

VANDALS AT HIGH SCHOOL DURING NIGHT

PROWLERS BREAK
PARTITIONS IN CLASS
ROOM DOORS.

BEING CONDUCTED

Prints and Other Clews Obtained By Authorities Early Thursday Morning.

Unlawful acts of vandalism took place at the high school building on Wednesday night and as a result, the city parties if apprehended will be able to prosecution.

The high school building was entered some time during the night. The door to the outer office of Principal Jones was forced open and several class rooms in the basement were entered by means of breaking glass in the doors. School officials stated Thursday morning that apparently nothing had been taken, the damage done to the glass partitions in the doors and the manner in which it was done makes the question a serious matter.

The guilty party or parties, no doubt, committed this vandalism as a Halloween joke not realizing the consequences that can grow out of such a party.

Thursday morning the students returned on the lawn of the school building until finger prints and other clews had been secured by the police and school officials. Prof. Jones stated at 10 a. m. indicated the identity of the culprits would be known.

Warren J. Young reported the glass in the door to his office shattered by the vandals and that the door to Prof. Jones' office was off the hinges. It is evident that the right visitors had keys that opened a number of the doors as practically every room was entered.

When the vandals came to a door their keys would not unlock them the glass and unlocked it from inside.

SMITH'S LEAD AT DPU

The 'Browns' and 'Joneses' dynamite are the 'Smiths' just interested in DePauw, one would ask reading through the list of names of the students in the 1928-29 year; for there are 17 'Smiths'.
There are only six 'Joneses'.
The 'Browns', 'Miller' is the most prevalent name, there between who have it as their last name.
Students answer to 'White', 'Williams', eight to 'Davis', seven to 'Hughes', Johnson, Brown, Cooper, Lee, Harris anderson, each claim six students.
Black, Fisher, McCullough, Mc-Roberts, and Ward each have thus named.

It is interesting to note that there are DePauw this year a young man named 'DePauw' and a girl named 'DePauw'.

Frederick Hettmansperger student who has the longest name, but Deborah Hoopengardner and Lucille Branderberger, and Rothberger have almost as long surnames. The foreign students are Pingo Ku and Margaret Hu the shortest family names.

There are a number of students in the list who have occupational surnames. There is a Taylor, a Bowman, a Wright, a Boatright, a Carpenter, a Miller.

And also a Farmer, a Taylor, a Shepherd, and a Shoemaker.
There is the Porter, the Page, the Glover, and the Shaver.
The Swindler could apply in any occupation. And, between the Severs, there is the Butler, a Baker, but, unfortunately, no black maker.

It is by far the most popular name in this institution.
The 73. Forty-three are named: 31, 'Dorothy'; 27, 'Margaret'; 15, 'Frances';
The young men there are 44
'John'; 42, 'Robert'; 39,
'Ed'; 35, 'Williams'; 35, 'Charles'; in the list is 'George' with 21, 'Don' or 'Donald', 'Dollery', and 'Howard', each names are always interesting subjects of conjecture how they ever came to be used.

Samples from the student directory would no doubt list: Takeshi Farsell Kising Ellis, Eudolph Zoe Ohmart, Merlin Shell-legar Bowne Eckardt, Dollery, and Catherine Abigail

SUIT ON NOTE
F. S. Hamilton, through his attorney, C. R. Dickerson, has filed suit in Putnam Circuit court against Chad, for the collection of a note due and unpaid.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE
ALEXANDRIA, Ind., Nov. 1 (UP)— Lieut. Herbert S. Oberling, Indianapolis, National Guard Aviator, had a narrow escape from death when the airplane he was flying from Indianapolis to Detroit, crashed to the ground from 400 feet near here. He was but slightly injured, according to doctors who attended him immediately after the crash.

JAMES AKINS DIES
James Akins, a well known resident of Cloverdale, who died Tuesday was buried Thursday afternoon. He had been sick for some time.

