HUGHES CHANGES SPRING FOOTBALL TRAINING METHODS

Regular Semi-Weekly Sessions To Be Held For Remainder Of Semester.

Hampered by the recent rains and adverse weather conditions and realizing the need for more intensive practice sessions in football, Coach W. L. Hughes held a meeting of the squad this morning in an effort to formulate a more extensive spring training period.

Hughes recommended regular semi-weekly meetings of the team for the remainder of the school year for the purpose of gaining a thorough understanding of the rules and theories of the sport. Additional meetings for the candidates for each position on the team are also planned.

In suggesting these changes in the training system, Coach Hughes stated that his aim was to develop a team that was "football smart." He also said that Wabash and several other of the state schools were putting in two months more practice than DePauw, and that the Tigers have no license to beat Wabash in football unless they spend more time in practice.

Lack of backfield material is still handicapping the scrimmage sessions for only one backfield can be used in scrimmage. Line play has been stressed chiefly however and the different methods of blocking are being worked on.

HAD IMPROPER LICENSE

Lesson for April 1

JESUS THE SUFFERING MESSIAH

LESSON TEXT—Mark 8:27-28.
GOLDEN TEXT—Whoever will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus the Great Hero.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Heroism of Jesus.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Cost of Being Loyal to Christ.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Interprets His Messiahship.

I. Peter's Confession of Christ (vv. 27-30).

Two questions of Jesus provoked this confession. 1. "Who do men say that I am?" (vv. 27, 28). This question referred to the opinions of the people regarding Jesus. Some believed Him to be John, the Baptist, some Elijah, and some, one of the prophets. They all recognized Him to be a teacher or prophet with more than human authority and power. Jesus was not content with this acknowledgment. Had He been satisfied with this He would not have been molested in Jerusalem, for the Jews willingly acknowledged Him as much more than a human teacher. 2. "Who say ye that I am?" (vv. 29, 30). Jesus persistently claimed to be the God man, the very Son of God Incarnate. He wanted the personal opinion of the disciples concerning Himself.

II. Jesus' Teaching Concerning the Cross (vv. 31-33).

He charged the disciples not to make public His Messiahship as that would precipitate the crisis. The disciples had much need of instruction yet, to prepare them for the crucial hour of the cross.

1. What He taught (v. 31).

(1) "The Son of Man must suffer many things." He suffered physical weariness and hunger, ridicule and contempt and even misunderstanding.

(2) "Be rejected of the elders, chief priests and scribes." These were the nation's official representatives, the very ones who should have known and received Christ and recommended His reception on the part of the nation. Truly He came to His own and His own received Him not (John 1:11).

(3) "Be killed." This announcement was startling to the disciples. They had not yet come to realize that redemption was to be accomplished through the passion and the cross.

(4) "Rise again." Though this was utterly incomprehensible to the disciples, He showed them that this would be the glorious issue of His death.

2. How the disciples received His teaching (v. 32).

So unwelcome was His teaching touching the cross that Peter, the spokesman of the disciples, rebuked Him. Peter later saw through this darkness the light of glory on the hilltops beyond (I Pet. 1:3, 4).

3. Jesus rebukes Peter (v. 33). He told Peter plainly that his attitude was due to his being under the influence of the devil.

III. Jesus Going to Jerusalem to Die (Mark 10:32-34).

Jesus went to Jerusalem with the consciousness of the awful tragedy of the cross before Him; the treachery of Judas, the fiery persecutions of the priests, the unjust judgment, the delivery to Pontius Pilate, the mocking, the scourging, the crown of thorns, the cross between malefactors, the nails and the spear all were spread before Him. He moved on to His goal, not by external necessity but a fixed purpose. He had not only come "to minister but to give His life a ransom for many." The joyous outlook of the victory which was to be accomplished through the shedding of His blood led Him forward (Heb. 12:2).

IV. The Cost of Discipleship (Mark 8:34).

The law of the Christian life is suffering. To follow Christ means to turn one's back upon the world. To repudiate the world means to incur the hatred of the world; to be Christians means to share Christ's suffering.

1. There must be denial of self (v. 34). There is a wide difference between self-denial and denial of self. All people practice self-denial, but only Christians deny self.

2. The cross must be taken up (v. 34). This means the suffering and shame which lie in the pathway of loyalty to God. To live the godly life means suffering (II Tim. 3:12).

3. Christ must be followed (v. 34). This means to have the mind of Christ (Phil. 2:5) and to perform the service of Christ. The blessed issue of following Christ is a life of freedom here and now, and eternal life hereafter.

Must Cry Unto God

It is not enough for the soul to be in need; the soul must also cry unto God. Need alone is the beggar of despair, but need with crying is the birthplace of prayer. The very distresses of the soul is in the birththroes of such prayer.—James H. McConkey.

Sin Is No More

Whenever a man gets to the blood of Jesus Christ he is done with the sin question.—B. B. King.

MEET PURDUE MONDAY

Although bad weather has cut short this week, Greencastle's baseball team will face at Lafayette Monday night their conference opponents. Purdue's entry in the conference diamond race appears a strong aggregation, with a proving array of veterans. The nucleus for the team, Warlar catcher, has been lost by his entry into professional ranks. Two veterans, Eickmann and a sophomore, Kugler, are competitors for the position. The place of Red Smith, baseman lost to the squad, is contested by Sindelar, Lyle and Snodgrass, all of whom are strong contenders. Kennedy and grass have been working at stop, Lyle and Wilcox at first base and Cheswick at third. These men have seen action in the Boiler-maker nine, and will be of competition for the Old Guard day.
