SISTERS UNITED

SOUTH BEND, Ind., March 31.
(UP)—Twin sisters, neither of whom knew the other existed until the age of 21, are the objects of study by Dr.
Horatio H. Newman, University of Chicago. Zoology professor. He considers the case one which will afford valuable evidence for study of the effect of environment on mentality.Eleanor Kelly, adopted at the age of 18 months by a South Bend family, was united with her sister, Geo-giana, adopted at Bay City, Mich., as result of a visit to St. Mary's academy here by a Felician nun who had been Georgiana's teacher.The nun noted the strong resemblance between the girls and investigated with the result that the relationship was established.WILL OBSERVE

SUCCEEDS FERRIS

LANSING, Mich., Mar. 31. (UP)— Arthur H. Vandenberg, Republican, editor of the Grand Rapids Herald, was appointed U. S. Senator today in succession to late Woodbridge N.
Ferris, Democrat. The appointment was made by Governor Fred W.
Green. Vandenberg had been expected to be a candidate for the seat in the fall election.GREENCASTLE POPULATION
ON INCREASECOMPILE STATISTICS THROUGH CO-OPERATION OF POSTAL OFFICIALS.

6,446 PERSONS IN CITY

This Total Number Compiled From The City Carrier Routes and Boxes Exclusive of Students.Greencastle has gained approximately 250 persons a year since the Boy Scouts census was taken in 1924 and approximately three hundred persons a year according to the Federal census which was taken in 1920.
These figures are based on statistics gathered through the co-operation of postal officials and other local statistics and authorities.Loyal Greencastle citizens will find much encouragement in the fact of the phenomenal growth of the city from authoritative evidence, from such a dependable and conservative source as the United States postal service. It is the duty of the post office officials to check up on all persons entering the city and becoming patrons of the office and all persons moving from the city. Each city carrier keeps a complete and accurate check on his route, having every family name and all persons living at the residences, on his books. As the postal service extends to every person in the city, the check on the population is as accurate as is possible to ascertain.The figures which were compiled Saturday showed that approximately 6,446 persons are served by the local office; this total number is exclusive of the seven rural routes, near Greencastle, and the students attending De-Pauw university. With the addition of the students to the total city population, the city resident inhabitants total slightly over 8,000 persons.Many residents of the city are not patrons of the office, in as much as they do not receive their mail, via the city carrier routes, but the majority of these persons receive their mail through lock boxes and the general delivery service. This total number has also been compiled and shows that 1,225 persons receive mail through the lock boxes and 230 persons are served through the general delivery service. This total number has been added to the carriers total, giving the above results.However, there are a number of persons living within the corporation limits, whose names are not listed with the postal department; this number can be conservatively estimated as being around fifty to seventy-five persons.The Boy Scout census in 1924 showed that approximately 5,000 persons lived in the city at that time. An increase of slightly over 1,000 persons is shown since this census was taken. In round numbers the federal census in 1920 showed that approximately 3800 persons lived in Greencastle.The next Federal census will be taken in 1930 and in two years the process of making the count will be started in the city. Not until that count is completed can it be known exactly what the population of Greencastle is, as the Federal census is taken as the standard population and is usually fairly accurate. It is believed, however, that the final results will show a creditably gain for the city.There have been times when it was thought that the population was doing no more than holding its own, but the local reports show otherwise.
Another inference can be drawn, in that since the Boy Scout census was taken in 1924, there has been a much larger gain in population in the past four years than in the four years previous to the Scout census and since the 1920 Federal census.Trade Booster Campaign OpensMORE THAN THIRTY MEMBERS OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
ARE TAKING PART.Saturday marked the opening day of the Greencastle Trade Boosters Campaign which will be staged during the month of April. More than thirty merchant members of the Chamber, are participating in the campaign which promises to be highly successful.Eight marriage licenses have been issued from the clerk's office in the Putnam County Court House, during the month of March.