He is survived by the widow and eight children, three boys and 5 girls, and several grandchildren.

A HOOVER SIGN

Another indication of Herbert Hoover's election next Tuesday has come to light from Democratic sources.
Elmer Blue, county road superintendent is a lover of dogs. He hunts considerable and has a hound dog which he has had in the country. The dog evidently liked to be at home better, so decided to leave his country home for that of the city. One day this week Mrs. Blue heard a scratching at the front door and on going there was confronted with a large 'Hoover' sign, and it was held in the dog's mouth. Mrs. Blue was considerably embarrassed, and did not tell Mr.
Blue, until he heard it from some of his neighbors. Now he is debating as to whether or not to vote for Hoover, at the request of his faithful dog.

Smith In Speech At Newark, N.J.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE PROM-ISES LABOR FULL DINNER PAID, ETC.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 1. (UP)— Blasting out the first of his last three salvos in his whirlwind battle of the Atlantic seaboard, Governor Alfred E. Smith promised labor a full dinner pail, increased prosperity and protection in an address delivered before 12,000 people in the Sussex avenue armory last night.

His appeal to labor was made in the heart of the largest industrial center of New Jersey, ordinarily a Republican state.

Smith promised to end the abuse of the power of injunction in labor disputes and said he would maintain the protective tariff. He renewed his assertion of allegiance to the McNary Haugen farm relief plan and proposed the enactment of measures to prevent unemployment.

The Democratic nominee's arrival was a triumphant one and he was generously applauded in the packed armory. As he progressed in his speech, however, the crowd lost some of its enthusiasm when it was admonished for booing Charles Evans Hughes.

Taking up Hughes' challenge on the water power question, Smith said he was for public ownership, construction and operation of power houses on public sites but not of power transmission lines.

D'PAUW TEAM DEPARTS FOR ARMY BATTLE

TIGERS PLAY AT WEST POINT ACADEMY ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

30 MEN MAKE EASTERN TRIP

Old Gold To Engage In First Intersectional Game In History. Alumni To Witness Contest.

This afternoon at 5:29 o'clock, twenty-five members of the DePauw varsity football squad, coaches W. L.
Hughes, Gene Oberst, L. C. Buchheit, Manager Gough, and Trainer Ganey, were to depart in a special car over the Big Four railroad for West Point, N. Y., where the Tigers will engage in the first intersectional clash in history of the school on Saturday against the powerful Army eleven.

The players making the trip as announced by Hughes are: Capt. Firebaugh, Niergarth, Drake and Huffman, tackles; Ragdale, Johnson, Loveless and Kappes, ends; Bray, Beem, Stackhouse and Struck, guards; Howell and Burton, centers; Gunn, Means and VanRiper, quarter backs; Brandenburg, Cassidy and Melbourne, left half backs; Spina, Crawley, and Hogan, right half backs; Scott and Blake, full backs; Coaches Hughes, Oberst and Buchheit; Manager Gough and Trainer Ganey.

A monster pep session was scheduled this afternoon at 4:45 at the Bowman gymnasium in which the university band, the student body and townspeople were to take part. Another big demonstration is planned at the Big Four depot to give the Old Gold grid warriors a rousing send-off on their invasion of the cadet stronghold.

"Bish" Hughes, the Methodist mentor, is not conceding anything to the West Pointers although the DePauw squad is by heavy odds the underdog in the game this week-end. The Tigers go to the military academy determined to fight from the first to the final whistle. If they are defeated, they will go down with colors flying, a game foe to the last.

DePauw will uncoil a mixed attack against the cadets, consisting of trick formations, straight football and what is hoped to be a baffling aerial offensive.

Many alumni and former DePauw students who are located in New York state have made plans to attend the game, according to word from the West Point officials. The Tiger fans will have a reserved section on the right side of the new Army stadium. Many members of the DePauw alumni association in New York City are going to the game in a body.

