

EUB Churchmen In Session At Oakwood Park

Highlighting the 116th Annual Session of Indiana Conference North, Evangelical United Brethren Church, was the ground breaking ceremonies for the new multi-purpose building in which the 117th Annual Conference met June 6 to 9, 1961.

Dr. R. H. Mueller, Bishop of the West Central Area, of which Indiana Conference North is a past president, Superintendents Wilson S. Parks of South Bend, Marshall Chambers of Fort Wayne, and V. A. Carlson of Logansport, assisted in the ritual. The first spade-full of dirt was turned by Bishop Mueller, with each member of the building committee helping. These included Dr. parks, who is the general chairman; D. C. Kime of Plymouth; Paul Eppley, Syracuse; Merrill Geible, Warsaw; F. H. Willard, Elkhart; Paul Carmay, South Bend; H. J. Berger of Hammond; Garth Shepard, Kokomo; James Sutherland, Lafayette; Cecil Hendrix of South Bend; Elmer Zimmerman, Rochester; and Mrs. Karl Tauber of Frankfort.

The conference Male Chorus sang two special numbers, with the congregation joining in on the second, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Construction will start later this summer, when the regular programs of Oakwood Park will be completed. The old tabernacle, which has stood since near the beginning of the present century, will be razed, along with the former educational building to the south.

Included in the new building will be the auditorium, classrooms for laboratory schools and other special schools, and a new and adequate office and administration building. Mr. Alves O'Keefe, of Plymouth, is the architect.

Local Pastors Return

The conference closed Friday evening, with the assignment of fields to the pastors. Those of interest to this community are as follows: Rev. K. E. Robinson, Syracuse Calvary; Rev. John Schroeder, Solomon Creek and Burr Oak; Rev. Robert Lundy, New Paris; Rev. David Finley, Indian Village and Concord; Rev. Paul Garner, Island Chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mable and daughter, Sue Ellen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoover and daughter, Ellen Marie, and little Jeff Miller, spent Sunday at the Brookfield Zoo near Chicago.

Plan Commission Appoints Eight Members

Appointment of Einar Anderson to the Syracuse Town Plan Commission was announced by Harold B. Gray, president, at the regular meeting of the Commission Tuesday night at the fire station. Anderson fills the vacancy created by the resignation of John Weatherhead when he was transferred by his company to the Cleveland office.

J. Barton Cox was elected secretary for the balance of the year since Weatherhead also served in that capacity.

Eight members of the 12 man advisory committee were appointed. Bud Cripe and Dee Stiver will represent District No. 1; John Dennis and Mrs. Dorothy Lohman, No. 3; J. A. Rigidon, Sr. and James Kirkwood, No. 5; Dr. W. R. Shank and Harry VanHemert, No. 6. Districts No. 2 and 4 have not yet chosen their representatives.

Three members of the commission were appointed to a committee to direct enforcement of the zoning ordinance. These members are J. B. Cox, Roscoe Howard and K. K. McGarvey.

The SyracScene

1st Classman James Connolly of West Point Military Academy and classmate, Gary Flack, flew in from Fort Knox for the week end with his mother, Mrs. Joy Sims. The class is on a trip which stopped for five days at Fort Knox and went on to Fort Bliss, Texas this week.