AT MANILA ON MARCH
FIRST.Eugene Allen Gilmore '93 DePauw University was highly praised for his work while acting Governor-General of the Philippine Islands at a banquet in his honor upon his relinquishment of this position to Colonel Stimson, Mar. 1, 1928.The Manila Daily Bulletin of Feb.
16 said, "Advice on the Philippines from Eugene A. Gilmore is forthright of consideration. His council commands attention because of his knowledge of the subject and because of his sincerity and frank honesty in dealing with it.""We believe that the summation of his record in office lies in his having cleared the way to a more democratic and normal functioning of the government and for the better understanding between Americans and Filipinos," wrote the Tribune of Feb.
15.The Philippines Herald said, "All the speakers were loud in their praise of the guest of honor, and he deserves all such praises."Mr. Gilmore received his L. L. B. degree from Harvard in 1899. He practiced law in Boston 1899-1902 and then became professor in the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he became dean in 1912 to 1913.Republicans To

TOWNSHIP CHAIRMEN PRESENT

Floats Will Represent Each Township In County and City School Children Will Parade.America's Child Health Day will be celebrated in Greencastle on May 1, with a health parade of children in the city schools, and floats representing each township in the county, according to preliminary plans, which were formed Friday afternoon at the joint meeting of the nursing committee of the Putnam County Chapter of the Red Cross and the nursing committee and township chairmen of the Putnam County Tuberculosis Association.Not all of the township chairmen were present at the meeting, but nevertheless, it was decided to hold the parade and demonstration. All of the chairmen present were in favor of holding the parade and having an appropriate program for the day.According to present plans each township will have a float which will represent some part of a health program, showing the reasons for striving to attain better health standards.
The parade and program will be held in the afternoon on the court house lawn. Final plans for the complete program have not as yet been completed but the work will be finished as soon as possible.This May will be the fifth year that the festival has been celebrated over the country. Interest in Child Health Day is growing and interest is being fostered in the project here.

RARE REPTILE

VINCENNES, Ind., March 31. — A rare reptile 13 inches long, weighing a quarter of a pound, having four legs and of a greenish color was captured recently by Russell Murphy, in Duck Creek, west of the city.The water animal has been on display at a local drug store and has been viewed by several hundred persons, but none has been able to determine what kind of fish or water creature it is.The reptile is kept in a fish bowl and comes to the top of the water every 15 minutes for air. It's chief food so far has been fishing worms.
H. H. Evans, local attorney and prominent sportsman, was amazed at the fish, but he was unable to name it.ATLANTIC HOP

DUBLIN, Mar. 31. (UP)—As bad winds and rain continued across the Baldonnell flying field today the Junkers Airplane, Bremen, was wheeled back into its hangar and the start on a Trans-Atlantic flight postponed indefinitely.The field was sodden from recent rains and the three who will make the flight attempt—Baron Von Huenfeldt captain Hermann Koehl and Arthur Spindler—decided that an immediate take-off was impossible.40 INJURED IN storm which leveled wires and telegraph poles throughout Northern Ohio, was blamed today for the wrecking of the Liberty Limited, crack Pennsylvania passenger train, which crashed into the rear of the Broadway Limited four miles west of here last night, injuring 40 persons.

Sixteen of the injured were believed hurt seriously. They were brought to Lima Hospitals.Muddy Water Costs Same As The ClearGREENCASTLE PEOPLE COM-PELLED TO DRINK MUDDY WATER.The cost of muddy water in Greencastle during the past two days has been the same as that of clear water, because the Greencastle Water Company has not had clear water since the rainstorm of Thursday afternoon.
Since the storm, Big Walnut creek was flooded and the muddy waters poured into the wells from which the drinking supply of Greencastle is obtained and as a result, the mains carrying the city supply, were soon filled with the muddy variety.It is to be regretted that the Public Service Commission, which recently heard the request of the Water Company for higher rates, could not be here and see the present supply, whether or not the higher rates will be the means of Greencastle not getting a muddy supply, remains to be seen, but the supply of the past two days has been anything but good looking. Whether or not it is pure, is another question, but the looks of it is sufficient evidence to cause undesired criticism.BOAT SENDS

OF F. B. WILLIS
STUNS MIDWESTCANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENCY DIED FRIDAY NIGHT IN OHIO.