Thursday morning at 11:00 o'clock a "pep" chapel was held in Mehary hall to start the send-off program for the Tigers. Members of the team who were chosen to make the trip were called up on the platform and cheers were given for them and the team. Several speeches were given and through them and the cheering a great deal of "pep" was displayed.

SOMEBODY FAILED

The fact that the voting places next Tuesday have not been designated has caused more or less confusion in the city, because many of the voting places have been changed because of the change of precinct boundary lines.

The law provides that the county commissioners at their June meeting shall fix the precinct boundaries and not later than 30 days before the election, shall, through the auditor, publish a list of the voting places.
This action, evidently was not taken, because W. E. Gill, county auditor, has reported he did not know where the voters will cast their ballots.

Sheriff Littlejohn and O. G. Webb, Democratic county chairman, were working on the same today and expected to have a list of them ready for publication.

ROACHDALE BOY HONORED

Jesse Fay Anderson of this place, who received his A. B. degree from DePauw University, was awarded a Master's degree from Indiana University last week. Mr. Anderson is an instructor of English in the J.
Sterling Morton high school at Cicero, Illinois, where he has been employed the past two years.

ODDS ARE OFFERED

Down at Bloomington a Hoover supporter has made it known through publication that a $500 bet has been posted that Herbert Hoover will not only be elected president of the United States next Tuesday, but that he will carry the state of Indiana by more than 100,000 votes. Wednesday the bet had not been covered.

The Army Game

A running account of the DePauw-Army game Saturday afternoon will be received at the Daily Banner office, and all students and townspeople who are interested in this contest are invited to read the window bulletins as information is obtained by this newspaper.

The Banner will receive a telephone call at the end of each quarter with complete details of the plays of the four periods. The game, it is understood, will start at 2 o'clock Eastern Standard Time (1 o'clock Greencastle time) and first reports on the battle should be received by the Banner before 1:30 p. m. Saturday.

If you are down town stop at the office or telephone 95 for results.

Complete scores of all state and conference tilts will be posted in the windows at 5 p. m. Saturday.

KIWANIS CLUB MET AT NOON

DURHAM EXPLAINS VOTING
QUALIFICATIONS AND GIVES PRECINCT BOUNDARIES.

Members of the Kiwanis club, at the regular weekly luncheon of the organization Thursday noon in the First Baptist church, were informed by Andrew E. Durham regarding the precinct boundary lines, places where to vote, and who is qualified to cast a ballot in the presidential election next Tuesday.

Mr. Durham showed the precinct boundaries by the aid of a large city map. Voting places in the city according to Mr. Durham are as follows: First Ward, Frank Wells home on Liberty street; North Second, old gymnasium at high school building; South Second, Bruce Shannon's repair shop on east Anderson; Northwood, Alonzo Cook residence, corner of Franklin and College Avenue; West Third, Emma Wood's home, 918 south Indiana; East Third, George Thomas home on Howard street, and Fourth Ward, assembly room at court house.

Sample state and national and county ballots were distributed. Mr.
Durham in conclusion stated that any American citizen who had lived in the state for six months, in the township for sixty days or in the city for thirty days was qualified to vote.

During the business session of the club, a nominating committee for officers for the coming year was named by Dr. C. Howard Taylor, president.
The committee is composed of Ralph Hufferd, Harry Williams and J. E.
McCurry.

The question of a club bowling team was also brought up when Donovan Moffett stated that the bowling alleys at DePauw gymnasium would be open each Wednesday night for the business men of the city. A committee was appointed to consider this matter and to make a report at the meeting next week.

CROWD CHEERS DIRIGIBLE ON ITS ARRIVAL

GRAF ZEPPELIN COMPLETES RE-TURN TRIP FROM NEW YORK TO GERMANY.

ESTABLISHES AIR RECORD

Sleepy But Happy Throng Stages Big Demonstration When Huge Blimp Reaches Home Hangar.

