular meeting of the chapter.

Dear People of this Community:

Your response to my plea for contributions for a new Dog Shelter has been wonderfully received—I can't begin to tell you how many people have stopped in and given generously to this worthy cause. We still have a long way to go so anyone that hasn't donated yet please stop in and give whatever you can. I would like to raise $200.00 in the next couple of weeks so that the new Dog Shelter could be built this fall. If anyone cannot come to the store to give their donation call me and I will gladly come and pick up your contribution.

Annabelle Coil

Dear Editor

Reference last weeks edition, article headed "Wawasee Property-Owning Groups Seek Increased Representation On Commission," in part, quote:

"Gray also stated that all meetings of the Plan Commission are open to the public and that board members would welcome attendance of other property owners."

You have either misquoted Harold Gray, or Harold Gray is misleading some more people.

At the meeting of the Board of Zoning and Planning, when our petition was being heard, Harold Gray as president of the board told the group from Medusa St. that the board would have to reach a decision on our petition at a closed meeting.

They did, and the meeting was closed, not an open meeting. We were not welcome, though we would have liked to have been admitted.

Editor, are you misquoting?

O. C. Butt
407 Medusa St.
(Editor's Note: Mr. Gray has assured the Journal that he was quoted correctly.)

Camp. Husbands are invited guests. The program will be a movie entitled: "As The Twig Is Bent."

Thursday 10 September: Circle No. 1 will meet at Howard's Restaurant at 1 p.m. with Mrs. Harold Young as Hostess.

Chancel Choir rehearsal at the church at 7:45 p.m.

Note: Rev Greene will attend the School of the Prophets at DePauw University, in Greencastle, from 7 September to 11. The School provides refresher courses in the various fields of interest to the ministers of the Indiana Area. If he is needed in an emergency during the week, he can be reached by contacting Mrs. Greene at GL 7-3453.

Grace Church Buys Reinbold Property

Purchase of the former Reinbold home at 524 South Main Street by the Grace Bible Church, was announced this week by the Rev. M. Raymond Mason, pastor.

It is planned that the Reinbold house will be used as a church annex for social and auxiliary meetings, said Rev. Mason, and the present chapel on Sigsbee Place, located at the rear of the new parsonage, is to be enlarged for worship services.

LOCAL COUPLE GOES TO CHURCH HOME AT MEXICO

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Long left Tuesday for Mexico, Indiana, where they will make their permanent home at the Church of the Brethren Home.