FELL IN SECRETARY'S ARMS

Senator Willis Was Just Preparing To Speak When He Became Ill.
Attended Banquet.DELEWARE, OHIO, Mar. 31.— Frank B. Willis, United States Senator from Ohio, and candidate for the Republican presidential candidacy, died suddenly here last night as a result of cerebral hemorrhage. He passed away in an ante-room of Gray's chapel, where approximately 2,500 persons had assembled to hear Delaware's son deliver a campaign address.He drew his last breath in an anteroom of the chapel of Ohio Wesleyan university. On the stage, unaware of his passing, the Buckeye glee club of Columbus was singing a campaign song, "Farwell."Senator Willis died at 9:09 p. m., when he fell into the arms of his secretary, Charles A. Jones, just as he entered the ante-room.Senator Willis was just preparing to speak when he became ill. As he left the stage with Mr. Jones, he remarked: "Jones, I never felt this way in my life. There is something awfully wrong."Then, as they entered the anteroom, Mr. Jones said the senator staggered, grasped desperately at the wall and slumped. The secretary caught him just before he reached the floor.
The senator called feebly for his wife, who was summoned quietly off the stage, only to enter the ante-room as her husband drew his last breath.
Secretary Jones returned to the stage and announced:
"Mr. Willis never will be with us any more. He is gone from us for all time."He asked that all persons leave the hall and allow only relatives to remain.The crowd which only a few minutes before had participated in the greatest political ovation Delaware ever had known had marched in a torch light parade, had carried red fire and had listened to a band, was stunned.A moment of silence, then pandemorum. People jumped from their seats and hurried from the hall. A few dumbfounded, could not move, and sat silently in their seats. Tears ran from the eyes of many of his old friends. It was half an hour before many could believe the news.Five physicians were called to attend the senator, Doctors Torrance S.
James, I. T. McCarty, Floyd V. Miller, A. R. Callender and W. C. Benner. They pronounced death due to cerebral hemorrhage.Earlier in the evening Senator Willis had complained of the gas from the torches used in the parade. He said it made him feel ill, Mr. Jones said.Mrs. Willis said the senator had been slightly ill Thursday and had spent a restless night.After a half hour in the room where Senator Willis, died, Mr. Willis left supported by Mr. Jones and her father, John Dustin. Her brothers, Edward, Nathan and Fred Dustin also accompanied her. She was so weak from the shock that she almost had to be carried from the room.Police and national guardsmen were called to the chapel to take the crowd in hand.EARTHQUAKE HITS SMYRNAEARLY DISPATCHES PLACE DEATH TOLL AT 25. MANY ARE INJURED.CONSTANTINOPLE, Mar. 31. — A quarter of Smyrna was damaged by an earthquake today which killed twenty-five persons and injured many others, wireless advices said.
Fifteen were reported seriously injured and fourteen others were being treated for injuries.Wireless reports said the quake occurred at 2 a. m., and lasted three seconds. Direct telegraphic communication was severed and it was pointed out that the death estimate was merely tentative, pending a further check-up. It was reported that the suburbs were badly damaged.The first Ford sedan to be delivered in Greencastle by the King, Morrison and Foster company, was delivered Friday to A. G. Brown.

TRAINING METHODS

Regular Semi-Weekly Sessions To Be Held For Remainder Of Semester.

Hampered by the recent rains and adverse weather conditions and realizing the need for more intensive practice sessions in football, Coach W. L. Hughes held a meeting of the squad this morning in an effort to formulate a more extensive spring training period.

Hughes recommended regular semi-weekly meetings of the team for the remainder of the school year for the purpose of gaining a thorough understanding of the rules and theories of the sport. Additional meetings for the candidates for each position on the team are also planned.

In suggesting these changes in the training system, Coach Hughes stated that his aim was to develop a team that was "football smart." He also said that Wabash and several other of the state schools were putting in two months more practice than DePauw, and that the Tigers have no license to beat Wabash in football unless they spend more time in practice.

Lack of backfield material is still handicapping the scrimmage sessions for only one backfield can be used in scrimmage. Line play has been stressed chiefly however and the different methods of blocking are being worked on.

JESUS THE SUFFERING MESSIAH

LESSON TEXT—Mark 8:27-28.
GOLDEN TEXT—Whoever will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus the Great Hero.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Heroism of Jesus.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Cost of Being Loyal to Christ.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Interprets His Messiahship.

I. Peter's Confession of Christ (vv. 27-30).

Two questions of Jesus provoked this confession. 1. "Who do men say that I am?" (vv. 27, 28). This question referred to the opinions of the people regarding Jesus. Some believed Him to be John, the Baptist, some Elijah, and some, one of the prophets. They all recognized Him to be a teacher or prophet with more than human authority and power. Jesus was not content with this acknowledgment. Had He been satisfied with this He would not have been molested in Jerusalem, for the Jews willingly acknowledged Him as much more than a human teacher. 2. "Who say ye that I am?" (vv. 29, 30). Jesus persistently claimed to be the God man, the very Son of God Incarnate. He wanted the personal opinion of the disciples concerning Himself.

II. Jesus' Teaching Concerning the Cross (vv. 31-33).

He charged the disciples not to make public His Messiahship as that would precipitate the crisis. The disciples had much need of instruction yet, to prepare them for the crucial hour of the cross.