BERLIN, Nov. 1. (UP)—Clarence Terhune, youthful American stowaway on the Graf Zeppelin, was granted permission by the government today to remain in Germany temporarily.

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Nov. 1.
(UP)—Germany's greatest air liner came back to the Fatherland today after an epochal cruise that took it over two continents and an ocean.

The Graf Zeppelin settled to the ground here at 7:05 a. m. (1:05 a. m.
Eastern Time) and was greeted by a throng of sleepy-eyed Germans who had waited all night at the hangar to welcome Dr. Hugo Eckener and his triumphant crew.

The trip from Lakehurst, N. J., took 71 hours and 11 minutes. All records for fast trans-Atlantic crossing were broken and the best steamer time exceeded. It was the first round trip flight over the Atlantic by an airship carrying passengers and mail.

It was a good-natured crowd that tumbled out at 4:30 a. m. when the Graf Zeppelin was reported sighted.
Those who were unable to get beds had slept on the ground. Shouts went up as the whirring of the Zeppein's motors were heard.

It was a long wait ahead of the crowd, for Eckener decided to cruise above Lake Constance until the ground fog lifted and dawn gave him a better chance to bring the airship down safely. Off the Zeppelin headed, gliding easily above the lake. Occasionally the long shape of the ship would be mirrored in the water as a patch of moonlight illuminated the scene.

Hilarious shouts floated up to the airship. Chairs were at a premium as the crowd waited.

Airplanes of the Lufthansa Company went aloft in a formal salute to the airship that was at the end of a 10,000-mile tour.

Apparently the crowd had come from all parts of Germany, for many dialects were heard the constant roar of voices. Cannons boomed out in honor of the Zeppelin and the noise of the greeting was carried over most of Europe by a hook-up of thirty-four radio stations.

Now it was dawn and out of the clear sky came the dirigible sailing low over Friedrichshafen, its passengers and crew waving from the cabin windows. Spectators grew wildly enthusiastic, and occasionally one of them would run to the microphone and shout a greeting to friends or relatives listening in somewhere in Germany.

Shortly after 5 a. m. a ground mist began to form. Officials at the field announced that the Graf Zeppelin probably would not attempt a landing until 7 o'clock. The spectator brought out flasks of coffee, beer and sausage and sat down for breakfast.

Approximately 5,000 persons were at the airport at 5:30 a. m. The order went out to the ground crew to prepare for a landing. Police strung ropes around the field to hold back the crowd and 150 troops were ordered from a nearby garrison to help maintain order.

Forty minutes later the dirigible reappeared over Friedrichshafen, but it became apparent that Eckener was not going to attempt a landing immediately. Lacking advice from the commander, officials at the field could only surmise what Eckener intended to do.

Then Eckener began a series of maneuvers. Thrice he approached the field, came low and then headed away again, unwilling to risk a landing in the mist. The lack of wind was a handicap for the Graf Zeppelin settles to earth easier when bucking a breeze.

At 6:51 o'clock, Eckener again piloted the ship toward the hangar. This time he meant business, and immediately began jockeying for a landing position. The ground crew of 200 drew closer, airport officials placed the red and white landing signals on the field.

Despite its intense excitement, the crowd began shouting for beer and salt herring. Just then, Eckener found his ship in the position for which he had been fighting for hours.
The motors were throttled down and the nose of the Graf Zeppelin settled to earth as the ground crew grabbed at its lines. The cabin of the ship came down easily and the ground crew started the dirigible into the hangar along rails that had been laid for that purpose.

Hundreds of spectators jogged along beside the Graf Zeppelin, tossing flowers at the crew. In the center of the wild confusion a valiant band held its place and alternately played "Deutschland Uber Alles" and
"The Star Spangled Banner."

"Hoch, Hoch!" shouted the crowd as the Zeppelin was pushed into the hangar.

At 7:40 a. m. the passengers descended from the cabin, followed by Clarence Terhune, the youthful American stowaway. A loud burst of cheering greeted the members of the crew when they marched out, faces beaming. Most passengers and members of the crew carried small parcels, apparently souvenirs.

