Sudlows Return From Hawaiian Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. John Sudlow and daughter, Connie, returned Saturday evening from a three weeks' trip west and to Hawaii. A combination business and pleasure trip, they flew first to Los Angeles.

During their two days in Los Angeles, they went through Disneyland, visited with Mrs. Marie Bushong Quenton at Van Nuys, a nurse and resident of Syracuse 25 years ago. They also talked to Mrs. Patrick Pinton who lives at Oceanside, and were guests of Mrs. Don George and family, in Alhambra, former residents of Wawasee.

Flying to Honolulu, they had headquarters for ten days at the Princess Kaulani Hotel on Waikiki Beach. They joined all beach activities, toured the island by land and boat and after a tour of the islands of Kauai and Hawaii, returned to Honolulu for two more days, and were there during Proclamation Day celebration. They won a contest for tourists sponsored by the Waikiki Beach Press and received a year's subscription.

Returning on the SS Lurline they spent two days in San Francisco before flying to Chicago aboard a jet 707 Boeing.

Exchange Student Speaks At Rotary Club

Alec Skarma, an exchange student from Burma now enrolled at Manchester College, was guests speaker at Rotary Club Monday noon. Skarma who has been in the United States one year as a student gave his impressions of this country.

Rotary members said his remarks were not confined to the good things that impress him but were candid expressions of what he does not like as well. His observations provoked many questions from his audience.

Skarma came as the guest of Fred Hoopingarner.

A report on the purchase of the campsite south of Syracuse, for the use of Syracuse scouts showed the club has raised $1500 of the purchase price. Another $500 is needed soon to complete the negotiation and donations will be welcomed. An account is set up at the State Bank for the Rotary Scout Camp site Fund. Anyone wanting to contribute can make a deposit directly, at the bank, or use the coupon in this issue of the Journal to send donations.