1. What He taught (v. 31).

(1) "The Son of Man must suffer many things." He suffered physical weariness and hunger, ridicule and contempt and even misunderstanding.

(2) "Be rejected of the elders, chief priests and scribes." These were the nation's official representatives, the very ones who should have known and received Christ and recommended His reception on the part of the nation. Truly He came to His own and His own received Him not (John 1:11).

(3) "Be killed." This announcement was startling to the disciples. They had not yet come to realize that redemption was to be accomplished through the passion and the cross.

(4) "Rise again." Though this was utterly incomprehensible to the disciples, He showed them that this would be the glorious issue of His death.

2. How the disciples received His teaching (v. 32).

So unwelcome was His teaching touching the cross that Peter, the spokesman of the disciples, rebuked Him. Peter later saw through this darkness the light of glory on the hilltops beyond (I Pet. 1:3, 4).

3. Jesus rebukes Peter (v. 33). He told Peter plainly that his attitude was due to his being under the influence of the devil.

III. Jesus Going to Jerusalem to Die (Mark 10:32-34).

Jesus went to Jerusalem with the consciousness of the awful tragedy of the cross before Him; the treachery of Judas, the fiery persecutions of the priests, the unjust judgment, the delivery to Pontius Pilate, the mocking, the scourging, the crown of thorns, the cross between malefactors, the nails and the spear all were spread before Him. He moved on to His goal, not by external necessity but a fixed purpose. He had not only come "to minister but to give His life a ransom for many." The joyous outlook of the victory which was to be accomplished through the shedding of His blood led Him forward (Heb. 12:2).

IV. The Cost of Discipleship (Mark 8:34).

The law of the Christian life is suffering. To follow Christ means to turn one's back upon the world. To repudiate the world means to incur the hatred of the world; to be Christians means to share Christ's suffering.

1. There must be denial of self (v. 34). There is a wide difference between self-denial and denial of self. All people practice self-denial, but only Christians deny self.

2. The cross must be taken up (v. 34). This means the suffering and shame which lie in the pathway of loyalty to God. To live the godly life means suffering (II Tim. 3:12).

3. Christ must be followed (v. 34). This means to have the mind of Christ (Phil. 2:5) and to perform the service of Christ. The blessed issue of following Christ is a life of freedom here and now, and eternal life hereafter.

Must Cry Unto God

It is not enough for the soul to be in need; the soul must also cry unto God. Need alone is the beggar of despair, but need with crying is the birthplace of prayer. The very distresses of the soul is in the birththroes of such prayer.—James H. McConkey.

Sin Is No More

Whenever a man gets to the blood of Jesus Christ he is done with the sin question.—B. B. King.

Desire To Express Their Sincere Thanks And Appreciation
TO THE PUBLIC

We thank each and every person who has attended our Great Close-Out Sale. Your support and confidence made it the greatest merchandising movement ever attempted in Putnam County. This appreciation we have expressed in a most concrete way through the numberless extraordinary values we have offered throughout the sale.

TO OUR CO-WORKERS

We desire to publicly thank all of our co-workers for their loyalty and devotion to duty during the strenuous days of our Close-Out sale. The success of this event in a large measure is due to the unflinching and wholehearted co-operation of each single individual.

NEXT WEEK

Remaining Stocks To Be Sold At Retail Or In Bulk.

Our Sales Manager Mr. Paul T. Allen leaves Monday. Arrangements are under way to sell all remaining merchandise in bulk—however we are retaining the services of Miss Biddle, Miss Sublett, Mrs. Vestal and Miss Modlin who will remain with us until the complete liquidation of our business. The store will be open and these ladies will take care of all lay-away sales, assist in inventory and gladly sell any items in their departments at the same low prices that have prevailed during the closing days of our Quitting Business Sale. Miss Phillips will remain in charge of the office and will receive payments on all outstanding accounts.

MEMORIAL DAY RACE

INDIANAPOLIS, March 31. (UP) —With 60 days more to go, more than 30,000 reserved seat tickets for the Memorial Day 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway have been sold, according to Miss Eloise Dallenback who has charge of the advance sales at the Speedway office here.

From all indications, the largest crowd ever to see the automobile classic which draws speed fans from all parts of the world, will throng the city this Memorial Day. Miss Dallenback believes, Miss Dallenback has been in charge of the advance sales for the majority of the 15 500-mile races to date.

Last year Speedway officials estimated the race throng at 150,000 but the crowd was cut down by bad weather the preceding day.

This year the Speedway officials are preparing for a 160,000 crowd.