American Consul John E. Kehl made a brief speech in which he said the flight was an epochal event, heralding the establishment of better relations between the United States and Germany.

As cameras clicked and the wives of the crew embraced their husbands, Eckener lingered in the cabin, making sure that all was in order. Mrs.
Eckener entered the cabin and greeted her husband.

Mrs. Eckener was followed into the cabin by a group of German officials and dignitaries, who greeted the passenger and congratulated Eckener.
Passport officials expedited the inspection of baggage.

TOM H. ADAMS SPEAKS HERE THIS EVENING

FIGHTING VINCENNES EDITOR SUPPORTING LESLIE FOR GOVERNORSHIP.

The Indiana Republican state campaign, so far as Putnam county is concerned, will close tonight when Thomas H. Adams of Vincennes, will speak in behalf of the entire Republican ticket.

It will be the only appearance of Mr. Adams in this community and a good crowd is urged to come out and hear what he has to say relative to the 1928 issues, which have been foremost in the minds of voters since the primary election last spring.

Hoover Leaves For California

G. O. P. NOMINEE TO MAKE IM-PORTANT SPEECH AT ST.
LOUIS FRIDAY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1. (UP)— Herbert Hoover today will leave the national capital, the base of his unusual campaign for the presidency on a transcontinental journey to his California home to vote.

It would be a costly vote, but he goes on another mission, to garner other votes on his way west by public appearances before thousands of voters and four speeches in which he is expected to re-state, in general, his position upon the issues of the election.

He will deliver the first of these final campaign messages tonight, standing beneath the sputtering flare-reolent of political campaigns in the little town of Cumberland in western Maryland, a Republican strong hold in this state generally conceded as "doubtful."

Hoover leaves here confident he will return some weeks hence as president-elect of the United States.
He expressed his confidence again, for the second time in his campaign, in his final newspaper conference here.

"We shall win this election without my question of a doubt if the people who believe with us go to the polls," Hoover said.

The high point of his western trip will be his appeal for farm support in his St. Louis address tomorrow night over a national radio hook-up. Hoover has indicated the importance he attaches to this address, the final major speech of his campaign, by the care with which he has prepared it.

The two other speeches on the way west will be those at Louisville tomorrow morning, which he will deliver from the court house steps after an hour's parade through the city, and at Pueblo, Colorado, the home of chairman Work of the Republican national committee, Saturday night over a radio hookup that will carry it to the neighboring Rocky mountain states.

Hoover was to call at the White House today to bid goodbye to President Coolidge, and at Republican national headquarters to thank those who have worked for his election.

It was indicated earlier in the campaign that President Coolidge might make a speech for Hoover.

DISPOSE OF MONTGOMERY COURT CASE

FAMOUS KIDNAPING INCIDENT AT LAST SETTLED AT EVANSVILLE.

PUTNAM GIRL INVOLVED

Case Was Dragged Through Indiana Courts For Many Years Since 1912. Finally Settled.

Putnam county people will be interested in hearing the famous Montgomery case has been settled at Evansville. Years ago Ethel Nelson eloped and married Wilbur Montgomery. At that time the bride was living north of the city. It was said she climbed from a second story window to run away and marry Montgomery. Later they had trouble and for many years their affairs have been in the courts of southern Indiana. The husband was charged with kidnapping the daughter and carrying her off to Mexico, but finally she was returned and was with her grand-parents and later with the mother.

Briefly, the case runs as follows: 1912—Ethel Montgomery granted divorce from Wilbur Montgomery in Posey circuit court, and custody of child, Eloise, 11.

Eloise is kidnapped. Later Wilbur is captured, convicted and imprisoned.
But the mother fails to regain child.
1922—Mrs. Montgomery, now Mrs.
E. L. Crum, awarded child by a habeas corpus decree handed down by Judge Robert C. Baltzell in Gibson circuit court, after sensational trial.

Eloise leaves her mother at Indianapolis and returns to grandparents, John T. and Paulina Montgomery, father, Wilbur, and aunt, Estella Montgomery, in Florida.

Mother filed alienation of affections suit.
1923—Vanderburg probate jury finds for Mrs. Crum in sum of $25,000.

Defendant Montgomery appeals.
1928—Indiana supreme court reverses case on error, orders new trial.
Settlement reached yesterday satisfactory to both parties.

E. L. Crum is a prosperous manufacturer in Indianapolis, Eloise, now married, lives in Indianapolis.

The Montgomerys were once a wealthy family of Posey county. Their farm property of over 400 acres when the long litigation began was worth nearly $100,000. Attorneys in conference yesterday said the estate was now worth but a fraction of its former value and heavily mortgaged.
Terms of the settlement were not made public. Costs were paid by the plaintiff.

Insull Merger Will Be Studied By Expert Staff

TERRE HAUTE, INDIANAPOLIS & EASTERN TRACTION INVOLV-ED IN DEAL.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 1. (UP)— At the request of Harvey Harmon, Commissioner in charge of hearings of the proposed $70,000,000 Insull merger, four engineers and four accountants will be employed to study properties involved.

The eight special workers will be employed for such time as is necessary to complete audits and appraisals of the properties involved in the merger. Harmon said the preliminary work would take about three months.

The merger would include the properties of the Central Indiana Power Company, Terre Haute, Indianapolis, & Eastern Traction Company, the Terre Haute Traction and Light Company and several other large utilities.

The number of employees of the commission is not large enough at present to take up the details of the proposed merger and at the same up time keep up with other commission business, which must be kept up to date, Harmon said. He intimated that further steps in the merger would not be taken until the preliminary work was out of the way.

Do you enjoy your food?

If you do not enjoy your food it is a true sign that you are losing your appetite. And when your appetite is "gone" it means you haven't the resistance to ward off disease. Loss of appetite is only a symptom. General weakness pervades the entire body. There is no desire to work or play.

Rich, red, blood builds and sustains

Your physician will tell you that lowered vitality is the result of an insufficient supply of red blood cells—those vitalizing elements in the blood that build and sustain the body.

Without plenty of rich, red blood, there can be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or beautiful, healthy women.

When you get your blood cells back up to normal, that sluggish, let-down feeling, loss of appetite, rheumatism, boils, pimples, and skin troubles disappear. You get hungry again; sleep soundly; solid flesh takes the place of that which was once flabby. You feel strong; and your nerves become steady.

On October 15th, Mr. Hoover said:

"The Government of the United States does not lie in the hands of the President. "Happy And Well; Sing As I Work"; Proises Konjola Serious Stomach Affliction Following Surgical Operation Quickly Yields To New Medicine.

MRS. RAY MELTON

Day by day, swells the mighty chorus of praise for Konjola, the new medicine, for its marvelous achievements. And no wonder, when reports like this pour in, telling of new victories over disease. Says Mrs. Ray Melton, 428 Adams street, Gary, Indiana:—

"Following one major operation and two minor ones, and after spending many weeks in hospitals, I suffered terribly from stomach trouble. I became exceedingly nervous. The children irritated me, and I was cross. I knew this was not right, nor normal, but I could not help it. Nervous headaches and constipation added to my sufferings. I tried simply everything recommended, but constantly became worse every way. I was led to try Konjola by reading of the wonderful work it was doing here in Gary. But I had no ideas of how soon I was to be restored to health. Konjola worked quickly—almost like magic—and today I am happy, strong and well. The children were quick to see the sudden change in me, and now our home is one of glorious health and happiness. What a medicine Konjola is; what a debt I owe to those whose recommendations led me to give it the chance to make me well."

Konjola is sold in Greencastle, Ind., at the Owl drug store, and by all the best druggists in this vicinity.
